WE have the pleasure of meeting our old friends from nearby Watford this evening in the Second Round of the Southern Floodlight Challenge Cup Competition. They meet us as a result of beating Charlton Athletic by 4 goals to 1 in the First Round in a Replay, at Millwall, after being held to a draw of 2 goals each at their first meeting at Watford, while we won our Round here at Kenilworth Road, on the evening of the last Wednesday in September, by beating Chelsea after a most entertaining match by 4 goals to 2. If we win our match with Watford tonight, we pass into the Semi-Finals of the Competition, and this is the beauty of this Competition in that if we win we still have an interest which becomes greater each Round that is won, whereas if we are beaten then we can forget the whole thing for another twelve months and are at liberty to arrange other matches as we wish, instead of being bogged down with a whole lot of League fixtures which except for one or two Clubs has lost all interest. The other matches in this Second Round are as follows:—

Aldershot v. Brentford
 Queens Park Rangers v. Reading
 West Ham v. Arsenal

We are pleased to see that "Sos" Allen is in the Watford side this evening. He has appeared several times for the "Blue Shirts" in the position of outside left and not without some success. We wish him well for the future.
