LINES FROM THE PAVILION

LINCOLN CITY were not permitted to spring any surprises a fortnight ago and so, as in 1958, 1959 and 1960 we reached the fifth round of the F.A. Cup. But to qualify for the quarter-finals as in the last two seasons, a display on a par with that which accounted for Everton at Goodison Park in the third round, appears to be necessary. For the opposition next Saturday will be last season's Cup runners-up, Blackburn Rovers.

Blackburn are not an expensive contingent of the mould of Everton, but they are probably of sterner qualities. Their skill is buttressed by determination and a fighting spirit. We have not far to seek to find evidence of this. When they went to Hillsborough on 10th December last, they were 5-1 down to Sheffield Wednesday at half-time. It looked as though Wednesday had two points in the bag.

But in the last half-hour Blackburn scored three goals and were beaten only 5-4. If there had been another five minutes to go they would probably have drawn level. Indeed, they might have won, seeing they had scored two of their goals in two minutes and were pressing Wednesday mighty hard.

That reminder of Wednesday's experience should be sufficient to prevent anyone jumping to conclusions next Saturday in the event of our "boys" securing any early advantage in goals. No match, especially a Cup-tie, is won—or lost—until the final whistle. Prudence must be the watchword!

There is, however, no reason to be pessimistic; no reason for our team to allow themselves to be intimidated by Blackburn's spirit. In the third round, the Rovers knocked out Chesterfield 3-0 at Ewood Park only after making a goal-less draw at Saltergate. The Rovers next conquered Bolton Wanderers. But again only in a replay at Ewood Park (4-0) following a 3-3 draw at Bolton.

The Rovers have won only one away match since they won at Leicester on 3rd September—by 2-1 at West Bromwich on 12th November. It is up to our United team to make the best use of ground advantage.

Outstanding in their attack are the three D's—England international winger Bryan Douglas; his partner England Under-23 international, Peter Dobing; and Irish international Derek Dougan, the Cheyenne of centre-forwards. There's another England Under-23 international inside-forward in Chris. Crowe, ex-Leeds United.

The Blackburn captain is the oft-capped and former England captain, Ronnie Clayton, the right half-back. Centre half-back, Matt Woods, is the ex-Everton player and stands 6ft. tall. The tie promises to be full of thrills and good football and worthy of a 50,000 plus crowd!

Swansea, on the wave of success just now, were pretty ruthless on the Vetch Field last Saturday and United were beaten 3-0. It was not United's lucky day. Twice was the Swansea crossbar struck and at least four shots were the narrowest of misses. We won't hold an inquest, however. You will have read the various match reports.

We must, nevertheless, realise the fact that the reverse caused a deterioration of our position as Second Division leaders, one that must not be ignored. Weigh up the situation at the moment.

Although Ipswich Town dropped a home point to Rotherham United last Saturday and are two points behind us they have two matches in hand. Liverpool, in third place, are 5 points behind. So are Middlesbrough, placed fourth, and also Southampton, fifth down. But all those clubs also have two matches in hand.

True, points in hand are better than points in the bush. For all that the tension is now appreciably greater, the promotion race much tighter than it was.

Those forthcoming home matches with the four challengers: Ipswich, Liverpool, Middlesbrough and Southampton will be vital affairs with the points at stake in each of them possessing double value. If we are not careful promotion might depend on the result of our last League match of the season with Middlesbrough at the Lane on 29th April.

We are pleased to say that Keith Kettleborough had a try-out with the Central League side against Blackpool Reserves last Saturday and came through the test reasonably well, though, naturally, after his long lay-off is not 100 per cent. fit yet.

We have to congratulate Joe and Graham Shaw on being invited to go with the F.A. team to tour New Zealand in the close season. Joe, of course, toured Australia with the F.A. party in 1951, also Jimmy Hagan and Ted Burgin.

Our Northern Intermediate League team lost 5-0 to Sheffield Wednesday in the fourth round of the F.A. Youth Cup. Allowance must be made for the fact that two or three of the boys had been down with 'flu. And it was a very nasty wet night with ground conditions most testing. Good luck to the Wednesday youngsters in the next round!

WHEN UNITED FINISHED WITH EIGHT MEN

CONSIDERING that Blackburn Rovers have been Cup winners six times; Cup runners-up eight times and semi-finalists 16 times, it is rather remarkable that next Saturday's fifth round match at Bramall Lane will be only the second Cup-tie between the Rovers and United. Blackburn have been Cup-fighters 81 years and United 71. The clubs were paired in the first round at Ewood Park in 1897 and Blackburn won by 2-1. That was the year United were runners-up for the League Championship, which they won for the first and only time a year later.

The history of Blackburn Rovers makes fascinating reading and we give a few facts and fancies. Today most football clubs have their supporters' backing through football pools competitions and the like. In 1886, in order to help their funds, the Rovers had a prize draw. Thousands of tickets were sold at 6d. and 1s. each and the first prize was a "Rovers' Cottage," valued at £140, near the ground.

The other prizes were: 2, cottage piano value £20; 3, gentleman's gold watch value £15; 4, lady's gold watch value £10; 5, brass Tudor bedstead value £7; sewing machine value £5; 7, perambulator value £4; 8, washing and wringing machine value £3; 9, china tea-service value £2; 10, writing desk value £1. There were also 20 prizes of lesser value.

Famous Blackburn Olympic also ran a big prize draw. Their first prize was a house of furniture. But the man who won the cottage didn't win the furniture.

There have been many memorable League matches between United and the Rovers. In January, 1911, Blackburn paid Falkirk the then record fee of £1,800 for winger Jock Simpson. He had established a big reputation with Falkirk, but he couldn't play for Scotland because he had been born at Pendleton, near Manchester. Six weeks after he was born, the family moved to Falkirk.

Jock made his debut for Blackburn at Bramall Lane on 28th January, 1911, before a crowd of 40,000, and within a few weeks became England's outside-right.

This season many matches have had to be postponed or abandoned because of wretched conditions, but there's been no parallel to the extraordinary events of 29th October, 1932, when United were beaten at Blackburn 3-0.

In the first half United had to face rain, sleet and a driving wind. Soon, there were pools of water on the pitch; players slithered about, the ball stopped where it fell in water. At half-time Rovers were two up, having scored through McLean and Cunliffe.

So much had been taken out of the players that the interval was prolonged until they had all changed completely and had more or less recovered. The pitch was now worse than ever with a miniature lake at one end. It was a case of kick and splash when the second half began, the Rovers being short of Jack Bruton for 20 minutes.

When Bruton appeared on the field, McLean, in a sorry state, had to leave. United players rushed to the trainer for sustenance out of the "magic" bottle. United's goalkeeper, Kendall, also had to be given a bracer.

Came another torrential downpour and the United players, followed by nine of the Rovers scamped off the field for shelter.

The referee, Mr. A. J. Caseley, of Wolverhampton, decided to suspend play for ten minutes. In the dressing rooms the players of both teams were shivering, many suffering from cramp. Directors of both clubs, and the referee had conferences; Mr. Caseley said the match had to be finished. The suspension of play lasted 25 minutes.

Then came another sensation, referee Caseley himself collapsed. That, however, did not stop the match being resumed. Mr. Berry, senior linesman, acted as referee and a local referee went on the line. United had been fitted up with maroon jerseys and black knickers. Rovers turned out with 11 men, United with eight and in semi darkness the farce was finished.

LUTON HAVE YET TO WIN AWAY MATCH

IN 1955, Luton Town, today's visitors, finished second in the Second Division table and won promotion to the First Division, heading off Rotherham United by virtue of a superior goal-average. You will remember that in '55 Birmingham City, Luton and Rotherham all finished level in points, 54 each. Now the "Hatters" are back in the Second Division, losing their premier status last season.

That campaign was rather a heart-breaking period for Syd. Owen, who had been appointed manager on the eve of the 1959 Cup Final; a tribute to the loyal and distinguished service he had given the club for 13 years.

Syd., an outstanding centre-half and captain, had played in more than 400 League and Cup matches for the Town and had never been out of the first team except when on the injured list. He had gained three England caps, had toured Australia, South Africa and West Indies.

He succeeded "Dally" Duncan, who had been appointed manager of Blackburn Rovers. Now, Syd. is trainer-coach with Leeds United and we imagine he's happier without the responsibility of management.

Last July, the one-time star goalkeeper of Charlton Athletic and York City manager, Sam Bartram, was appointed Mr. Owen's successor and is having rather a mixed experience while rebuilding resources.

One experience he is never likely to forget occurred quite recently. A fortnight ago the Town were losing 6-2 at home to Manchester City in the fourth round of the Cup when, some 20 minutes from time, the match had to be abandoned. Contrary to general expectations, Luton triumphed in the replay by 3-1.

In the third round Luton beat Nottingham at Kenilworth Road by 4-0. Next Saturday, however, they have to tackle Barnsley at Oakwell and they cannot afford to take anything for granted. You see, the "Hatters" are the only team in the Second Division who have failed to win at least one away match.

Of 13 played they have lost 9 and drawn 4—at Huddersfield (1-1), Plymouth (1-1), Liverpool (2-2), and Lincoln (1-1). As a matter of fact since they drew at Liverpool on 7th September they have only once scored more than one goal in an away match and that was on 10th December when they lost 5-2 at Millmoor. In the last nine away matches they have scored only seven goals.

When United played Luton Town at Kenilworth Road last September, they won 4-1, but we must point out that the United were leading only 1-0 when Luton lost their international goalkeeper, Ron Baynham, after 30 minutes' play. He and Nibloe collided and Baynham had to be taken to hospital suffering from concussion and a cut head.

Seamus Dunne, the Eire international back, went into goal. The Irishman did quite well but before half-time Simpson had buttressed Pace's first goal with a second goal and Russell added a third early in the second half. Gordon Turner reduced his team's arrears seven minutes from time, but within a minute Pace popped on a fourth for United.

Eventually Sam Bartram secured the transfer of another goalkeeper in Jim Standen from Arsenal and Standen was in the side that beat Manchester City in the Cup replay. So was Dunne, who was recalled to the first team after missing the first match with the Mancunians.

Another player brought back was the resourceful wing-half, Bob Morton, former England reserve right-half, who resumed the captaincy. Incidentally, Dunne and Morton have between them, played more than 700 times for the Luton first team.

Before signing Standen, Bartram made a dual deal with Everton. He parted with the ex-Sunderland international winger, Bingham, and Everton let him have a back in Jack Bramwell, previously with Wigan Athletic, and a forward in Alec Ashworth. Ashworth it was who scored four of the goals in the two Cup games with Manchester City, playing at inside-right.

Gordon Turner was centre-forward. Last season Turner scored only half-a-dozen League goals, but in the previous five seasons he hit 134 League and Cup goals.

In season 1954-55 when promotion was won, his "bag" was 37; in 1955-56, 19; in 1956-57, 31; in 1957-58, 33; and 1958-59, 14. This season, in League and Cup his total is 20. His father, a native of Sheffield, played for Hull City at the same time as Dally Duncan and it was Mr. Duncan, who signed Gordon for Luton.

Alan Brown, the Scottish international who, when with Blackpool, was prevented by injury from playing in the 1951 and 1953 Cup Finals and who figured in Luton's '59 Cup Final side, is still on the strength.

Operating at outside-left is Fleming, who was obtained from Partick Thistle last November. Left-half Alwyn McGuffie, Scot from a Glasgow minor club, was his partner in the Cup replay with Manchester City instead of Brown.

Centre-half Terry Kelly, who succeeded Syd. Owen, is a local; product of Vauxhall Motors. He stands nearly 6ft. and weighs over 12st. Right-winger Dave Noakes used to be with Dorchester Town.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB NOTES

At Swansea, we were up against a team playing above their usual performance, and we lost. Nevertheless, the Swansea Supporters told us it was the best game they had seen this season, and that United were the best team they had met, and were certain to be promoted. Maybe they were in a generous mood. The biggest cheer of the match came just before the end when it was announced that the Springboks had been beaten at Cardiff Arms Park. It was small consolation to the few who had made the arduous journey, because the Barbarians are not a Welsh team. Will any member of the Supporters' Club who has not applied for a Ticket for the Cup-tie next Saturday, please do so today at one of the Club huts. Please do not apply for Terrace Tickets as we all know the limits of the accommodation at the Lane, and there is plenty of room at each end, and around the ground. Tickets for the fourth and last Buster of the season are now on sale at 1/-, for which you can win £120. C.G.
