The League, Div. III. LUTON v. NORTHAMPTON

Sat., Aug. 27th.

Everyone will agree with the view of the Chairman of the Club that this is the best opening match the Club have had for many years. We could hardly have chosen a more attractive match, and if it is our good fortune to take the points and so make a good start, we shall make the journey to Clapton on Monday with a good deal of confidence for our second essay.

It will be duly noted that our team includes only two different from those that gave us a good finish last season, and these are Mills and Hutchison. Mills alone will be making acquaintance with League football for the first time, but he comes from the next best thing, and will need no telling that this game is quicker and harder than any he has had before. We wish him in particular, and the eleven generally, a successful send-off.

While we have nine of our old players, Northampton have ten, the only new-comer being Forbes, who comes to Northampton from Leith Athletic. Their team, however, includes some very useful young players, who have been nursed for a season by the club. The best known to us, of course, are Hammond, in goal, Davies at left-back, Boyle at inside-right, and Wells at outside-left. There is nothing very extravagant, perhaps, as this team appears on paper, but it will command respect from the best. We hope to have a very good game, one that will be enjoyed by players and spectators alike, and we shall be glad if the Cobblers have a good strong following as they used to have in the old days.

On Monday night, Bristol City Reserves are due at Luton for a Combination game, and we would like to know that our lads are going to have a lot of support. Do come along and show that your interest is as keen as ever, and by your generous encouragement help the youngsters to success.
SUPPORTERS CLUB.

Members of the Supporters Club will appreciate the new effort about to be launched, with the approval of the Board of Directors. If support is forthcoming it will not be long before the "Lane Stand" is covered, and it is hoped to reap a very real reward from this venture in due course by improved attendances when the weather is not kind. Show your interest by becoming a member of the Supporters Club, and hold yourself in readiness to give practical help. If you cannot afford a cash donation, you may be able to give your labour, and we shall value the one as much as the other.

THIRD DIVISION MEMS.

BY JUNIOR

SOUTHERN SECTION.

George Jones, who is being given a trial at inside-left for Cardiff City, is a brother of D. O. Jones, the Clapton Orient full back.

* * *

Reading start the season as favourites for promotion in the Southern Section.

* * *

Bristol Rovers now have two brother half-backs in F. and J. E. Townrow. The latter played for Chelsea last season.

* * *

Brentford made a raid on Middlesbrough during the close season. Watson, Scott and Halliday, the three players induced to come South, should make a useful triangle.

* * *

Cardiff City have a fair chance of settling their financial difficulties by the transfer of McCambridge to Tottenham Hotspur.

It seems that one of the weak departments at Ninian Park this season will be full back.

* * *

It is quite likely that Elwood, the Bradford pivot, will be seen in Southern circles shortly. Brighton and Hove are said to be making overtures for his signature.

* * *

On the other hand, Wells, of Northampton, may go North, for Bradford have urgent need for a good left-winger.

* * *

By signing E. C. Bowen, Bristol City intend to get among the goals early. Last year he was Northampton Town's chief marksman.

* * *

Percy Maggs, who will guard Torquay goal, has had three years with Aston Villa.

THIRD DIVISION MEMS.

BY JUNIOR

NORTHERN SECTION.

After a drastic weeding-out process, Darlington start the season with an entirely new attack. Wise-heads are not expecting great things from the Quakers until a happy blend is struck.

* * *

Tranmere Rovers are also taking a bit of a risk with a batch of newcomers, but as Prenton Park is a renowned nursery, particularly for centre-forwards, several of these may turn out to be stars in the making.

* * *

Spencer, from Aston Villa, is the only new professional at Prenton Park.

* * *

Gilhespy, Crewe Alexandra's new right-winger, is the proud owner of a First League Championship medal, for he was a member of the Liverpool team that topped the League in 1922/23. Reading and Mansfield Town can give evidence of his fine turn of speed.

* * *

More than one Northern Division side will look midgets when meeting Carlisle United this season, for the "Blues" have specialised in tall and hefty players. Legge, Cook,

Gomm and Clayton all stand 6ft. and turn the scale at 12 stone.

* * *

Mr. Jack Fairless, manager for Darlington, recently played his first game of golf and had the unique experience of holing in one.

* * *

Among the improvements that have been carried out at the Barrow ground is extended accommodation under cover.

* * *

Harry Kitching, who has signed for New Brighton, is a Birkenhead schoolmaster.

* * *

Accrington Stanley have signed more professionals than they have done for many a year.

* * *

Albert Humpish, now with Stockport County, is back again near home. A native of Bury, he was a member of the ill-fated Wigan Borough team before joining the Arsenal.

* * *

When McGuire, the former Celtic half-back, returns from America, he will probably be seen in the ranks of a Northern Section club.

EMPIRE

"GIRL CRAZY"—SIGN OF FOUR"

Wheeler and Woolsey enthusiasts will like "Girl Crazy," which continues at the Empire Cinema for the rest of the week, together with "The Sign of Four," a Sherlock Holmes mystery.

The two comedians take their fun-making out into the West. They are as comical as ever, and the musical comedy plot is held together with some tuneful music by George and Ina Gershwin. Wheeler and Woolsey are not asked to carry the whole of the comedy on their shoulders—for Eddie Quillan, himself a comedy star, Dorothy Lee, Arline Judge and Kitty Kelly all have strong roles, to say nothing of young Mitzi Green, who literally "brings the house down" by some impersonations of screen stars.

A high standard of entertainment is also maintained in "The Sign of Four," which has been cleverly adapted to the screen. The leading players are Arthur Wontner, Ian Hunter and Isla Bevan.

WELLINGTON

"STOWAWAY"

Beauty is at the mercy of the hardest-bitten crew that ever left a port in "Stowaway," the all-talking film at the Wellington to-night. A girl stowed away on a giant ocean freighter to escape a terrible fate—and was threatened with a worse one. Leon Waycroft, Montague Love and Fay Wray are in the leading roles, the first as the understanding young officer, the second as the villainous opposition, and the third as the little taxi-dancer heroine.

Also being shown is "The Spirit of the West," starring Hoot Gibson.

"THE BEAST OF THE CITY"

Law and order versus ruthless gangsters is the order of the day in "The Beast of the City," the Wellington's talkie for the first part of next week. Walter Huston and Jean Harlow are the central figures in the romance of a hardened girl and an ambitious young police detective.

Boyd, back to the Grand stage to amuse in a variety of ways, and the programme includes comedy sketches, musical scenes, clever dancing by the Clayton Sisters, a song, some dancing, and more juggling by Bobby Handers, an equilibrium turn by the Frank Rex Trio, songs by Desmond Kelvin and Ethel Clayton, and dancing by a smart troupe.

PALACE

"INNOCENTS OF CHICAGO"—

After having seen so many gangster pictures, it will be a good thing to look at the comedy burlesque, "The Innocents of Chicago," with which the Palace people are topping the bill in the latter half of this week. While shrewdly guying our American cousins, the picture unfolds a thrilling story, which is guaranteed to keep one on tip-toe with excitement. Henry Kendall, again as the "perfect ass," let loose among the ferocity of gang warfare, with Bernard Nedell and Ben Welden as rival "bosses," contrives to keep the fun fast and furious. The feminine interest is in the capable hands of Margot Grahame, Binnie Barnes and little Betty Norton, who, plus a large size in machine guns, is instrumental in gently but firmly helping Henry from the clutches of the racketeers into her own adorable grasp.

ALMA KINEMA

EDWARD G. ROBINSON GOES CHINESE

Fresh from his success in "Five Star Final," Edward G. Robinson has a grim but romantic role in "The Honourable Mr. Wong," which opened at the Alma this afternoon and continues until the end of the week. This is a drama dealing with the Chinese, who have become, to a large extent, Westernised, but who are still governed by codes and customs which have been instilled in their blood for generations. The story is of triangular love. Robinson is a middle-aged Chinaman, who is the hatchet-man of the Tong or brotherhood. He takes a beautiful young girl, the daughter of an old friend to whom he has had to deal death, as his bride, only to find that her heart belongs to a youth of her own age. As a dispenser of justice and bound by the most holy vows to carry out his sinister duties, Robinson further wields his hatchet until the way of true love is made clear.
