Club Notes

THIS evening we receive Preston North End in our last early season mid-week home match, and extend to them a warm welcome on yet another visit to Kenilworth Road. Until last Saturday they had not won any of the four matches played but then at home to Newcastle they won by two goals to one and thus no doubt brought much relief for defeats at Plymouth 7-1 and at Walsall 4-1, although some had been obtained by drawn games with Norwich 2-2 and Plymouth 0-0, both at home. Last season we had Preston as our visitors for the opening match which we won fairly comfortably by four goals to one. Preston, one of the twelve original Clubs to form the Football League in 1888, were League Champions and F.A. Cup Winners in that season, winning the Cup without conceding a single goal. This latter feat has only been equalled by Bury when they won the Cup in 1902/03. Preston also have the honour of having won the League Championship in that first year without losing a match.

Our lads had rather a disappointing match at Charlton last Saturday, losing by two clear goals to give the Athletic their first win of the season. Our forward line never "got together" somehow and although some of the approach work was quite good the finishing rather lacked that incisiveness which brings goals. Jim Goldie hit an upright when we were one goal in arrears which, had it registered, could have changed the course of the match but apart from a very determined effort by Freddy Jardine which ended in the ball hitting the side netting our forwards could not again penetrate the strong barrier put up by the Charlton defence. Jardine on this showing would have been included in to-night's match but, as fortune would have it, he slipped on the wet surface while training yesterday morning causing a slight strain which prevents him playing. We hope that with the return of Gordon Turner in the line-up this evening, following his match with the Reserves last Saturday, that he will have found his old shooting boots for Turner on the goal-standard cannot be left out of the side. Brendan McNally returns to the side following his very successful turn-out for Eire last Sunday against Iceland, at Reykjavik in the Second Leg of the European Nations Cup Tie, drawing one goal each and so Eire go forward on aggregate by 5 goals to 3.

Our Reserve side won their Combination fixture against Northampton Res. here last Saturday by six goals to two in a very entertaining match. There was some good football from both sides, with a very promising display by young David Lovell in the outside left position. The way he worked the ball down the left wing early in the game, beating three men to give young Mat Brennan the perfect opening was well worth seeing. The ease also with which Alwyn McGuffie scored from the 'spot' to register our third goal. This young team, nicely supported by the experienced Ron Cope at centre half, is doing very well and pleasing the Manager very much. Also very pleasing to him was the way in which our Junior side trounced the Charlton Youth at Charlton
