LUTON TOWN 2 QPR 0

Ricky Hill seen here in Rangers goal area again putting QPR defenders under pressure.

Hatters crowd look on as Emeka Nwajiobi keeps QPR guessing as he takes control of the left wing.

Welcome to this afternoon's game. We can expect a difficult 90 minutes as both sides need the points to escape from the wrong area of the League. Earlier this season, we drew 1-1 at Portman Road and much has happened since then. The important thing is that both teams play in the right spirit and the crowd enjoy the game, like previous East Anglian derby games.

We were all delighted that over 9,000 people returned to Kenilworth Road last Saturday, in the light of the terrible crowd problems against Millwall and the disappointment of losing three goals at Watford. I hope you will continue to support us during the most important eight weeks that we have faced in recent seasons.

The Watford result was not a fair reflection of the play — however, if we have territorial advantage for long periods, it is useless unless we translate that authority into goals. We sorted out one or two problems for QPR's visit and that was a game where we looked in command throughout. We could, and should, have increased our goal difference considerably. It is possible that teams within our sights get nervous at this stage of the season, as they watch teams below them slowly creeping up. Could Sunderland, QPR, Watford or West Ham get caught up in a battle that we, ourselves, Coventry and our visitors today have faced all season?

I am still confident we can only improve with fourteen games to go — much can happen. Fixture congestion could be a problem, and we are already faced with difficulties over three games, Chelsea, Everton and Stoke. The latter game is scheduled for May 1st, but Northern Ireland will be playing that evening, which will deny us the services of Mal Donaghy.

Our semi-final opponents were due at Luton on April 9th, but they now have an outstanding fixture with Bayern Munich on the Wednesday preceding the Villa Park game.

We are hopeful that Ashley Grimes and Frank Bunn will be strong contenders for a semi-final place. Our physio, John Sheridan, has nursed them along well, and I was hopeful that both had a competitive Reserve ties team who have secured the top spot — I am hoping that these players form the nucleus of an outstanding side within four years. Our Reserves, too, have done splendidly, at present competing for top slot with QPR. Andy Dibble has been solid in goal in recent weeks, Mark Stein has been a regular goalscorer, and Alec Ellisden has shown consistency at left back.

After last week's run against Rangers, I did not get the opportunity to speak to the Press. Consequently, I was delighted to pick up the Sunday papers and see reports of the game as opposed to quotes. Generally, the Press in this country is fair, but there is still a tendency to sensationalise. I hope there is much good play this afternoon, and Bobby Ferguson and I can sit back and let the football do the talking.

Enjoy the game, and keep cheering the boys. Only 100% will be good enough.

GLENN HODDLE

Tottenham forgot their European heartbreak with their first home win of the New Year and points that keeps them in pursuit of the Championship title. Ossie Ardiles returned to the side after a long absence through injury and celebrated his return by scoring in the 39th minute. Wallace equalised for Southampton three minutes into the second half but the home fans were not silenced for long. Glenn Hoddle restored the lead with a twenty yards shot and further goals from Falco, Crooks and Brooke saw Spurs into second place in the League table.

Leaders Everton took three deserved points by beating Arsenal at Goodison Park and took another step towards their treble ambitions. Andy Gray returned to the side and scored after 27 minutes. Neville Southall, one of the key men in their tremendous season, made two fine saves to preserve their lead and in the dying seconds Graham

GARY LINEKER

Sharpe made the points safe.

Gary Lineker broke the deadlock just seven minutes from time to send West Ham nearer the relegation zone. The Leicester striker had earlier missed three good chances but his header from an Alan Smith cross gave Leicester the points they deserved. However, despite City having most of the possession it could have been a different story had not Ian Andrews made great saves from Tony Cottee and Paul Allen.

Mick Harford's aerial power brought three precious points for Luton over Queens Park Rangers in their battle to retain First Division status. His first came after 27 minutes when he rounded off Emeka Nwajioji's skilful run with a downward header which gave Peter Hucker no chance. Then in the sixty-second minute he rose majestically to head home a David Preece corner. Although Rangers battled throughout the game they were never a match for a Luton side in the determined mood.

Liverpool handed out a warning to the top clubs not to rule them out of the Championship race. Steve Nichol started the scoring after only six minutes, then Kenny Dalglish added the second eleven minutes into the second half. The match then became the John Wark show. The former Ipswich midfielder scored his third hat-trick for the Reds with strikes in the 64th, 70th and 82nd minutes. West Bromwich goalkeeper Tony Godden made many fine saves but as Liverpool manager Joe Fagan said after the match: 'I just let my team do the talking'.

Aston Villa felt the backlash of Manchester United's UEFA Cup exit with Mark Hughes their chief tormentor. The Welsh striker kept his promise to make up for his costly penalty miss in Hungary but scoring a magnificent hat-trick. Norman Whiteside relishing his new midfield role moved forward in the 53rd minute to score United's fourth.

Ipswich were grateful for a point in the end but really needed all three against Newcastle whose form of late has been erratic. An injury to Chris Waddle meant a chance for Neil McDonald in the Geordies attack and he took it by putting the visitors ahead in the 54th minute. Then with only three minutes to go Eric Gates scored his first goal since New Year's Day to earn the East Anglian side a point.

Struggling Stoke paid for a 40th minute penalty miss which would have sent them in on level terms at half time. They went ahead with their first League goal of the year after 10 minutes when midfielder Steve Parkin turned in Bertschin's cross. Forest responded with headed goals from Hodge (27) and Hart (37). After Painter's miss from the penalty spot, Brian Clough's men took full advantage with further goals from Riley and Davenport.

Coventry manager Don Mackay missed the game with flu but this result will have made him feel better. Terry Gibson opened the scoring in the eighth minute and added his seventeenth goal of the season after 32 minutes. Watford could hardly believe their bad luck after making all the running, and there was more misery to come as Micky Adams added a third just three minutes from half time. Kenny Jackett had a goal disallowed in the second half and Luther Blissett scored the consolation goal for the Hornets just four minutes from the end.

Leading goalscorers in the Division are:

Dixon	Chelsea	29 goals
Falco	Tottenham	23 goals
Bannister	QPR	22 goals
Sharp	Everton	22 goals
Lineker	Leicester	21 goals
Varadi	Sheff Wed	21 goals

THE LOCAL TASTE AND HOW TO SATISFY IT

We're very definite about our taste in beer around here. A clear light pint is what we look for; with a good, clean smack of malt and hops.

And there's only one name that really satisfies the local taste — BB. The Light beer first brewed in Luton during the darkest days of the War by J. W. Green.

Only the finest hops and good, ripe barley go into the making. Then the brew is matured to exactly the right degree to give you a bright refreshing pint with a sound, full flavour.

WHITBREAD

American servicemen in local wartime bases declared that BB, chilled, was the nearest taste to Stateside draught.

It went down well when Syd Owen ruled the Hatters.

And it's been going down well ever since. Because BB is brewed with a proper respect for quality. To keep up the traditions we value round here.

POINTS OF VIEW

EDITOR: Our mail bag since our quarter-final tie has been overflowing, with so many letters expressing regret and disgust to the mindless idiots who seek to destroy our great game.

Rather than continue to highlight the events of that night, each correspondence view has helped in completing our report to the FA Disciplinary Commission.

We would however, like to thank everyone who wrote to us, who expressed their concern that such a terrible thing could happen at Luton. We are replying to each letter in due course.

Dear Sir,
I would like to thank the Football Club for giving hot drinks to many people who were buying tickets for the Saturday Cup match against Watford.

It was a very kind thought and very welcome on such a damp day. Yours faithfully,

Anne Holttum
Luton

Dear Bill,
I would like to thank your staff, David and the players and everyone else at Luton for the fantastic co-operation you gave us on Saturday. I think Brian and Babs will remember the day for ever and we at 'THAT'S LIFE' will certainly always remember your generosity.

By the time this reaches you we will have already discussed when the film will be transmitted. I hope it does justice to the super set-up and terrific atmosphere you have at Luton.

Hope to see you soon and all the best in the Cup. Yours sincerely,

Tobin Ellis-Bextor
Film Director, 'THAT'S LIFE'

Dear David, team and all at Luton,
Just a few lines to give my congrats to your effort in the Cup, really lads this could be our year.

It would be magic to be making an appearance at Wembley. I know you can do it, so come on you 'Hatters'.

Regards and very best wishes to all,

SOUTHEND UTD 0 LUTON TOWN 1

This game was played on a very dry and narrow pitch and against a very big Southend side. We had lost Ian Scott and Kingsley Black making their reserve team debuts and R. Harvey who was substitute.

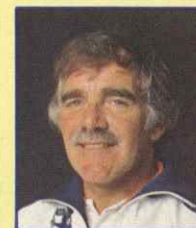

We had a very shaky first half, our every chance falling to Gary Williams after a splendid pass from Arron Tighe. However, we played much better in the second half. We had two goals disallowed but Gary Williams got his reward for persistence by getting the winner after good work by S. Mokler and Denathow Bone set up Sean Farrell to provide a brilliant cross.

Stephen Mokler was brilliant in goal and Sandor Gyalog was not far behind at the centre of midfield.

table, and a day when both sides were below their best, defences were mainly on top, and very few chances were created, maybe we had slightly the better, but we failed to test the goalkeeper enough. In general there was some good play, without the penetration of defences that causes excitement because the ball is in the penalty area. Both teams lacked someone to produce a goal to set the game alight and encourage the rest to follow his example.

Reasonable happy with the team except for our lack of initiative to produce more chances, but on the whole 79 goals in 28 matches is a fairly good goal scoring record.

This was the first reserve game for 24 matches and only the third time this season when we have failed to score in a Combination game. Sometimes it is more difficult at home, because the opposition sit back and deny you space behind or condense space around the penalty area making it difficult to create clear goal scoring chances. When the above happens you have got to be at your best to defeat it, and when you have lots of youngsters they can't always achieve, what they would like to.

It was a difficult fixture for us as QPR are top of the Combination

IPSWICH TOWN

So near . . . yet so far. That could well sum up Ipswich Town's season to date. Twice within a whisker of Wembley but now facing a battle to preserve their First Division status in the League.

It's been very much a tale of fighting for points in the League while advancing to the semi-finals of the Milk Cup and the quarter-final stages of the FA Cup. Norwich in the former and Everton in a sixth round FA Cup replay put paid to Town's Cup hopes and left Bobby Ferguson and his side knowing exactly where the priorities lie over the remaining weeks of the season as they strive for First Division survival.

If Ipswich need any inspiration then they can look back to the same stage 12 months ago when from a position of almost certain relegation, Town reeled off an eight match unbeaten run to eventually climb well clear of the drop.

In fact that run, that included a win at Manchester United and a draw at Liverpool, finally took Ipswich to 12th in the table — nearer a place in Europe than relegation. But how the Suffolk side must be hoping for a repeat between now and the early part of May.

A draw against Newcastle at Portman Road last Saturday left Town second from bottom, two points behind Luton and today's Kenilworth Road meeting obviously has an important significance for both teams.

Ipswich have tended to struggle all season away from home, only one away success so far and just eight goals put into the opposition net on their travels.

Yet playing away held no worries for the team in the Cup. In the Milk Cup Ipswich won replays at Newcastle and Queens Park Rangers in convincing style while in the FA competition they led Cup holders Everton at Goodison Park for a long spell before conceding a late equaliser and then bowing out to a penalty in the replay.

Their one League success away from Portman Road so far was a 2-0 win at Stoke. That apart, their only points from 14 games have come from four draws.

Problems started to pile up for the club towards the end of 1984 when they lost eight of their last nine League games in the year and failed to score in any of the eight defeats.

Manager Ferguson looked for a remedy by signing Derby County striker Kevin Wilson for a reported £150,000 fee. Wilson, originally spotted by Derby playing in non-League football, had scored 13 times in 15 games for the Baseball Ground club before a broken arm kept him on the sidelines.

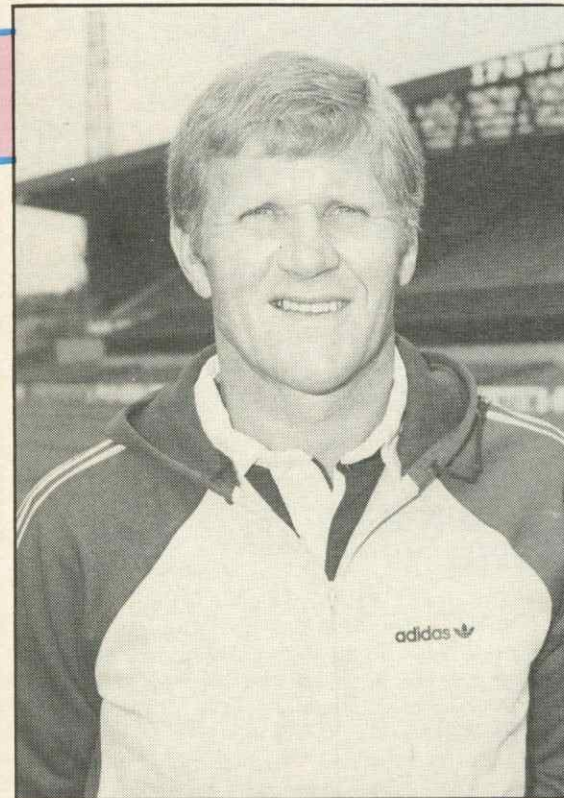

It's still early days yet but Wilson came up with a couple of goals in Town's FA Cup run and seems to be fitting the bill alongside South African born Mitch D'Avray.

Town's leading scorer so far though is the experienced Eric Gates, who started the season with a burst of goals . . . eight in his first 11 games. There's more proven scoring potential provided by Alan Sunderland who made a permanent move to East Anglia last summer after a spell on loan from Arsenal while ex-West Bromwich midfielder Romeo Zondervan has also found the net on a regular basis in recent months although to date, four of his five scores have been in the Cups.

Apart from Gates, Scottish full-back George Burley and England defender Terry Butcher, the only remaining link with the side Bobby Robson built into one of the best in the League not too long ago, is goalkeeper Paul Cooper.

Middle row: Charlie Woods (Assistant Manager), Romeo Zondervan, Russell Osman, Mark Grew, Paul Cooper, Mich D'Avray, Irvin Gernon, Bobby Ferguson (Manager).

BOBBY FERGUSON

He has been with Ipswich for more than 10 years now and remains first choice in goal although when he was forced to miss the recent Everton replay because of injury, former Albion and Leicester 'keeper Mark Grew deputised.

The reliable Burley at right-back with Steve McCall at three is Town's normal full-back pairing although skipper Butcher has also worn the left-back shirt on occasions this season. He's better known though as one of the best central defenders in the business, and an automatic choice in the England side.

Another England back-four man, Russell Osman has not been first choice in recent weeks. He has a challenger in England Under-21 player Ian Cranson while there's plenty of youngsters pushing for midfield berths alongside Zondervan including Trevor Putney, Mark Brennan and McCall who can play further forward when Butcher slots into the left-back role.

Wilson, D'Avray and Gates with Sunderland switching between midfield and attack provide the power up front and a player tipped for big things in the future is Jason Dozzell, an England Youth striker who broke into the first team reckoning around Christmas.

Easter could have an important bearing on deciding the relegation issue but today's game has all the makings of a 'six pointer' with Ipswich, no doubt, hoping that they'll soon start to put together a run like the one that took them clear of trouble last season.

WATFORD 3 LUTON TOWN 0 Saturday 23rd March 1985

After a fine performance at Hillsborough the Town went to Vicarage Road in search of valuable League points, but they were caught by a Watford side smarting from recent results. The Town showed some nice touches but the home side had the finishing power that counted. Mick Harford had a shot deflected around the post and Steve Foster put a header just wide, after 27 minutes Watford went in front when Mitchell Thomas was alleged to have fouled Luther Blissett in the area. Les Sealey had no chance with Blissett's spot kick. The second goal was a typical piece of Watford play. With the Town pressing forward a long punted clearance by Tony Coton was laid off by Blissett towards the right wing and from the edge of the penalty area Callaghan dipped a shot of telling skill to beat Sealey. The final goal came in the last minute, the Town again were pushing forward, were caught on the break. A long clearance forward found Blissett and an interchange of passes with Barnes, he scored his 22nd goal of the season.

Although the Town were the better footballing side they were beaten by a team who were able to turn basic endeavours and hard work to an advantage.

HAPPY WINNERS

TODAY'S EXECUTIVE SPONSOR

Today's executive sponsors are McCann Homes, a family firm established since 1976, whose progressive and forward thinking is combined with high standards of quality and fitting to provide economical houses specifically designed to enhance the very locality in which they are situated. McCanns are based in Leighton Buzzard and the company's Directors

Terry and Malcolm McCann are both keen Town fans. Whilst this is the company's first sponsorship here they are not new to sponsorship being heavily involved as sponsors of local football. Clubs to benefit include Leighton Town FC, Leighton Athletic, Linslade FC and Starship Sports from Luton.

We wish McCann Homes and their guests an enjoyable afternoon.

MAN OF THE MATCH

Match sponsors Broad Street Print nominated two goal Mick Harford and Gary Waddock of Queens Park Rangers as Man of the Match for their respective teams. Our picture captures Fred, charming wife of Broad Street's Managing Director Tony Lambert, presenting the award to Mick and Gary.

AFTER MATCH RECEPTION

David Preece and Mal Donaghy were among the players who united our executive sponsors Hertfordshire BTR after the Queens Park Rangers game. Mal is pictured with Phil Allen of Hertfordshire BTR and his son Mark whilst David is pictured presenting the autographed ball to Mark.

PAUL PRICE

Paul was born in St Albans and signed forms for Luton in July 1971 and in the 10 years he spent at Kenilworth Road, he made nearly 300 appearances. In that time he also appeared for the Welsh Under-21 side and later gained full Welsh honours (The qualification to play for Wales because of his parents birthplace) Just before he was due to a testimonial match for his long service, he decided to join Tottenham Hotspur who immediately brought their full squad to Kenilworth Road, to play for Paul and other ex-players including Alan Slough. Malcolm Macdonald put in an appearance for him. He did not command a regular place at White Hart Lane and spent some time playing reserve football. He was eventually granted a free transfer and decided to try his luck in the United States. After playing one season in the North American Soccer League he returned to this country looking for a club. After many offers he joined Swansea City who had showed interest in him before his move to Tottenham. He is still living in Luton and visits Kenilworth Road when he is able.
