

WARNING!

'KOL-Y-ENTE'

Guaranteed Pure Empire Tea

(Imitation is always the sincerest flattery, but very often the commonest and meanest fraud).

" Though rivals in plenty to match KOL-Y-ENTE
Have tried very hard you'll agree,
The popular favour goes out to the flavour
And health-giving charm of this Tea.
So highly it's rated, they can't imitate it,
The Blend is a secret, you see—
So, failing to track it,
They turn to the packet,
For nothing can easier be
Than to copy a label
And print on some fable,
But that won't deceive you or me!"

For the protection of the Public the name " KOL-Y-ENTE " is registered—only the colouring and the wording

On this Carton may be IMITATED
But the name is INVIOABLE.
The quality of the Tea is INIMITABLE.

The League—Div. III.

LUTON v. COVENTRY.

Sat., Nov. 4th.

It is time we had a change of luck, and we hope to see our forwards get going this afternoon in something like the style of the early days of the season. At Reading last Saturday the enthusiastic band of supporters saw enough to recognise that we should not have suffered defeat, even though the score against us was so heavy. Everybody at Elm Park was amazed at the result, and had we led at half-time by more goals than Reading scored during the match, we should not have had more than our deserts.

Our visitors to-day are in much the same position as ourselves, and we expect a good game, and more enjoyable than the last two from all aspects. We have Tait in the forward line again, and hope that he has now fully recovered from his troublesome injury. If Kirkwood and Rennie touch the form of last Saturday, the centre-forward should benefit. It is possible that Anderson may be fit enough to turn out for the Reserves at Brentford, and this leaves only Seddon on the casualty list.

Of the City's chosen team three are recruits this season. Pearson was with Oldham last season, and before then at Blackpool. Brown is a full back from Leeds United, and Bytheway from West Bromwich Albion.

Supporters will have read of the projected Lane Stand, and we hope they will respond to the gesture. The plans are already in hand, and it is hoped to begin actual work on Monday, so that the stand will be complete by the end of the month. May the good weather continue until then.

Next Saturday we are due at Southend, but there is a London Combination game that should attract a big crowd, Chelsea, who are making a bold bid for the championship, being the visitors.

Make a note : Kick-off at 2.45.
