TOM FINNEY

This afternoon marks a sad occasion in the affairs of Preston North End Football Club, when we acknowledge a more than fond farewell to one of this country's most illustrious soccer sons.

Tom Finney has graced the footballing scene in all parts of the world for many a long day, to the lasting credit of his club, his town and his nationality. Football universally identifies him for his true worth and the game is the poorer for his retirement.

For us at Deepdale the loss is emotionally personal, in this we echo the affectionate sentiments of every North End supporter. It is with deep regret that we must abide by his decision to retire after his years of sterling service, and unrivalled example both on and off the field.

WE WISH TO PLACE ON RECORD OUR DEEP AND ABIDING APPRECIATION AND HEARTFELT THANKS FOR TOM FINNEY'S INVALUABLE CONTRIBUTION AND DEVOTION TO THE WELFARE OF PRESTON NORTH END FOOTBALL CLUB.

Tom Finney . . . "FAME IS THE SPUR"

31st August, 1937.—Registered by North End as amateur in the Preston and District League, aged 15 years.

4th May, 1939.—Debut at outside right for North End juniors at Deepdale, against Manchester United juniors "Mujacs."

9th May, 1939.—Registered as amateur with the Football League.

25th January, 1940.—Registered as professional with the Football League.

10th May, 1941.—Football League War Cup Final v. Arsenal—drawn at Wembley, replay at Blackburn several days later. Outside right in this season of War Cup and League double win.

July, 1945.—First representative honours for the F.A. XI (in Zurich).

31st August, 1946.—Football League debut in the opening game of the first season after World War II—at Deepdale against Leeds United, when he scored the first of his 187 League goals.

28th September, 1946.—The first of his 76 England international honours—against Ireland at Belfast, scoring the first of his thirty goals for England.

His 76 England appearances include 40 at outside right, 33 at outside left and 3 at centre forward. His 30 goals for England equals the individual England scoring record, shared by Nat Lofthouse. In his 76 England games, he was on the losing side a mere twelve occasions.

TWICE ELECTED "FOOTBALLER OF THE YEAR"—in 1954 and 1957, the only player to receive this signal honour on more than one occasion.
