Club Notes

AFTER the promising display against Bradford in the opening match of the season, it was a matter of disappointment that the team did not manage to return with a point from either their visit to Wrexham or to Aldershot.

Maybe, the players after their experience in a higher grade of football will need time in which to acclimatise themselves to the somewhat different conditions in Division IV, especially away from home and we can only hope that the process will not take too long.

Tonight, we have pleasure in welcoming Brighton, last season's Division Four champions who, like us, have had comparatively recent experience of the Second Division.

For the moment, they are finding the going tough because they are still seeking their first League point, but we are expecting this League Cup-tie to be a hard fought affair.

However, we are hoping to make progress and so have the chance of an attractive pairing in the second round when the big clubs make their appearance on the scene.

As result of some shrewd excursions into the transfer market, Brighton include some well-known players in their team and the match should be well worth watching.

Next Saturday sees us back to the hunt for League points, with Newport County as our visitors and a handsome victory which we shall be looking for will do much to restore the confidence of supporters which was given a tonic by the way in which the team played against Bradford.

Unfortunately, once again, we are being plagued by injuries, especially to wingers, and Ray Whittaker, who pulled a muscle early in the match at Aldershot is the latest casualty.

With David Pleat also out of action, wingers are in somewhat short supply at the moment. However, we are glad to be able to report that Pleat has been allowed out of hospital for a few days and was able to visit the ground on Monday, walking with the aid of a stick. Which suggests that perhaps his period of absence will not be so protracted as was feared when he fractured a bone in his leg.

Supporters should note that the Reserves' home match with Southend United, due to be played this evening, has now been re-arranged for tomorrow week, kick-off 7.30.

It is with the deepest regret that we record the death after an operation of Mrs. P. G. Mitchell, wife of the former Chairman of this club who is still a member of the Board.

Mrs. Mitchell was one of the team's keenest supporters, rarely missing a match and she travelled thousands of miles with her husband to watch the Town play. Our sympathy and that of the supporters will go to the family in their bereavement.
