CLUB NOTES

PRESTON NORTH END, who are our visitors to-day and to whom we extend a very warm welcome, readily fell in with our suggestion that we play part of our match with them by Floodlight to enable the kick-off to be delayed until 3 o'clock and so enable those spectators who find an early kick-off most inconvenient more time in which to get here. Playing part of the match under Floodlight is an attempt to meet these people as far as possible, and at the moment Arsenal, who will be here in a month's time, have also kindly agreed to play under them, but if the experiment is not the success we anticipate then we will have to reconsider the position very carefully. We are very grateful, however, to the Preston Club for agreeing to this arrangement and we trust it proves of benefit to all.

After a most dismal start in which they obtained only four points from their first seven matches Preston have had a very successful run since the appointment of Cliff Britten as their Manager and have in fact obtained thirteen points from their last nine matches which has taken them three places above ourselves in the Table. Immediately Mr. Britten arrived at Deepdale he experimented with Tom Finney in the centre forward position, and this has proved so very successful that not only has it made Preston now one of the leading Clubs in the country but the England Selectors have chosen Finney to lead England in that position against Wales, at Wembley, on Wednesday next. This is indeed a great honour for both Manager and player, and we feel the Selectors have made a very good choice. We wish Tom more success in that match than in the one in which he is taking part today (if you know what we mean).

The Youth side were playing Birmingham City Youth this morning, at St. Andrews, in the Second Round of the F.A. Youth Challenge Cup. Our lads beat the Wolverhampton lads very decisively a few weeks ago by three goals to one which in itself was a very stiff hurdle. They faced their task this morning with this win over Wolverhampton to help their confidence, and we sincerely hope that when the result is given over the mike this afternoon that our lads have again pulled it off. If they have they play away to either Walsall or Stoke City in the Third Round.

We had a very good match here last Wednesday evening when we met Watford in the Second Round of the Southern Floodlight Cup Competition, and after losing the lead at three goals to two eventually won by four goals to three and so pass into the Semi-final of this Competition. Watford played some very nice football and were certainly the better team in the first half, but gradually we got on top, although only a very clever goal by Bob Morton sealed the fate of our opponents as far as this year's interest in the Cup is concerned. We thank the Watford lads however for putting up a very good show which the 3,935 spectators we feel sure thoroughly enjoyed.

Next Thursday evening, again under the Floodlights, we shall be staging the Second Round Replay in the F.A. County Youth Championship between Bedfordshire and Northamptonshire, kickoff 7.15 p.m. Prices of admission, as shown elsewhere, are very reasonable, and we hope quite a few of you will turn up to encourage our youngsters to advance into the next Round. Incidentally eight of our own Youth have been chosen to represent Bedfordshire, so there is that added local interest to make this match more attractive as far as local support is concerned.

Then on Saturday morning next, kick-off 11 o'clock, the Luton Schoolboys will be playing Cambridge Schoolboys in the Second Round of the English Schools' Shield Competition. This is another very attractive match, for these boys certainly put their heart and soul into their game and some very nice football is seen. Come along and see these youngsters in action for yourselves. We are sure you will not regret it.

To keep you all in touch with events we show all the matches which have been arranged for the remainder of this month:—
