Club Notes

AFTER the defeat in the rough and tumble affair at Hartlepools, the win at Chesterfield last Saturday could not have been more timely because it kept us firmly in touch with the situation at the top of the table.

As much as the result itself, the method by which it was achieved, was satisfying because the team played some colourful and imaginative football and could have won by a wider margin than 3-1.

There is still a margin between us and the coveted first four positions, but there is some time to go yet and if last Saturday's form can be continued consistently, then we shall be in with a chance when the final reckoning comes.

Next Saturday, there is the chance to strike a decisive blow when the League leaders, Trammere Rovers, come here and we are expecting our biggest League game of the season on this occasion.

Before that, though, we have the Rochdale obstacle to overcome this afternoon. Earlier in the season we won there by 2-1 and although the Lancashire side have been having a poor time lately, there will be no disposition to treat them lightly.

At half-time today, the draw is being made for yet another car, a Ford Anglia on this occasion and those who are lucky enough to receive car tickets in the weekly Pools are able to participate.

Arrangements for the Beauty Queen Competition which is being run by the Bobbers Stand and Supporters Club are proceeding smoothly and the judging will take place at what promises to be a special social evening at the Bobbers Club on Wednesday, March 30. Local tradesmen have been most generous in donating prizes for what promises to be a mammoth raffle on the night.

So far as the beauties are concerned, each of the six area finalists will receive from Pontins Ltd. a free holiday with the first prize 15 days in Ibiza for two people. Entry form is on the front page of this programme.

We wish to issue yet another warning about the practice of throwing toilet rolls on to the pitch and would remind those responsible that the police are ready to take strong action against offenders. Also, will youngsters please abandon the practice of running on to the pitch.

As some confusion seems to have been caused by our withdrawal from the Football Combination, we would emphasise that this does not take effect until the end of the present season, and that, of course, our outstanding fixtures will be fulfilled.

Before the kick-off and at half-time, there will be a demonstration which has proved highly popular on other grounds from the R.A.F. dog team with their Alsations.

Elsewhere in this programme there is an advertisement giving details of the European table tennis championships which are to be held at Wembley from April 13-20.
