EVERYTHING YOU LIKE HERE.

No-one can deny the huge success of the Astra Van.

Now the new Astramax can only add to the popularity of the range, while adding to the discomfort of competitors (but certainly not of drivers).

The Astra Van is well-known for the best 'office' set-up and for the best handling and performance in its class. Same difference for Astramax.

Drivers can take comfort, too, from the Astramax (and Astra Van) being equipped with a proper bulkhead. Unlike some other vans.

The slippery smooth shape is more than a modern front for business. The Cd factor is a low 0.34.

While at the business-end, twin rear doors open to a 90° stop. Or a full 180°; handy for loading bays. And for taking on a choice of 365 or 560 kg payloads in the huge 82 cu. ft. load-space.

For even more load-space, optional with the Astramax, is an extended load-deck in place of the passenger seat.

On the small side, fuel consumption and all the running costs. Whatever your choice from three petrol engines or a diesel, with 4-speed, 5-speed or automatic gearboxes (according to engine).

To end with the finish, the corrosion-protection and paint process is the most-up-to-date in Europe.

As for the Astramax's price, it's attractive enough to save you the bother of shopping around.

PLENTY OF WHAT YOU NEED HERE.

100 Years On

Welcome Sheffield Wednesday and Howard Wilkinson. They are a great club with good support and sound ambition. They have just agreed a contract for a completely new covered end which will make their Hillsborough Stadium unrivalled in the North.

Nice to be back home again after three consecutive away games. Not that we have been suffering too much away—we were slightly fortunate to come away from Southampton with three points, having been a little unlucky to concede to Arsenal with a penalty and a free-kick the week previous. Last Saturday we endured the gaze of the television cameras and the press, as we shared a 1—1 draw at QPR. Quite remarkable how the experts stared at every kick, every bounce, every twist and every turn.

All the good gentlemen of the press, the club chairmen and any doubting managers have to do, is put on the kit and the footwear and try it out. Once they have experienced the artificial, they might wonder what they are fussing so much about. Still it makes good copy when there is no football to report.

Outstanding Stein

Brian Stein has been outstanding for Luton this season. Only Bobby Robson was not sure, although Brian plays in a unique position. So it is sad for him to have been put out of the game by a reckless challenge. Brian has strength and character and we wish him well as he works hard on his recovery from his operation. Mick Harford has proved four weeks after recovery that it can be done.

Welcome to Bob Bolder from Sunderland. A little loan deal which will keep me on my toes for a month. Andy Dibble will play in their first team. Good luck Garry Parker (Hull City £72,000) who follows a long line of players (Small, Carr, Heale, Goodyear, Bunn, Turner) sold after progressing through the youth ranks but falling short of the very top standard. Hull City have gained a clever passer whom we wish well.

After further trials last week, three boys have received invitations to join our staff. Jason Rees, a forward from Merthyr, Paul Gray, a centre-forward, from Bangor, N. Ireland, and Darren McLean, a midfielder from Newcastle. The future of our club is in the quality of the schoolboys and the coaching they receive.

WINTER FASHIONS

WELL—it's winter and, as usual, everyone is asking: "What's the New Look?"

I am sure that there will be quite a few different trends this year which reflect the fast-moving pace of the 80s. At one time you could say "the fifties"—circular skirts, tight sweaters, stilletos and beehive hair-do's. "The sixties"—mini-skirts and short hair. "The seventies"—long hair, flared trousers and platform shoes. But "The eighties"?

If you think about it, a lot of the trends of the Eighties have been influenced by the past. For instance, there is a strong sixties influence at the moment—sleek lines, polo neck jumpers, ski pants, tasselled-jackets. Also, if you look in Vogue, you can see the tapestry jackets and riding habits of the Victorian era!

Bold colours

These are not direct copies, however, but a modern interpretation of the styles of the past, using modern textiles and colours. But at this time of the year, as you know, our most important fashion feature is warmth. There are a lot of new knits about this winter with bold dashing colours and pattern combinations.

Knitwear from head to toe—with ski pants, leggings, jumpers, cardigans and knitted jackets finished off with a snood and gloves. Just the thing for those cold days on the terraces!

Lurex is "in" for the evening with gold and silver predominating in the shops. To complement your outfit wear junk jewellery. The chunky gold bracelets, necklaces and earrings around at the moment are inexpensive and can make plain dresses seem exciting!

Local group

Dear Sir,
On reading the programme for Saturday, February 15th, I notice that in printing my letter on page 8, you have shown the address as "London". You will see from this letter that it should have been Luton, and as I was expressing thanks for help given to a local group I should be pleased if you could correct this in a future programme.

If it is possible you could perhaps mention that if anyone wishes to contact us for help and support they can ring me on Luton 27833.

Mrs. J. L. White,
Chairman, Parkinson
Disease
Society, Luton.

Steve Foster— a smashing bloke!

Dear Sir,
I am writing on behalf of the committee of Harpenden Town FC to say thank you very much for allowing Steve Foster to attend our Sponsors Evening on Monday, February 17th.

What a smashing bloke! He was a credit to you, your club and himself. I hope that does not sound condescending. It is easier to say than write. But we all enjoyed his company and he stayed with us, not dashing away after the formalities were over. Thanks again for helping us to have a "Good night."

B. E. Gatty, Secretary,
Harpenden Town FC.

Collector

Dear Sir,
Thank-you for testing me on my collectors badge. I enjoyed my visit and I know my Dad did as well.

I hope Luton beat Arsenal.

Junior Superstars

Dear Sir,
I would be grateful if you could convey my sincere thanks to Mitchell Thomas for coming along on Wednesday, February 12th to present the trophies for the above tournament. The presence of a local celebrity was, I feel, a fitting climax to a splendid day.

Once again, thank you for arranging this and may I wish you all the very best for the rest of the season.

Regional Sports Centre.

Thank you

Dear Sir,
This is just to thank Mr. Pleat and Rob Johnson for helping out with the Bedfordshire Times photograph. It went very well and will appear in the Bedfordshire Times.

I look forward to working on further projects with you in the future in the meantime could you please pass my thanks on to Rob Johnson.

Supporters United

Dear Luton Town FC,
Following the January committee meeting of Supporters United, all the committee and Supporters United members would like to express their appreciation of your club's role in the symbolic handshake, between representative fans, at the New Year's Day matches.

This seasonal goodwill gesture united fans nationwide, preceding the matches, at a majority of the League venues. I hope that this atmosphere of the unity of genuine fans, in friendly rivalry, will prosper during 1986 and improve the image of soccer as a spectator sport.

Thank you for your vital assistance.

Assistant Secretary of

First Team ACTION

Luton Town 2 Arsenal 2

Our FA Cup fifth round clash with Arsenal here a fortnight ago produced a replica of the result from our meeting last August when the goals and the points were divided at the end of a scintillating match.

With Rob Johnson brought in to replace Tim Breacker, discomfited by a toe nail, and Arsenal recalling Steve Williams and Tony Woodcock after lengthy absences, the teams were changed from those in action two week earlier at Highbury.

Cracking pace

But the match began at an equally cracking pace, our deservedly-recognised England midfielder Ricky Hill scoring the opening goal when he resisted Williams' challenge to control Mitchell Thomas' cross and score from 15 yards.

Arsenal did not wilt, but tore back to equalise through Ian Allinson's left-foot drive off a post and take the lead with David Rocastle's close-range header.

Then Mick Harford, later to be cautioned for a challenge on John Lukic, equalised for the Town from another Thomas cross, beating Sansom to steer a low shot into the net. His strength and skill were highlights of the remaining hour as Arsenal were content to avoid further danger—and the Town were unlucky not to snatch a winner.

Luton: Sealey, Johnson, Thomas, Nicholas, Foster, Donaghy, Hill, Stein (sub Parker), Harford, North, Preece.

Arsenal: Lukic, Anderson, Sansom, Williams, O'Leary, Keown, Allinson, Rocastle, Nicholas (sub Mariner), Woodcock, Rix.

Ref: A. Gunn (Burgess Hill).

Goals: Hill (8 mins), Allinson (16),

Rocastle (27), Harford (39).

GARY TAYLOR

from the fans

These days football is rarely out of the headlines, unfortunately for the wrong reasons, with violence on the terrace giving the game a bad name and persuading people that Saturdays are safer spent watching the "box". As a lifelong Luton Town supporter, recent events have strained the "pull" of the game on a Saturday afternoon, with the Millwall fiasco being shown on television every time football trouble occurs.

"However, despite the violence, our family still kept going to the matches. At a recent home game, we were given an open letter from the manager, requesting that the fans cut out bad language and tried to create a better family atmosphere. At the bottom of the letter was a tear-off section for our names to be put in a hat and drawn out to have lunch with the directors. As one of thousands that must have replied, we thought no more about it until the letter dropped through the letter box with a formal invitation for Mark and Paul to have lunch with the chairman, directors and players.

Charming lady

"On the big day, we arrived to be greeted by a charming lady, Wendy Greaves, who looks after the marketing of the club. We were then taken upstairs to the directors' suite to be met by the chairman, David Evans and fellow directors, John Smith, Terry Bailey and manager, David Pleat, together with players, Ricky Hill and Marc North. A visit to the new artificial pitch and a few shots at the Oak Road goal followed, then the club photographer took a group photograph.

"Lunch followed with the directors and players, who chatted throughout, asking how we thought the club could improve and making us feel at home. After lunch, a grand tour of the ground, with an explanation of how next season's visiting supporters will be handled and a new family enclosure will be created. Next, into the dressing rooms, with the "big bath", treatment room, which looked like a hospital, the boot room and kit room, even the peg that Steve Foster hangs his headband on!

Upholstered seats

"Up then to the main stand into the director's box, with its upholstered seats and carpet flooring and the television position where John Motson give his commentary. The afternoon ended with the reserves practising out on the pitch and the staff getting ready for the next game.

"The misty afternoon went unnoticed, as they were driven home, with their minds full of all that had happened. This is the stuff that memories are made of and I'm sure the events of the day will stay with Mark and Paul for the rest of their lives.

"It says a lot for the Luton Club that they take the time and trouble to get close to the fans in this way and certainly plan to create the environment for family involvement in the Club.

"Thank you to Luton Town Football Club for giving my sons a day that even "Jim" could not have "fixed" better!"

TOP HATTER

Born in Liverpool on January 27th, 1965, Mike Newell began his career as a youth and "A" team player at Anfield before joining Crewe Alexandra for a month's loan in which he made three first team appearances. His style impressed Wigan Athletic who signed him in September 1983 and he remained with Wigan until January this year when he was transferred to the Town. A quick, brave and skilful striker Mike was Wigan's leading scorer and he has already added more goals to his tally since arriving at Kenilworth Road.

STUDENT OF INJURIES

In his short career in the game so far our new signing Mike Newell has already developed a considerable understanding of the vital work played by club physios and people capable of treating injuries.

That is why he intends to devote part of his close-season break to studying the treatment of injuries on a course run by the Football Association at Lilleshall.

"It will be very useful course for the future," says Mike. "And I will end up with a certificate at the end of it. I hope to find it useful if I stay in the game in the future."

Boyhood heroes

Mike is looking forward to his first chance of playing against his own favourite team—Liverpool. As a boy he supported the Reds and his favourite players were Kevin Keegan, Emlyn Hughes and John Toshack. He is hoping his friends and family will be travelling down to see the match.

"It has gone very well since I moved," said Mike. "I was lucky to go straight in for Mick Harford and I was very pleased to come back after the Cup-ties. It always takes time of course."

Mike has already bought a house in the Northampton direction and now looks forward to a long and successful career with the Hatters.

In his five appearances to date, he has already scored three goals and won admiration among regular fans.

Last week's equaliser at QPR was followed by chants of "Psycho"—a reference to his former nickname given because of his likeness to actor Anthony Perkins.

MAGIC CARPET IN VERY HEAVY DEMAND

by Bill Tomlins

Our synthetic pitch has been a big talking point recently—and deservedly so! Apart from providing a playing surface at a time when few other clubs can make their grass grounds playable, it has been also very heavily booked and provided considerable revenue.

Up to last Monday morning—when we played Watford in a youth team match with an 11 am kick-off (a satisfying win too!)—the pitch had been used 33 times by the first team and the reserves and a further 119 times by outside clubs.

BOOKINGS

It is a remarkable total. And already we have taken 62 bookings for the month of April.

Unfortunately, owing to ground improvements work, we are not able to keep the pitch available from May onwards.

Later in the year we have plans for a country music festival and other events—and do not forget the ground is now the base of the Luton Fliers and Dunstable Cowboys American football teams. Also, on March 30th, it will host a ladies' football international between England and Italy.

Anyone lucky to have tuned in will have finally caught us on the Money Programme last Sunday when the BBC broadcast their film about the club's commercial operation. I believe it made interesting viewing . . . at long last.

SPONSORS

Finally, a warm welcome to this afternoon's match sponsors Broad Street Print whose support for the club has long been appreciated. Tony Lambert's Hemel Hempstead-based firm are suppliers of continuous and computer stationery and business forms. Today's executive sponsors are Hertfordshire BTR. This will be their fifth sponsorship and we wish them an enjoyable day.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Miracle man: Rob Johnson, survivor of two cruciate ligament operations, was 24 last Saturday. He celebrated by playing his part in our fine draw.

ALL SET FOR HOLLAND IN MAY

Exciting times ahead: our "youth" squad posed for Gareth Owen recently as part of their preparations for end-of-season tournaments at Feyenoord and Blauw Wit in May.

● Tailor's dummy: Ricky Hill, called into the England squad for their 2-1 win in Israel, joined the party in time to be measured up for his "international" suit. Well done, Ricky.

● On my shoulder: Steve Foster gave Naomi North, our mascot for the Arsenal match two weeks ago, a lift to the game. Naomi did not seem to mind a bit—and Steve certainly seemed to enjoy the job!

CAPTAIN'S DIARY

with Steve Foster

A BUSY TIME OF YEAR

Hello everyone and welcome to today's match. We are at the busy stage of the season now with matches coming thick and fast. I think we all enjoy that. It is better to be kept active than be left out.

Welcome Bob

Welcome to Bob Bolder who recently came to us on loan from Sunderland in a deal which saw Andy Dibble going the other way on a similar loan basis. I hope Bob enjoys himself at Kenilworth Road. We are going to miss Andy, who was a character in his own right, in the dressing room while he is away. He had a knack of being late for everything! Good luck too goes with Garry Parker who has joined Brian Horton's Hull City.

Congratulations again to Ricky Hill on being called in to the England squad again at short notice last weekend after our draw at QPR. It is nice to see his consistency being recognised and great for him, of course, in his testimonial year.

Unlucky Brian

Ricky's good fortune cannot make up for Brian Stein's bad luck though. Unlucky Brian has been having a great season and his knee ligament injury has come at just the wrong time. We all wish him a very speedy recovery from his operation.

Good afternoon Junior Hatters, Parents and Friends

I hope that you all enjoyed the game against Arsenal when we played them in the fifth round of the FA Cup. It was a pity that we only managed a draw as we have to go to Highbury on Monday next for the replay. When we were there four weeks ago we lost 2—1 so we will have to pull our socks up to see that it won't happen again.

If we do win, we will be at home to Tottenham or Everton in the next round. As you know, Everton beat us in the semi-final last year at Aston Villa. Still, let's put all that behind us and keep up the good run that we have in the league to see if we can maintain our position in the top six.

Don't forget that we have only lost one league game at home this season which was against Coventry, so let's see if we can make this a new record for us at Luton. There are only seven more league games left for us at home. Enjoy the game.

STRONG OXFORD TEACH A LESSON

Luton Town Reserves 1 Oxford United 2

One glance at the Oxford team told the story of this game . . . United fielded their First Division team and although our lads rose to the challenge they could not quite match them.

Missed chances cost us dear and we were two goals down at the interval, but fought back afterwards with Warren Spink pulling a goal back in the 49th minute after a good move.

For the rest, we gave our best but could not break through again. "A good insight into the standards of the First Division," said coach John Moore. Luton: Bolder, Berry, Grimes, McEvoy, North S.,

Introducing Sheffield Wed.

Sheffield Wednesday arrive at Kenilworth Road this afternoon fresh from a tough 1-1 draw in the fifth round of the FA Cup at the Baseball Ground, Derby, on Wednesday night. In that much-postponed fixture, they owed their goal to an own goal from their hosts' Trevor Christie.

Last Saturday, they were beaten at home by Tottenham Hotspur—a result they hardly needed in their efforts to keep in touch with the leading pack in the First Division.

Wednesday have spent most of the season hovering within reach of the leaders with their tremendous home record making up for any lapses on their travels.

They have a reputation for playing a physical long-ball game, but this view gives insufficient credit to their skill and fitness.

Players likely to be on duty today:

Andy Blair—Midfield. Joined Wednesday from Aston Villa for £50,000 on June 28th 1984. Earned Scottish under-21 caps while playing for Coventry. Played 41 League games last season scoring three goals.

Lee Chapman—Striker. Joined from Sunderland July 1984 for £100,000. Arsenal paid half a million to Stoke for this prolific goalscorer. Played 40 League games, scoring 15 goals last season.

Melvyn Sterland—Defender. Another local product and a very popular player. Joined as an apprentice in June 1978.

Martin Hodge—Goalkeeper. Born Southport. Mr. Consistency for Sheffield Wednesday played all 42 League games during the year promotion was gained and again last season. Joined from Everton for £50,000 in 1983.

Lawrie Madden—Defender. An ex-Millwall player who joined in August 1983 and was an important member of the squad during the last two seasons. Played 19 League games last season giving him a total of 57 League games for Wednesday.

Brian Marwood—Winger. Joined from Hull at the beginning of 1984-85 season. A fast direct player who can play on either wing. Played

Sheffield Wednesday manager Howard Wilkinson joined the club as a player in 1962 and left for Brighton in 1966. He returned to Sheffield in 1971 and became a physical education teacher at Abbeyvale Grange School. He was always interested in coaching and training and became a Football Association staff coach. He joined Notts County in 1980 as first team coach under Jimmy Sirrell, stepping up to manage the team. He joined Wednesday as manager in 1983 and steered them back to the First Division in his first season.

in all 42 League games last season, scoring seven goals.

Chris Morris—Midfield. Joined as a professional in September 1982. An England Schoolboy player.

Paul Hart—Defender. Born Manchester and has played for four other clubs. Joined last summer.

Gary Thompson—Forward. Wednesday's most expensive signing. Joined in 1985 from West Brom. Has a number of caps at under-21 level. was born in Birmingham and joined Coventry City as an apprentice before West Brom. Hails from Manchester.

Gary Shelton—Midfield. A popular player—"Player of the Year" for many Owls' supporters. Has played an important part in the promotion and continued success of the club. Played 41 League games last season.

Peter Shirliff—Centre-half. A popular player who was on schoolboy forms for Sheffield Wednesday. Joined as an apprentice in June 1977 and became a full professional in 1978.

Glynn Snodin—Midfield. Born in Rotherham—joined from Doncaster Rovers this summer.

A boost from Littlewoods

AFTER writing two weeks ago of Canon's withdrawal, I am pleased today to be able to turn the spotlight on to the emergence of Littlewoods as the new sponsors of the former Football League Cup competition. The announcement was made shortly before Christmas, but earned little attention in the pre-festive season. From the start of the 1986-87 season, the tournament will be known as the Littlewood Challenge Cup.

It is further proof of soccer's continuing ability to market itself and also to provide a platform for others to market themselves. The Littlewoods Organisation is, of course, a big one—based in Liverpool with 35,000 employees, a retail chain with a £500 million turnover and a mail order business with a £400 million turnover. The group will be investing more than two million pounds over three seasons.

Future prosperity

At the time of the launch, Football League president Jack Dunnett said "I'm extremely pleased to welcome the support of the Littlewoods Organisation. They have confirmed their belief in the future well-being and prosperity of the League's premier cup competition."

Football League secretary Graham Kelly said "Littlewoods as a retail-based organisation have demonstrated their faith and commitment to league football by sponsoring this competition. with their extensive presence in the High Street and the home, this will assist the league in re-establishing the same level of confidence with both spectators and the public."

I echo both comments. The return of football to our television screens—even excepting the BBC's Money Programme—has emphasised the part the game has to play in the fabric of our national lifestyle. The recent entertainment provided has been first-class, proving, if proof were needed, that soccer is well and truly alive and kicking.

The synthetic pitch debate

Amid the welter of postponements due to the weather recently, the debate over the future of synthetic pitches has warmed up considerably. A recent glance through the press illustrated the renewed interest being shown:

The Times: "The pitch has paid for itself already" said Rangers commercial director Tony Ingram. Luton fitted their own artificial pitch in time for the start of this season. It cost them £350,000. 'We budgeted for an income of £100,000 a year from hiring of the pitch' said executive director John Smith. 'We shall have met his after eight months.'

Luton's football pitch has been used for hockey, lacrosse, netball, bowling, women's football and American football. It has also been used for such non-sporty things as exhibitions. The pitch was in use for 10 hours last Sunday and staged five sporting events—while sport across the country was frozen off.

'Invest in land' said Mark Twain. 'They ain't making it anymore.' And with pressure on land a fact of life in all cities, it is a nonsense to have a major site that can only be used for 25 or so times a year—and can't be used at all during a cold snap."

Plastic pioneers

Daily Express: "Luton manager David Pleat would be the first to admit that plastic does not make perfect. Given the ideal situation, Pleat would prefer his team to display their multi talents on a pitch like Wembley at its best. But Pleat knows that is asking the impossible. Reality to a club like Luton and indeed Queens Park Rangers, the plastic pioneers they have joined, is far removed from the ideal.

"Saturday's encounter—the first between the pair at Loftus Road since both clubs covered their grass roots—provided the perfect stage for the latest series of arguments about synthetic pitches."

Supernac, Malcolm Macdonald, cracked a stunning hat-trick for Luton at Hillsborough in 1970 when we won our only victory there 5-1. Mac made 88 League appearances for the Town and scored 49 goals.

THE LUTON TOWN STORY

SHEFFIELD Wednesday have figured throughout the long history of Luton Town, sometimes suffering crucial defeats at the hands of the Hatters, more often delivering powerful performances and painful thrashings. In 1981-82, for example, their 3-0 victory at Kenilworth Road in September, a classic away performance inspired by the elusive Terry Curran, set in motion several team changes which resulted in the creation of our marvellous Second Division championship-winning side.

Reprint for March

It is an episode fully described in our official club history, The Luton Town Story 1885-1985, by Timothy Collings, written to mark our centenary. The book, which contains a fully-documented record of the club, reports of many of the great matches and sketches of the players, management and staff as well as a fully-researched statistical section, is being reprinted after the first edition sold out in little more than three months before Christmas. It is hoped the second edition will be available by mid-March.

Order your copy now to avoid disappointment—it's a book every supporter will be proud to read.

Tony Read made 197 league appearances for the Town, scoring 12 goals, between 1965 and 1972. A goalkeeper who also played inside-right, he began his career with Wolves before joining Sheffield Wednesday. He came to Kenilworth Road from Peterborough.

Hugh Billington made 86 league appearances for the Town in a career that spanned the war and he scored 63 goals. A brilliant goalscorer, he enjoyed playing against Wednesday and scored in his final Town appearance, against them, in March 1948.

All Our

HEAVY DEFEATS, HAT-TRICKS AND WAR-TIME TRIUMPHS

Our first meeting with Sheffield Wednesday took place on December 2nd, 1899 during our last season in the Football League for 20 years. Wednesday had been relegated the previous season and were on their way back to Division One with a vengeance and hammered the Hatters 6-0. "Had it not been for the fine goalkeeping of Luton custodian Daw, a very heavy defeat would have been administered," wrote the local scribe.

In the return at Luton on April 7th, 1900, we went down by a more respectable 1-0 to the eventual champions—thus setting a trend in our results which have shown Wednesday's great strength at home through the years. Such was our plight at this time, however, immediately before our withdrawal from the league, that no fewer than six team changes were made from the team which had turned out only four months earlier.

We had to wait neatly 40 years for our next meeting, but the scorelines to follow remained depressingly similar until we finally broke our duck in a game that is not officially counted in the record books. Only one home game was played by the Town in 1939-40 before war broke out, but in beating Wednesday 3-0 and then winning 3-0 at Bradford Park Avenue and drawing at Fulham we became Second Division leaders—a position we were to hold for seven years!

First post-war treble

The 1939-40 fixture list was retained for 1946-47 so the Owls were our first visitors after the war and we duly went one better by winning 4-1 before a crowd of 21,105. Only two Town players, Hugh Billington and Horace Gager, spanned the two games, but the spotlight fell on Mel Daniel who became the first post-war

Yesterdays

Football League player to score a hat-trick.

Billington signed off with a goal in his final game for the Town in a 1-1 draw the following season, but generally games in the 1940's were low-scoring affairs.

In the next decade, Sheffield Wednesday were known as the "yo-yo" club as they hovered between Division One and Two. When we were able to catch up with them, results tended to go with the home team, but Roland Legate, David Noake and Mike Tracey are all probably glad we did meet as they all made their Luton debuts against Wednesday during the 1950's.

Superb Macdonald

Following our relegation from the First Division in 1960, we had our own fair share of moving through the divisions, of course, and we next met Wednesday in a Second Division game at Hillsborough on October 10th, 1970.

It was a game that had the football world buzzing and sent the media clamouring to Luton games for the rest of the season. The reason? A resounding 5-1 Luton win with a superb hat-trick from Malcolm Macdonald as the highlight. To add to their moment, the television cameras were present to prove to the masses something we had known for months—Macdonald was a superb goalscorer.

The "Mac the knife" show somewhat overshadowed a fine team performance that day and in particular the unselfish play of Don Givens who scored the other two goals. Considering the ease of that particular victory, it is surprising that it is our only success at Hillsborough.

Games since then have had a tendency to pale by comparison though several Town players have good cause to remember Sheffield Wednesday. Keith Barber, for example, made his debut in the home clash in 1970-71, a game which saw Peter Anderson's first league goal.
