A MESSAGE FROM THE CHAIRMAN

"Every Newcastle United supporter will know that manager Jack Charlton has left the club. He tendered his resignation shortly after the Sheffield United game here last Saturday week and although the Board of Directors asked him to reconsider he confirmed his decision on the following Tuesday.

"His reasons for leaving have been well documented by the media. In essence he felt that he could not continue in view of the criticism directed at him during the friendly fixture against Sheffield United.

"Jack is his own man and once he had made up his mind to go he could not be persuaded otherwise. The decision was his — and his alone — and he did tell me that he felt that it was best for him, and for Newcastle United, that he went.

"As Chairman I speak for all the directors when I say it was something we did not want. We have had no complaints about his work since he joined us a year ago last June and we thank him for piloting us into 14th position in the First Division last season.

"When he joined us he said he hoped to be here for a number of years and felt that he could make us a major force in the top flight. We shared those hopes and ambitions and he did make a point of saying on the day he left that he had had unswerving support from the Boardroom at all times.

"His departure is a rather sad chapter in our history, but life has to go on and of course we are doing all we can to secure the services of a manager to build on what we believe is a decent First Division base.

"In the meantime we have men of proven ability and experience within the club to handle team affairs — but I would ask our supporters to bear in mind that losing a manager is invariably a traumatic time for the players.

"The paying customer must always have the freedom to voice his opinions, but I would think we would all accept that encouragement is a wonderful tonic and confidence booster for the people who ultimately make us all happy — the players.

"These past few months have been very difficult ones for the game we all love so much. The Bradford fire, coming as it did on the same day as the death of a supporter at the Birmingham-Leeds game, plus that horrendous evening when 38 were killed at the European Cup Final in Brussels, have been hammer blows.

"So much has been written, so much has been said. Our clubs have been banned from European competitions, our Government has suggested identity cards, a ban on alcohol and various schemes to stop supporters travelling — to say nothing of much stiffer sentences for those caught misbehaving.

"It is all so very sad — but I and not as pessimistic as some when they talk about the future of the game we gave to the world.

"I honestly believe that the vast majority of people who spend hard-earned money to support their favourite team are honest, decent and law-abiding.

"And I also believe that the majority will triumph over the evil minority. There are too many decent folk still passionately fond of the game to allow the hoodlum element to go on giving it such a bad name.

"My dearest wish is to see football restored to the family entertainment it once was, when Dads and Mums could bring their children without the fear of violence and obscene chanting.

"We all have a responsibility towards that aim and nothing would give me greater pleasure than to see Newcastle United supporters leading the way.

"I thank each and every one of you for your loyal support last season — an average of over 26,000 for the 21 home League games was very gratifying — and I thank you for the time you've just spent reading these few words.

"Jack Charlton's resignation was a body-blow, coming as it did so soon before the new season opened. But life has to go on. Newcastle United has suffered setbacks in the past, too many to think of perhaps.

"But here we are looking forward to another First Division season — to the thrills and spills that make Soccer so magnificently unpredictable.

"Let's enjoy it, no matter what the results. Because if we can't enjoy it then the game really is in trouble!"

MICK CHASES LEAGUE TON

Mick Harford opened the current campaign needing just four more goals to reach his 'ton' in League soccer. He was hoping to have got off the mark swiftly against Nottingham Forest on Saturday and will be eager to move closer to his target at St. James' Park this evening.

Mick was born in Sunderland and, of course, was a Newcastle player for a few months in 1980/81.

After three successful seasons with Lincoln City, he was transferred to Newcastle for £216,000 — a record for a Fourth Division player — in December 1980.

Sadly, he didn't really settle here so, during the 1981 close season, he moved on to Bristol City in a £150,000 deal.

When City's cash crisis threatened to close the club, and they fell behind with payments on his transfer, they were forced to sell him.

In a unique transfer, he was transferred back to Newcastle for nothing. A few minutes later he was transferred to Birmingham for £100,000. In this way, we received the balance outstanding to us.

Luton signed him for £250,000 during the early weeks of last season and he enjoyed a hugely successful season for the Hatters, scoring 16 goals.

Here we analyse his career to date, showing his season-by-season appearances, substitute appearances and all his goals.

Welcome back to the Canon League.

This is the third season of the Canon League — Canon's sponsorship of the Football League Championship.

Canon's outstanding success in the high technology industries of cameras and business equipment has enabled them to support our national game with over £3 million.

The sponsorship money is shared between all 92 League clubs and is used to help keep admission prices down, encourage exciting attacking football with goalscoring awards and to provide recognition and financial support to those clubs who do most to promote family attendances at Canon League matches.

In the 1984/85 Canon League season, the beautiful trophies pictured above — specially created by Garrard, the Crown Jewellers — were won by Everton, Oxford United, Bradford City and Chesterfield. This season, all 92 clubs will again compete for these most prestigious trophies in the toughest football competition in the world — the Canon League.

UNITED GREATS by Paul Joannou

No. 1 JACKIE MILBURN

"Wor Jackie" is synonymous with Newcastle and its folk. Everyone, football follower or not, knows of United's dynamic centre-forward of the fifties. A living legend whose deeds will be handed down for many generations to come.

Born in Ashington only a few days after United had lifted the F.A. Cup at Wembley in 1924, he was christened with the appropriate initials of J.E.T. John Edward Thompson. He is a member of what is the greatest footballing family in Britain which started back in 1888 when the first Jack Milburn played for Northumberland.

Jack No. 2 was a schoolboy international, then the family really began to grow when this Milburn had six sons and five daughters! All the sons played football and two of Ashington lads produced a whole line of first class players. Alec produced Jackie (No. 4), while Tanner Milburn's side of the family produced four other sons who operated in League soccer; George, Stan, Jim and Jack (No. 3). All bar Stan, who appeared for Chesterfield and Leicester, were with Leeds United. All were tough and famed pre-war performers.

The Milburn family tree becomes further entangled as their sister, Cissie, is of course mother to Jackie and Bobby Charlton. What a family and it was Jack (No. 4), our Milburn remember, who really put the clan in the headlines when he became an England international during the 1948/49 season.

But back to his early days. Jackie left school in 1938, aged 14. Instead of going down the pit the young Milburn took a job in Dorking as a pantry-boy washing dishes, far flung from his future success. Home sickness soon drove the youngster back to his native north-east where he started his football career assisting Hurst Old Boys and later Ashington YMCA from the centre-half position. War in 1939 saw Jack attempt to join the Navy but at only 5'0" he was rejected. Twelve months later he had shot up in height to 5'10" and had become an apprentice fitter at the local colliery. His football progress was outstanding. He appeared for the County and was soon at St. James' Park making an impression.

It was in August 1943 that Stan Seymour signed Milburn on a semi-pro basis. He immediately made his debut for the first eleven at the Valley Parade, home of Bradford City. United went down 2-1. Jackie vividly recalls that game today.

"The most memorable moment of my career, even those Wembley victories can't match it. To pull on the black'n white jersey for the first time was something special". Jack also recalls who netted Bradford's goals that day. "Yes, it was a gritty Yorkshireman by the name of Joe Harvey. He's been part of my life ever since!"

The following match was Jack's home debut and it took him only two minutes to show the Geordie public what was to follow, the first of nearly 250 goals scored for United. It was achieved with his first kick too! Jackie continued on the wing during those mid-forties, showing the swiftness of foot that was to create many goals from the centre-forward position. That position change occurred in October 1947 and his first game in the Number 9 jersey resulted in a hat-trick against Bury. Promotion was achieved in that same season with Milburn claiming 21 goals, Newcastle's top scorer.

In Division One for the first time, he went off like a bomb and was soon representing the Football League and England. He went on to play 13 times for England, scoring 9 goals, with his last cap coming in 1956. To many judges it was a dozen appearances to few. by the turn of the decade, Milburn had forged a highly productive partnership with George Robledo. In five seasons together they notched up almost 200 goals and were the spearhead of United's double Wembley glory of 1951 and 1952.

It was, of course, in the first of those Finals that Jackie had his greatest hour, scoring two goals which typified his play. Blackpool were the opposition and the media classed United's success a one man show.

"It was anything but that" recalls Jackie, "but I enjoyed the goals". The first, a solo effort beating the offside trap, and the second, still to anyone who looks at it on video now, one of the best at Wembley ever. Taking a back-heel from little Ernie Taylor, Milburn crashed a 30 yarder into the top corner like a rocket.

Another Final followed in 1955, and another goal. Jack remained at Gallowgate until the summer of 1957 when he moved to Linfield as playermanager. Late in January 1963 he tried senior management with Ipswich. It proved a rather rough passage; possibly he was too nice a guy to wander in that jungle and he left East Anglia to return north in 1964.

Jack then joined the newspaper world where he still remains, covering United's matches from the press-box. Never being devoid of constructive words he says: "It's no use telling lies. I couldn't live with myself. If I have a point of view I'll print it even if it clashes with other peoples' notions."

Now a Freeman of the City, Jackie Milburn remains a genuine and modest individual. When chatting about his testimonial in 1967 he said: "I was worried to death that no-one would turn up. Ten years after playing is a long time, people forget." Jack modest as ever, should have known better. Geordies don't forget heroes; almost 46,000 crowded into St. James' Park. As Jackie says: "The most unforgettable evening of my life".

THE VOLVO 300 SERIES

There is about all Volvos a reassuring feeling of safety, dependability and comfort. It runs high through the new 300 series. In recent years it has climbed steadily up the best sellers lists. The appeal? Virtues for which all Volvos are respected - safety, reliability, durability and superior finish throughout. Now Volvo has incorporated into the new 300 series the best features of its illustrious predecessors, together with improvements in design on an already high specification. Most noticeable is the new generation 2-litre engine for all 360 models which has lifted both performance and fuel economy. These new engines are quieter with more power for easier, smoother driving, especially when overtaking.

The Volvo 300 series has all the safety features of its big brothers, the Volvo 240 and 740. Volvo has always been dedicated to safety. A strong cage of steel surrounds the whole passenger compartment. Steel members in the doors protect against side impacts and front and rear sections of the car are designed as crumple zones which systematically absorb collision forces without affecting the passenger compartment. This, combined with many other safety features, together with the practical advantages of lots of room for people and luggage, makes driving the Volvo 300 series safe, relaxed and pleasurable. In short, you can drive the 300 series in confidence, comfort and peace of mind.

Available with 1.4 and 2-litre engines, as well as in hatchback and saloon versions, there is a Volvo 300 series for everyone.

PETER'S TIMING WAS SPOT ON

Peter Beardsley timed most things just right last season - and that enabled him to pick up the biggest single prize ever offered a player at St. James' Park.

All through the season supporters were asked to nominate their Man of the Match to find the Player of the Year in a competition run jointly by Eldon Square jewellers Walker and Hall and Swiss watchmakers EBEL.

And when the votes were counted Peter was the winner of a magnificent gold and stainless steel watch worth £1,300.

Peter, seen here receiving the superb timepiece from EBEL (U.K.) Managing Director Denys Pasche at St. James' Park on Tuesday May 7th, polled 4,107 votes with David McCreery in second place on 2,794, Glenn Roeder third (1,782) and Chris Waddle (1,671) fourth.

Mike Cooper, General Manager of Walker and Hall, Eldon Square, was also present at the presentation ceremony - as were the supporters whose votes gave Peter a tachymetre timepiece he describes as: "A truly magnificent gift - something I will always treasure".

Peter's 16th and 17th goals of the season had come the previous afternoon - both from the penalty spot against Spurs. We see him here striking his second - his eighth successful penalty conversion last season.

MALCOLM MISSED JUST THREE - AND THEN LEFT!

Malcolm Brown, who went back to his previous club, Huddersfield Town, in the summer, made the most first team appearances last season.

Malcolm played in all but the last three First Division matches, in our four Milk Cup games and two in the F.A. Cup - a total of 45.

Next came Peter Beardsley - 44 League and Cup - and Peter finished the season as our top scorer with 17 goals, all in the League. Chris Waddle's goals total was 16 - 13 League, two Milk Cup and one in the F.A. Cup.

ATTENDANCES DOWN LAST SEASON

The 21 League games at St. James' Park last season drew an aggregate of 550,798, giving a match average of 26,228.

The figures were down on the 1983-84 promotion season, when the average was 29,834 (aggregate 626,533).

Under 16's triumph in Coleraine

Following our junior team's splendid F.A. Youth Cup triumph at the end of last season the fine work was continued by our first-year apprentices and associate schoolboys who teamed up to take the Northern Ireland Cup for Under-16's in Coleraine at the end of July.

After defeating Home Farm, Antrim Town, Tristar and Maghera in the earlier rounds our youngsters gained a single goal win over Clydebank in the semi-final before facing Coleraine on their home ground in the Final.

Goals by Gary Megennis, David Hallam, Paul Thompson and Paul Watson gave us a 4-1 victory — Phil Coxall was named Man of the Match and Neil Wilson, in terrific form throughout the trip, was Player of the Tournament.

Results and scorers: v Home Farm, 6-1 (Wilson 3, Thompson 2, Hallam); v Antrim Town, 5-1 (Thompson 2, Hallam, Wilson, Megennis); v Tristar, 3-0 (Thompson 2, Wilson); v Maghera, 4-2 (Megennis 2, Wilson, Thompson); v Clydebank, 1-0 (Watson); v Coleraine, 4-1 (Megennis, Hallam, Thompson, Watson).

PLEAT HAS BEEN SO LOYAL

DAVID PLEAT, one of the brightest and most forward-thinking men in the business, has been in the game as a professional for just over 23 years.

He won England Schoolboy honours before joining Nottingham Forest as a junior and became a professional in March 1962. In fact he made his First Division debut — against Cardiff — a few weeks before joining the pro staff, but had to wait almost two years for another chance! But he did have the consolation of playing for the England Youth team.

He joined Luton during the summer of 1964 and won a place on the wing in their Third Division side, but the Hatters finished third from bottom and dropped into Division Four for the first time in their history.

In 1967 he moved to Shrewsbury, a year later it was on to Exeter, then to Peterborough and finally a player/manager apprenticeship at Nuneaton returning to Kenilworth Road.

David coached the reserve side for three seasons before being appointed first team coach when Harry Haslam left for Sheffield United in January 1978 he took over the managerial reins.

After two near misses he hoisted them out of the Second Division in some style in season 1981/82 — Luton finished top with 88 points, eight more than second placed Watford and 17 ahead of the third club, Norwich — and despite many offers to move on to bigger and more glamorous surroundings David has remained loyal to Luton.

They were so close to a Wembley Final last season — Everton recovered from a goal down to beat them in the semi-final of the F.A. Cup — and David Pleat's football philosophy was summed up after that heartbreaking result when he said: "We gave of our best and it would have been lovely to have reached Wembley."

"But we're not moaning — it was a fine achievement to get to the penultimate stages." He's a nice fellow, a good manager — and we wish him well.

TONIGHT'S MASCOT

PAUL KRAKOWSKI of Newminster Road, Fenham in Newcastle is our mascot tonight. Paul, who attends the St. Bedes School, Whickham View, is an energetic 9½ year old who lists his favourite activities as Soccer, cricket, cycling and swimming.

The youngster often attends our home games with his father — and has no hesitation in naming Peter Beardsley as his favourite player.

FLASHBACK

5 YEARS AGO

Notts County were our mid week opponents at St. James' Park. A crowd of more than 17,000 saw a Second Division encounter that came to life after the interval. The game ended 1-1 with Alan Shoulder getting our goal. Don Masson netted for Notts.

Watford, also in the Second Division, made the short journey to Luton for a local derby which they lost to a first-half goal scored by Steve White.

Sunderland scored a remarkable 4-0 away victory at Manchester City in the First Division, thanks largely to a John Hawley hat-trick whilst, up in Scotland, Frank McGarvey was Celtic's hat-trick hero against Diosgyoeri of Hungary in a first-leg European Cup-Winners' Cup tie. Celtic opened out a 6-0 lead.

10 YEARS AGO

St. James's Park was packed with more than 40,000 fans for our Wednesday evening First Division clash with neighbouring Middlesbrough. An odd match ended 1-1, both the goals being scored by opponents. Alan Gowling deflected the ball past Mike Mahoney to give Middlesbrough an interval lead. Later John Craggs, the former Newcastle player, touched a Malcolm Macdonald shot past his 'keeper to give us a point.

Watford were then a humble Fourth Division outfit and, after losing their opening League match at Barnsley (0-1) on the Saturday, were hopeful of more success when they played at home to Northampton in the first-leg of the first stage of the League Cup. First-half goals from Bobby Downes and Brian Greenhalgh gave them a 2-0 first-leg lead and they ultimately won 3-1 on aggregate.

Burnley, who are currently playing in the Fourth Division, drew 1-1 at home to Everton in a First Division game watched by 23,041.

15 YEARS AGO

An unhappy night for Newcastle at the Victoria ground. Big John Ritchie scored twice against us, with Frank Burrows adding another, as Stoke City cruised to a comfortable 3-0 win.

Watford, then enjoying their first spell of Second Division football, were again in League Cup action and they made progress by beating Peterborough United 2-0 at Vicarage Road. Charlie Woods and Ron Wigg scored their goals.

On the League scene, Liverpool were held to a 0-0 draw at Blackpool in Division One whilst Derby County, aided by a goal from former Sunderland man John O'Hare, ran up a 4-2 win at Wolves, for whom Derek Dougan was on target.

Eddie Gray (now manager of Leeds) and Johnny Giles (now in charge of W.B.A.) scored Leeds United's goals in a 2-0 victory at Tottenham.

Malcolm Macdonald, later to make his name up here on Tyneside, scored Luton's winning goal in a League Cup tie at Gillingham.

Kevin Keegan converted a penalty for Scunthorpe United, but he couldn't stop his side being knocked out of the League Cup. They lost 2-3 at home to Northampton.

20 YEARS AGO

After being held at home by Nottingham Forest (2-2) on the opening day of the season, we were hoping to record our first win in Division One when we entertained West Bromwich Albion at St. James' Park. But a crowd of 43,810 went home disappointed after Albion's John Kaye scored the only goal of the game.

Watford, at home to Hull City in a Third Division match, found themselves trailing to a Chris Chilton goal at the interval. But a second half equaliser from Dennis Bond gave them a point.

Northampton Town, enjoying their solitary season of First Division glory, earned themselves a 1-1 home draw with Arsenal.

Liverpool were beaten at home by Sheffield United, a Mick Jones goal settling the issue.

John Charles, then in the twilight of his career, scored Cardiff's winning goal in a 2-1 victory over Derby County in Division Two. Both the Knowles' brothers were on target - Cyril (now Darlington's manager) netted in Tottenham's 4-2 home win over Leicester whilst Peter got Wolves' goal in a 1-2 defeat at Manchester City.

In spite of goals from George Best and John Aston, Manchester United crashed 2-4 at Nottingham Forest.

Jimmy Greaves, who opened his season's account in Spurs' victory over Leicester, scored two more in Friday nights 4-0 home win over Blackpool.

ACTION REPLAY

There were only 15 minutes left when Kenny Wharton's sixth League goal of the season gave us the three points against Luton Town at St. James' Park on Saturday, February 23rd.

On the day that big George Reilly made his debut after his £200,000 move from Watford, we kicked off in seventh from bottom position — and Luton were second from bottom, eight points worse off but with three games in hand.

The Luton game, and the following one which was also at home, to Watford, were critical fixtures for us. "Six points nothing less", was Jack Charlton's demand. And the players duly obliged.

Wharton's rasping drive, set up by Peter Beardsley and Tony Cunningham, came after both teams had missed clear-cut chances and despite their precarious League situation at the final whistle Luton looked too good a squad to go down.

So it proved. Having stayed up in 1983 by winning their final fixture at Manchester City, and doing it the other way by dropping from seventh top to seventh bottom between March and May 1984, the Hatters have plenty of top flight survival experience.

Their manager David Pleat did not appear unduly disturbed when he left Tyneside on the evening of February 23rd last. "There's a long way to go, a lot of points to fight for", he smiled.

That smile seemed well justified at the end of the season when Luton's total of 54 points gave them a final placing of 13th.

The rise of George Reilly - no problem for 'keeper Les Sealey.

A laid-back Tony Cunningham - Thomas again the marker

CHRIS WADDLE'S TYNESIDE FAREWELL - VICTORY FOR HIS NEW CLUB

Almost 30,000 turned up on the afternoon of Bank Holiday Monday, May 6th, to see Chris Waddle's last home appearance in a black and white shirt.

By the greatest irony the opponents were Tottenham, the club Chris had already agreed to join. But another couple of months were to elapse before an Independent Tribunal fixed the transfer fee at £590,000 - a record, albeit a reluctant record from our point of view, for a player leaving Newcastle United.

Chris dearly wanted a goal on his farewell appearance at St. James' Park - but it wasn't to be. The scoreline was 2-3, with both our goals coming from Peter Beardsley penalties.

It was Tottenham's last away game of the season and the victory - goals from David Leworthy, Glenn Hoddle and substitute Ian Crook - gave them the staggering return of 41 points from 21 trips. If only they hadn't been so fragile at White Hart Lane.

Before he left Tyneside in the summer Chris Waddle made a point of thanking Newcastle United fans "for their terrific support since I made my first team debut in 1980. They will always have a special place in my heart".

Disappointed as we are to have lost a player of his calibre under the Freedom of Contract charter we wish him well and hope he picks up many more England caps to add to the seven he won as a Newcastle player.

These pictures from his last home game show him coming out of the tunnel, slipping the ball past Ray Clemence - the effort disallowed for offside - and running at top speed with the ball, beautifully balanced. The style that made him an England player - and took him to a new career with Tottenham Hotspur.

THE GREAT CLUBS

PART ONE of a series in which we shall be looking at the achievements of the world's most famous clubs. We start with a look at the club of the moment.

CF BARCELONA

By TONY PULLEIN

Terry Venables was given the freedom of Barcelona in May when he led the club to their first Spanish Championship since 1974. But he is realistic enough to accept that, if he doesn't follow up with another trophy this season, he could well be drummed out of the City in ignominy!

When he left QPR, to take over at the magnificent Nou Camp last season, he had written into his contract an escape clause. "It allowed both myself and the club to have second thoughts, and part company after a year, if we so desired," he explained.

Now the break-clause will be discussed again at the end of this season.

Venables fills one of the hottest seats in world football. The rewards for success are huge, the consequences of failure traumatic.

For Barcelona is the club that has appeared in eight major European finals, winning five of them. And this season they are participating in one of the big three tournaments for the 30th time.

Barcelona have won the European Cup-Winners' Cup on two occasions over the past six years. In 1979 they ended up on top by 4-3 after extra time after an exhilarating final against Fortuna Dusseldorf in Basle. And then, three seasons ago - when the final was staged in their own Nou Camp stadium - they defeated Standard Liege 2-1.

They also reached the final back in 1969 when they were beaten 3-2 by Slovan Bratislava in Basle.

It was 1961 when Barcelona progressed to the final of the European Champions' Cup and they were defeated by a Benfica side then at its prime. The Portuguese side won 3-2 in Berne.

Barcelona's four appearances in the Final of the European Fairs Cup (now known as the UEFA Cup) were more than 20 years ago. They appeared in the first final of 1958 when they defeated a representative London XI by 8-2 on aggregate!

In 1960 they faced Birmingham City in the final, winning 4-1 over two legs.

The final of 1962 brought them into contact with Spanish rivals Valencia who shocked everyone by beating CFB by 7-3 on aggregate. It was another all-Spanish final in 1966 but this time Barcelona defeated Real Zaragoza 4-3 over the two games.

Founded in 1899, Futbol Club Barcelona have now won the Spanish Championship on ten occasions. But it is in Cup football that they have excelled in recent times, lifting the Spanish Cup for the 20th time in 1983.

On the two occasions when Barcelona went forward into the European Super Cup - the annual contest between the winners of the European Champions' Cup and the Cup-Winners' Cup - they were beaten by English clubs.

Nottingham Forest beat them 1-0 at The City Ground, and then drew 1-1 at the Nou Camp in 1979/80. In 1982/83 Barcelona won their home leg against Aston Villa 1-0, but then crashed 0-3 after extra time at Villa Park.

Over the years Barcelona have fielded many of the World's greatest players. Evaristo, the famous Brazilian, enjoyed four marvellous seasons with the club a couple of decades ago.

Sandor Kocsis, the Hungarian with the 'Golden Head' who holds the World Cup record with 11 goals in the 1954 finals, played for Barcelona, as did such legends as Ladislav Kubala - he won international caps for Czechoslovakia, Hungary and Spain! - Juan Segarra, Antonio Ramallets and Diego Maradona.

When Maradona left in 1984 he was replaced by Steve Archibald, a striker who had seemed to have lost his touch at Tottenham. But the electric atmosphere of the Nou Camp sparked him back to top form, and he was the third highest scorer in the Spanish League with 15 goals last season as Barcelona sprinted to a 10 point lead over runners-up Atletico Madrid.

With Everton barred from this season's European Champions' Cup, Barcelona are among the favourites to win it. They should survive their first round tussle with Sparta Prague and then go on to complete a coveted ambition of taking each of Europe's top three trophies back to the Nou Camp.

Their Cup-Winners' Cup and the UEFA Cup successes are an integral part of their history.

This season they want the Champions Cup. And, if they don't get it, Terry Venables could well be on his way back to England!

AND VIEWS
ON UNITED'S
PAST AND PRESENT

compiled by PAUL JOANNOU

United's long haul to the Pacific during the summer break proved a successful tour with the club playing six fixtures during a ten day spell. Opposing the Countrywide All Whites, the New Zealand national eleven, we remained unbeaten, winning three and levelling another. The series of games was sponsored by "Say When", the Kiwi's Alcoholic Liquor Advisory Council.

Details are:
18 May All Whites (Christchurch)
2-1 Anderson, McDonald (5000)
19 May All Whites (Wellington) 2-2 Beardsley (2) (4000)
22 May All Whites (Napier)
4-0 Reilly (2), Beardsley, Gascoigne (6500)
25 May All Whites (Auckland)
3-2 McDonald (2), Reilly (4400)

Newcastle then went to the island of Fiji, the former British colony of over 800 islands. Our only defeat of the stay was against the Fiji F.A. in Nadi, the island's second town. United went down 0-3 in front of 4,800 locals. Weariness certainly affected the Magpies performance on that day; however United followed with a 2-0 victory over the same representative eleven. John Anderson and Paul Gascoigne netted in front of over 12,000 fans in the capital, Suva.

Peter Haddock, who was out injured for most of last season, spent the close season with a New Zealand club. Peter appeared for Dunedin City a team from South Island and should now be fully fit to press for a first team place.

A welcome to Luton Town back at Gallowgate to open this season's fixture list. Today's meeting is our 39th first class game since our opening clash back in February 1898. Newcastle haven't lost a First Division match on Tyneside and in fact have only gone down twice all told on home ground. Our biggest victory was a 7-2 win during April 1947. Shackleton, Milburn, Wayman (2) and Stobbart (2) netted the goals. The top attendance occurred here in the following season, our Second Division promotion year; 64,931 turned up for the New Year match, won 4-1 by Newcastle.

Last season Luton proved competitive opponents both on Tyneside and at Kenilworth Road. We drew 2-2 at Luton, our fifth draw in a row during October and November. Beardsley and Heard grabbed the goals. The return game was George Reilly's debut in a black'n white shirt and a single goal by Kenny Wharton was enough to claim three points.

Top goalscorer at the club last season was Joe Allon. In all competitions, Football League, Central League and Junior tournaments, Joe netted 44 goals in only 48 games - a grand strike rate by anyones standards. Not surprisingly he was top scorer in both the Central League and Northern Intermediate League sides. Paul Gascoigne was the only other reserve or junior player to reach double figures, with 13 goals.

The final Central League table for 1984/85 showed United in 12th position. Liverpool lifted the Championship and Notts County, Stoke, Bradford and Coventry were relegated to Division Two. Promoted clubs this season are Leicester, Hull, Leeds and Wigan.

Our Northern Intermediate League eleven completed their programme in fourth place, only five points behind title winners Huddersfield Town. Sunderland were runners-up, followed by Leeds United. Lincoln City propped up the 15 strong table with only 7 points. In the knock-out Cup our kids went out in Round Two, many of last season's Youth Cup winning squad will still be playing in this standard of football for 1985/86 so a sustained challenge for more silverware is hoped.

Every season lately seems to bring new receipt records to St. James' Park. Although the Clubs overall record of £83,000 gained at Kevin Keegan's farewell match with Liverpool remains, last season all major competition records were broken. New figures are now: £71,756 (FL v Sunderland), £74,376 (League/Milk Cup v Ipswich) and £75,925 (FA Cup v Forest). No doubt these will all be surpassed this season.

The Club's third venture into the rock-n-roll business proved yet again a huge success. Bruce Springsteen and his brand of song attracted fans from all over the country. The first night's show packed in 35,000 while the following evening a capacity 38,000 charged the stadium with a special atmosphere. With the Rolling Stones and Bob Dylan also making profits more of the same is sure to follow. Who next I wonder?

Joseph Dodgin from Washington has written asking if anyone knows the whereabouts of his uncle, former United star Norman Dodgin. Joe is a Newcastle fanatic and has never met Norman, who appeared for Newcastle 86 times during the Forties. If anyone can help, drop me a line and I'll try to put the family together.

Our first team squad had six days on the Isle of Man, leaving Tyneside on Saturday July 27th and playing the first of three games the following day.

Peter Beardsley and George Reilly gave us a 2-0 lead against Leicester - but we were beaten 3-2. On Tuesday July 30th we were beaten 2-1 by Blackburn Rovers - Paul Gascoigne our scorer - and two days later we beat Wigan 4-1 (Neil, McDonald 2, Glenn Roeder and Peter Beardsley).

Blackburn Rovers beat Stoke City in the Final of the Gore Football Festival, a competition which involved eight clubs in 13 matches within seven days.
