Club Notes

WHILE we could have wished for opposition at Christmas which did not entail the long journey such as the team had to face when they played at Birkenhead yesterday, there is no doubt that there are few more attractive teams in the Fourth Division than Tranmere.

For much of last season, they were one of our rivals in the promotion hunt and they come here today, very handily placed for another challenge this season.

This, despite the fact that they have parted with their two leading marksmen, Dyson and Manning, but they seem to be coping very well without them.

Holding down a place in their attack is George Yardley, the Scot, who sampled Australian football before having a trial period with us. When that finished, he was offered an extension of his trial, but preferred to try his luck with the Rovers,

This seems to be turning out well for him because, prior to yesterday he had made two appearances in the senior team and was chosen to face us at Prenton Park. On the face of things, it looks as if he will be in today's line-up which serves to add spice to the encounter.

Since the last home match, there has been another successful excursion into the transfer market by Manager Allan Brown which has brought the former England centre forward, Derek Kevan, to Kenilworth Road where he will be making his debut in our colours this afternoon.

On the evidence provided by the gruelling struggle in the mud at Halifax last Saturday, Kevan is going to be a very decided asset to us and the signs are that goals will now start coming regularly from the centre forward position.

Kevan opened his account at Halifax and the goal was sufficient to give us a hard earned and well deserved point—only our second in away matches this season. Had Graham French not been sent off for retaliating after suffering some rough treatment, the odds are that we should have gained our first away victory.

Maybe, this came yesterday because the manager, now that he has solved the centre half position by the signing of Max Dougan from Leicester, and also filled the gap in the middle of the attack is confident that results will now begin to run our way.

There is another attractive fixture next Saturday when Brentford will be the visitors in the nearest approach to a

PEN PORTRAITS OF OUR VISITORS

Jim Cumbe (goalkeeper). Has played one season with the Reserves, now given his chance in the Senior Team. One of the biggest goalkeepers in the League, 22 years old, a product of the Cheshire League.

Roy Parnell (full back). Birkenhead born and a product of local schools football, but he made his way to Prenton Park via Everton F.C. having joined up at Goodison straight from school. Made several First Team appearances with Everton, but came to Tranmere on a Free transfer just before the start of 1964/65 season and quickly soared to the top as one of the best young defenders in the Division.

Barry Martin (full back). Experienced full back former Blackpool and Oldham player, joined Rovers last season and played in practically every First Team game. Powerfully built defender, plays left or right back. Keen motorist.

Stan Storton (wing half). A Yorkshire lad, played several seasons with Bradford City before moving to Darlington. Strong tackling defender, equally at home in any full back position, and centre half.

Roy McFarland (centre half). A local product one of several boys brought on in the Lancashire League team, showed great promise last season at centre half and at 18 years of age a good future is predicted for Roy.

John King (wing half). A Merseysider in everything but birth. Was born in London, but his family came North when he was quite young. After Liverpool schools football Johnny was snapped up by Everton where he won a First Team place. When he left Goodison, he spent the better part of a season with Bournemouth before being transferred to Rovers where he is now in his sixth season.

Mandy Hill (winger). The second ex-Blackpool player in the side. Was in the Bloomfield Road team with Barry Martin but arrived at Prenton Park eight months before him. London born, Mandy won four Under 23 International caps while with Blackpool.

Joe Pritchard (inside forward). Completes the trio of home grown players in Rovers League side. Joe was discovered in Birkenhead schools football, nursed through the Junior and Reserves ranks while he served his time as a Shipwright and became a full time professional in 1964. Can play in any forward position and has proved his worth as a wing half.

Roy Sinclair (inside forward). By common consent one of the most talented ball players in the Fourth Division. Although this Liverpool born lad was with Liverpool F.C. as an amateur, he was coached to League standard through Rovers' Junior Teams. Quickly proved his worth there and reached the First Team at the beginning of last season. Another useful cricketer who is improving at golf.

Barry Ashworth (wing half). Born in Cheshire played most of his football in Wales until he moved from Bangor to Southend, returned to Cheshire again with Rovers, is a good ball player, and can turn in useful performances at full back, half back and centre forward.
