Supporters Club Notes

With half the season now passed the team is in a good position for promotion. We wish them all the best for 1968. We seem to have more than our share of away games just at the moment, but this will be to our advantage at the end of the season.

No one knows better than us, the supporters, the value of the "Kop" Oak Road. Cheers and songs help our lads, but please no more of the bad language that we heard last Saturday. This must stop — let our supporters be an example to others.

Today we welcome our great friends from Park Avenue, Tom and Jim and Party. All the best for the New Year.

Club Notes

FOR once in a way, although we were in Yorkshire on Saturday, we have been spared a long journey over the immediate Christmas period and, in the circumstances, we can sympathise with Bradford who must have made an early start this morning.

There, we trust, the sympathy will end and hope that this match will be the means of us taking our run of consecutive home victories in the League to eleven.

On current form, there should be two more points for us, because the Park Avenue club, unlike their Valley Parade neighbours, who are having a most successful season, are struggling at the foot of the table, mainly because of their appalling record of having dropped 16 points on their own ground.

There must have been some hope in the camp that the worst was over when they caused the exit of Third Division Grimsby Town from the F.A. Cup after having forced a draw at Blundell Park but, in the same week, they fell again at Park Avenue, this time to Swansea Town.

On Saturday, comes the return at Bradford which will be our second appearance in Yorkshire at consecutive weekends — and these notes were written before the result of what looked like being a vital match at Barnsley last Saturday, was known.

After the visit to Bradford, it is the F.A. Cup again with our team facing a tough test in meeting Swindon Town at the County Ground.

Without any doubt, there will be a big following from Luton and tickets are available for the stand only, at 9/6, 8/6, 7/6, 7/- and 6/6.

Although applications from supporters as a whole will be accepted, they will not be dealt with until season ticket holders, who have until midnight next Saturday to apply, have had their entitlement.

Applications from season ticket holders must be accompanied by the "Round Two slip", remittance and stamped, addressed envelope.
