COMMENTS ON THE GAME AND PLAYERS

We will repeat for the larger crowd the statement made in the match card on Wednesday.

Precedence over all else must be given to our latest and best capture—John McCartney, our Manager. Probably every individual who reads these notes already knows that we have decided upon a most important step. We doubt if there has ever been an engagement that will meet with such unanimous approval as this, and we hope our supporters will regard this as a very real attempt on the part of the Board of Directors to make their Club equal to any in the country. If will and effort could have done well, it would have been done long ago, but money counts for so much in these days, and Luton Town have had to contend against money and brains. What ever may be the view of our supporters about the work of the past, they will agree that in Mr. McCartney we have secured one of the finest judges of a player that could be obtained either for love or money. We are pleased to feel that it is not money alone that has brought him here. Over 30 years ago he got an affection for Luton, and has never lost it, and we are absolutely convinced that he will find that those who knew him in his playing days have not forgotten him, and their children who have grown up have learned over and over again of the deeds of derring do for which he is famous.

We want to make it clear at once that he will have absolute control of the players, and will be their manager in the fullest sense of the word.

May he have a long and happy career at Luton, and live to see achieved such records as hitherto we have only hoped and worked for.

This is something of an experimental side, of course, but the left wing and Reid captivated the crowd on Wednesday night, and Black gave his best show of the season.

We must give a word of welcome to our old rivals, the "Bees," and especially to Bert Lawson, son of our old and trusty trainer, Billy Lawson.

ENTERTAINMENTS

PICTUREDROME.

"THE DARLING OF PARIS."

Adele, the idol of Paris, eclipses all her stage successes as Du Barry. Her husband takes exception to the Count De Parma, and when the latter presents Adele with a costly jewel he flings it back into his face before a vast audience, and leaves. Thirty years later, Marie Duval, a young student of dramatic art, is allowed as a favour to don the famous Du Barry gown, and because of the marvellous likeness, takes the place of Adele, and finds all Adele's admirers very embarrassing. Betty Compson is featured to-night.

"THE HERO ON HORSEBACK."

The action and plot of this picture revolve around the adventures of a happy-go-lucky native son of a gun of the land of cactus, cattle and cowboys who, through continuous wooing of the goddess of chance, finds himself reduced to a financial condition as bare of money as a snake is of his. Hoot Gibson is the star on Monday next.

WELLINGTON.

"BURNING GOLD."

The most amazing fire scenes of a burning oilfield have been secured for "Burning Gold," the new Stoll Elbeck production showing to-night. The spectacle of the great rolling masses of black smoke, and enormous tongues of flames which leap up from the oilfields as the conflagration spreads, will impress all who see the film.

"THE SCARLET SAINT."

Sharing honours with Miss Astor in "The Scarlet Saint" is Lloyd Hughes, considered one of the most popular screen juveniles. In this picture, showing on Monday, he enacts the role of a young American sportsman owner of a string of racing horses. An exotic flavour is given by the heroine's father, who is a foreigner, and had promised his daughter in marriage to a European nobleman. This promise, made years before the story opens, results in tragedy when the girl decides to pick her own husband.

IN LUTON

GORDON STREET.

"TRAMP, TRAMP, TRAMP."

To-night, Harry Langdon stars in "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp," a six-reel comedy. The story opens with Harry admiring a poster on the wall showing a beautiful girl advertising Burton Boots, together with details of a great walking race, open to wearers of these famous boots. He enters the race, causing so much commotion that he lands in prison instead of landing the first prize.

"THE WILDERNESS WOMAN."

Miss Pringle and Mr. Conklin appear as uncouth Alaskans, new-rich with a million. They descend on New York in outlandish clothes ignorant of the restrictions, and conventions of modern civilisation, and possessed of a bear cub which strikes terror into all hearts, and are responsible for comedy of the most hilarious nature. There is a sustaining vein of melodrama. Lowell Sherman as the hero and Henry Vibart and Robert Cain are also featuring on Monday next.

THE EMPIRE.

"THE BIG PARADE."

"The Big Parade," showing at the Empire all next week, is one of the most gripping films shown locally for some considerable time. With a human story that brings the tears with the laughter, it combines wonderful photography, awe-inspiring spectacles, and amazing vividness. If only for the sight of the endless line of waggons thundering along the dusty roads, swaying and rolling away into the distance, the shells smashing large slices of the horizon into nothingness, and the aeroplanes winging overhead, on their voyages of destruction, "The Big Parade" must be seen by everyone. John Gilbert, Renee Adoree, Tom O'Brien and Karl Dane are the principal members of the cast.

"MARE NOSTRUM."

To-night the principal attraction is "Mare Nostrum" ("Our Sea"), adapted from Blasco Ibanez's famous novel. The story is a revelation of the spy system of the European powers, Alice Terry and Antonio Moreno being the principals.
