CLUB NOTES

The Opening Game

The opening of the 1950-51 season at Upton Park was truly sensational—the first goal of the campaign being netted inside one minute; that it was an “own goal” effort by Viggo Jensen, the Danish International half-back of the visiting team, made it even more out-of-the-ordinary.

Whilst it is our opinion that one of our players would most likely have put the finishing touches to the good move had not Jensen “obliged,” it was nevertheless a heartening start, and we were even more pleased when Bill Robinson added to the tally before the interval to give point to our first-half superiority. But Hull City proved their ability after the break with a change of tactics, and their three goals brought natural jubilation to their supporters. However, the Hammers likewise showed that they could fight back, and Gerry Gazzard’s equaliser left both teams struggling for the winner amid much excitement for the remainder of the game.

The 3-3 draw was a good reflection of the play and a fair result, for although in the early stages the defences were superior to the forwards, the game gradually took a turn in the reverse direction, and altogether there could be no complaints about the quality of entertainment.

The absence of Tommy Moroney from our advertised line-up last Saturday was due to a pulled thigh-muscle, which he sustained during training.

Our Visitors

We again have attractive opponents for our second League fixture of the season, for our somewhat “local” rivals from Luton have made a good start by defeating Brentford with two goals in the last ten minutes on Saturday last.

The influx of some new players to the Hatters’ side appears to have strengthened them, and in particular Whent (the former Brighton and Hove Albion skipper) had a very promising start. One or two of the visiting team that drew here 0-0 last December are missing today, but there is no reason why today’s XI’s should not produce an even better game than on the previous occasion when both sides played some excellent football despite gusty weather and a heavy ball.

A Creditable Performance

The following XI represented our A Team at Deal last Saturday in a friendly fixture : Chiswick; Bond, Kearns; Malcolm, Howe, Noakes; Southren, Petchey, Johns, Wade, K. Burks.

Against this strong Kent League club our youngsters showed up really well, and the home followers were full of praise for their efforts, especially when the Hammers were 3-0 up at half-time. Unfortunately for us Peter Chiswick sustained a shoulder injury that kept him off the field for nearly half-an-hour and although Freddy Kearns made a gallant deputy, the homesters’ made it

3-2 before Peter returned. The Town then went further ahead to lead by 4-3, but a last rally by our lads brought an equaliser from Ken Burks who had also been absent at the same time as Chiswick and returned to limp along the wing.

Our other goals were scored by Don Wade, Stan Johns (making his first appearance for us since transferring from South Liverpool last week) and Alf Noakes (who became a full-time professional last week after two years on our ground staff).

We hope that a reproduction of this form in Saturday's first Eastern Counties League match at Gorleston will bring further success.

The Reserves

As the match had not been played at the time of going to press, we cannot comment on yesterday evening's Football Combination fixture against Charlton Athletic Reserves at The Valley, for which our selected team was:

Taylor; Kearns, Forde; Corbett, Niblett, Cater; Southren, Parsons, Johns, Barrett, Tucker.

Continuing their Combination programme, our Reserves will entertain Southampton Reserves here on Saturday next (3 p.m.) and will meet Portsmouth Reserves on the following Thursday (August 31st) at 6.30 p.m.

Essex Professional Cup

There will undoubtedly be many present today who saw the first Final of the Essex Professional Cup, which was played on this ground last season.

We did not enter for the competition in its inaugural year, but it has been decided that the Hammers shall "have a go" this season, and we hope that success will come our way at the initial attempt.

As a matter of interest, we publish the draw for this season's competition, and it is interesting to note that we are to entertain Colchester United, newcomers to Division III (South) of the Football League this season.

FIRST ROUND

Clacton Town v. Chingford Town
Chelmsford City v. Southend United West Ham United v. Colchester United

SEMI-FINAL

Leyton Orient v. West Ham United or Colchester United Chelmsford City or Southend United v. Clacton Town or Chingford Town

Question Corner

HANDOUTS ON THE HAMMERS

Ernest Gregory

Ernie Gregory is an outstanding example of "local boy making good" in big-time soccer, for he was born at Stratford and attended St. Paul's School.

He first became known in soccer as a member of the West Ham Boys team that drew in the Final of the English Schools' Shield with Preston Boys, the two Associations sharing the trophy for the ensuing twelve months. He was also selected in that season for England v. The Rest.

On leaving school, Ernie became a member of our ground staff, and played for the Grafton club in the local youth league, later moving to the famous Leytonstone F.C. Whilst with the Stones he gained a league championship medal and also appeared in the Amateur Cup Semi-Final.

Ernie became a professional for the Hammers at the end of the 1939 season, but as a member of the Territorial Army joined H.M. Forces soon after the commencement of the war and served for nearly seven years, mostly in anti-aircraft units, ending up in Germany. He did, however, play quite an amount of soccer during his years in khaki, and upon resuming with us in 1946 was soon selected for the London Combination versus Diable Rouges, the famous Belgian team.

It is interesting to note that Ernie has a trio of honours against this representative side, for he had previously appeared as an amateur against them for the London F.A., and was again capped for the Combination in 1949.

Ernie accomplished a notable performance by appearing in every game for our First XI last season, and his displays there showed that he is still improving as more and more experience is gained, and we are hopeful that further honours will come his way before long.

Cricket and swimming are his other sports.
