"ALL THE YEAR ROUND" PLANTING

That does not put them out of the promotion race, unless they have a bad Easter and this, obviously, they will be determined not to do, and two points from this match, obviously figure in the plans of Mr. Cox.

On the other hand, whatever happened yesterday, we cannot afford to drop even a point, otherwise, we may be in the position of having to make a gloomy survey of the position on Tuesday morning.

That Monday's match at Walsall will be a tough battle, there is no possible doubt because the Saddlers have made the sort of recovery which we began last year at Easter, which came earlier on that occasion, and have had a tremendous run.

However, we have built our hopes that the team will be in pre-Southend form this weekend which is one of the most critical in the history of the club.

Today, a collection is being made inside the ground by Sea Cadets for the Churchill Memorial Appeal and it is hoped that supporters will give generously.

Both first and reserve teams will be away on Monday and the attraction on this ground will be the Luton and South Beds. League Knock-out Cup Final between the holders, Grange Albion and Luton Red Lion.

On the same day, our youth team will be taking part, along with Watford and Q.P.R. in an Anglo-Dutch youth tournament at Vicarage Road, Watford. In all, six teams will be playing and they will be divided into two sections and there will be play-offs for each position in the final order.

Club Notes

OF necessity, these notes had to be written before the result of yesterday's match was known and we can only hope that two points were secured to bolster up our hopes of avoiding relegation.

These received a sad blow at Southend last Saturday when the team, that had looked so full of confidence in the second half against Barnsley with a display that gained them all round applause, had a bad lapse.

Not at any stage in the match did they seem capable of returning with the reward that was so badly needed and we can only hope that this was a momentary lapse and that this weekend before it is over, will reveal a completely different picture.

As for our task against today's visitors, Gillingham, we are under no delusions about its severity. The Kent team beat us 5-0 at Priestfield Stadium in October, but we took partial revenge, at any rate, by knocking them out of the Cup by the only goal after a hard-fought match.

Promoted last season, Gillingham, shrewdly managed by Freddie Cox, have been making a determined bid for further promotion, but had their hopes dented last Saturday when they suffered their first home League defeat for two years.
