JIMMY DICKINSON comments . . .

The shock result of the F.A. Cup this season must be the Fourth Division Colchester's 3-2 defeat of Division One League Leaders Leeds United, at Colchester last Saturday.

In spite of what many respected managers in the game have said, that Yeovil's defeat of Sunderland could never be repeated, Colchester played the game of their life to beat United fairly and squarely.

It is surprising that the Colchester side are not top of their division and it would appear from this result that certain Colchester players need the stimulus of a big game to raise their performances to top lick.

I remember a similar result in 1950 when an American side beat England 1-0, which was no more of a disgrace for us to lose that day than it was for Leeds United last Saturday.

Pompey almost caused as much of a shock against Arsenal at Highbury a couple of weeks back as Colchester. When the result was at 2-2 it looked as though we might win.

An interesting point about such results is that when top sides are drawn to play minor clubs they must be quite sure that their opponents are coming out to really go at them. Yet they don't seem to be able, until a certain stage in the game, to raise their game to meet the onslaught.

MR TINDALL'S ELLAND ROAD VISIT . . .

Some months ago Leeds United Manager, Mr. Don Revie, made public that he was prepared to welcome any young Football League manager who cared to visit Elland Road and see how his fine club is administered.

Portsmouth's manager, Mr. Ron Tindall, took advantage of this offer last week when he went to Leeds to study Mr. Revie's methods.

He worked out with United's first-team squad with their trainer, Les Cocker. Whilst on another occasion he joined coach Syd Owen for a session with the Leeds youngsters.

Many hours were also spent talking with and listening to Don Revie and assistant manager, Maurice Lindley. The subjects discussed included man management, administration, scouting, finance and all the other varied items that make up the complex football manager's job.

Mr. Tindall has joined a growing band of managers seeking greater expertise who have visited Elland Road.

It is certainly worth while recording that the Pompey manager's visit coincided with Leeds build-up for their F.A. Cup-tie at Colchester.

The Up's & Downs of Promotion

With almost three-quarters of the season now completed the situation at the top of the Second Division this season again emphasises the intense competitiveness in this section of the Football League.

There are seven or so sides still in the promotion race and as to who will eventually wind up Division champions is anybody's guess.

Of course, whoever finally wins promotion will find they are only just beginning the battle as such sides as Q.P.R. and Blackpool will confirm.

Since the last war there have been forty-eight promotion places won into the First Division. These have been shared by thirty-two different clubs (Sheffield Wed. have gone up four times) and the average stay in the top section of any promoted club is six seasons.

Only Arsenal and Manchester United have retained First Division status continuously since before the war. Of the clubs going up since Hitler's interruption, Burnley (twenty-four seasons and that could very well come to an end this season) have remained longest, followed by West Brom. (twenty-two seasons) and Tottenham (twenty-one).

The dream of every club elected to the Football League is Division One. Occasionally a Charlton or an Ipswich will pop up to delight us all by rising to the very top of the tree. But for most of the smaller clubs the prospect of top-grade soccer is virtually nil. Of the 113 clubs who have played in The Football League since it started in 1888 only forty-eight have ever attained First Division status. Perhaps Oxford United might in the near future boost this total.

However, should either Hull City or Carlisle achieve their promotion target this season it will be the first time in their history and will increase the total to forty-nine clubs who have attained the magic of First Division status.

LUTON TOWN

One of the Souths

Soccer Clubs . . .

*a brief history of
"The Hatters"*

Luton Town was formed in 1885 when Luton Wanderers and Luton Excelsior joined forces. The Wanderers at that time, had already a claim to local fame, for they had played the then famous Old Etonians in an F.A. Cup-tie and, in fact, drawn the match. Luton have at least one claim to Southern Soccer fame. They are actually the oldest professional football club in the South of England. In 1890 they made an offer of five shillings a week to each of three local players, the Whitby brothers and a man named Read. At the end of that season it was decided to pay the whole of the first team the agreed amount of two shillings and sixpence a week, with an extra sixpence for away matches. To this was the added incentive of payment of working time lost before twelve noon on Saturdays.

The following season the wages of local players were doubled, and Julian, a halfback, was transferred from Woolwich Arsenal to become Captain, he, of course, received a higher wage!

In 1893 Alderman Harry Arnold became associated with the club. He eventually became chairman and remained so for nearly forty years.

In season 1900/1901, Luton returned to the Southern League after a spell in the Second Division of the Football League, and remained in membership until it became the Third Division (south) of the Football League.

On formation of the club the colours adopted were navy blue and pink halves shirts and caps, and it is recorded in the minutes that, 'both caps and shirt must be worn by each player on the field'.

In 1889/90 the club colours were changed to Cochineal, and in 1900/01 to sky blue shirts and black shorts. The present day colours of White Shirts and Black shorts were adopted in 1920.

Luton reached the final of the F.A. Cup for the only time in their history in 1959. They lost to Nottingham Forest 2-1. The following season saw the start of a rapid decline in the Club's fortunes. They finished bottom of Division One. 1962/63 they were relegated to the Third Division and 1964/65 down again to the Fourth Division.

With only one way to go, Luton finished Fourth Division Champions in 1967/68 and last season won promotion to the Second Division as runners-up to Orient in Division Three. As the League table indicates, 'The Hatters' are superbly situated in the league table at the moment to complete their dash back to the First Division.

LUTON TOWN'S 1969-70 STATISTICS

Luton finished runners-up in Division Three last season to win promotion. Their league record was as follows:

P	W	D	L	F	A	W	D	L	F	A	Pts.
46	13	8	2	46	15	10	6	7	31	28	60

During the close season David Court (Arsenal) and Roger Hoy (Crystal Palace) were signed by the club.

Malcolm MacDonald topped the Third Division goalscorers chart with 28 goals. Matt Tees was the club's second highest goalscorer with 13 goals.

The club's biggest win of the season when they beat Bradford City 5-0 and Reading by the same score.

LUTON TOWN

The remarkable resurgence of Luton Town in recent seasons has been continued this season in the Second Division and their current league position augers for an exciting match here at Fratton Park today.

Although 'The Hatters' haven't visited Fratton Park for a number of seasons, a number of their current team are familiar figures with Pompey fans.

Matt Tees, one-time Charlton and Grimsby forward and Mike Keen, who captained Q.P.R.'s first match on their return to the Second Division in 1967/68.

However, everyone's eyes will be on big Malcolm McDonald, Luton Town's prolific goal striker, signed from Fulham, Malcolm has created a great deal of interest and other clubs with his consistent performances and regular goalscoring feats. He also won a Television Long Throw competition this season.

PROFILE

It has been success all the way for Alec Stock, the manager with the golden touch. At the moment he's chasing promotion for the fifth time in his managerial career!

Stock, the manager, first hit the headlines in 1948 when he steered Southern League Yeovil Town to astonishing Cup victories over Bury and Sunderland. He was Yeovil's player-manager in those days and his achievements at The Huish set him on the road to a most successful managerial career. In August 1959 he was appointed manager of Orient and built the side which won promotion to Division II in 1956.

He moved to Arsenal as assistant-manager in 1956 but he was greatly disillusioned by conditions on the coaching side at Highbury and he ended his brief and unhappy stay by returning to Orient within a couple of months. The challenge of Italian soccer was laid before him and he took control of Roma F.C. but once again returned to Orient when they were in trouble.

Alec Stock finally severed his connections with Orient in March 1959 and three months later took up his position with Queens Park Rangers, whose success under his able command was phenomenal. They won the League Cup and rose from the Third to the First Division. It's not generally known that Mr. Stock was a highly successful inside-forward with Rangers before the war and he thus provides one of a few quite rare cases of a manager winning honours with a club he previously served as a player.

It was one of the biggest shocks of the season when Queens Park Rangers dispensed with his services in November 1968. But within weeks he was back in the game - as Luton Town's manager.

Last season, at the end of his first full campaign in charge, Luton gained promotion to the Second Division and now they are among the most serious challengers for further upgrading.
