COMMENTS.

Charlton Athletic gave us a drubbing on Friday, just when we least wanted it. Had we been able to bring even one point from the Valley our prospects would have brightened up again, but our team failed almost dismally. The Athletic deserved their success because they were quicker on the ball and kept it moving the better, but there were chances if our forwards could have taken advantage of them.

We hope there is going to be a different story to-day, and that the Athletic will be sent back with "measure for measure," but their record at Luton gives one "furiously to think," and they are sure to put up a stout resistance. Their chosen side is the same as played at the Valley, and ours also may be the same, but in view of the two strenuous games each club has had changes may be necessary.

The defeat of the Palace by the Rangers on Friday opened up big possibilities again, and if the Rangers can do the trick this afternoon, and so achieve the double the Palace will find themselves sinking in popular estimation after their long and wonderful run of luck and success. The Rangers are not quite reliable on their own ground, however, as we shall hope to prove later on, but for all that, we would rather they won and equalised matters a bit more.

On Tuesday, Aldershot visit us for a friendly game, and as they are quite a strong eleven, we anticipate an interesting match.

MR. CHARLES GREEN'S BENEFIT.

Mr. McCartney will be pleased to supply tickets for the match with the Heart of Midlothian, which takes place on Monday, April 22nd. There are two reasons why supporters should see this game. All will desire to pay tribute to a grand servant of the club, and in doing so they will get their money's worth, for the Hearts are one of the finest teams in the Kingdom, and they will provide football of the highest class.

PICTUREDROME.

"THE GIRL FROM CHICAGO."

"The Girl from Chicago," to-night, is hailed as one of the most brilliant melodramas of the year. Tremendously exciting, the production has glamour and humour, and is built on the foundation of danger braved for the sake of love. The stars, Conrad Nagel and Myrna Loy, give a performance that will add many laurels to their cinematic crowns. There is also a strong stage turn.

WELLINGTON.

REGINALD DENNY REPERTOIRE.

This week a different film, in which that popular star, Reginald Denny, is featured, will be shown each evening as follows:—Monday, "I'll Show you the Town"; Tuesday, "Rolling Home"; Wednesday, "Where was I?"; Thursday, "Skinner's Dress Suit"; Friday, "What happened to Jones"; and Saturday, "California Straight Ahead." In addition, feature, comedy, and topical films will be shown. Patrons should note the adverts for special times during holidays.

PALACE.

"MOULIN ROUGE."

The great attraction this week is "Moulin Rouge," the much-talked-of British International picture, produced by E. A. Dupont, the German genius, who made "Vaudeville." A tense, emotional drama of a youth's passionate love, told in a way never before seen on the screen, and enacted around the famous Moulin Rouge of Paris, with the star of that theatre as the central character, it leaves nothing to the imagination. Olga Tschechowa, the beautiful Russian star, gives a brilliant display as Parysia, the dancer of Moulin Rouge, and Eve Gray, the charming young British actress, and Jean Bradin, France's foremost juvenile actor, both splendidly interpret their roles.

Four variety acts are:—Iris Carr, light comedienne; Bandmaster Morris, introducing his genuine one-man band; Trevor

Watkins, musical comedy tenor, of "Madame Pompadour." "The Blue Mazurka," and "Lady of the Rose"; and the Four Bennos, sensational and comedy springboard acrobats.

GORDON STREET.

DOUBLE FEATURE.

"The Prince and the Dancer" is the outstanding feature of to-night's double-feature programme. It is a thrilling story of romance and adventure, and trips from start to finish. A young Prince is left by his step-mother in Paris to finish his education. Suddenly he is recalled to his country to find it in the grip of revolution. Events move rapidly, and he is forced to fly; and then, at the last minute

The other feature is "The Silken Lady," a film with an unusual interest

EMPIRE.

EASTER FARE.

There will be another strong double-feature programme for Easter stay-at-homes. To-night Rod La Rocque's newest film, "Hold 'em, Yale," and "The Fifty-fifty Girl," featuring delightful Bebe Daniels, are being shown. "Hold 'em Yale" is a fascinating romance of University life wonderful boxing and football scenes.

HIGH TOWN.

BIG EASTER ATTRACTION.

To-night Mr. Southan Morris is presenting an unusually powerful attraction for those who wish to wind up their day of pleasure with a visit to the cinema. The film booked is "The Air Circus," another masterpiece of the "Wings" type, dealing with civil aviation. The air shots are worthy of comparison with those in "Wings," and there is a particularly strong story.
