because they are in a part of Lancashire in which there is considerable competition.

Yet, they are making a brave bid for promotion this season under the guiding influence of the player - manager, Bob Stokoe, the former Newcastle United star.

Although they failed unexpectedly at Walsall last Saturday, a result which, incidentally, was not helpful to us in our present position. Bury have the best defensive record in the Second Division.

They have been fortunate in being able to maintain a settled team this season and the introduction of former Manchester United winger, Warren Bradley this afternoon is only their second change — and their defence has remained intact.

We hope for victory today, but realise that it will be a hard struggle against formidable opposition.

Tickets for the 3rd Round F.A. Cup Tie with Swindon Town on January 5th are now on sale at the Club Office. Prices are Main Stand 7/6, Enclosure 5/- (Boys 2/6). Entrance to all other parts of the Ground will be by payment at the Turnstiles. Bobbers Stand 4/-, (Boys) 2/-; Terraces 3/-, (Boys) 1/6. This season we have just under 1,000 Season Ticket Holders so that we are able for the first time to allow two Tickets per Holder if applied for. The extra ticket will not be for the adjoining seat if already taken up by a Season Ticket Holder, but every endeavour will be taken to allocate a ticket for a seat as near to the Reserved Season seat as possible. Tickets can be obtained at the Office, 70 Kenilworth Road or by postal application accompanied by a stamped and addressed

Yet, we hit back very quickly afterwards with Alwyn McGuffie accepting a chance carved out by the joint efforts of Ron Davies and Harry Walden.

At half-time, Plymouth were a little relieved to be on terms and their supporters were saying that Luton's football was far ahead of what they expected from a team in our low position.

Once they went ahead early in the second half, Plymouth became a much-changed team and, in the end, we went down 3-1.

However, we are convinced that the team is playing well enough to take us out of this desperate situation, especially if our hunt for an inside forward and, at the time of writing these notes, we have high hopes of signing Stuart Leary, has been successful.

Today, we welcome our old friends of many years from Bury who, like ourselves, do not enjoy generous support.

envelope with remittance. Season Ticket Holders must produce the Blue Slip for Round 3 out of their Season Ticket Book when applying, and application is requested by Saturday, December 29th otherwise the seat will be available to the general public.

Our Reserves continue to go great guns, despite the fact that they have seldom fielded the same team two weeks running.

Their win over a strong Leicester team last Saturday was their tenth of the season and extended their unbeaten run to seven games.

In our weekly football pool, the accumulator was won this week by Mr. K. Taylor, 102 Wellington Street, Luton, who was also fortunate enough to win the fourth dividend for the highest number of goals scored in three drawn matches. In all, he won £82 17s.

To all sellers of tickets, a reminder that the counterfoils and unsold tickets for our Grand Christmas Draw must be returned to the Pool Club's offices by Monday next.

We apologise to season ticket holders for the temporary inconvenience which has resulted from the disastrous fire of a fortnight ago. The contractors have assured us that we will be back to normal in time for our match with Chelsea on Boxing Day.

PEN PORTRAITS OF OUR VISITORS

Chris Harker (goalkeeper). Graduated from Newcastle Youth and moved to Aberdeen while on military service, transferred to Bury midway through last season for substantial fee and was Manager Stokoe's first signing. Was seen several times by Bury chief scout, Colin McDonald, former England goalkeeper and has fulfilled all the forecasts made for him.

Brian Gallagher (full back). At 18 he was a regular in the Lancashire Combination side Ashton United, and was brought to Bury by Bert Head, now Swindon Manager. One of the best defenders seen in a Bury team since Billy Gorman.

Brian Eastham (full back). Product of Bolton Federation football where he lives. Brian looks and is, a player of class. Took over the left back position at the commencement of last season and is now well established and experienced after several fine seasons in the Central League.

Brian Turner (right half). From Manchester Schools Football, Brian joined Bury as a junior and on his return from military service abroad, came through rapidly to become captain and one of the most consistent half backs in the country. Determined in his approach to the game, he is a great favourite at Gigg Lane, and must surely be recognised for honours before long.

Bob Stokoe (Team Manager and centre half). When Bob joined the Gigg Laners in that much publicised Newcastle - Bury deal with John McGrath, in February, 1960, he little thought he would influence the Club to make so quick a return to the Second Division. Bob's record at Newcastle is a most enviable one with Wembley honours and representative games to support his wide experience in the 'big time.'

team place in 1959 and has held it ever since with consistency and the dynamic ability to move around for the full 90 minutes. Now approaching his peak form as an attacking wing half.

Warren Bradley (outside right). Native of Hyde, Cheshire, Warren combines his football duties with the profession of school teacher. Following amateur England honours with Bishop Auckland, he moved to Manchester United and while there secured a full England Cap. Moved on to Bury towards end of last term.

George Jones (inside right). George signed for Bury almost outside the school gates and had a notable record at School as a 1,000 metres champion, and top goal scorer in his school team. Now a full professional after his apprentice term he already has a full England Youth Cap against Holland last season.

Bill Calder (centre forward). Born Greenock, and joined Leicester City with whom he spent three seasons, alternating from centre forward to outside right. Moved to Gigg Lane in 1959 and his strong robust type of play has kept him almost continuously in the team for two seasons.

Frank Beaumont (inside right). Bury made one of their rare expensive signings when they signed Frank from Barnsley after almost a season of observation. A strong and thrusful player Frank came through the Barnsley nursery after schoolboy honours.

Tony Bartley (outside left). Born Stalybridge, Cheshire, Tony signed for Bolton Wanderers and joined the Forces the following day. Played only on occasions when military duties allowed, in the Central League side, released by Bolton after his return from the Forces and rejoined his old Club at Stalybridge, where he was seen by Bury Scout Jimmy Porter and signed at what was considered a high fee for Cheshire League.
