ORIENTAL CHATTER . . .

By "FORESTER"

On this Good Friday evening, Orient are pleased to renew acquaintances with Luton and extend a warm welcome to the club's directors, officials, players and supporters. Last year, when Luton were experiencing their first season in new surroundings after unfortunately being relegated, Orient scored a double, winning by 1-0 at Luton and then scoring a 2-1 victory on this ground. But in the latter case it was a very near thing for the O's. Luton put up a tremendous fight and it was not until the last two minutes that Orient got their winning goal, scored by Alan Sealey, now with West Ham. Orient's first goal was bagged by Sid Bishop. The return match, at Luton, is on Easter Monday.

Orient were obliged to make this an early evening match in view of the competition in their midst. Both Spurs and West Ham have home games today, and Orient, avoiding a clash with the kick-off times of their First Division neighbours, decided on an evening match and brought the time forward an hour than is usual so as to allow our opponents to return to the Midlands the same evening.

This Eastertide is just about as critical as any in the history of the Leyton Orient club. It is fair to surmise that the fate of the Orient will be established by Easter Monday evening. Is it going to be First Division football on this ground next season, or will the O's be written off as jolly good failures? There are a thousand "ifs" and "buts" and one, of course, has to bear in mind what Orient's nearest challengers do as well. On the other hand, the destiny of Orient may depend on their very last match of all this season—against Bury, on this ground, on Saturday week. Who knows?

What it amounts to is that Orient have four matches in the span of eight days, two at home, including today's fixture, and two away. Tomorrow, Orient visit Norwich which, by and large, is always a tough assignment, but Orient, this season in particular, seem to pull something out of the points-bag when they go travelling. Their League figures, prior to today's match, read exactly the same for home and away—Won 10, Drawn 4, Lost 5. The goals "for" and "against," of course, show a difference, but not much—"for" 32 (for both home and away games); goals "against" (home) 17, goals "against" (away) 22. Liverpool are hard and fast at the top of the table with 53 points for 36 games. Orient, with 48 points for 38 matches, are now being hotly pursued by new challengers, Sunderland, who for the same number of games are only two points behind Orient. Ironically enough, Sunderland won at Luton last Saturday by 2-1.

Orient's disappointing showing against Scunthorpe last Saturday was a big blow to all Orient fans and followers and that goal by the visitors in the opening 30 seconds was even a bigger blow to our promotion chances. But there you are, that goal proved to be the winner. Orient failed to recover from this electrifying setback and make the frank admission that since the 3-0 victory over Walsall on January 13th, they have captured but three points in seven succeeding home matches. That is not promotion form. But as against that, the O's have taken six points from five away games during the same period.

What a pity the Orient did not beat Scunthorpe. It would have eased their situation no end. Let's be fair to the "Boys in Blue" in this match. I am not going to say they played anything like First Division candidates, but surely on the run of the play—the O's had three-parts of it—they deserved at least one goal. I can recall two outstanding instances in each half when nine times out of ten the ball would have found the net for Orient. But no, this was not Orient's day, and believe you me, there is a lot to be said for trying too hard. And say what you will, but I say that you must get the breaks and the run of the ball, not all the time, but sometimes. You know, the Orient got neither in this particular game. Now they must make every effort to attain their goal and I feel sure that with your help and encouragement at all times they will not give up without a worthwhile fight. So now more than ever lads and lassies, it is UP, UP, UP the O's. Good luck. Boys.

SUPPORTERS' CLUB NOTES

As a general rule, this time of the year, the enthusiasm in football from the spectators point of view, usually wanes. Teams midway in the league table offer but little attraction, in our case, a different picture presents itself. These last four games are vital to our team, every point is golden and each match presents a cup-tie atmosphere. To those of us whose association with this club extends over many years can reflect on past memories and realise that the stalwarts in the days when our club was threatened with extinction, can now see their efforts bearing fruition. To these loyal supporters lies the potential glory, to our new friends the challenge to maintain the present position so dearly won. We are confident that the challenge will not go unanswered.

Let us turn our minds to the present, the committee are most anxious that as supporters we celebrate this year's success. To this we offer our Annual Dinner and Dance. Here we hope to meet our supporters, the directors, staff and players, in short, everyone that matters. Yes, it's all yours for the asking. So why not book your reservation now. May I repeat the venue, Plantation House, Mincing Lane, E.C.3., the date, Saturday, May 12th, 1962, the price of the tickets, 35s. each.

Very shortly we shall be preparing our Annual Report and Balance Sheet in which we shall be giving an account of our stewardship. It certainly will present a bright picture, a season's work well done. We hope that all members will renew their membership early and so help us in compiling the new register.

The Annual Conference of the National Federation of Football Supporters Clubs is being held this year at Torquay and your club is being represented by the chairman, F. W. Dunn and secretary, F. Mitchell. At this conference, business affecting all supporters clubs is discussed and your club delegates take an active part in discussions and deliberations. It is here, too, that we meet our counterparts from every part of the country and gain that experience so necessary in successful management of supporters clubs.

You still have time to win some valuable cash prizes, tonight we have on sale our Jack-Pot Competition tickets. The purchase of a ticket enables you to partake in the draw at half-time for the cash prizes. The larger the sales, the larger the prize money. Make sure of your ticket on entering the ground. Tickets 6d. each.
