CLUB NOTES

BRING out those rattles, wave that scarf, it's into battle we go again! Once more January is here and off we go on yet another quest along the trail to Wembley. Yes, its F.A. Cup time and the coveted trophy is the prize sought after by all the sixty four clubs from England and Wales in conflict today.

With four rounds to win before the semi-final it is a long, hard road before the opportunity knocks to play on the luscious green turf and before the exciting crowds of that mighty Wembley Stadium. This season we were privileged to be the team drawn FIRST out of the bag when the 3rd Round draw took place. Now, let us all combine to give that extra cheer of encouragement this afternoon and then, who knows, we may be the LAST team left in the competition!

In welcoming our Cup opponents Leeds United to Kenilworth Road today we must remember that they are, for us, as far as the Cup is concerned something of an unknown quantity. By the luck (or bad luck) of the draw we have never met before in all the competition's history. This should greatly add to the interest and spectacle of the game today, for each side will be out to impress the other with a showing of true cup-fighting spirit.

Both our Yorkshire opponents and ourselves have never really had the same good Cup fortune which has stayed with teams like Newcastle, Aston Villa, or in latter years, Bolton Wanderers. These teams have, too often, dominated the Final scene, but not so Leeds or Luton. In fact, neither of us have ever reached the semi-final. Unfortunately one Club is certain to remain in the same position after this fixture, for another year at least, so let's all hope it isn't Luton!

Last season the 3rd Round was a bad moment for our opponents today—and for us too! Leeds United had the luck last season to be drawn at home but the cheers of the Elland Road crowd could not inspire their team to overcome Cardiff City, who strode on to the next Round with a 2-1 victory. Our own showing was equally as dismal. Away to the Cheshire side, Stockport County we were well and truly beaten 3-0 and Stockport were only lowly Third Division opposition at the time, finishing the season just high enough to continue in that Division when the Fourth Division was formed. This all proves just how unpredictable the Cup trail can be. Undoubtedly each side today will be out to better last season's Cup performance.

Our home and away fixtures against Leeds in the League championship were quickly disposed of very early this season. Both matches were mid-week engagements as long ago as the last week in August and the first week in September. As you probably all remember each of these fixtures resulted in a 1-1 draw, although we consider ourselves unfortunate in not bagging the two points when we played at Elland Road. Leeds on the other hand were full value for the point they obtained at Kenilworth Road. Since the introduction of Don Revie into the attack Leeds seem to have found a new striking power which has given their fans fresh encouragement.

If our First Division record against Leeds is to be any indication of the result this afternoon we will still be taking a keen interest in the Cup when the draw for the Fourth Round is made on Monday, for of all the matches we have played against Leeds in the top division we have never yet been beaten. At Elland Road we have won twice and drawn twice in our four encounters, while at home all four matches have been drawn. It should therefore be quite an interesting Cup struggle.

After the sensational goal-spree of our Boxing Day fixture our first match in 1959 was something of an anti-climax with a 'morning after-the-night-before' look about it. The visit of Birmingham City was, on paper, one of the 'easier' home fixtures, for it was at St. Andrews earlier in the season that we gained our only away victory. But the 'double' was not to be.

Once again it was the lack of punch from the forward line which let us down. We began by looking complete masters of the situation but a long shot by left half Neal put Birmingham ahead after only four minutes in what was their first attack. We never really recovered from this early blow. On top of this a further stab was yet another missed penalty. To find a marksman as a penalty taker seems to have eluded us, for past 'penalty-king' Gordon Turner is now so sadly amiss from the spot that penalties are proving of no value to us. This is really a sorry state for every missed penalty is a blow to the confidence of any team. In our own case it has also meant goodbye to many valuable points—something we cannot afford.

While our first team were floundering in the mud here at Luton our Reserves were fighting through hail, snow and fog to beat Birmingham's Reserves by 3-2. This was a good win, for with Terry Kelly on first team duty and full back McNally on the injured list, it was again a very young side we fielded. Birmingham on the other hand, had such stars as centre forward Eddy Brown and expensive winger Hooper in their side, which makes our performance even more creditable. It must be noted that Tony Gregory scored from the penalty spot, and in fact this young man has been playing so well lately that he has been chosen for first team duty this afternoon.

Seamus Dunne's injured toe has not responded to treatment as was hoped and so Brendan McNally is given another chance of first team duty. He certainly did not let the side down at Highbury, and was most disappointed when an injury prevented him taking the field against Birmingham last Saturday. However he is all right again and so enables Bob Morton to move into the forward line, a position not new to him. What a wonderful Club man Bob is. Moved anywhere, never a grumble, and never a bad game. It was a toss up between Allan Brown and Gordon Turner as to who was to wear the number 8 shirt. In the end the choice went to Brown in view of his very good match against Arsenal here on Boxing Day in that position also the way he linked up with Billy Bingham. It is a try-out for more effectiveness in front of goal. If it does not succeed we are happy in the knowledge that we have the sharp-shooting Gordon Turner ready in the background to see how he would fit into this forward line.

How really ardent are you Luton soccer fans? The point of this is that should today's match end all-square the replay will be at Elland Road, Leeds, next Wednesday, under floodlights, kick-off 7 p.m. There is unfortunately no excursion train arranged due to the uncertain demand, but for the real fan this will be no obstacle. The trip can be made, but don't expect to catch the last bus home on your return! Leaving Luton (Midland Road) on the 12.5 p.m. train, Leeds is reached at 4.30 p.m. After the game you catch the 10.15 p.m. from Leeds (City) and reach Luton at 4.26 a.m. on Thursday! Replay tickets, 7/6 and 5/6 seats, will be on sale at the Club Offices after the game today.

However, a win today will put us in the bag for the 4th Round draw on Monday. Should we have this luck and be drawn at home please await the official announcement regarding tickets which will be published in the local press as soon as possible. Applications which jump the gun just cannot be considered.

We have been informed by Bunty Coaches, Costins Limited and Messrs Seamounts Bros. that they are running coaches to Upton Park, on Saturday, 17th January, when we play West Ham United. Bunty Coaches will leave The Square, Dunstable, at 12.15 p.m. Costins' Coaches will leave Dunstable Town Hall, at 12.15 p.m. and both will pick up at Alma Street, at 12.30 p.m. Seamounts' Coaches will leave Alma Street, at 12.30 p.m. Fares are 8/- return. Anyone interested please enquire at the respective offices.

Remember the step to Round 4 today is steep; so tune up those tonsils, lubricate your larynx and CHEER!
