CLUB NOTES by "Hatter"

TODAY, we entertain Chesterfield, a club whose rise in the football world has been very rapid during the past few years. It is also the professional club nearest to the birthplace of Joe Payne and I am sure Joe is hoping he will be in opposition to them today. I am writing this before the team has been chosen so cannot say whether he is included or otherwise. I should not be surprised if he is. I have also been asked to continue to give brief histories of the clubs who visit us. I do not mind this in the slightest, for to me it is much easier to write club histories than to give a review of past matches, especially when we lose with a wallop as happened last Saturday at Hillsborough. Well here goes.

The Chesterfield Club, known chiefly in other towns as the "Team of the Crooked Spire" can undoubtedly justify the claim of being one of the oldest clubs in existence. They were founded in the year 1866 and the original members played but friendly matches and it was not until the season 1871-2 that a meeting of those interested was called and the rules drawn up. In those far off days such clubs as Sheffield Wednesday, Notts Forest, Sheffield Garrick, Sheffield Gentlemen and Rotherham were met and Chesterfield won one match against one of these teams by the mammoth score of twenty two goals to one.

No competition was entered until the year 1891, when Chesterfield decided to compete for a cup given by the late Mr. Alfred Barnes, a large colliery proprietor and Member of Parliament for the Division. They succeeded in winning this trophy and in the following year 1892, they lifted the Sheffield Cup, the Derbyshire Minor Cup and the Barnes Cup for the second time. During this season they created tremendous surprise (and consequently upset all football pools) by defeating Sheffield United by three clear goals, the Sheffield team including such well known players as Ernest Newham, Bob Cain, H. and W. Lilley, Scott and Watson.

In 1896, Chesterfield joined the Midland League and remained members of that competition until they joined the Second Division of the Football League by promotion in 1899. On admission to the Second Division, a meeting was called and it was decided to form the club into a limited liability company with Mr. Edward Mitchell as President.

Chesterfield's fortunes in the Second Division were of a fluctuating character, and after ten seasons, in 1909, they failed to get re-elected at the Annual Meeting of the Football League. From then until the outbreak of war they sojourned once again in the Midland League. The Club was re-constructed in 1918, coming under the auspices of the local Corporation, and was the first club in the country to play municipal football. Then came the formation of the Northern Section of Division III of the Football League in 1921, of which Chesterfield was one of the pioneer members, and their ten years in this Division culminated in their gaining promotion to the Second Division in 1931. After two seasons in the higher sphere they were relegated to the Third Division, only to gain promotion once again at the end of 1935/6.

Last Saturday, Chesterfield created a surprise in League circles (and once again upset the football pools) by losing at home to Manchester United by seven goals to one. I do not like this at all, because they will be out to take this hiding from us and we cannot afford to lose any points at all, especially just now. Just when I thought we were on the upward grade we got licked by four clear goals at Sheffield Wednesday. Ah well, such are the vagaries of football.

The "Stiffs" game with Millwall last Saturday was one of the finest Combination games seen here. True a first glimpse of the score, five goals to one in our favour, would give the impression it was decidedly one-sided. This was not the case however, the big difference in the teams being that our lads finished off their approach work, whereas the "Lions" did not. It was a wonderful comeback for Joe Payne, after his few weeks absence, to score a hat trick and his second goal was a real old-timer, flashing into the net at a break neck speed. Good words must also be written of Ron Stevens and George Kidd, the former in notching the other two goals and the latter for a real excellent display.

In so doing, this does not belittle the exhibition of the other lads for, as I said previously, this was one of the finest games we have seen.

On Wednesday next, we stage the first of our home London Mid-Week League matches, when Crystal Palace (a new club to the Competition this season) provide the opposition. These games are well worth seeing, for it gives us an opportunity of trying out several amateurs, whom it is not deemed prudent to test out in the arduous London Combination games now. The Kick-off is at 2-30 p.m.

Also, on Saturday next we have what we consider our tit-bit game in the Combination, when the Arsenal Reserves pay their annual visit. This is always a fine football spectacle as can be verified from the attendances of past seasons. The Kick-off once again is at 2-30 p.m.

Do you see anything interesting or humorous during your Saturday afternoon visits to this ground? If so, enter our "Interest and Humour" Competition, for which there is a weekly prize of a free ticket to the Grand Stand or Enclosure for the following League II match for every paragraph printed.

Paragraphs must be confined to a maximum of one hundred words and should be addressed to "The Editor, Football Programme, 70-72, Kenilworth Road, Luton," accompanied by a copy of the Match Programme for that day.

A free ticket to the Grand Stand or Enclosure for today's League II match with Chesterfield is awarded to Mr. H. Newman, 15, Campton, Shefford, who sent in the following "Interest and Humour" story with Programme No. 3245 (6-11-37).
