SUPPORTERS CLUB NOTES

Saturday sees the start of three hard away games, the lads will need our cheers and support to help them get the points we need for promotion. So why not travel.

The Junior Section's first film show on Saturday got away to a good start and though the quality of the films were not of the best some 63 young supporters had an enjoyable evening. It is hoped to improve things on future shows.

I shall be giving supporters news of how to get to Mexico in 1970 for the World Cup in future programmes.

Tonight a welcome to all Southend supporters and should they wish we would like to see them in the Club later.

Club Notes

A 100 per cent home record so far in the League and avoidance of defeat in three of the four away games we have played, have left the club very handily placed in a challenging position in the top half of the Fourth Division.

Opportunity arises tonight to strike another blow because Southend United are unbeaten and, without doubt, can be counted as among the favourites for promotion this season.

More than that, in inflicting on us our only League defeat at Roots Hall, they looked an efficient side, though our bad luck on that occasion, both before the match with injuries, and during it with efforts that were so close to being goals, that there was plenty of reason for believing that we might have been much closer to gaining a point.

Tonight, comes the chance to exact revenge and the biggest crowd for many a long day is expected to see if the team can break the 'Seasiders' unbeaten run.

At the time of writing these notes, Manager Allan Brown's attempts to sign a centre forward as a replacement for Rodney Green had not been successful.

An enquiry of Leeds United for their former England leader, Alan Peacock, brought a quoted price that was well in excess of our valuation of the player and the hoped for change of mind by Paul Ainson, from Bury, has not materialised.

No one knows better than the Manager how urgent it is to secure a reinforcement, especially in view of the fact that, after tonight, we face three consecutive away matches, none of which is likely to present an easy task.

By the time this particular stint is over, seven of our first XI League games will have been played away from home and then we shall look forward to the chance of making up some of the leeway at Kenilworth Road.

In that queues formed, particularly at the Oak Road end last Saturday, we would appeal to supporters to try to arrive at the ground a little earlier and not leave it until the last minute, which will bring an easing of the situation all around.
