CLUB NOTES—continued

At the time of writing these notes, their team was not to hand, but one of our former players, Mike Fairchild, has been holding down the outside right position and it will be good to see him again.

There will not be much breathing space before a supreme test comes for the team on Wednesday evening, kick-off 7.30, when Barnsley who are in a similar unfortunate position to ourselves, will be the visitors.

Defeat for either will certainly increase maybe decisively, the threat of relegation that hangs over both clubs and this may well turn out to be a tense, exciting struggle which should attract a bigger than average attendance.

However, so long as things go for us as hoped in these two home matches, the decisive period will be at Easter when Walsall provide the opposition twice.

Taking four points from them represents our best, perhaps our only chance, of avoiding the drop and that is a pretty tall order, especially in view of the fact that the 'Saddlers' have won four consecutive matches.

At their Garden Centre in GRANGE AVENUE, LUTON there are 50,000 Roses, Fruit Trees, Flowering Trees and Shrubs ALL CONTAINER GROWN. Their "Self Service" enables you to select and plant any tree and shrub, bush and climbing rose whilst in FULL BLOOM.

First things first, though, and this is the sort of situation that has to be taken step by step, or match by match, and the immediate objective must be two points today and two more on Wednesday by which time the position may look a little more rosy.

Next Saturday, we are at Southend and hope that history will repeat itself because victory was achieved on that ground last season and then, before the onset of Easter, comes the Professional Cup final with Bedford Town at Kenilworth Road on Monday week, kick-off 7.30 p.m.

At one of the home matches during Easter, probably the one against Gillingham, there will be a collection for the Sir Winston Churchill Memorial Appeal. Collectors whom we hope will be provided by one of the cadet Services, will be inside the ground.

Club Notes

Two consecutive victories have contrived to renew hope that we shall be successful in our bid to retain our place in the Third Division, but there is no disguising the fact that there is a long, difficult row to hoe yet.

Beginning today, the team faces eight League games in 27 days which is a test of stamina in itself, without every match having to be regarded as in the nature of a cup final.

And that is the position at present. Results of the other struggles have combined to present us with a situation in which we just cannot afford to lose a match because that would be near disaster.

So, we look for two more points today from Reading with whom, since our return to Division III, we have had four meetings and won three and drawn one which, it is hoped, is a good omen for today.

That victory at Shrewsbury last Friday was well merited and so pleased was Manager George Martin that he had no hesitation about naming an unchanged team.

Now, the hope is that the injury bogey that has dogged us all this season is over and that there will be a full complement of fit players from which to choose during the vital weeks that remain.

Even though Reading having nothing to fear and nothing for which to hope in the League this season, they will not be easy to beat, doubtless, will be eager to avenge the home defeat inflicted on them on November 21st.
