DAVID PLEAT

IT IS A pleasure to welcome our 'friends' from Sheffield United, like ourselves they are in a transitional stage changing players and policies. Also Keith Walker and Doug Lygo, the respective company secretaries left their posts recently and both clubs have made new appointments. Harry and myself both took over our new roles at the same time so there are some interesting comparisons.

The grandstand finish in the last home game against Bristol Rovers was a fitting reward for our players efforts. Early on we were punished for mistakes but never lost faith in our footballing skill and all three goals were outstanding. At Cambridge we continued our more determined approach away from Luton and a point was fair reward. Both sets of players countered tricky conditions to give the public an exciting game with plenty of goalmouth action.

Dave Lawson came into the side at the last minute when Jake Findlay failed a fitness test and performed capably. It is this rivalry for places that I hope to stimulate as we build a stronger squad. Steve Taylors arrival has given me this opportunity up front. Lil Fuccillo was at Cambridge smiling and pleased with a point but he feels football has deteriorated since his playing days!

Congratulations to Mark Aizlewood for his selection for the Welsh Under 21 side. Mal Donaghy who was originally selected for the Irish squad for Wembley was excluded when I informed the Irish of our game with Stoke. The youth team are making good progress in the Youth Cup, watch the press for the date of their home game with Villa or Leicester in the next round. They have also gone top of the Midland Youth League and they will be determined to keep in front.

Hopefully todays game will provide plenty of good football played in the right spirit. Keep up the support, the players appreciate the cheers. It's a team effort and we are all working towards the same goal.

BALL SPONSOR

The above picture shows just one of the varied range of vehicles and plant equipment that can be hired from Bedfordia Plant Hire Ltd. They are kindly sponsoring our match ball in today's game with Sheffield United.

WELCOME

WE EXTEND a particularly warm welcome to Sheffield United, and without doubt many old friendships will be renewed when Harry Haslam and his boys visit us for today's match. After drawing 1-1 at Sheffield earlier this season, the Town will be fighting for a win and a hard battle will be fought. Looking at the ground as this article is being written it will probably be played wearing skates on ice.

United made a bright start to the season in which they beat mighty Liverpool in the League Cup and then took Leeds United to a replay, however, they are now rather uncomfortably close to the bottom three. Up to the time of writing they have not been able to play a league game since the turn of the year and so they have games in hand on most of the clubs just above them and they appear to be far too talented a side to be in any real danger of emulating their Wednesday neighbours by slipping to a first ever spell in Division Three.

Like Wednesday, United have over the years experienced frequent fluctuation between Divisions One and Two and since coming into the Football League as founder members of Division Two in 1892 they have been promoted five times and relegated five times, though they did enjoy a 41 year spell in Div. One up to 1934. It was during this period that they won the F.A. Cup four times and the First Div. championship once, however, success in Europe seems to be eluding them.

Since the war they have spent much of their time either in the lower half of Div. 1 or the top half of Div. 2, their most successful spell in recent years being in 1971/2 when after winning promotion at the end of the previous season they soared to the top of Div. 1 only to slip back towards mid-table after an exciting first two months.

Tony Currie was one of their outstanding players at that time and other outstanding 'Blades' over the past forty years include two other international forwards, Jimmy Hagan and Len Allchurch, while in defence, goalkeepers Jack Smith and Alan Hodgkinson rendered sterling service together with back row men Joe and Graham Shaw, Eddie Shimwell and Len Badger.

So far this season they have won just one game away, at Leicester in August and have also drawn at Preston, Millwall and Orient. They have recently lost four away games in a row, including a third round F.A. Cup replay at Aldershot. They did however, arrest a bad run that brought them only one point from seven league games by beating Cardiff and Newcastle at Bramall Lane and drawing 3-3 with Cambridge.

Compared with the side which lost 4-0 here last season (and then gained revenge with 4-1 win at Bramall Lane) United have several newcomers in the side this season, one of them being our old friend Peter Anderson, who celebrated his return to English football from Tampa Bay Rowdies with United's goal in their 1-1 draw with us in September and BBC Television's October Goal of the Month a week later. Alex Sabella also linked up from the Argentinian club River Plate during the summer and he has impressed fans up and down the country with his elegant work in midfield. John Matthews, the former Arsenal man, is another addition to the midfield strength this season while up front two outstanding new men are Steve Finnieston, a 6-figure signing from Chelsea and Imre Varadi from Letchworth Town.

In goal Steve Conroy, a home-grown product, has gained a regular place this season while in front of him Tony Kenworthy, a former England Youth International links up with long-serving Colin Franks (from Watford in 1973) Cliff Calvert, and Paul Garner (from York and Huddersfield respectively in 1975). Others to look out for include Gary Hamson, a midfielder in his third season and Mick Speight, who went on an England B tour last year.

NEWS FROM THE POOLS

WE WILL shortly be launching two new projects to further encourage our army of Pools Agents. From time to time we need to make changes for changes sake because our thousands of customers even become disenchanted with winning by the same methods! At all times we are conscious of the need to keep ahead of the field, hence the forthcoming changes. Just keep in mind —

'THE MIDAS TOUCH' and 'KEYCARD' WITHIN the next few weeks, these two 'Brand Names' will become Household words throughout this area.

Best wishes and grateful to all our Agents and Customers, we are sorry that in the recent past, due to the weather conditions you have been forced to sell by 'Remote control'. Fortunately the sun will soon be shining on us all 'Poolswise and otherwise'. Mike Hardwicke M.D. Hatters Pools.

OFF-SIDE?

THE GAME between Norwich and Arsenal brought up once again an example of the difference of interpolation of the off-side ruling by different referees and the need for a revision of its ruling. Referee Peter Reeves disallowed what appeared to be a perfectly good goal and so robbed Norwich of victory. Kevin Bond overlapped on the right and floated in a centre which Kevin Reeves, coming from a deep position, headed into the net. Later the referee said he disallowed the goal not because the scorer was off-side but because another home team player was deemed to be so.

This is the point over which many arguments are heatedly debated and is the cause of the current confusion. The ruling as it now stands requires a referee to have three pairs of eyes, to be able to see in all directions at the same time, and to have telescopic vision into the bargain. In most cases when a player appears to be off-side the linesman religiously carries out his function of trying to judge whether a breach of the ruling had occurred, but by the very nature of the decision he has to make he cannot see what is happening on the rest of the field.

If the linesman flags off-side then invariably the referee will accept their ruling and so the possibility arises that the situation as a whole has not been observed by either the referee or the linesman and so another bad decision is made.

The main reason for a much-overdue change in the ruling is to relieve referees of unwittingly making bad decisions. In any situation where a ruling is required it is of prime importance that justice must be done, but even more important it must be seen to be done.

It is not possible to have everything cut and dried so that there can never be any doubt about a referee's ruling on the field, and referees as a whole are conscientious and fair, but it is surely time that a change was made so that this controversy is reduced, the off-side rule causes more argument than the rest put together.

As a last thought on the subject and one which could be well debated, what would be the effect on the game if the off-side ruling was removed altogether. It would be interesting to see how modern techniques in attack and defence would be affected, who knows, it might make a better and freer flowing game.

FROM JOHN WILKINSON

IT WAS nice to watch a game of football again last week at Cambridge, and nicer still to come away with a point. These past few weeks have been trying, not only for the players and managers, but for secretaries as well. I have probably been more fortunate than others with only about fifteen matches to re-arrange, but I have no doubt that they will all be fixed in before the F.A. Cup Final in May. The recent bad weather has once again brought in some extra money for the G.P.O. our telephone never stops ringing when a match is due to be played. At a guess I would say that nearly half the people who come to watch us have been ringing up to see if the match is on or off. Take that average over the 92 league clubs at 2p a time, not bad for a days work.

Today sees the return of two former colleagues of ours, Harry Haslam and Danny Bergara. I think that everything has been said about these two gentlemen so I won't go into detail. Although we welcome them back to Kenilworth Road you can be sure that we will be all out to keep the points here.

A welcome too for Peter Anderson. It was Peter's transfer to Belgium if you remember that helped to keep us solvent when we ran into financial trouble. He has certainly travelled a few miles since he last played here. Not only has he played in Belgium, but also has had a spell in the U.S.A. where every away match can mean a two or three thousand mile trip.

Last week saw Doug Lygo leave us to take a job outside football and his successor, John Smith from Leicester City will not be taking up his appointment until early April. He is however in the office one day a week to deal with urgent business which is a good thing, as he will have knowledge of the workings of the Club before he starts officially.

I think now that all the problems of banning people from the ground, should they be arrested and charged, have been overcome, so from now on the trouble makers had better toe the line if they still want to watch us play. The Club will not hesitate to act should any person be found guilty.

At this point I would like to thank everyone who turned up at the ground when the snow was about with their shovels and brooms to help clear the pitch. Unfortunately the weather beat us but at least we know we have some keen supporters about. Enjoy the match.

TWO cracking goals in the last five minutes gave us a happy start to 1979 after Bristol Rovers had threatened to spoil the night for us.

In the end good football earned its due reward, but Rovers put up a tough fight, and were leading 2-1 with five minutes to go.

A look back at Luton Town a decade ago.

By BRIAN SWAIN, Sports Editor, Luton News

THE WINDS of change were sweeping through Luton Town ten years ago, off the field as well as on it.

Manager Alec Stock had taken a month-long look at the players he had inherited from Allan Brown, and decided that the squad was not strong enough.

His first foray into the transfer market as Luton boss was to go back to his old club, Queens Park Rangers, to buy midfield man Mike Keen for £18,500.

He made his debut on January 25, in an expensive Town victory over Walsall. In an untidy game, watched by 15,205, Bruce Rioch scored the only goal in the fifth minute, but was later carried off on a stretcher. It was a cartilage injury which was to keep him out for a long time.

Then at Crewe, in his second match. Keen twisted an ankle, and he too was put out of action as the Town's pathetic away form continued with a 0-2 defeat.

Home form kept the Town up with the Division Three promotion-chasers, and the unbeaten record at Kenilworth Road was maintained on February 1 against Reading. Goals by Alan Slough and Brian Lewis seemed to have finished the game with 20 minutes to go, but a young referee intervened. He sent off Reading full-back Spiers for a foul on Lewis. It seemed harsh at the time, and some of us made a mental note of this strong man in black. His name was Clive Thomas, from Treorchy.

Reading's ten men responded by raising their game, and they pulled a goal back through Yard in the 76th minute, but the Town held on to take the points.

They did even better the following week when the injury-hit team went to meet promotion rivals Bournemouth at Dean Court. Laurie Sheffield and Fred Jardine were recalled to fill gaps, and each scored in a valuable 2-0 win.

Big changes were taking place behind the scenes at Kenilworth Road. Tom Hodgson stood down as chairman after five years in the job, to make way for Tony Hunt, a wealthy insurance boss.

Stock brought in a new chief coach to help his promotion ambitions: Jimmy Andrews, who had previously been assistant to Noel Cantwell at Coventry City.

It was a reunion for two old friends when Andrews reported for duty ten years ago this week: as a manager Stock had signed Andrews as an outside left for Orient, to join a team which also included former Town inside forward Dave Sexton. Andrews had also been coach with Stock for a spell at Queen's Park Rangers, and both made public promises as they renewed the partnership that they were going to lead Luton out of the Third Division. And that, at least, was one football promise which was kept.

YOUTH

By George Rogers

THE YOUTH team like the rest of football have been forced to take a break from competitive competition and from now on they hope that the weather will allow them to start again. It comes hard to train all the week only to find that the Saturday game has been postponed. During the past week they are due to play at West Brom on Thursday 8th Feb. and today Letchworth Youth at Chrysler Sports ground.

Over the past month some games have been played and victory against Arsenal put the Town into the last 16 of the F.A. Youth Cup. This is the top prize in Youth football. In the next round they have another home draw v Aston Villa or Leicester City. This to be played at Kenilworth Rd., within the next fortnight. The lads would appreciate your support at this game. Having beaten Leicester recently the lads are fairly confident of reaching the last 8 of the competition.

In the Midland Youth league recent victories against Wolves 4-1, Leicester 3-1, and Northampton 2-0 have seen the Town go into 2nd place in the league table, Leicester City in top place with a superior goal average. Recently we have tried Steve Cannon from the Derby district and two boys from the Birmingham area, John Cole and Frankie Bunn and they have all shown excellent promise for the future. The next home game will be at Vauxhall Motors Sports ground, Park St., Luton on Thursday 15th. Feb. K.O. 2 pm. v Derby County. If you are able to come along, we will be thankful for your support.

In the Chiltern Youth League the only game played was against Hitchin the lads winning by 4 goals to 1. Again several lads from local football have been given the chance to show their skills. Ray Brammer, Limbury B.C., Alan Cosby, Limbury B.C. Ian Bygraves, Lewsey Centre, Terry Kitchiner, Stotfold, and Jan Piotrowski, Bedford, have all shown promise in this league and could with continued hard work progress further.

At today's game we welcome an old friend Danny Bergara who left Luton to join Sheffield Utd., last season. Danny who is now the Assistant Manager at Sheffield is still interested in the progress of the Youth team and the lads who were in his charge when he was here.

RE-FOCUS by Doug Lygo

The Focus on Steve Taylor, which will appear in a later programme, will, in all probability, be the last one I shall write for the Luton Town programme, although an earlier composition on Jake Findlay is still to appear in the West Ham edition. The Focus which appeared in the Bristol Rovers programme, of which I was the subject, was completely unauthorised and was not seen by the victim until it went on sale. As a result of totally unjustified allegations that I had been a Watford supporter prior to joining the Kenilworth Rd. staff have not only damaged any reputation I have but also brought under stress some very good friendships built up over the past five and a half years. My application to join the Century Club now hangs in the balance. The photograph which accompanied this spurious article could well have been taken immediately following a multiple bereavement, but was in fact extracted from a larger picture which showed me being led in front of an F.A. tribunal with Sir Harold Thompson and Ted Croker on either side. The handcuffs were only removed after we had promised to erect fences to prevent Chelsea supporters from invading our pitch again.

Leaving aside such references to the happy times I have had in my various official capacities at Kenilworth Rd. I would like to end by thanking all those people who make Luton Town a friendly place to work in and for their comradeship and support over these past six seasons. It is impossible to name all those whom I would like to thank but they include the Chairman and Board of Directors, John Wilkinson, and the very loyal staff at Kenilworth Rd., David Pleat and his staff and players, members of the match day staff and supporters of all kinds from Junior Hatters to Vice Presidents.

I would also like to express my gratitude to those individuals and companies who have provided much needed revenue by means of advertising and sponsorship of various kinds. Finally my best wishes go to David and the lads for a storming second half of the season and to John Smith, my successor, who, I am sure will make a major contribution to the future of Luton Town Football Club.

TO PLAY OR NOT TO PLAY

It was inevitable that as soon as matches started being postponed the old cry "Change the Season" would very quickly be heard. Of course, as will always be the case in football, many varied solutions have been offered. From a mid-season break, a full summer season, less teams in each division, under-soil heating, balloons and artificial surfaces have all been mentioned as ways of avoiding postponements.

Apart from fixture congestion there are many other problems which confront a football club when a match is postponed, but in the end it is purely a referee's decision. When we at the Club answer a call about a game being played, until we have received the referees decision we can only inform callers that a pitch inspection is being made. We are aware that non-committal replies like these must be frustrating to supporters who wish to make travel arrangements or perhaps re-organise a shift or arrange for time off, but we do have to abide by the rules laid down for the postponement of matches.

As soon as a game is postponed, one of the first calls we make is to the news media, both newspapers and broadcasting and television. We also contact as many as possible of the larger employers in the area when a mid-week match is concerned so that they may advise employees over the firm's tannoy. From correspondence we are aware that some fans believe we do not care about the inconvenience a postponement causes, but I can assure you that we are very conscious of good public relations and what they mean to a football club.

Apart from the inconvenience of a postponement, there is the financial side. As with everything else the bills still come in and wages have to be paid while the Club is without income and the Chairman and Directors do a magnificent job with the aid of our colleagues in the Pools Office to ensure the lifeline continuing while we are waiting to get games played and income flowing.

So please be patient and rest assured that we want to play the games as much, if not more, than anyone.

Century Club

by Catherine Ball, Secretary.

ISN'T IT nice to be back at Kenilworth Road? It's a long time since the Century Club room has been used so little during the football season, and I know I am not the only member who has been feeling decidedly deprived at the lack of football in the last five weeks.

But we haven't completely shut up shop, and the folk evening with Andy Dougall turned out to be another successful event in our continued efforts to improve our social programme between games.

Needless to say the weather was appalling, and the snow prevented some members getting to the club. On top of that, the outside gate was accidentally locked for a time, and if any members did turn up only to find that they couldn't get in, our apologies are due.

Our next social night comes on Friday, with a Valentine Party. As usual it will be an informal evening, with the accent on light-hearted enjoyment. Tickets are £2.50 each, and some are still available.

A few of us went to Cambridge on Saturday, but much as we enjoy trips to other clubs most of us prefer our home surroundings,

I suppose Harry Haslam returns to the ground with mixed feelings, and while we welcome Sheffield United's staff and their supporters we all hope to see them go home on the wrong end of the score-line!

Finally, on behalf of the Century Club, I extend a warm welcome to Luton Town's new chief executive, John Smith.

Junior Hatters

At the time of going to press, our game with Stoke is doubtful and consequently with the "on - off" position of most games at the moment it is quite possible that some of our news is out of date and for this fluctuating position we can only apologise.

However we will start with the result of the competition in the Bristol Rovers programme and the answers were as follows:—

1. Don Givens
2. Peter Anderson
3. Any two from the following:— Nottm. Forest., Luton Town., Shrewsbury., Exeter., Peterborough or Nuneaton.

The response to this competition was by far the best yet and the first three all correct entries opened were from Tony Walker of Tophill, Luton., Kevin Folland of Caddington and Tony Sborgia of Dallow Road, Luton.

These winners will each receive a pair of tickets for to-days game.

To-days competition is going to be different. This time we would like you to write in and give us your views of what you would like to see done to improve facilities for our younger supporters and what type of information you would like to see included in the Junior Hatters Column. Please limit your entries to 100 words. We will extend the time limit for this competition until Friday 23rd February, 1979. All entries will be read and what is in the Editors' opinion the most constructive of ideas in the letters will be the winners. The Editors' decision will be final and the two winning letters will be published in this column. There will be one pair of tickets in the age section up to 10 years old and one pair of tickets for the age group between 10 and 15 years old. So please put your age on your entries. All entries should be sent to:— Junior Hatters Competition, Luton Town F.C., 72 Kenilworth Road, Luton, Beds.
