Tonight we extend a warm welcome to Luton Town Football Club and to their supporters who have made the long journey from Kenilworth Road.

Few managers in football can have been thrust into their jobs more dramatically than Luton's boss David Pleat. As a player he had played on the wing for England Youth and Nottingham Forest, and then had three seasons with Luton. Injuries affected his career as he moved on to Shrewsbury, Exeter and Peterborough, but he took FA coaching courses to stay in the game and tried his hand at management with Nuneaton in the Southern League.

In 1975 Luton Town hired him for the second time in his life, to be coach to the reserve side. And events really moved rapidly a couple of years later. In December 1975 Luton's first team coach, Roy McCrohan, left to take a job in the USA, and Mr. Pleat moved up into his job. And within two months Luton lost manager Harry Haslam to Sheffield United, and asked Pleat to take charge.

At 33 he was one of the youngest managers in the League, but within six months he had shown his intentions of re-building the Luton side.

Last season, after a good start, they slipped to within a point of the relegation zone, and Pleat's answer was to carry out the biggest shake-up of players anyone at Kenilworth Road can remember. His transfer turnover approached £900,000 in eight months, with four players sold and nine new faces introduced.

One of the first moves David Pleat made after being named manager of Luton Town in January 1978 was to contact a man he had known and respected for years — Ken Gutteridge.

Like Pleat, Gutteridge had served his 'management apprenticeship' in the world of non-League soccer. Once a winger with Birmingham City, Sheffield Wednesday and York City, Gutteridge started coaching with Notts County before going to Preston, Burton Albion and then as chief coach to Brighton.

He had four years at Brighton, assisting Peter Taylor and then Alan Mülery, but had few doubts about his decision when Luton asked him to move on.

His long-standing friendship with David Pleat — they had first met at an FA coaching course — helped to persuade him that they could form a management partnership capable of leading Luton Town back to success.

Here is the squad of players from whom their manager Mr. David Pleat will select his team for this Evening's game.

VISITORS

Luton Town

PAUL PRICE. Luton's longest-serving player, Price has been a model professional since being recruited from youth soccer in 1971. Consistent performances in junior and reserve teams marked him out as an exciting prospect, but the full-back's path to the top had to overcome near-tragedy. On the verge of the League scene in 1974 he broke his leg. He fought his way back to fitness, only to break it for a second time. But the second comeback was permanent and Price has been a regular member of Luton's side for the past three years.

DAVID CARR. Spotted by a Luton scout near his home town of Margate, full-back Carr joined Luton when he left school at 16 in 1973. Can play equally well in the back four or in midfield, but made his major breakthrough last season when he made the left-back position his own after Luton sold Steve Buckley to Derby County.

GRAHAM JONES. Recruited from Manchester schools football at the age of 16 in 1975, Jones turned out to be a highly versatile player. He made rapid strides through Luton's lower teams and made his League debut at 17. He started as a centre-half but has also sampled a midfield rôle in the Second Division, and seems equally at home in either department.

MARK AIZLEWOOD. David Pleat's confidence in this stylish defence or midfield player was backed dramatically in April 1978. Luton splashed out £50,000 to bring him out of the Fourth Division, where he was playing for Newport County, when he was still only 18. He is a former Welsh youth international skipper.

MAL DONAGHY. Glasgow Celtic, Queens Park Rangers, Sheffield United and Wolves were all reported to be interested in the future of Northern Ireland under-21 international Donaghy in the summer of 1978. But Luton were first off the mark, and secured his transfer from Larne, and manager Pleat rates the centre-half one of the best young players ever to come into the English game.

CHRIS TURNER. Luton fought off rival overtures from First Division Norwich to secure the services of accomplished defender Turner, who had been a mainstay at Peterborough for nine seasons. Luton boss Pleat was once a playing colleague of Turner's at Peterborough, had him watched in the 1977/78 season, and then laid out £95,000 for his signature.

PASQUALE FUCCILLO. Son of Italian parents who settled at Bedford, midfield dynamo Fuccillo — 'Lil' to his friends and the Luton fans — supplies a lot of Luton's midfield attacking drive. Signed as a 16-year-old apprentice in the summer of 1973, he broke through into the League side within three years and his power and regular goals have kept him in the side ever since.

ALAN WEST. A brilliant creative player in midfield, West was one of the many young stars to come from Burnley. An England under-23 international, he moved to Luton in October 1973 for £100,000, and is still one of the best long-ball passers in the game today.

RICKY HILL. A midfield player of immense talent, Hill was signed as an apprentice from schoolboy football in North London as a 16-year-old, and within a year his delicate ball skills and explosive shooting had earned him his place in Luton's League side while still only 17. Now 20, he has been capped by England at youth level.

JOHN LUCAS. Luton thought they had missed out when midfielder Lucas, a Welsh schoolboy international, turned down their approaches when he left school at 16. He went to Manchester United instead, but within a year, in June 1978, he decided that his prospects might after all be better elsewhere — and Luton got their man after all.

GODFREY INGRAM. A product of Luton's schoolboy and youth teams, Ingram became a regular member of Luton's reserve side while he was still only 16. His combination of effortless speed and powerful shooting gave him an England Schools international cap. He became an apprentice in the summer of 1976, a junior professional within 12 months and a member of Luton's League squad a year later.

GARY HEALE. Made the breakthrough into Second Division football last season after being with Luton since leaving school in Canvey Island. A good target-man in attack, he decided to take his chance with Luton so far was when he scored twice at Old Trafford last season when Luton took mighty Manchester City to a second replay in the Football League Cup.

DAVID MOSS. Respected throughout the game as a model clubman, Moss gave sterling service to Swindon in the Third Division before moving up a division last summer. He was their leading scorer and Luton liked his pace and accuracy. His £110,000 transfer was a major part of David Pleat's re-building operation in the 1978 close season.

BOB HATTON. One of the most experienced strikers in the game, Luton moved quickly to secure the signature of Hatton in the close season. He had proved that he could score goals in any league in service with Birmingham, Carlisle and Blackpool, and his disappointment at Blackpool's relegation to the Third Division was cancelled out when Luton's £50,000 cheque took him back up to the Second.

HARD-FOUGHT 'DERBY' GAME

Last Saturday's local 'derby' against Preston North End was played in a typical atmosphere when two neighbouring teams clash, and over the full 90 minutes I thought we just deserved to win. We started off in the right attitude and put our visitors under a lot of pressure and went close on a few occasions to taking the lead, especially when Paul Fletcher had a tremendous header cleared off the line. The referee was a busy man during this period as our players were being stopped in their tracks by various methods which gained us a great number of free-kicks. I think if we had gone in at half time in the lead it would have represented the play. We continued in the second half where we left off and after a lot of pressure on their goal we eventually took the lead when a bullet-like header from Paul Fletcher was parried by their goalkeeper, but Peter Noble showing great anticipation moved in and hit a well-taken goal.

We allowed Preston to get back in the game when they scored following a throw-in on the right side of the field. This goal lifted Preston and the game went their way in the last 20 minutes when we had to re-arrange the team when Billy Ingham had to leave the field after receiving a nasty blow on his leg. Unfortunately Peter Noble was impeded from going full out through having had a jarring knock on his leg earlier in the second half.

In the end, I think if we had taken the lead in the first half we would have had two points instead of one.

RESERVES BEATEN BY THE ODD GOAL

The reserve team were delighted to be back in action again when they played Stoke City Reserves at the Victoria Ground. They took the lead in the first half through a well-taken Malcolm Smith goal and then Stoke had the good fortune to go ahead with a hotly disputed penalty and then took the lead later in the game. Frank Casper was pleased with the overall display of the team and thought they deserved some reward for a good effort.

The juniors had no game this week and they are looking forward to their game against Manchester United at the Cliffs next Saturday morning.

A FEW KNOCKS

At the present time Marshall Burke, Neil McGregor and Jim Gardiner are having treatment along with Billy Ingham who had his leg X-rayed on Sunday morning, but I am pleased to say there is no break in the leg.

HARRY POTTS

A TRIBUTE TO PETER

I was delighted to read that Bobby Paisley, manager of Liverpool, was of the opinion that Peter Noble would be a very popular choice for 'Player of the Year' Award, for he regarded Peter as a dedicated professional who was a credit to his club and the game in general. I certainly endorse Bobby's opinion for to me Peter typifies the British way of playing this great game of ours.

WE HAVE ALWAYS ENCOURAGED COACHING

I read with interest the remarks of Mr. Ron Greenwood, England's team manager, on the future of football in this country, and I would like to say that Burnley Football Club have always been interested and active on the coaching of young players and also for encouraging players to attend coaching courses while they are still playing, as this equips them for their future in the game and also ensures that the young players of the future will have valuable tuition.

SIR ALF BEHIND THE TIMES

I was amazed to read in a Sunday newspaper that Sir Alf Ramsey, as manager of England, had suggested to Dave Thomas that he would do well as a winger rather than a midfield player. It seemed strange to me for Dave Thomas was a winger who played in Burnley's youth team when they won the Football Association Youth Cup in 1968!

WELCOME

This evening we welcome the chairman of Luton FC, Mr. D. Mortimer, his directors, their manager David Pleat and his players and their supporters, and look forward to an entertaining game.

IF THINGS ALTER AT ALL, THEY'RE BOUND TO IMPROVE

Football in this country in recent years has been condemned by public opinion because of the insane minority which has attached itself, even though unwanted, on to a sport for which it has no sincere feeling.

And quite often it is difficult to defend the game that has given pleasure to one generation after another, when these so-called fans try to destroy its sporting traditions.

Everyone, it appears, has an idea or pet theory about soccer hooliganism. It has been suggested that angry incidents on the field of play have led to even worse angry scenes off the field. This could well be so, perhaps there may have been such isolated events, but that doesn't answer the question why do these mobs go on the rampage before a game hell-bent on vandalising everything they can lay their hands on.

Over the years one hears many harsh remarks made by people only too eager to knock the game, but many of their comments are grossly unfair on the many thousands of decent supporters who never cause any trouble or utter a wrong word.

Today's

IF THINGS ALTER AT ALL,
THEY'RE BOUND TO IMPROVE

There isn't a football club in the country that wants hooligans on its ground, and it is true to say that these minority groups are responsible for keeping thousands of law-abiding people away from the game.

Football hasn't changed over the years — it is the people who have changed — as bad behaviour is erupting everywhere and its incidence continues to increase. This is only an indication of deterioration of moral standards in the country as a whole, and is surely a reflection on the loosening standards of self-discipline throughout society, a society which has become more violent, more rebellious in every sector of life including political parties, in the trade union movement, in industry, in schools and colleges, even in the home. No, soccer is not the cause of this mayhem, unfortunately it is the victim of it.

Who knows — someday when Cliviger Casuals are Football League Champions and Brierfield Bashers have won the FA Cup — perhaps the above-mentioned situation may have changed — for the better.

A hard earned point at Turf Moor . . .

clarets scene

. . . but an encouraging game
for Joe Jakub

Peter Noble, the Clarets' skipper, gets in a header from a Leighton James centre against Sheffield United.

Joe Jakub making his first team debut this season fires in a left-foot shot which was only just wide of the target.

Billy Ingham gets in the thick of it as he tries to force his way through the Sheffield United defence.

A shot from Joe Jakub is brilliantly saved by the Sheffield 'keeper.
