A BLACKPOOL BULLETIN

This afternoon we welcome the Luton Town team to Bloomfield Road as our opponents in the Third Round of the ever-popular Football Association Challenge Cup Competition.

We also extend a most hearty welcome to the many Luton fans who have made the long journey to Blackpool in support of their Kenilworth Road favourites.

The "Hatters" have a very fine post-war Cup record, and with wins over such sides as Portsmouth, Charlton Athletic, Manchester City and Blackburn Rovers to their credit, are capable of providing formidable opposition to-day.

Their present Second Division placing puts them well in the running for promotion and, with 84 League and 12 Cup goals last season, they only just missed joining the First Division ranks as well as making their mark in Cup history.

Bolton Wanderers, the Cup Finalists with Blackpool, had a very tough position to face in their Fifth Round visit to Luton, where one goal was sufficient to win a very very close game.

If our visitors can produce that sort of football in to-day's encounter, then we should have a match to remember.

Jesse Pye, the ex-Wolverhampton Wanderers' leader, who scored 24 League and four Cup goals last season, had the misfortune to suffer an injury a few weeks ago which will keep him out of to-day's game. To lose the services of such a player is a severe blow. We, also, are unfortunate in losing the services of centre-half Johnny Crosland through an injury received last week, but we have to accept these reverses which always seem to crop up about the time the Cup matches are due to be played.

Anyhow, whatever our fortunes to-day, we want to hear plenty of vocal encouragement. I am informed that the Luton supporters can muster a very useful choir indeed. So don't forget, do your best, and I am sure that the boys on the field will respond in the proper manner.

Ernie Taylor's two goals at fog-shrouded Bloomfield Road last Saturday should have been good enough to earn the points against any opposition, but it was not to be, for once again, after being in the lead on two occasions, we forfeited a point. This was a game which we might have won handsomely, and indeed, it looked as if it would be so after we had taken the lead in the first few minutes, but Sheffield United would not give in and were rewarded for their persistence with an equal share of the spoils.

At Bramall Lane, the Reserves put on a very good show and took both points in a 3-2 victory.

Next Saturday, Huddersfield Town Second team will be on view at Bloomfield Road, and as they won the corresponding game here last season, and also have an early season victory over us at Leeds Road, there should be plenty of excitement.

The First Team face tough opposition in the Huddersfield Town First Eleven at Leeds Road.

The newly-promoted Yorkshiremen came to grief at Blackpool earlier in the season, when the score read 3-1 in our favour. The Fourth Round Cup defeat last season, added to this result, will make the Town doubly keen to bring about our downfall. On present League placings, we must line up as second favourites in this encounter, but we have started in that unfavourable position many times in the past—and won. It is not beyond us to do it again.
