COMMENTS ON THE GAME AND PLAYERS

Brighton and Hove Albion find us in a little bit of trouble, for it was not known until yesterday what players would be fit, and even now one or two who turn out may feel the effects of injuries. Richards, Galloway and Woods are still on the casualty list, and that is a pretty stiff dose with the season only a week old. We believe our supporters will be pleased with the signing of James Banks, and as he has kept fit in readiness for a game, he is thus able to step into the first eleven at once, owing to the incapacitation of Woods. Panther remains at centre-forward, and in the defence Graham resumes his old partnership with Till. The inclusion of Davies at outside left affords opportunity to experiment with Dennis at centre-forward in the second eleven, and Numm re-appears on the extreme left in the team we have sent to Brighton. The whole of the players declared fit, therefore, are wearing jerseys to-day.

Brighton had a comfortable run in their opening game, when they defeated Brentford by 5-2 at Hove, and our old player, Norman Thomson, had the pleasure of scoring one of the goals, and he also got the only goal for them at Newport on Thursday, when they suffered defeat by 3-1.

We have yet to record a win, and while we recognise that the Albion have a very good side, we are hoping to make a start to-day. In addition to Norman Thomson, the Albion include another old favourite with Luton followers in Reg. Williams, the old Watford goalkeeper, who captained the Albion in his first season with them. Thomson and Simpson are the only new players in the Albions's side.

The following particulars of the Albion players will be of interest:—

Name	Birthplace	Height ft. in.	Weight st. lb.
R. Williams, Watford ...		5 8	12 0
R. Smith, Rotherham ...		5 9	11 8
J. J. Curran, Lurgan ...		5 8½	11 8
R. Wilkinson, Norwich...		5 8	10 9
P. Mooney, Morningside		5 11	12 3
W. Little, Southall .....		5 8½	11 4
T. Simpson, Dundee .....		5 7	10 8
N. Thomson, Glasgow ...		5 8½	11 0
S. Jennings, Cinderhill		5 11	11 9
J. Hopkins, Belfast .....		5 7	10 4
E. Wilson, Beighton .....		5 6½	11 0

ENTERTAINMENTS

WELLINGTON.

"DOUBLING WITH DANGER."

Dick Talmadge as a 'tec in disguise! Can you imagine it? He will make you roar with laughter in his latest entertainer, "Doubling with Danger," showing to-night. There is not a dull moment in this story of plots and plans and mysterious figures in the dark, and Dick excels in a role that calls for talents many and varied. The most thrilling of thrillers, with fun in every foot, Dick plays a double part, and makes one marvel more than ever at his versatility.

"THE HOUSE OF MARNEY."

West Mersea, the locale of "The House of Marney," which comes on Monday, is only two hours' journey from the Hub of the World, but one hundred years behind the times. Situated on an island off the Essex coast, it is famous for its wonderful Whitstable oysters, the smell of its limpet beds, and as the centre of John Goodwin's rousing yachting yarn, "The House of Marney," founded on actual associations of the island.

IN LUTON

GORDON STREET.

"GOLDEN YOUTH."

An unusually fine cast supports Richard Barthelmess in "Golden Youth," the inspiration picture booked to-night. Barthelmess plays the Prince, and Lois Moran is the girl who captures his heart.

"MDLLE. MODISTE."

An unusually picturesque fashion show furnishes one of the most colourful episodes in the film version of "Mlle. Modiste," Corinne Griffith's latest First National starring picture, coming on Monday. The revue is called "The Storm." By means of gowns and frocks specially designed for the picture, the various elements in an April shower are symbolised. Thus the sun is represented by a mannequin attired in a gown of bright pattern, while the clouds are represented by models in gowns of sober colouration.

EMPIRE.

"THE PRINCE OF PILSEN."

Anita Stewart, after a prolonged absence, returns triumphantly to the screen in "The Prince of Pilsen," the film version of the famous American stage comedy, which is the attractive fare at the Empire next week. As the daughter of Hans Wagner, a brewer on a trip to his old home in the European kingdom of Pilsen, she is as charming as ever. George Sidney, in the part of the brewer who is mistaken for the Prince of Pilsen, and received with all the pomp of visiting royalty, is a positive scream.

PICTUREDROME.

"THE RAMBLING RANGER."

Showing to-night, "The Rambling Ranger" is one of the best Western pictures produced in several years. The story concerns the adventures of a lovable cowboy and a baby, and is full of heart interest and appeal. The scenes between the hero, portrayed by Jack Hoxie, who is starred, and his sweetheart, pretty Dorothy Gulliver, touch the heart-strings of all lovers.

"KID BOOTS."

This Paramount version of the stage play which enjoyed a tremendous West End success some little time back, comes on Monday. Eddie Cantor, ace of American musical comedy comedians, makes his cinema debut in it, and with him are Clara Bow and a talented group of actors.
