COMMENTS ON THE GAME AND PLAYERS

Gillingham are just a little better off than we are, for they have won their last two games—at Southend and at home to Brighton. That should give them good heart for the uphill fight ahead. We cannot hope to overhaul them or anybody else before the middle of December, and the position is very disheartening. However, we hope to have considerable improvement before Christmas, and that our loyal supporters will be able to feel recompensed for standing by the club in these gloomy days.

Gillingham are fielding the side that defeated Brentford, and in our team there is one change—Abbott for Muir.

THE CUP TIE.

We again had good fortune in the Cup Draw, and we shall give the famous Clapton team a very hearty welcome to Luton, and though we want to win, naturally, we shall look forward to a keen and sporting encounter.

Ticket holders wishing to reserve the seats they ordinarily occupy should give names to the stewards on the Reserved Stand this afternoon or send direct to Mr. Chas. Green.

PICTUREDROME.

"THE LAST TRAIL."

This story is exciting, with much of the action centring about Tommy, the four-years-old son of the Pascals, who is left an orphan when his sheriff father is killed. "The Last Trail" features Tom Mix and Tony the wonder horse, and is showing to-night.

"THROUGH THICK AND THIN."

William Fairbanks on Monday plays the part of Don Davis of the Secret Service, known as "The Hawk." The Government try in vain to catch the band of smugglers, and "The Hawk" goes as one of the gang to the band's headquarters. While working and watching he is surprised to see a cultured gentleman and a beautiful girl negotiate with the leader. He saves the girl from a gangster and is invited to her home. The father thinks him a smuggler and orders him out, but things come right with the apprehension of the band.

WELLINGTON.

"BLUE BLOOD."

To-night George Walsh is the daring athletic hero in a new stirring romance "Blue Blood." George is attacked by roughs, and hearing that his girl is a prisoner in the cabin of a yacht, he succeeds in swimming to the yacht just in time to save her from the millionaire who has inveigled her there.

"VENUS OF VENICE."

A double feature programme is shown on Monday. Constance Talmadge stars in the "Venus of Venice," a pathetic story of a piquant little thief of hearts; the humorous history of her reformation being enacted against a wealth of romantic scenes. The other picture is "Mother's Boy," and it is far away from all conventional screen plays.

IN LUTON

GORDON STREET.

"METROPOLIS."

"Metropolis," the greatest film ever seen in this country, is showing to-night. The rebellion of the workers, the smashing of the machines and the flooding of the underground town lead up to a terrific climax. Seats may be booked in advance at all performances.

"THE SOMME."

Where possible, the actual men themselves whose names were mentioned in despatches or became otherwise famous, re-enacted their experiences for this film. Most important of these is Corporal T. W. H. Veale, of the 8th Devons, whose winning of the V.C. is one of the many thrilling moments of the picture. Veale not only became an actor, but assisted very considerably in planning unusual little trench corners, dug-outs, in replica of those with which he became familiar during his service. The picture is showing all next week, with matinees on Monday and Wednesday. Seats may be booked in advance at all performances.

EMPIRE

TO-NIGHT'S DOUBLE-FEATURE PROGRAMME.

To-night, the Empire is showing two attractive pictures, "The Mask of Comedy" and "Just another Blonde." The first is an intimate story of vaudeville, starring Norma Shearer, and the second features charming Dorothy Mackaill and Jack Mulhall in a delightful story with plenty of love interest, suspense, comedy and thrills, including a realistic aeroplane crash.

"BLONDE OR BRUNETTE."

For the first part of next week there is promised a sparkling picture, "Blonde or Brunette," featuring Adolphe Menjou. The eternal triangle has been adroitly ridiculed by no less a personage than the ultra-debonair Menjou, with Greta Nissen and Arlette Marchall as his chief assistants.
