HARRY'S

John Short, (Manchester United), Bryan Douglas (Blackburn), Derrick Dooley (Sheffield Wednesday) were all at the game and we all had a chat about football in general past and present. I think that the short time we had together, we solved all the problems there is in football today. This is the part of football, when old friends get together and chat that makes my job worthwhile.

Last Tuesday, we held trials for lads between the ages 14 to 18 years. They came from all parts of the country and the keenness they showed argues well for the future of Luton Town and I am sure we will see some of these lads wearing the Town's shirts in the not too distant future. These trial matches make extra work for the coaching staff but if you manage to get at least two boys out of the 120 we had then it will be worth the extra work.

THE journey home from Blackburn last Saturday was made with mixed feelings. One was, that we should have come away with at least a point and secondly was the way the lads played. Any of our supporters who attended the game must have been pleased with our performance and I am sure that if we continue to play as well then the results will come our way. It was nice to meet a lot of old friends before and after the game. Fulham who were playing Bolton were in the same hotel as us and Alec and I talked football into the early hours. Jimmy Adamson (Burnley), Johnny Morris (Manchester United), John Aston Senior (Manchester United), Billy Wrigglesworth (Manchester United), J Bray (Manchester City), Jackie Breedon and Today we welcome Don Megson and his players from Bristol Rovers who at this present time are 2 points in front of us. Don will be aware that we shall be all out to bring our points total level. The name Bristol Rovers must bring memories to our older supporters of the 12-0 victory over them in the 1930's when the late Joe Payne scored his ten goals. I don't think we shall ever see the likes of that again but who knows, football is a funny game so lets hope that this afternoon's game is entertaining with plenty of goals.

Bristol Rovers

JIM EADIE (goalkeeper): Scottish-born ever-present member of the promotion side and missed only one game last season and the season before. Signed on a free transfer from Cardiff City, where he gained considerable Second Division experience.

LINDSAY PARSONS (full-back): Club captain and a local product who progressed through the apprentice professional ranks. Injury halted a proud run of 203 consecutive first team appearances during the promotion season.

PHIL DATER (full-back): A former Welsh youth cap and a product of the club's South Wales nursery. Made his League debut two seasons ago but missed the first half of last season through injury.

DAVID WILLIAMS (defender): A schoolteacher in Cardiff who became a contract player in January 1976 while still a student. Made his League debut in the first game of last season and missed only one match. Capped at under-23 level by Wales.

STUART TAYLOR (centre-half): In his late teens before signed from a leading local amateur club. At 6ft 4ins, one of the League's tallest players. Is nearing his 500th first team appearance.

PETER AITKEN (defender): A product of Rovers' Cardiff-based nursery side and a Welsh under-23 international. Forced his way into the senior side for the finale of the promotion drive. Out of action for much of last season through injury.

FRANKIE PRINCE (midfield): A former Welsh under-23 cap and now a member of his country's senior international squad. Born in Penarth, he signed as a full professional in 1967 after serving as an apprentice.

WILF SMITH (defender): British soccer's first £100,000 full-back when transferred from Sheffield Wednesday — his first club — to Coventry. Joined Rovers for £20,000 during their first season after promotion and played a leading role in keeping them up.

TONY PULIS (defender): Former Welsh youth cap who made his League debut for Rovers last season while still an apprentice. Now upgraded to full professional.

RAY GUSCOTT (forward): A product of Rovers South Wales nursery who was robbed of a Welsh youth cap through illness and then injury. Upgraded from apprentice last season.

BILLY FOREMAN (midfield): Signed during the close season from Bournemouth who released him when they disbanded their reserve and youth teams.

WAYNE POWELL (striker): Newport born and Wales' most capped player at youth level, playing for the national side at under-18 level for three seasons. Made his League debut last season.

COLIN DOBSON (winger): Former England under-23 cap and the club's player-coach. A former Sheffield Wednesday teammate of manager Don Mogson, he went on to play for Huddersfield and Brighton before joining Rovers in the summer of 1972.

MARTYN BRITTEN (winger): Fast and skillful in the old tradition of wingers. A local product who served a soccer apprenticeship at Eastville before becoming a full professional three seasons ago.

BRUCE BANNISTER (striker): Signed for £23,000 from Bradford City in November 1971. Scored 28 goals in his first full season and was second highest scorer with 19 during the promotion year. Is a member of the P.F.A. national executive.

GORDON FEARNLEY (forward): From a Bradford family steeped in Rugby League tradition, he played for England Grammar Schools before signing professional for Sheffield Wednesday. His progress was hampered by injury but he proved his fitness after signing for Rovers in the summer of 1970. Played in America for Miami during the summer.

KENNY STEPHENS (winger): Left his native Bristol to become an apprentice with West Bromwich Albion and went on to play First Division football. Moved to Walsall for £15,000 and then quit soccer for a spell before making a comeback with Rovers in season 1970-71.

ALAN WARBOYS (striker): Rovers' highest-fee signing, costing £35,000 when transferred from Sheffield United in March 1973. Yorkshire born, he played for Doncaster, Sheffield Wednesday and Cardiff before going to Bramall Lane.

DAVID STANIFORTH (striker): Signed for £20,000 from Sheffield United in March 1973 and played a valuable part in the final phase of the promotion push.

BRIAN O'DONNELL (left-winger): Born in Scotland and son of Yeovil Town's trainer. Signed during the close season from Bournemouth who released him when they disbanded their reserve and youth teams.

IF YOU WERE REFEREE...

QUESTION: an indirect free kick is awarded to the attacking team some six yards from their opponents' goal line, in front of goal. An attacking player lines up on the goal line between the goal posts, with the defending players. Just as the free kick is taken the attacking player moves off the goal line and the ball enters the goal through the gap he created. What is the decision?

ANSWER: the 'goal' must be disallowed and an indirect free kick for offence awarded to the defenders on the goal line. The offence law requires the attacking player to have two or more opponents nearer the goal line than he is if he is to remain onside. In this situation it is not possible to remain onside when standing alongside opponents on their own goal line.

Secretary's Comments....

KEEP UP THE GOOD WORK

FIRST of all I would like to pay tribute to that loyal band of people who have donated today's match-ball — The Away Travel Supporters. Not only is their presence on visiting grounds a tremendous source of encouragement to Harry and the lads but their fund-raising is also much appreciated by us all. Already this season they have collected £36 and their regular and generous contributions last season could not have been more welcome. Our thanks again to those who are responsible for collecting and, of course, to those who donate and long may you keep up the good work.

All Our Yesterdays

A LOOK AT LUTON TOWN A DECADE AGO.

By Brian Swain, Sports Editor, Luton News.

THE football fireworks at Kenilworth Road ten years ago were all off the field. On November 4, 1966 Manager George Martin resigned after holding the job for 20 months, his second post-war spell in charge of the team.

Into the gap stepped Allan Brown, the former Blackpool and Luton star who had finished his League playing career at Portsmouth and moved on to become player-manager of Wigan Athletic.

Martin's sudden departure was the first that most supporters knew of trouble brewing behind the scenes. He made it clear that the directors asked him to go, and that he did not get on with all the players, some of whom had asked for transfers. His final public comment on the day he left, after serving the club in various capacities for nearly 30 years, might give Harry Haslam a cue for today: "I was hamstrung by shortage of money — you can't build teams on nothing."

SUPPORTERS SHARES

THE initial issue of new Supporters Shares have now been sent out and I am delighted to report that applications are still being received. This source of income has been absolutely vital in securing the healthy future of the club and it is sincerely hoped that the excellent start can be maintained. Anyone wishing to add to their investment can apply for any number of one pound shares and new investors need only subscribe for a minimum of five. Letters were sent out some time ago to those who initially sent in less than £5 asking them to let us know if they would like to convert their contribution into a donation or whether they wanted a refund. In a few instances we have received no instructions and we would therefore like to hear from anyone in this category.

In his last match as manager, five days previously, Martin had seen the Town held to a 2-2 draw at Kenilworth Road by Bradford. The visitors were thought to be short of attacking fire-power because they had just sold Kevin Hector to Derby County, but two goals in the last 17 minutes gave them a point after the Town had gone two ahead through Frank Conboy and Ray Whittaker.

The directors picked the team for Brown's first game as manager — he joined the Town party for their match at Port Vale on November 5, 1966. They plumped for defence first and foremost in an effort to pull away from the depths of Division IV.

Gordon Riddick wore the No. 9 shirt, but played as a twin centre-half alongside John Moore, and Town team formations were never to be the same again.

They used a 4-2-4 formation at Port Vale, but all the plans for holding on to a point were wrecked when Mahon scored the only goal of the game in the 65th minute. Tony Read took some stick for letting in the goal, an angled shot which crept in between him and his near post.

That night, the Town languished in the re-election zone. They had dropped two places, to fourth from bottom of the Fourth Division, with just 11 points from 16 games.

The team at Port Vale was: Read; Jardine, Moore, Riddick, Thomson; Conboy, Slough; French, Pleat, Rioch, Whittaker.

Youth News....

LUTON Town youth team which contains several of the local schoolboys are having a very successful season. They are currently in 2nd place in the Chiltern Youth League. On Tuesday evening October 26th, they entertained Hitchin Town youth side in the FA Youth Challenge Cup 1st round at Kenilworth Road. Goals by T Smith (3), G Ingram (2) and G Brown gave them a comfortable victory into the next round.

England Youth XI

Two of these lads, Tony Knight and Ricky Hill have been invited to go with an England Youth XI squad to take part in an International Tournament in Monaco from the 12th November until the 19th November. Other countries taking part are Russia, Italy, France, Hungary, Yugoslavia, West Germany, Spain and England. The tournament will be 2 groups of 4. Each team playing the other members of the group. The 1st team in each group will play off in the finals to determine 1st and 2nd place. The 2nd team in each group to play off for 3rd and 4th place.

Congratulations....

MANY congratulations to the Luton Schoolboy football teams. The under-15 team recently beat St Albans in the English Trophy, and the under-16 team beat Hillingdon 4-1 in the Hawk Trophy. In the previous round, played on the Luton Town ground, they beat Hounslow 4-2. Well done lads!

ACTION

Top right: Steve Buckley gets airborne in an attempt to help the strikers pull back Southampton's lead — note the classic style, a reminder that "Buck" used to be a left winger in his days at Burton Albion. Unluckily for him this flying header was saved.

Bottom centre: Saints' skipper Peter Rodrigues had a wretched afternoon against Aston, and here he looks ruefully as Lil Fuccillo joins in the torment of the veteran Southampton defender.

Bottom right: Just in case anyone thinks the picture of Aston on his back is a true reflection this is the sort of action we see more often, this time tackling back to steal the ball from Channon.

COACHING

IN football, as in any other profession, all concerned expect to gain something.

When it comes to the team performance on Saturday afternoon, although contributing from different angles, directors, managers, coaches and supporters, are all working towards the same end:— the success of their team.

We coaches may not think in the same way about practical work at Club level. However, we try to unite our ideas as much as possible to contribute as best we can to the necessities of the team. We can break down our work into three main areas:— Fitness, Technical and Tactical aspects, and most important of all, Mental fitness. It is no good having the most skillful players in the world in top physical form if they are not enthusiastic in their approach to the game.

As coaches we have to be very careful how we instruct the players, especially those who are not quite making the grade. How is the best way to handle a player who is having problems?

Do we tell him he is useless, and suggest he changes his career?

Or do we, as I believe we should, encourage him to believe in his own ability and thus build up his confidence?

We must ask ourselves whether we are using the right approach. Perhaps we are imposing a way of playing that doesn't suit that particular type of player. There are so many questions we have to ask ourselves to try and ensure that we get the best from each player.

Supporters too, have their part to play in the overall success of the team (including you Oak Road lads). It is you who can give the team the special kind of encouragement and support they need, it is you who can lift their spirits when the game is in full action and things are going wrong and in this way help them to gain success.
