CLUB CHATTER. By Manager T. R. Parker.

(Copyright Reserved).

So far so good: 9 points from our first 6 games, everybody happy and very likely thinking and planning out our future. The return game with the City at Bristol was, as we expected, a very hard and desperately fought battle, and in my opinion, we were a little fortunate to leave with both the points. The first half was slightly in our favour and we did deserve the lead at the interval; the penalty was taken splendidly by Ken Burditt.

The second half found us, at times, territorially overplayed, and only the fine play of our defence, which broke up attack after attack before Wharton was really troubled, saved us. I must mention here, however, one of Norman Wharton's saves: Bowen toe-ended a shot from about 25 yards, and Wharton positioned himself correctly for a save, but it suddenly swerved, dipped, and looped the loop or something similar, and our goalie had to make a dramatic last second reach to tip the ball over the woodwork.

What happened in the second half of the Brighton game? All you good judges saw for yourselves—we did not appear the same team as we were twenty minutes before, the work in some positions being done very lackadaisically, and consequently we allowed Brighton to play themselves into top dogs and draw level. Then, once again, the fatal spot came to our aid and was again taken splendidly by our penalty king. A general sigh of relief was heard when the final whistle sounded; it had been a game of periods, pleasing and otherwise, but it shows you what can be done when sleeves are rolled up.

At Wellingborough Sammy Bell's three goals were the result of some of the finest shooting I have seen for many a day. Matches such as the one against Higham Ferrers give us the opportunity to try out our young amateurs, and if you Sportsmen, who come along to witness these games, would give them encouragement instead of ridicule, we shall soon see the benefit of these games. W. Hinton started the scoring with two goals, both nicely taken, followed by Bell's brilliant shooting, resulting in two more, and one by Roy.

On Saturday last we met Aldershot Town, who, like ourselves, held the proud distinction of being the only unbeaten sides in the League. Well, we started off by giving them a goal lead in the first four seconds, the ball being swung out to Proud, the Aldershot right winger, and Willie Smith not connecting with his usual kick, it crossed again, caught our defence napping, and we found ourselves one down. The players fought back splendidly, more than holding their own, and after 30 minutes Scott and Warnes worked up a movement and a very fine goal resulted, coming from the foot of the former. We started the second half in great style, maintained our pressure right through, and had Vinall been in his best form we would have had the match well won. It was a disappointing ending: the ball came upfield from a clearance kick, Halliday was unsighted by the sun and momentarily lost sight of it, and Nichol, the opposing centre-forward picked it up and ran on a few yards. He was eventually crowded out, but managed to half-hit the ball; Wharton, who no doubt sensed danger, advanced, and to his and everybody's amazement, the ball slowly trickled into the net. That was with only five minutes to play, and we could not get on terms again, thus losing our unbeaten certificate.

Monday morning last, by the 7.40 a.m. train, we set hopefully forth on a long ride into Wales, in search of two points in the new Section of the Southern League, our hosts being Llanelly. The exchanges were very even all through, and we deserved a point, for after having spent nearly nine hours in a sitting position, our lads put up a remarkably good show.

OUR VISITORS

(G.E.T.)

To-day's game with Luton should attract a large crowd to the Nest, for the "Hatters" have always been popular opponents. Luton Town, founded in 1885, were one of the stalwarts of the old Southern League, in which they were runners-up in 1894-5, and 1895-6. It was from Luton in 1905 the Canaries' first season as a professional team that we secured those three very popular players—Punch McEwen, Billy Bushell and David Ross.

Whilst recalling those early days, many of us remember Bob Hawkes, a fine half-back, with a great personality; he gained International honours in 1907, against Ireland.

This season the Luton Directorate have greatly strengthened their team, and although I do not profess to be a prophet, I consider that the "Hatters" will be serious rivals for promotion; watch Luton. In Billy Pease we shall see a fine winger, who is no stranger to the Nest, having played here with Northampton before his very successful period with Middlesborough. On the other wing we may see Pearson, late Chelsea, who, on his day, can be very dangerous; this popular little winger hails from Durham. Summing up, Luton, like Norwich, are a splendidly balanced team, hence we should see a well-contested game. May sportsmanship rule the day, not only on the field, but on the terraces and stands. "On the ball, City."

CANARY SEED.

OUR RECENT FORM.

We ask our supporters to remember that Mr. Parker is not only building a team to take us into the Second Division—and stay there—but he is also trying a method of play which has proved, beyond all question, to be successful in recent years. Nobody can deny that it has taken the Arsenal to the top and kept them there.

This style may be foreign to some players and it is one that they must learn thoroughly and, in some cases, they will even have to eliminate from their minds the game they have been used to.

Every man has a job to do; let that man do it. It is not worth while shouting instructions to the team; they are playing to orders and will not leave their positions at the request of the crowd. Their boss is the manager and not the bloke behind the barrier. We have a very strong team and there could be no doubt in the minds of anyone who saw the Aldershot game that the Canaries will finish the season well above their opponents. We played championship football against Bristol City and in the first half against Brighton and when the team have made the new methods their natural game we shall not see them go down under pressure as they did in the second half of their last home match. As a matter of fact, this is just the kind of thing we expected whilst the team were settling down to the new idea.

ECHOES FROM THE RESERVE GAMES.

"Come up, the 'arves."

To an over-strong corner kick, "Go easy. You are not at Boundary Park."

"Go you back. He didn't call you." This to a visiting trainer who had run out and was sent back by the referee.

"They have got some good youngsters coming on."

"The best capture the City has made is Tom Parker."

"Hard luck, Ding-ey." This to Bell, of course.

"Don't you know what to do, ref.? The chap in the centre stand will tell you."

"Come up, the 'arves. Come on, the Arsenal."

BRAIN STORMS.

A conundrum given me by Tom Scott:—A football team represented England but had not an Englishman in the team. What team was it? Answer in programme of October 7th.

A referee's problem from the same source:—Robinson throws in so far that the ball enters the net without a second player touching it. What ruling should the referee give?

Incidentally, Robinson dreams of doing this.

OUR BEAUTIFUL LANGUAGE.

I did not realise what a wonderful language we possess until I referred to the Dictionary one hot day last week. I turned to the last word from curiosity and discovered that it was "Zythum, an ancient kind of beer." How lovely. Just the thing for a hot day.

Then I looked to see what the first word was and it proved to be the complement of the last word, "Aam, a liquid measure of thirty gallons." Really! how appropriate. "Boy, telephone Bullards and ask them to send me an aam of zythum.

US.

One of our over-keen supporters received a rap over the knuckles in the Press last week and has been very quiet since. Public opinion is the best thing for stopping the man who goes a little too far, although everyone realises that it is only a man's enthusiasm getting the better of him that causes offensive remarks to referees.

Too-candid comments are worrying to younger players, but the seasoned man is used to it and does not hear what is said. Our own players tell me that they think we are a very fair crowd and compare favourably with most grounds.

A famous Liverpool player used to put cotton-wool in his ears and say, "I don't mind what they shout now."
