IT would be impossible to have a more attractive match for a holiday game than that today when we entertain as our visitors Notts County. The Nottingham Club is the oldest in the country being formed in the year 1862.

The pioneers of Notts County gained their knowledge of football in Sheffield and in the first few years only a few matches were played. In the first game between Notts County and Notts Forest a mixture of Association and Rugby was played and in those days there was no crossbar to the goalposts.

For a time the County were not so successful as the Forest, but in 1875 they were invited to visit Glasgow to meet the then world famous Queens Park.

The year 1881 was a very serious one for the Club, but owing to the splendid efforts of Mr. Arthur Ashwell it was able to continue.

They were tenants of Trent Bridge in 1881, and while they occupied the ground it became one of the greatest homes of Association football. The following year they were in the semi final of the F.A. Cup and six members of the team were internationals against Scotland. At that period they were looked upon as one of the most powerful sides in the country, but while great efforts were made to retain amateur status they changed to professionalism in 1885-6.

Then followed a lean time but in 1888 they were invited to join the English League. The club was then reconstructed and registered as a Limited Company with the late Mr. A. Williams as Chairman.

In 1891 they secured third place in the League and in the same year reached the final of the F.A. Cup. Three years later they went one better and the Cup was brought to Nottingham.

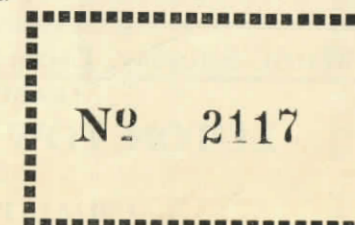

The season 1905 was a bad one but owing to the League taking in two additional clubs the County retained their status.

One of the most famous players ever associated with the Club was Albert Iremonger who played in approximately 700 League games during his twenty two years service.

This season the County found themselves relegated to the Third Division and under the managership of Mr. Percy Smith are making a determined effort to regain their lost status.

We are presenting at each match, to two holders of programmes, a ticket which will enable them to obtain free admission to the Grand Stand at the following match (Cup ties and Special Matches excepted) that is to be played on this ground.

A board will be taken round the ground during the interval intimating the numbers that have been selected, and holders, who have in their possession programmes bearing these numbers, are requested to make personal application at the office of the Club immediately after the termination of the match, in order to claim these tickets.

POT-SHOTS

An apt name for the Divorce Court—Sunder Land.

The crowd at Tottenham called the German captain "Greta." Was that because of his garb-o?

At a good young men's club they have abolished billiards, and also any talk of it, simply because of the middle letters of the word.

Some amateur wrestlers, the other night, defeated a police team. One way of laying down the law.

"Football Ground Suspended." A heading like this makes one wonder if the players are hung up.

A contemporary the other week made the Home Secretary refer to the Anglo-German football match as "Purely a shouting contest." Fancy placing football on a level with a General Election.

Then we come to the golfer who said he went out and won a watch, and was met by the rejoinder from his friend, "I went out at twelve yesterday and one o'clock."

Out in Hungary a well known half back's wife has presented him with triplets. A complete half back line—All Hungary.

Len Harvey is training for his match with Petersen at Windsor. Here's luck to both—May the best man Windsor.

Next Match, Saturday, December 28th.

LUTON TOWN v. CLAPTON ORIENT

KICK-OFF 2.30 p.m.

USUAL PRICES OF ADMISSION

"OUR SIDE of the QUESTION"

by A. Gateman.

It may be a little late to wish you all a Happy Christmas, but probably you still have plenty of time to enjoy yourselves so please accept these good wishes from a section of the club which usually keeps well in the background. The members of this section may be viewed at their best any Saturday afternoon, generally behind bars or in neat little cages. We do not ask you to bring us buns or nuts, oh no! just pass us your florins, bobs or tanners as the case may be. When I say bobs I don't mean ten bob notes or half crowns. Its a terrible waste of time dishing out change, with another thousand shouting "get a move on." Here's another tip especially for our Grand Stand supporters, we are always pleased to accept sixpences on a two bob gate. It is surprising how half crowns are tendered and as it is very rare for anybody to say "Keep the change," the person bringing four sixpences is as welcome as an oasis to a traveller in the Sahara.

Having said which, allow me to hand out a few bouquets. This programme is claimed to have the largest sale, in proportion to the gate, of any Football Programme in England. (It is unnecessary to add Scotland as well. I believe only complimentary copies are printed over the border). Sales are never less than one to every four of the attendance and are frequently more. Of the clubs from whom enquiries have been made we gather that the average sale is one in ten and often we hear of a case where one programme to each fifteen spectators is considered good.

Now, who deserves the first bouquet? The editor, or the supporters who show such good judgment in buying a copy each week. That the programmes are taken home and read is evinced by the fact that I overheard the gronndman, Bert Day, complain that he could never find any paper left on the terraces to start the boiler on Monday morning. On the whole, I think the honours are equally divided between the editor and you good people. We will keep the first prize until the end of the season and present it to our promotion team, and I don't mean maybe!

A little tale I heard the other day. Two blokes walking down the street when one says "See that chap over there, he offered to take on eleven of us last night, but we were one too many for him." I can't guarantee that the chap on the other side of the street was our new centre forward, Bill Boyd, but I am told there was a striking resemblance to him and doubt with the help of the rest of the boys he will be prepared to take on any eleven who care to offer themselves.

I missed an easy bet the other morning. An acquaintance offered me two to one that Luton would not be exempted until the third round proper of the F.A. Cup Competition next year. He evidently does not know that all Second Division Clubs come in together in the third round.

Well, it seems that the share allotted to me is running out, so I will just finish with wishing a most prosperous New Year to everybody, the Club, the Directors, Players, Staff and last, but certainly not least, the Supporters.

Before I finish, I should like to ask the gentleman who regularly brings twenty-four halfpennies to the Hazelbury Crescent Entrance not to spread them all over the top of the turnstile. It is so untidy.

PRINTER'S ERROR.

Bobbers Stand Club Notice should, of course, read 1936, not 1935 as printed.
