THE EDITOR'S COMMENTS.

Now for the Next Round.

Well, the Spurs are in the Fifth Round of the Cup. The replay on Wednesday resulted in a win for us 5-2, and those who saw the game will agree that the victory was well merited. The attendance was 36,004, and the receipts £2,584 7s. 0d. Ordinary League prices were charged, and that this was appreciated was shown by the attendance.

New Brighton played a hard, resolute game, but there were periods when we made it more easy for their defence than it should have been. There were long spells of individualism and close play, and yet the five goals all came after open movements, and should have conveyed their own lesson. However, the Tie was won, and won well, and congratulations to W. Hall and his colleagues.

The draw has decreed that we must go to Chesterfield in the next Round. The other three London Clubs still in the Cup had the good fortune to be drawn at home. Brentford and Charlton have had a home game in each Round, and Arsenal have had ground advantage twice in the three Ties. It is all in the luck of the draw, and we must get through at Chesterfield, and hope that in the Sixth Round we shall have choice of venue.

A Mutual Arrangement.

There was considerable surprise when the early editions of the Monday evening newspapers were published that the midweek Football League fixtures included the meeting of Arsenal and Leicester City, at Highbury, on Wednesday. Subsequently it was announced that the League game would be postponed.

A few words of explanation will clear up the matter. When the draw was made for the Fourth Round of the Cup, and Arsenal and the Spurs were both drawn away, we got into touch with Arsenal. We were both anxious to have Wednesday in the event of a replay, but we agreed to take Monday so as to avoid a clash, and also to avoid a congestion of traffic.

Arsenal were due to play Leicester City in the League at home last Saturday, and we were due to play Newcastle United, at Newcastle. In the case of both clubs arrangements were provisionally made for the postponed League games to be played on Wednesday, as the rule dealing with postponements through Cup Ties after January 1st provides that they "shall be played on or before the Friday following the original date, unless special circumstances prevent it, whereupon it must be played before Friday of the following week."

League Permit Further Postponement.

Arsenal were thus bound under the rules to play their postponed match with Leicester in midweek unless the Management Committee of the League gave permission for a further postponement. The Arsenal approached the League for permission to put off their game for another week, and this was agreed to by the League. Thus the mutual understanding arrived at was honoured in every respect by our Highbury friends and rivals.

On any future occasion should similar circumstances arise, and Arsenal the club with a replay in the Cup, Tottenham would do what the Arsenal did, and ask permission for their League game to be postponed to avoid an unfortunate clashing. It is well there should be this give and take among League clubs. It is for the benefit of them all. Manchester City had arranged to play their postponed League game at home with Sunderland on Wednesday, but when they learned that Manchester United had arranged to replay their Cup Tie with Barnsley on that day the League were asked to sanction a postponement, and they did so.

To-day's Game with Luton Town.

We extend to Luton Town a very cordial welcome to Tottenham. This is their first visit here under Football League auspices, but many of our old supporters will remember when we met them regularly in the Southern League prior to our resignation from that organisation in 1908. And many stout duels we had with them. They were always a keen, sporting side, and invariably the tussles between us were of a friendly, though sometimes rather vigorous, nature.

Just a reminder that we have had one bout with Luton in the League this season. It was at Luton on September 18th, and we won 4-2, after leading at half-time 2-1. Our goal scorers were Miller, Morrison (2), and Sargent. Those four goals are the largest number we have scored in an away game this season, but it is interesting to point out that we have not failed to obtain at least one goal in every away League game to date.

Luton's Record.

Luton have abundantly justified their promotion. They won it last season after a prolonged duel with Notts County. When the table was finally made up Luton were on the 58 mark, and Notts County were 56. Luton won the race because they had a better home record than Notts, the latter getting 35 points from their 21 home engagements, whereas Luton obtained 39. The only defeat Luton had inflicted upon them at home was by Queen's Park Rangers, who scored the solitary goal of the game. This was the only match on their own pitch in which Luton failed to find the net.

Varia.

This afternoon we are without the valuable services of A. H. Gibbons, our amateur Royal Air Force inside-left. He has been selected by the International Selection Committee to play centre-forward for the England Amateurs v. Wales Amateurs, at Rhyl.

The pulling power of the F.A. Cup was abundantly revealed last Saturday. The 16 Ties in the Fourth Round attracted 658,084 spectators, and they paid £45,622. The average gate was 41,130, and both in the matter of attendance and receipts the figures were a record for this stage of the competition.

The aggregate attendances for the four rounds of the Competition Proper to date exceed 2,300,000, and the receipts are in the neighbourhood of £150,000. The Government take about £25,000 of that for Entertainment Tax.

The following are the results of the games played by the Spurs since the issue of last Saturday's programme:—
