NINE NEW

● Phil Boersma

● Jimmy Husband

AFTER A good start last season, Luton Town slipped to within a point of the relegation zone — and the reaction from David Pleat, who had succeeded Harry Haslam as manager, was to carry out the biggest shake-up of players anyone at Kenilworth-road could remember. In a matter of eight months, the Hatters' transfer turnover approached £900,000, with four players sold and nine new faces arriving at the club.

The most notable of the departures from Luton, of course, have been the Futchers twins, Ron and Paul, who are now with First Division Manchester City. Luton made a handsome profit when they sold centre-half Paul and striker Ron, for they had signed the pair from Chester for around £100,000 : . and they raked in £435,000 from the Maine-road club.

Two more players of great experience are no longer at Kenilworth-road, either — former Liverpool and Middlesbrough forward Phil Boersma, who is now with Swansea, and the ex-Everton star, Jimmy Husband, who moved into American Soccer. And no doubt John Aston will find a few faces he doesn't recognise from the old days at Kenilworth-road when he renews acquaintance with the team that provides the opposition to the Rovers this afternoon.

One of the nine new players who joined Luton in the hectic first four months of David Pleat's reign as manager was Steve Sherlock; another recruit last April was Mark Aizlewood; yet another was Terry Hayes . . .

and so the list goes on. From Northern Ireland, Luton also recruited Mal Donaghy; they signed Chris Turner and John Lucas; and Dave Moss, Bob Hatton and Kirk Stephens.

Sherlock served his Soccer apprenticeship with Manchester City, and as he progressed through 80 games in Central League football he was watched by a number of clubs. Scottish international left-back Willie Donachie kept Sherlock out of the limelight at Maine-road, and when City decided the reserve defender could leave, last May, Luton stepped in to sign him.

The previous month, David Pleat had backed his judgement that Aizlewood's stylish play would strengthen Luton's team, whether he operated in defence or midfield, and the Kenilworth-road club splashed £50,000 to take Aizlewood out of the Fourth Division, where he had begun his career as an 18-year-old with Newport County: Aizlewood is a former skipper of the Welsh youth-international team.

Hayes was recruited from Irish League club Linfield, which has provided some fine players for English League football in the past. Luton's manager won a race against several other clubs last March to land this 18-year-old midfield prospect who had already skipped the Northern Ireland youth side and collected an Under-21 cap.

Glasgow Celtic, Queen's Park Rangers, Wolves and Sheffield United . . . these were all reported to be interested in the future of Northern Ireland Under-21 international Donaghy, who played for Larne, but it was Luton who were first in again to snap him up during the close season, and manager Pleat rates him one of the best young central defenders ever to come into English football.

Norwich were anxious to sign Turner, another defender, after he had been a mainstay at Peterborough for nine seasons, but David Pleat had the final say. He knew what Turner could do, for they had been team-mates at one time, and after watching him last season, Luton's team boss splashed £95,000 on Turner.

For once, it looked as if Luton HAD missed out when midfield player Lucas, a Welsh school-boy international, turned down their approaches when he left school at the age of 16. He chose to go to Manchester United, instead, but within a year — by last June — he decided that his prospects might be better elsewhere, after all. And so Luton finally landed him.

Stoke were strong contenders for the signature of winger Moss, who had given great service to Swindon in the Third Division before moving up a flight last summer, and this model clubman was an £80,000 target for the Potteries club. But Luton, who liked the pace and accuracy of Moss — Swindon's leading marksman last season — were not to be denied, and a bid of £110,000 clinched the deal which took Moss to Kenilworth-road.

● Bob Hatton . . . heading Luton's drive for goals, after his striking partnership with Mickey Walsh at Blackpool.

Luton also moved swiftly to secure the transfer of one of football's most experienced strikers during the close season. Relegation for Blackpool meant some reshaping of team plans at Bloomfield-road, and Bob Hatton, who had proved he could score goals in spells with Birmingham, Wolves, Bolton, Carlisle and Blackpool, finally became available.

The striker who had teamed up with Bob Latchford at St. Andrew's and Mickey Walsh at Blackpool was on his travels again when Luton paid out £50,000 to Blackpool.

Stephens was one of the unknowns when manager Pleat signed him for Luton, because this promising young right-back had been playing for Nuneaton in the Southern League. But David Pleat, who had once managed Nuneaton, made good use of his knowledge of the non-League scene, and he quickly moved for Stephens, whom he signed for a bargain fee of £5,000. The youngster immediately repaid the outlay by bridging the gap to full-time football and forcing his way into the first-team squad.

It hasn't been a case of chopping and changing all the way round, though, because Luton still have players who have given them fine service — men like Paul Price, Pasquale Fuccillo, Alan West, Ricky Hill and Milija Aleksic, for instance.

MEET THE MEN FROM KENILWORTH ROAD

Price, Luton's longest-serving player, was recruited from youth Soccer in 1971, and consistent displays in the junior and reserve sides marked him out as an exciting prospect. But the full-back has had to overcome a very serious obstacle on his way to the top, for in 1974 he broke a leg . . . and, after he had battled his way to fitness again, he suffered another fracture. However, he made his second comeback a permanent one, and has been a first-team regular at Kenilworth-road for the past three seasons.

Fuccillo, the son of Italian parents who settled at Bedford, was signed by Luton as a 16-year-old apprentice in the summer of 1973, and this midfield dynamo — team-mates and fans know him as "Lil" — supplies a lot of Luton's attacking drive. He broke through to first-team football within three years of having joined the club, and his power — and a regular habit of knocking in goals — have kept him in the side.

West, who can play a brilliantly creative game in midfield, was one of the many players who were groomed in Burnley's nursery, and this former England Under-23 international cost Luton a £100,000 fee when they signed him from the Turf Moor club five years ago this month. He is still rated as one of the best long-ball passers in the game today.

Hill is another midfield player of real talent, and he was signed as an apprentice from schoolboy football in North London as a 16-year-old. Within a year his skill and explosive shooting had earned him a run in the League side, and this former England youth international has now gained a great deal of experience.

Aleksic was snapped up for a bargain fee from Plymouth in January of last year, when he was made available by Argyle after indicating that he was unsettled in the west country. The transfer was the turning point in his career, for he has been Luton's first-choice goalkeeper ever since his move to Kenilworth-road . . . and the fans' nickname of "Elastic" is not only easier to chant than Aleksic — it pays due tribute to his agility and reflexes. Born in the north of England, Aleksic is the son of Yugoslav parents, and he began his career in football as a part-timer with Stafford Rangers.

Behind him is Alan Judge, who was spotted playing schoolboy football in Hertfordshire and was signed as an apprentice in the summer of 1976. Within a year this young 'keeper was upgraded to professional status, and the rapid strides he has made suggest that he is now putting on the pressure to break through to the League side.

Another signing by Luton was defender Jim

FEW managers can have been thrust into their jobs more dramatically than Luton's boss, David Pleat. He had played on the wing for England Youth and Nottingham Forest, then had three seasons with Luton, but injuries affected his career as he moved on to Shrewsbury, Exeter and Peterborough, and he took F.A. coaching courses to stay in the game, trying his hand at management with Nuneaton, in the Southern League.

In 1975, Luton hired him for the second time in his life, to be coach to the reserve side. In the December, first-team coach Roy McCrohan left to take a job in the U.S., and David moved up . . . and when Luton lost manager Harry Haslam to Sheffield United, they asked David to take charge. So, at 33, he was one of the youngest managers in the League. But within six months he had shown his intentions of rebuilding the side, and his transfer turnover approached £900,000 in eight months.

One of his first moves was to contact Ken Gutteridge, who had also served his "management apprenticeship" in non-League Soccer. Once a winger with Birmingham, Sheffield Wednesday and York, Ken started coaching with Notts County before going to Preston, Burton Albion and then as chief coach to Brighton, where he had four years, assisting Peter Taylor and then Alan Mullery. His long-standing friendship with David Pleat — they had first met at an F.A. coaching course — helped persuade him they could form a management partnership capable of leading Luton back to success.

McNichol, a Scottish-born footballer who became surplus to requirements when he had completed his apprenticeship at Ipswich in the summer of 1976. Luton were quick to sign him, and he has been a loyal member of their squad, able to play anywhere in the back-four line.

David Carr, also a defender, was spotted by Luton when playing near his home town of Margate, and he joined Town as a 16-year-old in 1973. He can also operate in a midfield role, but made the big breakthrough last season when he nailed down the left-back position after Luton had sold Steve Buckley to Derby County.

Graham Jones was recruited from Manchester schools football at the age of 16 in 1975, and a year later he had made his debut in League football. He started out as a centre-half, but has also operated in midfield in the Second Division.

Godfrey Ingram, a product of Luton's school-boy and youth teams, became a regular member of Luton's reserve side while he was still only 16, and his speed and powerful shooting gave him an England schools international cap. He became an apprentice in the summer of 1976, a junior professional within 12 months, and a member of Luton's League squad a year later.

Nigel Johnson is in his second year as a professional, after coming up through Luton's junior teams, and this recruit from schoolboy football in Welwyn Garden City is now on the fringe of League Soccer. A speedy forward, he is always looking to score.

Gary Heale made the breakthrough to Second Division football last season, after having been with Luton since leaving school in Canvey Island. A good target man in attack, he decided to take his chance with Luton despite approaches from Tottenham, and marked his League debut with a goal. But the highlight of his career came when he scored twice at Old Trafford last season in a League Cup replay against Manchester City.

A SWITCH FOR 'SPORT ON 2'

FOOTBALL fans at grounds all over Britain tune their transistors to B.B.C. Radio's "Sport on 2" programme every Saturday afternoon during the Soccer season, and on November 23 a new international frequency agreement comes into effect.

So Radio 2, (like Radio 1, Radio 3 and Radio 4) will move to a new position on your radio dial. The sports service provided by B.B.C. local-radio stations remains the same, but Radio 2 football fans will have to change to new wavelengths.

From November 23, SPORT ON 2 moves from 1500m long wave to 433m/693kHz and 330m/909kHz medium wave.

Try both frequencies to see which gives you better reception in your area. The vhf positions for Radio 2 remain the same, between 88 and 91MHz.

"Sport on 2", as listeners will already know, kicks off its programme every Saturday at 1-30 p.m. — covering all the major sporting events of the afternoon and featuring live commentary on the second half of one of the top League or Cup matches of the day.

Fans of the programme are also kept up to date with the latest scores and results, and, at 5 p.m. there is "Sports Report", which brings fans up to date on all the results and the Soccer-math news.

THE SECOND DIVISION SCENE...

THE ROVERS break fresh ground in their next two matches, for in turn they come up against newcomers to the Second Division scene. Next Saturday brings a trip to Cambridge, for the match against United, then Wrexham are the visitors to Ewood Park.

We have already played the third promoted club, Preston, who finished behind Wrexham and Cambridge. Wrexham cruised through their promotion campaign, despite the odd scare, for they finished with 61 points, which gave them a three-point lead over second-placed Cambridge, while North End just pipped Peterborough for third place. Both these clubs had 56 points.

Oddly enough, while last season Wrexham rattled in the goals in matches at their Race-course ground, this time out they couldn't seem to find the net in home matches. They failed to score in their opening game, against Brighton, the same thing happened when they met Leicester and Newcastle, and when they finally scored, against Welsh rivals Cardiff — who were struggling at the wrong end of the table — they went down by two goals to one.

Wrexham's away form has been better, though — they won at Orient and Fulham, then drew at Charlton. After three games, they were third in the table, and still there with half a dozen matches gone, then — like Preston — they slipped.

Cambridge lost their opening home game against Stoke, but shocked Brighton by winning 2-0 at the Goldstone ground. Then they picked up a point at Leicester, drew against Newcastle, Charlton, Luton and Bristol Rovers, to become the "Xperts" of Division 2.

So, in both matches, the Rovers know they will have to work hard for points, even if the opposition hasn't been finding goals easy to come by. Wrexham's goals have been spread around — marksmen in various games have

The Rovers break fresh ground, as they take on two newcomers...

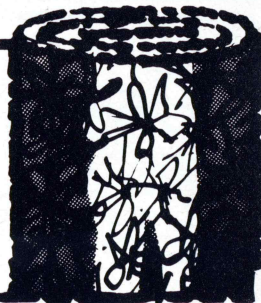

ONE of the best-known names in football... that's Arfon Griffiths, the manager of Wrexham, who steered the club to the Third Division championship last spring and to victory in the Welsh Cup which earned Wrexham a place in the European Cup-winners Cup. Arfon, a Welsh international, had a spell with Arsenal — but Wrexham has been his real love... in fact, he has played more than 600 games for the club.

included Graham Whittle, Mickey Thomas, Dixie McNeil and John Lyons; Cambridge have relied for goals on Floyd Streete and Alan Biley (their leading marksman), plus an own goal from a Brighton defender.

Cambridge, in fact, have suffered like Wrexham, in that while they have a useful record on tour, they were still waiting to record their first home victory with eight games of the season gone — indeed, at that stage, Cambridge and Wrexham were the only two clubs in Division 2 who had failed to collect two points in a match on their own ground.

MEET THE ROVERS' NEW BOYS

A roundabout route via Memphis for Alan Birchenall

THE ROVERS had to hustle, to sign and register two new players in time to make their debuts at Ewood Park against Charlton, and in the case of Alan Birchenall, it meant a succession of urgent telephone calls, including talks with manager Eddie McCreadie in Memphis, Tennessee. For Alan's clearance from Memphis Rogues had to be obtained and confirmed with the Football League.

But the move was finally completed in time, and so Alan was able to turn out in the Rovers' colours — which meant that for him, his return to a club in the north of England had been via a roundabout route, indeed, for his Soccer travels had taken him from Sheffield United to Chelsea, Crystal Palace, Leicester City and then Memphis, in the United States.

Alan and Mick Jones made football history when they became the first two strikers to move from the same club — Sheffield United — at a fee of £100,000 apiece. Mick went to Leeds, Alan to Chelsea. And from there, it was on to Selhurst Park and Crystal Palace.

Alan, who gained England Under-23 honours during his days at Bramall-lane, left Palace for Leicester, and embarked on a new phase of his career, for he switched with success from striker to midfield — and he also played in the back-four line while at Leicester.

It can SAVE YOU MONEY!

IF YOU haven't already become a season-ticket holder at Ewood Park, now is your chance to do so . . . and to save yourself a considerable amount of money, in the process. All the prices quoted opposite include VAT, and the savings are based on 21 first-team matches. Depending on where you book your ticket, you can save between £4.60 and £24.40.

If you're a senior citizen, you are reminded that you must produce a pension book when purchasing a season ticket for Block "C" of the Nuttall-street Stand, while all juveniles under 12 must produce birth certificates when purchasing season tickets. Season tickets may be obtained on application at the Ticket Office at Ewood Park between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. from Monday to Friday, and between 9.30 a.m. and 12 noon on a Saturday (first-team Saturdays 9.30 a.m. to 5 p.m.).

FROM THE U.S. AND SCOTLAND

"HOME" for Joe Craig now means Ewood Park, and not Parkhead. For the Scotland Under-23 player who first made his mark with the famous Glasgow Celtic club has joined another club with an equally proud tradition in English League football. And Joe, like the many Scots who have crossed the Border before him, hopes to make a hit here.

Celtic have provided some outstanding forwards for clubs south of the Border over the years — one thinks of Bobby Collins in his hey-day at Everton and Leeds, and currently Kenny Dalglish, who has scored such a hit at Liverpool. Now Joe has followed in their footsteps, and all Rovers' supporters will hope he achieves success at Ewood.

The Rovers have signed players from Scotland before — older fans will recall Willie Kelly and Jock Weir, for instance — and Celtic has long been a breeding ground for footballers who play with flair, as well as being competitive.

Joe, who has collected four Under-23 caps, cost a substantial fee, and he aims to repay it by scoring goals, as he did at Parkhead last season. Celtic totalled 62 in the League, and the goals were spread around, with a dozen players claiming their share. Joe's contribution of eight made him third in Celtic's list of marksmen.

Now Ewood Park, and not Parkhead, means 'home' to Joe Craig

ACCENT ON THE ACTION

DEBUT GOAL...

JOHN BAILEY, the full-back with the flair for joining in the attack, put over a cross, and Joe hurled himself through the air to get his head to the ball. Had it counted, it wouldn't have been a winner, but a point-saver . . . but Joe's luck was out. It was a near-miss.

TEAM SELECTION solution: Ro-ch-da-le.

TEAM CHANGES solution: Liverpool, Nottingham Forest.

WHAT'S IN A NAME? solution: Sending.

PLACE THE FACE solution: The game was between the Rovers and Blackpool, when Bob Hutton was with the Bloomfield-road club. But that's not Bob Hutton in the picture . . . it's his former team-mate, Peter Suddaby.

TEAM SELECTION

FIND ANOTHER club by taking at least two consecutive letters from each of these:

PETERBOROUGH

(8 letters)
(C) PQRS

TEAM CHANGES

USE THE letters in the names of these three "players" to spell out two First Division clubs:

PHIL ROOT
GLEN VINER
TOM VOATS

(C) PQRS

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

WHAT IS the longest single word you can make, using only letters taken from this name — The figure in brackets is our best — so try to beat that.

DON GIVENS (8)
(C) PQRS

QUIZ ANSWERS

1. Antonio Carvajal, the Mexican goalkeeper.
2. Dave Mackay for Spurs in 1961, 1962 and 1967.
3. 5—0 by Young England, in 1967.
4. Jerry Murphy, playing for Crystal Palace at Stoke.
5. Raich Carter (for Sunderland in 1937, and for Derby in 1946).
6. Bobby Moore captained West Ham in the 1964 F.A. Cup final and the 1965 European Cup-winners Cup final, and England in the 1966 World Cup final. All the games were played at Wembley.
7. Aston Villa.
8. Manchester United beat Aston Villa, Liverpool, Charlton, Preston, Derby and Blackpool in 1948.
9. Stan Mortensen, for Blackpool, in the 1953 final.
10. Newcastle United.

PLACE THE FACE

NO prizes for identifying the Rovers player in this photograph — although you normally see Glen Keeley concentrating on keeping opposing forwards away from goal. This time, though, he's up in attack, and winning a heading duel.

But take a look at the player who is coming off second-best in the encounter, and see if you can place his face. He's a defender, too, and in this game he was playing for a Second Division club. Things have changed a bit, one way and another, since that match — as one of the Luton players would confirm. If you haven't identified Glen Keeley's opponent, see opposite page.

YOUR R.A.C. ROUTE TO CAMBRIDGE

THE ROVERS' next away game in the League is at Cambridge, and if you're travelling by car to the match, here is your R.A.C. route from Blackburn, starting on the A677/A59 to Samlesbury, intersection 31, M6 (seven miles), then the M6 south and via the M6/M1, Midlands link and M1 south to intersection 13, junction with A507 (183 miles).

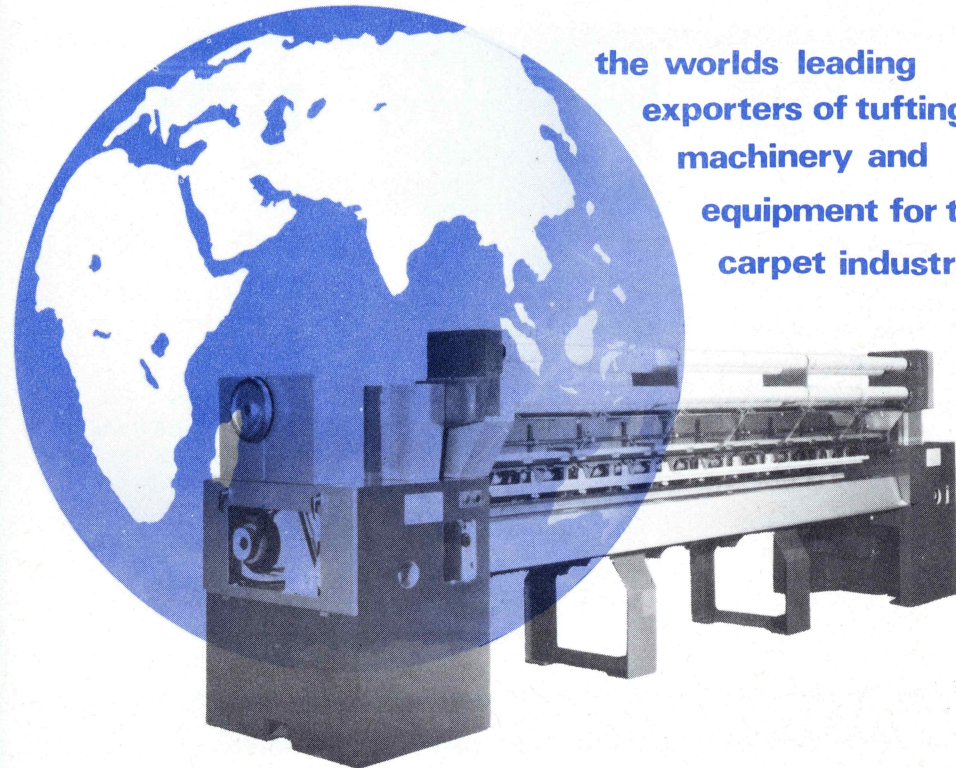

Along the A507 via Ampthill, Claphill, Henlow and Stotford to Baldock, junction A505 (203 miles), and the A505 to Royston, junction A10 (212 miles), then the A10 to CAMBRIDGE (total distance, 225 miles).
