SERIAL NO. 8

Turn of the Tide?

THIS was the question on the lips of many of the nine and a half thousand spectators after last Tuesday's game. A top-class, exciting game, played at a cracking pace, was the reward of those who made the effort to turn up. Even Bill McGarry seemed cheerful—and that is really saying something. According to Palace officials we well deserved our win. In fact, it would have been by a wider margin with any ordinary goalkeeper against us, but Glazier was in fine form and we had to work hard to get the ball past him.

The team, on paper, looked a bit unfamiliar. Ward away to Brentford, Spelman dropped, Livesey doubtful through injury and Chung also injured—against us a team undefeated in nine games and hoping to take over the number one spot in the division and, of course, Holton, who hat-tricked us on his last visit. We were all set for a grim encounter—expecting a desperate struggle. In fact, we saw some delightful football and real all-round effort.

Only one thing marring the evening. As the players left the field a few stupid individuals so far forgot they had been watching a man's game as to aim missiles at our former player, Cliff Holton—because he had played a hard game for his club. Holton has given many hours of enjoyment to Watford supporters—let us not be childish. Our regret was expressed to Palace officials for this lapse in good manners.

Congratulations to Dai Ward on his debut for Brentford—a nine-goal win, and Dai, returning to devastating form, scored two and made three more—that's football. Quite a few clubs were after him following his refusal to sign for Luton Town.

Incidentally, the scouts were out on Tuesday, and West Bromwich and Leicester City representatives must have been quite impressed. We must hope that all players who wear the Watford shirt will settle down now and recognise that life at our club is better than at most, and the terms we offer are more than fair for a third division club. We don't want to see anyone on the list but if they insist it would be wrong to refuse.

A word on finance—the present level of gate receipts and the worry of a large overdraft must be taken into consideration when planning ahead. A quick return to bigger support will ensure the manager the means to strengthen the team and pay our way.

So we come to the game today—many of our older supporters will remember gates of 27,000 for this local Derby in the old Division 3 (South). Luton have been right through to Division 1 and back again, and at present are not really enjoying the third division. We trust that we shall see a keenly-fought game with our team keeping up the form it showed against the Palace. Welcome back to Vicarage Road, Hatters—this time it will be our turn to tread the path to success. That is our intention, that is our aim, but it must be a success based on solid foundations, which money cannot provide unless accompanied with hard work and loyal effort.

Many supporters will be pleased to know how well Johnny Fairbrother is doing for Worcester City—he played with a fractured wrist in a cup game and scored two goals, the City beating Kidderminster 4-1.

On November 6th, at Wembley, Pat Jennings has been picked to play for the Rest of United Kingdom Youth team against England. Well done, Pat!

A bit of history.—February 19th, 1937. Luton lying third and Watford fourth. Our last league encounter in front of a crowd of 27,461; receipts £1,542. The line-up:

Luton.—Dolman; Mackey, Smith; Finlayson, Nelson, Fellows; Hancock, Dawes (1), J. Payne (1), Roberts (1), Stephenson.

Watford.—McLaren; O'Brien, Woodward; Morgan, Armstrong, Reed; Jones (T.), Barnett, Fletcher (1), Davies, Hurst.

Result: Luton won 3-1.

NEWS FROM THE

HEADQUARTERS

Good afternoon, members. What memories today's visitors bring back. The elderly and middle aged can tell of clashes between Luton and Watford which make one realise how football has changed. From the enthusiasm point that is. Some can recall when it was a close down in both towns when the teams met. Others can recall when the old-fashioned waggonettes used to make the journey from Luton full of happy supporters. Today though is for the new generation of football followers, so let it be their day to remember in some distant future, and let it be that Watford on this day can create some sort of record which will be printed in all record books of the future.

Members may like to know that the last Committee meeting was attended by the chairman, vice-chairman of the parent club, and by the new manager, Mr. Bill McGarry. Both Mr. Bonser and Mr. Graver outlined the hopes and plans for the future but points of what Mr. McGarry said may give members something to think on. For a start, it was easily apparent that Bill McGarry is more than dedicated to football, he lives, sleeps and even eats it and the manner in which he expressed loyalty to the Club, left no doubt in the Committee Members' minds that every move made must be for the good of Watford. The sincere manner in which the address was given would have made many critics of our team hang their heads in shame, and without doubt many more supporters would turn up at home games if they knew the effort which has and is going to be put into welding Watford into a football force. Support in any form is most needed when the going is tough, but support is also needed when an effort is being made to improve the standing of a club. That applies to Watford. If you, the member, could have heard Bill McGarry trying to instill a new confidence into the Committee of the Supporters' Club, that same confidence would have been apparent and absorbed by you. You have trust and confidence in your officers and committee, may we of the committee appeal to you to put your faith and trust in Bill McGarry, and above all try to induce a friend or neighbour to come to the matches at Vicarage Road from today on.

Christmas is not far away, and already your hard-working draw organiser is handing out books of draw tickets which could bring you some of the items considered necessary to round Christmas off. Anything of value which can be obtained for next to nothing is a real bargain, but when the bargain obtained is a prize from the Supporters' Club, then it is well known that the quality of that item cannot be bettered. Committee members are now in the position to supply you with all the tickets you may require, take the full advantage of lowering your Christmas expenses by getting your tickets now. Mr. Baulch who is running the draw will be pleased to put your name and address on the letters sent to winners advising them on their luck.

It was reported in the local papers that the Bristol supporters who came to Watford made more noise in supporting their team than our home crowd did in supporting Watford. From the moment the team takes the field till the final whistle, keep that vocal support going. Don't wait for the first goal, start straight away.
