EVERYTHING YOU LIKE HERE.

No-one can deny the huge success of the Astra Van.

Now the new Astramax can only add to the popularity of the range, while adding to the discomfort of competitors (but certainly not of drivers).

The Astra Van is well-known for the best 'office' set-up and for the best handling and performance in its class. Same difference for Astramax.

Drivers can take comfort, too, from the Astramax (and Astra Van) being equipped with a proper bulkhead. Unlike some other vans.

The slippery smooth shape is more than a modern front for business. The Cd factor is a low 0.34.

While at the business-end, twin rear doors open to a 90° stop. Or a full 180°; handy for loading bays. And for taking on a choice of 365 or 560 kg payloads in the huge 82 cu. ft. load-space.

For even more load-space, optional with the Astramax, is an extended load-deck in place of the passenger seat.

On the small side, fuel consumption and all the running costs. Whatever your choice from three petrol engines or a diesel, with 4-speed, 5-speed or automatic gearboxes (according to engine).

To end with the finish, the corrosion-protection and paint process is the most up-to-date in Europe.

As for the Astramax's price, it's attractive enough to save you the bother of shopping around.

PLENTY OF WHAT YOU NEED HERE.

100 Years On

WELCOME to our good friends from Oxford—we congratulate you on your tremendous achievement in reaching Wembley. It is a magnificent moment when you consider that they have only been in the Football League a short time.

Congratulations too for all our supporters who travelled to Everton on Wednesday evening. We gave it a real go but succumbed to a special Lineker goal. It looked as though we were clawing back into the game as we surged forward but it was not to be. For the second year running Everton have nicked us but we are a sportsmanlike club and wish them every success in the semi-final and then maybe Wembley.

We have received many bonus' on our Cup run not least the praise for our pitch, the emergence of two young forwards and the confirmation that our spine down the middle of the team is as strong as ever. The spirit is excellent and we shall now push forward in an attempt to make a great finish to the season.

Well done Michael Newell who was included in Dave Sexton's under-21 side in Denmark. Let us hope there are more caps to follow. Further down the scale both Ian Scott and Richard Harvey have been selected for the England Youth under-17 to play in Cannes—Marvin Jophson is in the shadows squad. Paul Lewis a fourth apprentice leaves for Holland tomorrow with the Welsh Youth team.

In recent national newspaper articles the excellent John Aldridge of Oxford doubted his chance of gaining recognition for England suggesting if Mick Harford can't get in his own chances were slim. Don't lose heart John, as Mick Harford will get in, and so could you if you keep at it and be patient.

Brian Stein and Emeka Nwajiobi are progressing and we are anxious to have them back in harness.

During the recent heavy run (March 1st to March 12th) when we played five games the support of the coaching staff and medical back up was absolutely top class. It has been a strain mentally and physically.

I thank them for their commitment and all the supporters for your backing. Lets keep going.

JOHN THE CHEF

JOHN Bartlett-Andress MHCIMA is not a person who springs to mind when one considers the staff at Luton Town Football Club. The names of Steve Foster and David Pleat might be on the tip of our tongues. But John Bartlett-Andress?

John is one of the most important members of the Club's staff; he is the chef. To be commercially successful, football clubs need sponsorship. Part of Luton's match-day sponsorship is a lunch for sponsors' guests. The executive sponsors and directors are also provided with a buffet, as are members of the Centenary Club, and guests in the Eric Morecambe Lounge.

On a busy match day John can cater for 500 people. During the week he provides for other functions, such as the lunch for the Oak Road Enders reported in the Villa programme. He works an average 30 hours a week, being employed on a contract basis. That means he's only paid for the hours he works.

He is a classically trained chef and works only on food preparation and production. Ordering supplies is not his responsibility. John says ordering is a headache, especially when suppliers cease deliveries up to two weeks before a holiday period such as Christmas and New Year.

Hatters' soufflé

And now for my idea of a successful recipe: BREAK-ER defensive ability with ROB into the basic squad and mix to a SPIDER-y consistency. To this add a MALificent FOZZIE of command and a NICKO of beavering activity. At the centre of the dish make a HILL of talent and bind it creatively with STEIN and PREECE. Then MEKA careful cut in the mixture to MARC where the striking MICHAEL is placed. The dish is now com-PLEAT. Serve on a bed of green en-tout-cas. It is sure to delight all your family and friends! Excellent

Dear Sir,
First of all congratulations on your result last night against Arsenal.

The main reason for my letter is to thank you and your staff for the excellent hospitality offered to me and my team on Friday and Saturday of last week when we trained and played on your pitch.

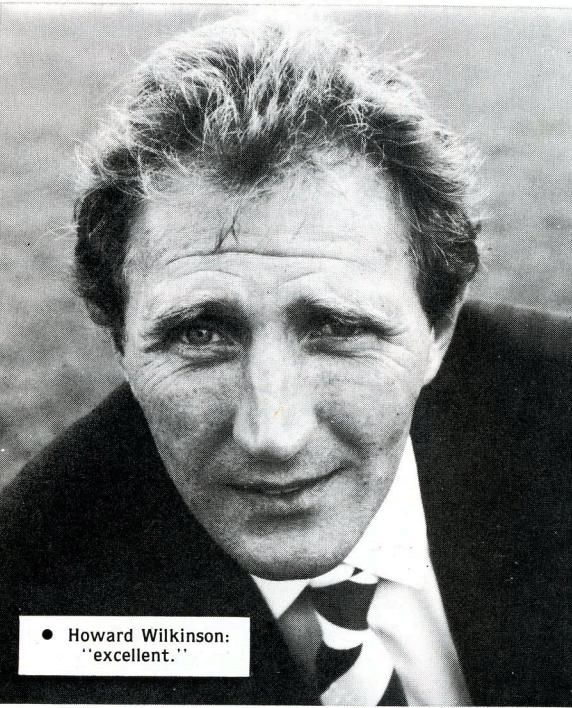

It would be nice to meet at Wembley on real grass!
Howard Wilkinson,
Manager, Sheffield Wednesday.

Thank-you

Dear Sir,
I would like to take this opportunity to thank the club for sending Marc North along to present our trophies.

The whole day was a complete success, with approximately 100 youngsters taking part and thoroughly enjoying themselves. The overall winners were Luton Regional Sports Centre, with Lewsey Centre coming close runners-up.

First Team ACTION

Luton Town 2 Everton 2

It was drama all the way at Kenilworth Road last Saturday as Everton came from behind to earn a replay at Goodison Park and a chance of a place in the FA Cup semi-finals.

The Town, playing their fourth game in eight days, battled to the last to prevent their exit from the Cup and fully deserved their second chance after building up a 2-0 lead in 63 minutes.

Mick Harford, playing with great appetite, opened the scoring when he arrived at the far post to tap-in a rebound from a Ricky Hill shot which Everton keeper Neville Southall could not hold on to.

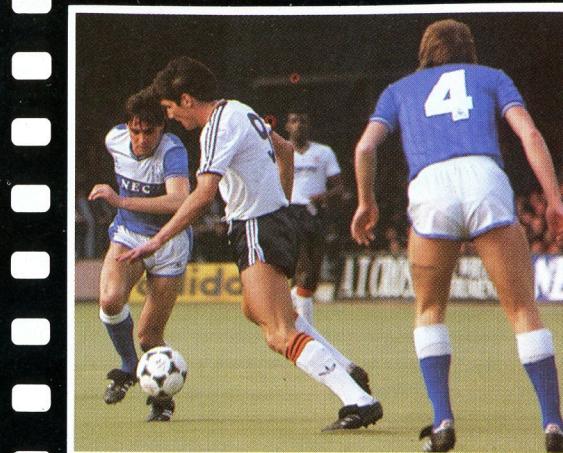

Brilliant combination

A brilliant combination of passes involving Mal Donagh, Peter Nicholas and then Andy King sent Mark Stein clear to score the second after Southall had advanced from his penalty area and handled to block his first shot.

Then, however, Everton took the initiative. They pulled one back almost immediately with a Graeme Sharp header through a crowd of players in the penalty area and then equalised 12 minutes from time when Adrian Heath, a second-half substitute for Neil Pointon, poached the ball from Steve Foster and steered it wide of Les Sealey.

Teams: Luton—Sealey, Johnson, Thomas, Nicholas, Foster, Donagh, Hill, King (sub North 69 mins), Harford, M. Stein, Preece.

Everton: Southall, Stevens, Pointon (sub Heath 64 mins), Harper, Van Den Hauwe, Reid, Steven, Lineker, Sharp, Bracewell, Richardson.

from the bench

Chief coach Trevor Hartley can rarely have endured such a demanding eight-day period as that last week when the Town met Sheffield Wednesday in the First Division and then played Arsenal, twice, and Everton in dramatic Cup-ties. The run of four games stretched everyone, but, as Trevor points out today in his Views From the Bench, proved what a tremendous spirit and strength lies within the club.

"Sheffield Wednesday started us off on a run of games, all of which were very important. They were all hard games, very demanding, very physical and close together. It was a great challenge to a club of our size with our resources, but we proved ourselves. It was the sort of challenge that poses great mental and physical strains on all the players and staff.

"Each game was a physical battle and you can only withstand physical battles if you are strong mentally as a person and ready to mentally tackle the task that lies ahead. If you are a big-framed person, it is less of a strain, of course, than if you are a smaller person in build. That is why, if we take four of our smaller lads—for example Rob Johnson, David Preece, Mark Stein, and Andy King—you have to look at them carefully and remember that by the third and fourth games they were up against it both physically and mentally.

Mentally prepared

"To withstand the physical side of the game, they need to be even more mentally prepared than ever, particularly in the case of a player like Preece who has to run up and down all the time. Four games like that meant a lot of hard running. You need to be very strong mentally to keep the physical battle going.

"Another hard part of it for us all was that there was very little time to relax in between the games. It needs a bit of time for the players to build up the right mental approach for these games and we had hardly any. After a game it is equally important for them to relax and rest properly to be ready to build up again for the next one. I think all our lads without exception emerged with great credit from the week. It was one very demanding week.

Physical strength

"You need 48 hours to recover from one game before you are ready for the next game and we hardly had time at all. If you take that into consideration, and remember we were without Brian Stein and Emeka Nwajiobi and that Mike Newell was unavailable because he was Cup-tied it makes you realise even more how well the lads did last week. The way we play the game, fitness is very important and I thought we all did well.

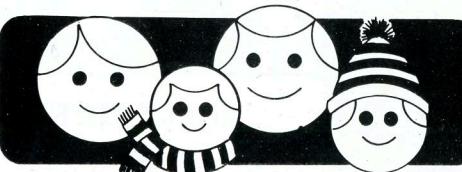

"You only have to look at teams like Liverpool, Everton and Manchester United to see that they do not have any weak players physically. Now we compete with them at that level we also have to look at the strength of the players. I think our younger players have done exceptionally well. Do not forget that after the home game against Everton we were still sixth in the league and in the draw for the FA Cup semi-finals."

RICKY

TOP HATTER

Born in Gibraltar on August 6th, 1967, Ricky McEvoy signed on at Kenilworth Road as an apprentice in October 1983 as a 16-year-old Republic of Ireland schoolboy international. A clever midfielder with a strong tackle and an accurate shot, Ricky is now a full contract professional and hoping for a breakthrough to the first team. His father was in the British army and Ricky was born while he was stationed abroad. Ricky is a current Irish youth international and was a member of our first team squad at Christmas before being hit by injury.

CHECK MATE!

Like all your professional footballers, Ricky McEvoy is dying for his first opportunity to play in the First Division. He felt he was close to it last Christmas when he was called into the squad, but subsequent injuries dealt him a cruel blow and he is now working hard to recover his fitness. Unlucky Ricky broke a bone in his foot, an injury similar to that suffered by Emeka Nwajiobi.

"It was like Emeka's, but not the same," he said. "But it has kept me out for two months or so. I did it in training. It was an old injury I had had before and fractured twice. I came back and played three games in a week and it was too much for the foot. But there is a silver lining, I suppose—working to get fit made me really interested in doing weights seriously!"

Keen on weights

"I just dabbled in the weight room before, but now I am very seriously interested. With the competition for places here—and it is getting tougher all the time—you have to work hard and keep fit to stand a chance. It can be very difficult making the breakthrough. But that is what I am aiming for."

"When I first came over three years ago, I was a schoolboy international and it was difficult to adjust to the first season of not being the best in a small pool."

Ricky has now adjusted well to the demands of professional football. To escape from his job, he likes to relax with music or play chess—David Oldfield is a favourite opponent—and has recently become interested in computer games. "I spend a lot of time listening to music and I go out a lot. When I am home it is usually television or records or chess against David. He is pretty good at it—and I am working hard to beat him!"

WHAT TELEVISION HAS DONE TO BOOST OUR BUSINESS

by Bill Tomlins

What an impact television has made on our club in the last few weeks! The return of televised football and our appearance on BBC 2's The Money Programme, coupled with the superb form of the team, has combined to attract greater interest in the club.

We get all sorts of enquiries. People ring to ask about the new executive boxes, sponsorships, general ticket enquiries and so on, but we are now getting another new range of calls from people who want to learn more about the successful commercial operation behind a First Division soccer club.

ASSISTANCE

I even had one call from Scotland last week from a chap about to go for an interview as commercial manager at Dundee United. He wanted me to assist him with his knowledge and understanding of the job and all it entailed. That must have been a direct spin-off from the Money Programme appearance.

And we have had increasingly large number of students writing in for information to research for their work. In all it just goes to show what a powerful medium television is . . . and also just what a powerful medium football is too!

Of course, it all revolves around what happens on a Saturday afternoon out on the pitch. After all that is where the action takes place. And we all like to be associated with success. But at this club I must say the players are active all week and in my mind they are the most important salesmen on my staff!

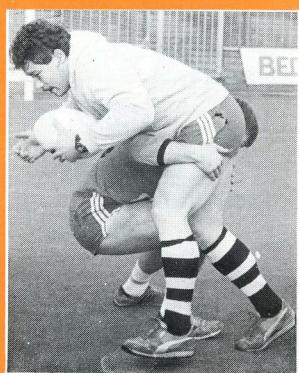

SPONSORS

Today's match sponsors obviously believe this. And I would like to warmly welcome Mr. Jim Shorey from Shorey's Travel, Flitwick, Mr. Gordon Brooks from First Computer Ltd, Luton, Mr. Dale Cunningham from D.K. Services (1981) Ltd, Luton, and Mr. Calvin Smith of CCS Signs, Luton. We are grateful for their support and hope they enjoy a wonderful day with their guests.

(Photos: Gareth Owen)

• The show goes on: Even with a broken nose Andy King managed to chat his way through a BBC Radio Bedfordshire interview with John Smith! Also pictured this week are some rugby players from Widnes Rugby Club, Kurt Sorrensen and Richie Eyres, and juggling ladies testing our magic carpet.

CAPTAIN'S DIARY

with Steve Foster

KNOCKS AND STRAINS

What a week for us all. Four games in eight days, six in a fortnight, if you include today's match against Oxford United. No wonder we have one or two knocks and strains to nurse along these days! And I should think quite a lot of our fans are feeling the strain too—you have given us quite superb backing.

After all the FA Cup exploits, we are back hunting league points today against Oxford United. I hope Mike Newell—who made his breakthrough to international football when he was called into the England under-21 squad to travel to Denmark this week—has arrived back fit and raring to go.

Selection

Strangely, Mike was not an original selection for the squad. Mitchell Thomas was—and never went. And Ricky Hill was another late addition to the squad as an over-age player—but he was forced to withdraw too only 24 hours after being called up, because of the Everton replay.

We are expecting another very hard game today (they all are in the First Division) against one of the most-improved sides this year. But we fancy a really high finish in the league to enable us to qualify for a European position if it becomes possible. And anything is possible. . . .

Junior Hatters

Sponsored by:
THE HERALD NEWSPAPER
and CHILTERN RADIO

A lot of football in the last two weeks!

What a lot of football we have been playing in the last two weeks. We have played Sheffield Wednesday, Arsenal twice, in Cup replays, Everton in two Cup ties and today we welcome to Kenilworth Road Oxford United who are new to the First Division this season and have beaten some of the top teams. We will have a lot on our hands today.

As Easter is only a few weeks away, I am going to give away 12 Easter eggs to the first 12 Junior Hatters who can make as many words as they can out of the name Luton Town Football Club by using only four letters in each word. I will start you off with one of the words it is (boot).

This competition is only open to Junior Hatters' members. All entries to be sent to Bev Tyler at Luton Town by Monday, March 24th. You must put your membership number on your entry please. See you all at next week's game when we play Everton again! Cheers us on today.

Youth Team

Farrell at the double

Luton Town 3 Bournemouth 0

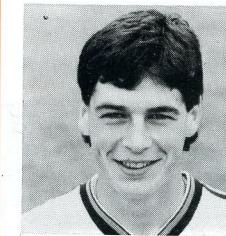

Two more goals from the prolific Sean Farrell and one from Paul Lewis steered the Town Youth team to a comfortable victory over their South Coast rivals last Saturday.

In front of a bumper Cup-tie crowd at Kenilworth Road, the young Hatters' team provided top-class entertainment and proved they had the nerve to stand up to the big-match atmosphere.

For Farrell, his goals carried him to a total for the season of 28 while Lewis's goal was his 12th. The win lifted the team well into the title race again.

Team: Luton—Jones, James, Harvey, Berry, Johnson, Barker, Kennedy, Lewis, Farrell, Tighe, Scott. Subs: Philpott, Poutch.

Introducing Oxford United

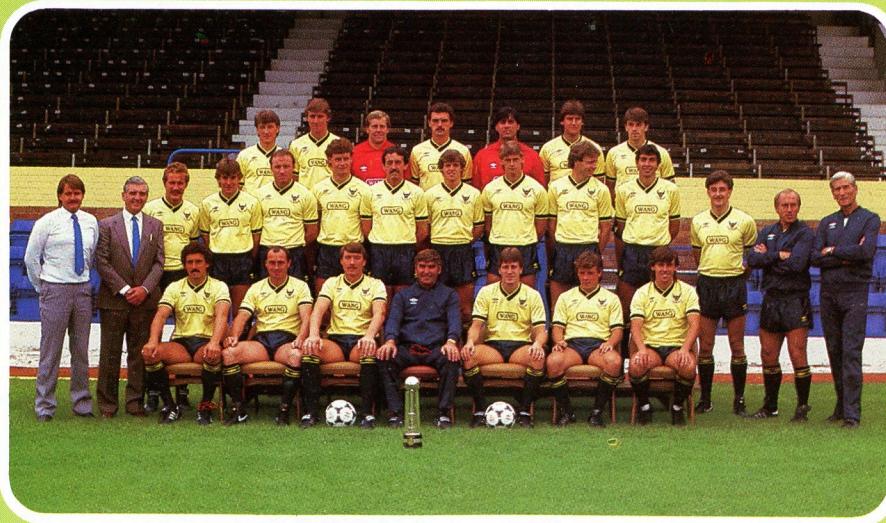

Welcome to Oxford United, enjoying their first season in Division One and within a whiff of Wembley in the Milk Cup after holding Aston Villa to a 2-2 draw in Birmingham in the first leg of their semi-final.

Backed by the ambitions of millionaire publisher Robert Maxwell, they have achieved an incredible feat in climbing into the top flight of English soccer only 23 years after joining the league at the expense of Accrington Stanley.

Successive championship triumphs in the Third Division and Second Division have carried Oxford up and, now, under the calm guidance of shrewd manager Maurice Evans, they are consolidating sensibly if a little too near the bottom for comfort.

After a long spell without an away win, Oxford have recently broken their duck with a vengeance and will come to Kenilworth Road today intent on more than emulating the 1-1 draw when we met at the Manor Ground last October.

Players likely to be on duty today:

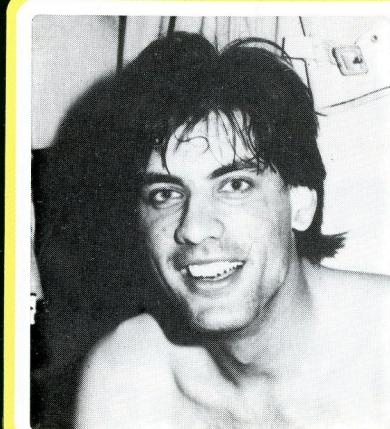

Malcolm Shotton—Born in February, 1957, Malcolm was signed from Nuneaton Borough for £20,000 in 1980 after earlier being discarded by Leicester. Now made more than 200 appearances for Oxford.

Neil Slatter—Born in Cardiff in May, 1964, Welsh international defender Neil joined Oxford from Bristol Rovers for £70,000 in 1985.

Gary Briggs—Born in June 1959, Gary came from Middlebrough in July 1978 for £12,500—the first fee decided by a tribunal. Now made more than 300 league appearances at the heart of the Oxford defence.

Kevin Brock—Born September 1962, England under-21 midfielder Kevin joined Oxford from school and has developed into a fine attacking prospect.

John Aldridge—Born September 1958, John has become one of the hottest goalscorers in the country since moving to Oxford from Newport for £70,000 in 1984 and is currently the First Division's second-highest scorer.

Alan Judge makes a welcome return to Kenilworth Road today as Oxford United's current first-choice goalkeeper and with the experience of some exciting Milk Cup tie action behind him this season. Born in Kingsbury in May, 1960, Alan came to Kenilworth Road as an amateur before becoming a professional. He played 11 league games for the Town mostly as deputy for Jake Findlay before going on loan to Reading in September 1982. The transfer was completed in November and he later followed manager Maurice Evans to the Manor Ground in return for a £10,000 fee in 1984.

A marvellous, exciting Cup-tie

Last Saturday's tremendous FA Cup sixth round tie here against Everton revived memories of last season's semi-final at Villa Park and also earned the Town a well-deserved share of the national limelight for holding the league champions to a 2-2 draw. Here is a selection of comments from the media on that game:

The Sunday Express: "Tiredness showed in Luton's eyes. Four matches in eight days had taken full toll. And losing a two-goal lead to champions Everton in their most commanding mood did nothing for the spirit. But there was defiance. Their expressive manager, David Pleat, emerged from a depressed dressing-room to sound the clarion of another brave Luton charge into the Goodison Park replay on Wednesday.

He knew his young players had given their supporters everything and he seemed to be coaxing them towards another semi-final when he said: 'This tie is not over. Wednesday is another match and another day. I am disappointed but not with my players, who have played so many intense games.'

"Whatever happens in the remake of an epic on Wednesday, the original will remain for along time with those who were at Kenilworth Road. They saw a sixth round tie of such marvellous play, and spirit, that the guardians of the game should make a video recording available to every football club, youth club and school."

Pulsating quarter-final

Mail on Sunday: "Everton's dream of an FA Cup and League championship double was on the brink of extinction until Heath was introduced in the 65th minute of this pulsating quarter-final."

The Sunday Times: "Going a couple of goals behind, somewhat illogically, Everton proved for the second time in a week what a resourceful, resilient Cup team they are."

In a league of their own.

Alan Slough scored his 28th and final league goal for the Town in a 2-1 defeat at Oxford in April 1973 before leaving for Fulham with whom he reached the FA Cup final. A fine clubman, Alan made 274 league appearances for Luton between 1963 and 1973.

THE LUTON TOWN STORY

All Our

OXFORD United did not join the Football League until 1962 when they replaced Accrington Stanley, but even so our paths have since crossed only infrequently. Our first league meeting was in 1970-71 when, following a rather auspicious start to the season, whilst we found our feet in Division Two, we came up against Oxford on September 1st, 1970.

The previous Saturday, Malcolm Macdonald had converted a late penalty at St. Andrews to secure a 1-1 draw against a strong Birmingham side. The result proved that manager Alec Stock was assembling a strong team and finding his strongest formation.

The team gelled completely against Oxford with Luton romping home 4-0 after being 3-0 up at half-time. Matt Tees and Malcolm Macdonald each scored twice to send the 16,173 crowd home happy.

That win proved to be a springboard for another successful season when promotion dreams only subsided at Easter following three straight defeats.

The following season was a complete anti-climax after four immensely fruitful years and our early season draw at the Manor Ground was one of six from our first seven outings. This sort of form together with the fact that we lost at home to Oxford 2-1 in a miserable game in February 1972 just about summed up our year.

The next season was peculiar in as much that we won seven of our first 10 away games, but struggled to win at home. Early season visitors Oxford soaked up a tremendous amount of pressure, but sneaked a breakaway second-half goal to win 1-0.

The last Town away game that season was rather significant for a number of Town players. In losing 2-1 at Oxford, Alan Slough scored in his final game for the club and Viv Busby and Ken Goodeve were also appearing for the last time.

The ideal gift

The book includes sketches of the great players, pen pictures of the managers and directors and a fully-researched statistical section produced by club statistician Roger Wash.

It is the ideal gift for any Town fan, old or young, and will doubtless be in great demand again. Make sure you are one of the first to buy a copy if you missed out last year.

Alan Judge is currently between the posts for today's visitors Oxford United after an apprenticeship at Kenilworth Road and graduation at Reading. He made 11 appearances for the Town before moving on in 1982 and is currently enjoying the most successful period of his career.

Andy King scored for the Town during a 3-2 victory over Oxford at Kenilworth Road on Boxing Day 1975, the only season in which we have achieved a double against them. It was his ninth league goal of the season and third in three games.

Yesterdays

On the other side of the coin, Phil O'Connor, who was tragically killed in a road accident in Australia recently, made his full league debut and Paul Price appeared in the side for the first time as a substitute.

The 1973-74 season marked our return to the First Division at the season's end, but not before Oxford United almost put a spanner in the works. Both games that year were played over Easter and on Good Friday, thousands of Luton supporters swelled the Manor crowd to a best-of-the-season 13,464. Despite the virtual home game atmosphere, the Town struggled to a 1-1 draw with Jim Ryan scoring the Luton goal.

The following Tuesday, the return at Kenilworth Road saw Oxford score an early goal and then content themselves to frustrate the Town attack and crowd to hold out for a win to help stave off the threat of relegation. Brilliant performances by goalkeeper Roy Burton were a feature of both games.

It must be said that we bounced back from this defeat to beat Millwall on the following Saturday and to secure promotion with a fighting 1-1 draw at WBA seven days later.

Our stay in Division One was of short duration, however, and on our return to the Second Division we found Oxford fighting relegation again. We met on Boxing Day in 1975. A vivid recollection is of John Faulkner entering the Christmas spirit and leading out the Town team wearing a black wig!

This did not detract from a fine performance that saw Luton take a 3-0 lead through a pair of goals from Ron Fletcher and one from a then-young Andy King before conceding two late "Christmas" goals and leaving the crowd howling for the final whistle.

Our final away game that season took us to the Manor Ground where we knocked the final nail in the coffin in winning 3-1 and consigning the home team to the Third Division. A screamer from Steve Buckley sent us on our way and second-half goals followed from Lil Fuccillo and Jimmy Husband.

• Flashback to our league match at Oxford last year when Brian Stein scored in a 1-1 draw.
