CLUB NOTES by "Hatter"

SATURDAY last was a very black day for us for not only did the Spurs complete the double at our expense but the Spurs' Reserves emulated the performance of their first team. This gives the "Stiffs" only one victory in the last nine games. Now "Stiffs" this is definitely not good enough, we do not mind a defeat, but surely you do not consider yourselves an inferior eleven, which is the only conclusion we can arrive at in view of these results. Show us what you can do at Queens Park Rangers on Saturday.

I am sure we all extend a hearty welcome to Sheffield United this afternoon. The Wednesdayites, not the Sheffield Wednesdayites, but the Luton Wednesdayites are congratulating themselves on being able to witness, what has every indication of proving, a first class game. This is more than they bargained for at the beginning of the season, so I hope they will roll up strongly today.

The Sheffield United Football Club was formed in the face of great odds in the year 1889, when it was very difficult to secure good players, and great credit is due to the pluck and perseverance of the founders, one of whom was the late Sir Charles Clegg. The Club gained admission to the Football League—Second Division—in 1892, and in the first season qualified for the First Division by beating Accrington in a Test Match. Although they had many narrow squeaks previously they did not lose this status until 1933/34 when they were relegated to their present division. From 1897 the United steadily increased their resources and in that year they were runners-up for the League Championship. They became League Champions in 1898—the only time they have had that distinction, although in 1900 they were again runners-up. Their first Cup holding was in 1899, a feat they repeated in 1902. Sandwiched between these events was a further appearance in the Cup Final in 1901, but on this occasion they did not carry away the trophy. In 1915, the United became the holders of the F.A. Cup on yet a third occasion, a feat they accomplished a fourth time in 1925. In the 1900 season the United played through twenty-two League matches without sustaining defeat, but since then Burnley have beaten this record.

Many famous players have worn the Red and White Striped Shirt, amongst whom can be mentioned Foulke, one of the greatest goalkeepers who ever lived; Needham, prince of half backs, Thickett and Foyle, a pair of magnificent full backs. Then there has been also, Bernard Wilkinson, Harry Johnson, "Cocky" Bennett, George Hedley, Fred Priest, Bert Lipsham, "Mick" Whittam, Arthur Watson, Walter Hardinge, Fazackerley, Brelsford, Sturgess, Billy Gillespie, Fred Tunstall—just a few names taken at random.

The present United team is undoubtedly living up to traditions of the Club and are making strenuous efforts to regain their former status.
