No. 11.

9th December, 1950.

From the Board Room

THE successes gained in our earlier games this season, and the standard of football which had been reached has not been maintained in recent games, but this kind of thing happens to all teams at times for no apparent reason. The same players who brought those early successes still represent the Club apart from our regular left half-back, Noel Simpson, whose injury in the match against Doncaster Rovers lost us the services of this valuable player. He has started light training, but is still not ready to take his place in our senior eleven, and at the moment it is not possible to say when he will be. A player of Simpson's ability is bound to be missed, but his deputies, Alderton and Cook, in their turn, have given of their best, and we are confident that the present spell will be quickly overcome. The players who fought their way to the top of the league table can do so again.

We are fortunate that our nearest rivals, Manchester City and Blackburn Rovers have fared little better than ourselves in recent games, and the margin between us is therefore very small, one point only separating us from these two teams, who lead jointly with twenty six points to our twenty five. The season is still early, but it has reached a stage when a fairly accurate idea can be formed of the respective merits of the clubs. It has also shown, however, that the margin of difference between the twenty-two teams is not great, and that whichever clubs are ultimately successful in winning promotion have some hard games ahead of them.

Referring to our recent games, we could not begrudge Barnsley the home point they took from us, for they showed themselves to be an extremely well-balanced side, with a forward line as good as any seen here this season. The match was well-fought and even, and a draw a fair result. The game at Sheffield last Saturday was not so satisfactory, and the United were good value for their win. With some exceptions, our players were much below their usual form.

LUTON TOWN are well known to supporters for the many dour games that have been played between us in the past, and we welcome them to Coventry for today's game. Our visitors are experiencing their worst season since winning promotion to Division II in season 1936-37, and at the moment occupy bottom place in the league table with twelve points from nineteen games. Six of their nine away matches have been lost, but they have made creditable draws at Manchester, Nottingham, and Chesterfield. Honours were even between us last season, points going to the home side in each game.
