President: Alderman Harry Arnold, C.A., J.P.

Directors:

Chairman: Councillor Chas. Jeyes, C.C.

Messrs Edward Mouse (Vice-Chairman), Frank J. Andrews, Stanley H. Godfrey, C.C.,
Horace S. Hewson, Percival G. Mitchell, C.C., E. Hugh Woods, Philip W. Wright.

Secretary-Manager: Mr. Harold Wightman.

Assistant Secretary: Mr. A. E. Wickson.

Honorary Medical Officer: E. J. Crarer, M.B., Ch.B.

Our Easter opponents this season are Newport County and we extend to them a cordial "Easter Egg" on their visit to our ground today.

It will seem strange in future seasons when we either pay a visit to or receive a visit from our Western opponents that we shall not be greeted by their jovial secretary-manager, Mr. James Hindmarsh, for a week or so ago he intimated to his Directors that he desired to relinquish his position at the end of the current season. The break, as is only to be expected, will be made with sad feelings on both sides, for "Jimmy" as he is popularly known, has seen them through all vicissitudes, which with the slump that has been prevalent throughout South Wales for so many years, has more often than not been of an adverse nature.

Newport County Football Club was formed in the season 1911-12 by a number of immigrants from the Midlands, who made the journey to South Wales owing to the prosperity of the iron industry. South Wales was, at that time, the heart of Welsh Rugby and the new code was regarded with no little hostility by the "natives" for quite some time. For a long time the Club devoted their attention to competitions in South Wales and the South of England, and soon after the War were elected as members of the Southern Section of the Third Division of the Football League. Since that time the club has been saved many times either by public subscription or by transfer fees.

The "Ironsiders" struck a bad patch in season 1930-31, when they finished in one of the last two places in the League Table and subsequently were unable to seek election. Fortunately they were re-elected the following season, 1931, only again having to make a further successful application for re-election at the end of that season. The nickname "Ironsiders," which has clung to the Monmouth Club, has at oft times been a subject of debate, some reports stating that the name is intended as a compliment to the ironworkers who were responsible for the formation of the Club, whilst others say that the name is derived from the fact that Somerton Park is situated in Cromwell Road.

ASTONISHING NEWS

Photographs taken at the rate of more than 6,000 a second have shown that, when a football is kicked, the toe presses into the leather so hard that the diameter of the ball is reduced by one half. The foot is back on the ground before the ball has moved more than a few inches.

A recently played R.U. game had to be abandoned a few minutes from time because the referee's spectacles were broken.

"Bad refereeing has been responsible for the idea that there is bad blood between Derby County and Sunderland," Manager George Jobey told me.—("Minor"—Newcastle Chronicle.)

The side was a man short, so a staunch supporter agreed to play in goal if given an outfit. No togs being available, the referee's trousers were borrowed unknown to that official. In trying to save a penalty the goalkeeper dived straight into the mud. Later, with the score 1—1, another penalty was awarded, but the referee, after glancing at the goalkeeper and carefully inspecting his attire, picked up the ball from the spot and put it down again, elsewhere, for "offside." Thus, many years ago, Bray Unknowns, saved a point against Melrose (now defunct).

"Where am I to obtain games when I am not quite good enough for the Corinthians or Casuals?" says the public school boy. (Mr. F. N. S. Creek, in a wireless talk.)—Mirabile Dictu.

"Billy Walker, of the Sheffield club, told me that since he entered football, fouls and dirty play have decreased by 50 per cent." ("Adjutant"—Daily Mirror.)

Mr. John Dean, chairman of Fulham F.C., thinks that Mr. Jack Howcroft should be established as headmaster of a school of referees at a salary of £2,000 a year.—(The Star.)

During last season promoters of football pools took £9,000,000 from the public, of which they kept £4,000,000 as profits and £2,700,000 as expenses.

In the Broken Hill F.A. Final (Australia) all the players in both teams were reported for fighting and unnecessary roughness.

In Austria Prince Starhiemberg, the Heimwehr leader has been made "sports dictator," and has absolute power to dissolve any sports club or association or to dismiss club secretaries and other officials throughout Austria.

Referees are not going to run the risk of being snubbed by an F.A. Commission. Declared one, "A player will have to kick his opponent over the grandstand before I send him off."—(J.M.—Sunday Dispatch.)

Blackburn Olympic, when training for their F.A. Cup Final with Old Etonians in 1883, had a diet of porridge and oysters, and a tonic of quinine and egg.

Ten minutes before the end of a league game in Spain between Badalona and Sabadell, darkness came on, but, anxious to see the finish, the spectators all lit matches, and the game was completed.

When players in Russia have represented their town three times in succession or on five different occasions, reports Reuter, they may style themselves "Masters of Football."

Lady linesmen have been used in Guernsey, but it is alleged that they were too much addicted to gossip—tongue wagging, not flag wagging.—Mirabile Dictu

BOBBERS STAND CLUB

We are rapidly coming to the close of the playing season and the B.S.C. can look back with some satisfaction as to what it has accomplished. With its membership approaching the thousandth mark and the fine rooms at its disposal, the Club can continue its good work so that by the commencement of another season many other improvements can be carried out. The extensions to the Club itself will soon be completed and will make the Games Room larger and there will also be a well equipped Kitchen and the usual offices. Remember every penny profit goes to a fund to be spent on ground improvements. We want to make as much as we can during the next few months, as there are two other parts of the ground to be covered in, so will all members rally round the efforts that will be made and so keep a "happy family" spirit which will make itself felt very much round about next August time? Open-air Whist Drives and Dances (on a special wooden floor) are contemplated as weekly features, whilst several Novelty Nights are sure to be introduced. You'll see about it, won't you?

JUST BECAUSE IT'S HOLIDAY TIME

The sweet young thing was being shown through the locomotive works.

"What is that thing?" she asked, pointing with her dainty parasol.

"That," answered the guide, "is an engine boiler."

She was an up-to-date young lady and at once became interested.

"And why do they boil engines?" she enquired again.

"To make the engine tender" politely replied the resourceful guide.

Referee (before the match) "Might I ask why you fellows are wearing these black armlets—have you lost one of your players?"

Captain "Naw lad. Tha see, we'd summat o' a nasty accident wi' last week's referee."

Give a Scotsman enough rope and he'll hang on to it.

He "I want to marry a girl who can take a joke."

She "If you marry at all, you will."

"Ever pick a quarrel with your wife?"

"No, I leave it to her. She picks much better ones."
