Who's Who: 1935

Thanks to the generosity of a Hammers' fan—Mr. R. WHITTAKER, of Bognor Regis, Sussex—we recently made a very interesting addition to our soccer library.

A bound copy of The Football Who's Who, published in 1935, was discovered by Mr. Whittaker at a second-hand bookshop in Chichester.

The 320 pages are profusely illustrated with photos and autographs of players of that era, plus several team-groups. There are pen-pictures of nearly 2,000 English and Scottish stars, among them being the following Hammers of that period:

Jim Barrett	Dave Mangnall
Vic Blore	Dr. Jim Marshall
Albert Cadwell	Jack Morton
Jim Collins	Jim Ruffell
Ted Fenton	Arthur Tonner
Stan Foxall	Dick Walker
Len Goulden	George Watson
Sam Jennings	Len Young
Harry Lewis

A section on the "Stars of Yesterday" included lengthier summaries on two of our earlier players—Ted Hufton and Syd Puddefoot.

A further series listed the details of club officials. Apart from our then-manager Charlie Paynter, two of our former players were listed. They were George Kay (manager of Southampton) and Jack Tresadern (then manager of Tottenham Hotspur after being in that capacity at Northampton Town). Both were in the 1923 F.A. Cup Final side.

Altogether the book is a trip into nostalgia, and as a reference is invaluable. Our thanks to Mr. Whittaker.

EIGHTY YEARS A FAN

Charles Thompson is 90 today . . . and he celebrated the event with his workmates. For Mr. Thompson, who lives in Ilford, is still at work as a commissionaire with the Danish Bacon Company in the City.

Staff there presented him with a cake shaped as a football pitch to mark his birthday and his 80 years as a West Ham supporter.

Mr. Thompson, who started work at 13 for a Waterloo printer, said: "Working hard keeps you healthy, and I shall keep working as long as I can."

HAMMER Editorial

INTO THE HOME STRAIGHT ...

Tonight's fixture was originally due to be played here next Friday, but by mutual decision the engagement was brought forward from the Hammers' "traditional" Good Friday morning home date in order to ease the Easter schedule for both participating clubs.

Thus, only one of our four concluding home engagements in the Second Division schedule takes place on a Saturday, as after tonight we face Cardiff City next Monday (the 16th), Burnley (in a re-arranged game on Tuesday the 24th) and Wrexham (on the 28th).

Our away engagements also have a somewhat crazy pattern, as the original schedule marked us down to visit Cambridge Utd., Orient and Charlton Athletic on the first three Saturdays in April. Then unforeseen postponements added three in a row on opponents' grounds to finish the campaign.

Monday evening fixtures do not give any real scope to comment upon the events of the preceding Saturday, but we are hopeful that we might be able to include a "stop press" item in some of the programmes printed on this occasion.

However, irrespective of whatever we may be able to add, it was certain that our team was well-supported for the Hammers' first League visit to the Abbey Ground a couple of days ago. It was an "all ticket" affair, and pre-match purchases by our fans ensured that the "Bubbles" theme would be floating over Fenland during the tussle with Cambridge United.

With a little over a month to go, every club still has nearly a quarter of its schedule to complete. It's certainly a crowded finish, so the finalising of the promotion and relegation issues are not likely to be settled until mid-May.

Anton Otulakowski

ANTON OTULAKOWSKI was transferred to Southend United on 29 March, shortly before the deadline date for transfers.

Anton was born in Dewsbury, Yorks., and began his pro career for Barnsley. He played for the Oakwell club against us in a League Cup tie on 1 Sept. 1976, and was transferred to the Hammers on the following 27 Oct.

He made his League debut on 26 Nov. 1976 and totalled ten First Division appearances that season. Anton had another five League matches in 1977-78, but was not in the senior line-up during the present campaign.

ALLAN YOUNG is a former professional footballer, who played as a centre-half for Arsenal (three years), Chelsea (seven years) and Torquay United (two years). A knee injury ended his playing-career in 1973.

Allan then turned to the catering profession, and has been employed by P. S. Doran & Son for five years. He is catering manager at Upton Park, and also travels with the First Team to away matches; he supervises the catering facilities on the team-coach.

Allan and his wife live at Enfield, and have two daughters.

He claims he has no time to spare for hobbies, but is keen on house-decorating.

by BILL REMFRY, Hammers' "DJ"

Correspondence for THIS column only to:
Bill Remfry, c/o West Ham United F.C.
Boleyn Ground, Green Street, London, E.13

Mrs. M. Johnston of Stamford, Lincs., had trouble with her car in Peterborough a few weeks back. Her despair was relieved by three young "Sir Galahads," well-bedecked with club badges of the Hammers.

Having spent an hour or so working on the car, it suddenly purred into life—much to the delight of a grateful Mrs. Johnston, who promptly offered the three lads payment for their timely service.

"Buy us a pint when you are next in 'The Halcyon,'" said the lads—and went on their way.

"The Halcyon" is the "local" of the Peterborough Branch of the West Ham United Supporters Club. Mrs. Johnston wrote to ask me to thank the three lads in this column; their names are Ian, Mark and John.

Thank you, boys, for spreading the good name of the Hammers by a kindly action. Also, congratulations to the Peterborough Branch for their consistent support.

I am sorry to say that I will be absent this evening, as I have to be in Glasgow on business; it is a rare occasion when I miss a First Team match at Upton Park. So "on the mike" for tonight will be Mr. Len Couch; please give him all your encouragement.

Many thanks for your letters saying how you enjoy the records chosen each week. The top of the charts are, of course, always popular, but occasionally I slip in a new record and know you appreciate it.

THE HATTERS

Luton Town are no strangers to Upton Park, although over four years have elapsed since we last met here in League competition. On that occasion—19 August 1974—we were both in the First Division, but the renewal of our acquaintance was short-lived as the Bedfordshire club was relegated at the end of that season.

A glance at the records of our previous League meetings show that the Hatters and Hammers opposed each other regularly in the 1940's and 50's, and there will be many who recall stirring clashes in substitute competitions during World War II.

The summary of our 33 League and F.A. Cup meetings so far show that the record is truly balanced at eleven wins, eleven draws and eleven defeats for both clubs. A remarkable statistic, although the Town can claim the edge on goals scored.

We did much to even up the goals-count a few weeks ago by winning a re-arranged fixture at Kenilworth Road with a 4—1 margin. A couple of late goals helped to make the score look rather more one-sided than the game itself, and we naturally expect that our guests will be exceptionally keen to prove that result was not a true reflection of their ability.

Among the likely guests here this evening is a notable ex-Hammer; the Luton Town Chairman—Tommy Hodgson—is certain to have a feeling of nostalgia as he gazes out on the pitch where he played so many notable games in our colours. Tommy was at Upton Park for eight years (1922-1930) before transferring to the Hatters and becoming their skipper. Welcome back, Tom!

Of course, our clubs were rivals long before that, and there are records of matches between the Hammers' predecessors—Thames Iron Works—and Luton Town F.C. that are almost lost in mists of tradition.

Luton's history is long and varied; it is particularly interesting to note that although members of the Second Division of the Football League from 1897 until 1900, they reverted to the Southern League and did not take up Football League status again until 1920.

Visiting Manager

When DAVID PLEAT took over Luton Town at the age of 33 in January 1978, he was one of the youngest managers in the Football League. It was a meteoric rise, as two months earlier he had two members of the staff senior to him in the managing and coaching rôle.

Prior to that appointment David had played for five clubs, including his present one. Beginning as a winger for Nottingham Forest, he won England Youth honours before transferring to Luton Town. Three seasons at Kenilworth Road were followed by spells with Shrewsbury Town, Exeter City and Peterborough United.

A succession of injuries affected David's playing-career, but he had meanwhile taken F.A. coaching courses and became manager of Nuneaton Town in the Southern League.

He returned to Luton in 1975 as reserve team coach, and moved up to take charge of the senior side when Roy McCrohan left to take a job in the U.S.A. Then manager Harry Haslam joined Sheffield United, so David was nominated as man-in-charge.

After a good start last season the Hatters slipped down the table, and David took the dramatic step of selling four players and introducing nine new ones to the squad, with a transfer turnover of £900,000. The results this season are average, but there are hopes for a better future.

David Pleat's chief assistant at Kenilworth Road is a man whom he first met at an F.A. coaching course.

KEN GUTTERIDGE began his professional soccer career as a winger with Birmingham City, Sheffield Wednesday and York City.

He turned to coaching with Notts County, and then took up appointments with Preston North End, Burton Albion and Brighton & Hove Albion.

Ken had four years at Brighton as chief coach, assisting Peter Taylor and then Alan Mullery. However, he had few doubts about his decision when invited to move to Luton soon after the appointment of David Pleat.

Match Review

IMPROVED LEICESTER

Our home match v Leicester City last Saturday week turned out to be a different proposition from that when we visited Filbert Street in November; on the form they displayed it would be reasonable to say that the Midlanders are possibly the most-improved team in Division II.

The comment in our match-programme that 1979-80 could see City back among the honours once again has a good possibility of being fulfilled, and it will be interesting to see how our promotion-rivals fare in their visits to the Blues' arena. Stoke City were there last Saturday, and both Crystal Palace and Sunderland have to face the prospect later on.

Our match could have gone either way in the second-half, for although we quickly equalised the Foxes' goal, there were opportunities at both ends for a decisive counter. We had the larger proportion, and John Lyall summed it up in the brief comment that Bryan Robson missed a hat-trick by about six inches. Alan Devonshire also hit the post in the last minute, but City earned their point mainly by some excellent defensive measures.

We did feel that we had justifiable claims for a spot-kick on one special occasion when Alvin Martin found himself unexpectedly prone in the opposing 18-yard area. But right from the kick-off there was a premonition that this would be an occasion when penalty-kicks would be at a premium.

THE GOAL AGAINST LEICESTER. Bryan Robson popped up among the Blues' defence to equalise in the match here on March 31.

The conditions were liable to make anyone prone to misjudgment, but the near-24,000 attendance had some good entertainment on Grand National Day.

THE BLADES CUT DEEP

Sheffield United inflicted our heaviest defeat of the season when they hit three goals without reply in last Monday's re-arranged fixture at Bramall Lane.

It was a Hammers' performance very much out of keeping with a promotion-seeking team. A spell of ten minutes either side of the interval virtually settled our fate, the Blades netting twice to put them firmly in command.

Two minutes before the homesters went ahead they cleared a shot off their line, but it reacted to set them off on a period of pressure that resulted in Steve Finnieston heading home from a corner three minutes before the break.

The game had hardly re-started when Peter Anderson made it 2-0; the same player set the seal on his team's success by capitalising on a defensive mix-up that left him with a simple task with half-an-hour to go.

Blades' manager Harry Haslam was naturally delighted with a victory that could save his team from relegation. It was not a night for us to relish.

FOOTBALL COMBINATION

The first half of our match at Edgar Street last Saturday week was goalless, and Hereford United were playing very hard. However, the Hammers continued to show the better football, and netted three times after the interval. Nicky Morgan scored two of these (making him 14 to date), and the one between took Billy Jennings' total for the season up to 21.

SOUTHERN JUN. FLOODLIT CUP

Our Semi-Final replay against Leicester City takes place at Filbert Street tomorrow evening.

STH. EAST COUNTIES LEAGUE

Two goals in each half took our Under-18's to a comfortable win against Fulham at Chadwell Heath on March 31. The Cottagers are not well-placed, and we were always in command. Young Bobby Barnes got a couple to boost his scoring-total; Ray Houghton and Gary Pugh were the other scorers.

Division II Cup

Our Juniors severely dented their prospects of finishing top of their qualifying group by losing 1-2 at home to Oxford United last Saturday week. That gave their nearest opponents a one-point lead with two matches each to play.

JOHN McDOWELL scoring our fourth goal in the match v Newcastle United on March 24. It was his seventh in the League (spread over seven seasons), but he then hit our fifth against the Magpies to net two in one match for the first time.

News from UEFA

EURO-LEAGUE?

Suggestions for the formation of a European Clubs League have been proposed on several occasions in the past, and a recent press report indicated that another attempt was being made to bring this into being.

Consequently, the following report from a U.E.F.A. information bulletin of 19 February is rather enlightening:

"U.E.F.A. has vetoed the scheme of Real Madrid to stage a 'Santiago Bernabeu Trophy,' at least in the present concept. The proposed competition, planned in memory of the late President of the Spanish club, Santiago Bernabeu, was envisaged to take the form of a tournament on a league basis, with home and away games between Real Madrid, AC Milan, Bayern Munich and Ajax Amsterdam. The matches were scheduled to be played on the next official U.E.F.A. dates.

The four above-mentioned clubs include teams which were eliminated in early rounds of this year's European club competitions (with the exception of Bayern Munich, which did not qualify for the 1978-79 season).

The Association took its decision based on the statutes of U.E.F.A., whereby only the Executive Committee is empowered to sanction or prohibit international tournaments formed by club teams belonging to the First Divisions of member associations.

According to U.E.F.A., the Spanish proposal would have meant the start of a European League Championship, which U.E.F.A. alone is entitled to organise. U.E.F.A. is of the opinion that it is too early to introduce such a championship. In addition, the Executive Committee has ruled that no other international competitions should be played on dates reserved for U.E.F.A. competitions.

Should Real Madrid decide to go ahead with the 'Santiago Bernabeu Trophy,' they will be expected to submit revised draft regulations to U.E.F.A., with the preceding provisions taken into consideration."

Paul Hindmarsh is a nine-year-old who formerly lived in Chesterford Road, Manor Park, E.12. He emigrated with his parents some time ago to Auckland, New Zealand, but still maintains support of the Hammers thanks to his former next-door-neighbour Mr. F. Cole.

Mr. Cole regularly forwards copies of Hammer to Paul, and recently passed on a letter from the youngster who is a sporting enthusiast. Paul plays for the East Coast Boys Club, and netted their winning goal in the local Cup Final.

Mr. Cole does duty as a commissioner at the Boleyn Ground, and we thank him for maintaining yet another of the Hammers' contacts overseas.

Hammers' History

10 years ago . . .

8 April 1969. A Tuesday evening match in the First Division v Stoke City brought a 26,577 attendance to Upton Park. The line-ups were:

West Ham Utd.: Ferguson, Charles (J.), Howe, Peters, Stephenson, Moore (capt.), Redknapp, Bonds, Brooking, Hurst, Sissons.
Sub.: Boyce.

Stoke City: Banks, Marsh, Pejic, Lacey, Smith, Stevenson, Eastham, Dobing, Herd, Vernon, Burrows. Sub.: Mahoney.

A point of interest was that one member from both of those XI's played against each other when we met the Potters this season — Billy Bonds and Denis Smith.

On the previous occasion, this duo participated in a goalless draw. It was the City's fourth point from three matches in four days. Our programme report mentioned that some of our players spent a lot of their time tucking their shirts back into their shorts—from which you can draw your own conclusions about a game best forgotten!

20 years ago . . .

9 April 1959. A notable night for the youngsters at Upton Park, where 6,000 fans turned out on a rainy evening to see a Fifth Round replay in the F.A. Youth Cup against Aston Villa.

For those who care to remember that far back, the Hammers team was: Frank Caskey, Harry Cripps, Jack Burkett, Eddie Bovington, Bobby Moore, Geoff Hurst, Derek Woodley, John Cartwright, Mick Beesley, Andy Smillie and Tony Scott.

At that time five were professionals: Cripps, Moore, Cartwright, Smillie, Scott. Eventually, the entire XI with the exception of Caskey and Cripps, played for us in the Football League at various times.

Individually, they won a lot of medals; Moore and Hurst in the World Cup, F.A. Cup and European Cup Winners Cup; Bovington in the F.A. Cup; Burkett in the F.A. Cup and Cup Winners Cup.

The team was a source of tremendous potential, and on that night won a great game by 3—2. Eventually the Hammers reached the Final, only to lose by 2—1 on aggregate against Blackburn Rovers, after extra time in the second leg. The "West Ham Academy" was in being some years before the time generally accepted!

30 years ago . . .

9 April 1949. A Second Division match v Southampton at The Dell was subsequently reported as "indubitably our best away performance of the season." The Saints had previously dropped only two points at home (both drawn games) and topped the table at the time.

Each team missed a penalty. Ian Black pushed Steve Forde's shot against the bar, then Hammers' keeper George Taylor turned Ray Ellerington's spot-kick away for a corner. Billy Robinson scored a great goal to net the vital points. It was our fourth win in a row.
