CLUB NOTES by "Hatter"

FIRST of all I wish everyone, whether they are in the habit of reading these notes or otherwise, whether they agree with what I write or are my strong critics, whether they are present or absent this afternoon, a very happy Christmas and more prosperity in the coming New Year. I hope everybody, like Scrooge of old, has in some way, whether large or small, made this Christmas more joyful for someone less fortunate than themselves.

Now to return to football. In an adjoining column you will find an advertisement relating to the Cup Tie at Scarborough on the 8th January next. Now for the information of supporters of the Club who intend making the journey, I have to state that the accommodation at the Scarborough ground is on the small side and although we have applied for our 25% quota of tickets, this in all only amounts to 46 at 4/- each and 76 at 3/- each, a total of 122 seats. A note has also been received from the Scarborough Club to the effect that their tickets for the 4/- stand have already been over applied for and requesting us to return any of our quota that we are unable to sell. The Directors earnestly appeal to our supporters who are desirous of obtaining tickets to apply for same immediately. They can be obtained at the office, 70-72, Kenilworth Road, daily (Sunday excepted) between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m.

This afternoon we welcome Barnsley and once more renew acquaintance with Mr. Angus Seed, their secretary-manager, who was previously with Aldershot. Barnsley are no strangers to us for it is only a year or so ago that we met them in the F.A. Cup, a goalless draw resulting at the first encounter, whilst in the replay at Luton we were successful by two clear goals. After this game we went to the sixth round, being ultimately defeated at Goodison Park. The "Stiffs" visited Coventry City, the present Combination champions, this morning and the "Bantams" return the compliment on Monday. This should be a first class game for at the moment of writing our visitors have emulated the performance of their seniors, having only lost two games so far this season. Last term they inflicted a five nil defeat on us at Luton, so we have got something to wipe out. I have no doubt also that this game with Coventry will provide us with an opportunity of running the rule over our recently acquired additions from Gainsborough, Bob Carte and Sam Mayberry. I am sure we all wish them a happy sojourn in Luton.

F.A. Cup - Round 3

The Editor is indebted to Mr. H. Brantom of Leighton Buzzard who kindly sent in the following poem.

I AM THE REF.

I am THE REF. Please note the THE,
No A Ref. please, when addressing me.
When I am old, wee daft, and deaf
I still shall be to you THE REF.

I am the Monarch of all I survey,
I rule the world, I direct the way.
I'm greater than these rolled into one—
Wellington, Nelson and Napoleon.

I stand aloft with flag unfurled,
Challenging all mid'st shafts that are hurled.
The battle begins and ends at my call,
I am supreme and master of all.

Nations may fall and empires crumble,
Hordes may grouse and captains grumble.
Worlds may grow old awaiting my tumble,
But never will I to the masses humble.

I am the king, I hold the fort,
I defy you all, even scribes of sport.
Draw your bows, and arrows fling,
They cannot pierce a wall of thick skin.

And when my eyes are closed in death
I still shall claim to be THE REF.
And at THE gates to Peter I'll say
"I am THE REF. Make way. Make way!"

LETTER to the EDITOR

42, Old Bedford Road,
Luton.

19th December, 1937.

Luton visiting Norwich City for a S.E. League game in 1905, the "Canaries" first year.

Jock Hogg, playing at back, always full of humour, nailed some studs onto the back of his boots. Kicking about in front of the goal prior to the kick-off, one little boy espied them and yelled out "Oi guvener, what yer got yer spurs on for."

Jock looked round, and replied "To back heel the ball to the goalie," doing the action at the same time. (Roar of laughter.)

As the game was about to start, Jock pulled them out and threw them to the boy. (I wonder if he still has them.)

OFFICIAL JOURNAL

A free ticket to the Grand Stand or Enclosure for today's League II match with Barnsley is awarded to Mr. W. Calow, 62, Jackmans Place, Letchworth, who sent in the following "Interest and Humour" story with Programme No. 2709 (18-12-37).

That interesting side line, the serio-comedian critic was at the Luton—Norwich match.

After a tiresome spell, he got fed up with so much ball in the air that he issued instructions to put the blinking lot in a balloon and then as an after-thought, remembering one outstanding personality against such tactics, added "Except Nelson."

This running commentary did not finish with "Time," for overhearing a Lutonian discovering consolation in the fact of obtaining one point, our irrepressible critic could not help but rejoinder, "And blimey, yer 'ad to go to Norwich for a man to do that for yer." (Vinall scored.)

A free ticket to the Grand Stand or Enclosure for today's League II match with Barnsley is awarded to Mr. H. Brantom, of Leighton Buzzard, who sent in the following "Interest and Humour" story with Programme No. 3516 (18-12-37).

At the match on Saturday, was a young man accompanied by his young lady. According to their conversation this was evidently her first visit to a football ground.

The young man eager to show his knowledge, explained the various things relating to the game—goal-posts, goal-lines, corners etc., then the Press-Box and the Centre Stand, where the officials and big ones sit. Just at that moment the Norwich players came out, rather hurriedly he said, "I see Dukes here today!" "Oh how lovely!" she replied, still looking toward the Centre Stand. "Which one?"

Mr. Jack Frost played the part of Jonah last Saturday, and try as hard as our boys did they could not stop the "Canaries" from getting that squeaky point. Nevertheless we must still look to our laurels and this Xmas obtain as many points as possible. We need have no fear that the lads will not do their best. So let us give them all the help possible. The reserve team was also unfortunate last Saturday, so today let us hope to see them win.
