CLUB NOTES by "Hatter"

ONCE again, with the completion of this afternoon's game, does the curtain descend on another season of soccer. Who regrets this? I venture to say that the disappointment is only shared amongst the supporters, for players and directors are only too relieved to obtain a temporary respite from the severe competition that is now prevalent in present day professional football. This season especially will players be pleased when the ball has ceased rolling, for never do I recollect another term when grounds have been so consistently hard that the concrete soil has so severely made reprisals on their feet. Yes, I think it would be an eye opener to the critics if they could see the condition of these limbs when a match has been concluded. But to return to more pleasant topics. What has this season shown Luton Town? To me it has shown that there is a very thin line between the standard of football in Division III and Division II especially when I consider that our boys have not played so well generally this season as last. To the supporters this term has given them the opportunity of seeing new clubs, and consequently new players, and with the prevalent majority of Midland and Northern clubs in the Division it has afforded an opportunity to compare the styles of soccer in the North and South. So perhaps we could go on comparing one with another, criticising this, and praising that, and I suppose we shall do this throughout the summer months until August comes round again.

Mention of August brings me to another topic—The Football League Jubilee Fund. I do not think comment is needed here on the objects of this Fund as it has appeared widely in the daily press. Suffice it to say that it is a benevolent fund for professional footballers who need assistance when their careers are ended. The Football League to commemorate its Golden Jubilee are endeavouring to raise £100,000 for this and towards this aim the League Clubs throughout the country are staging matches against one another on Saturday, August 20th. On that date we shall play our old rivals from Watford. Ordinary League prices of admission will be in operation and everybody will pay. No complimentary tickets of admission will be issued and even directors will join the queues at the turnstiles. Now I do appeal to all patrons of soccer to support this wonderful cause. It is your opportunity to show your appreciation of the enjoyment you obtain through the efforts of a professional footballer. Please roll up in large numbers for to me it will be a calamity and a disgrace should this game be poorly patronised. Any supporter who does find himself unable to be present can purchase a ticket or send a contribution to the fund. The Luton Town Club will only be too pleased to add them to their total.

Now a word of welcome to our visitors today, Newcastle United. Events have proved that they come to us immune from the shadow of relegation. This is being fought out between Notts Forest and Barnsley, on the latter club's ground. The "Geordies" will find a large number of their partisans are resident in this town and will be assured of a royal welcome when they enter the arena. Let us hope that the exhibition will be a fitting close to doubtless the most thrilling season in the history of professional soccer.
