EVERYTHING YOU LIKE HERE.

PLENTY OF WHAT YOU NEED HERE.

No-one can deny the huge success of the Astra Van.

Now the new Astramax can only add to the popularity of the range, while adding to the discomfort of competitors (but certainly not of drivers).

The Astra Van is well-known for the best 'office' set-up and for the best handling and performance in its class. Same difference for Astramax.

Drivers can take comfort, too, from the Astramax (and Astra Van) being equipped with a proper bulkhead. Unlike some other vans.

The slippery smooth shape is more than a modern front for business. The Cd factor is a low 0.34.

While at the business-end, twin rear doors open to a 90° stop. Or a full 180°; handy for loading bays. And for taking on a choice of 365 or 560 kg payloads in the huge 82 cu. ft. load-space.

For even more load-space, optional with the Astramax, is an extended load-deck in place of the passenger seat.

On the small side, fuel consumption and all the running costs. Whatever your choice from three petrol engines or a diesel, with 4-speed, 5-speed or automatic gearboxes (according to engine).

To end with the finish, the corrosion-protection and paint process is the most-up-to-date in Europe.

As for the Astramax's price, it's attractive enough to save you the bother of shopping around.

100 Years On

Welcome to all the football people from Liverpool. We applaud your excellent season in typical fashion—a magnificent achievement after the sadness of the Heysel tragedy.

Mike Newell's late goal, his sixth in 13 Division One outings was a welcome relief after dominating Tottenham for so long last Saturday. Every striker has to remain optimistic particularly when chances go astray and time begins to run out. The goals ratio of our strikers Mick Harford (19 in 33 games), Brian Stein (14 in 30 games) has been excellent and I am more than pleased that they have the punch and optimism to capitalise on our approach play.

I suggested that Spurs last Saturday would be a barometer of our progress—well tonight in front of a critical armchair public we have the stage to show the country that we are deserving of our highest ever Division One placing. Hopefully we are all fit and both sides enjoy the excellent "passing surface". Of all the teams in Division One, Liverpool are the most patient and accurate team players who also have the qualities of selfless individuals and electric pace in the right areas.

Thank-you fans

Thank you to everyone who came to pay tribute to Ricky Hill's 10 years at Luton on a cold night; you were great. Congratulations to Steve Foster and his wife Joanne, who have produced a potential centre-half named Bertie. Well done to Brian Stein on seven weeks of devoted rehabilitation to take his place again in the First Division.

Nice to see Bobby Robson with us for a record three times in six days last week. Sorry to all those Merseysiders who have written to me for Cup Final tickets. I am not a con-juror. Pleased to see Andy Dibble getting plenty of work whilst on loan to Sunderland. Thoroughly enjoyed Gale Waller's contribution on shirt colours in our programme, now accepted as value for money. Best wishes to Mike Newell who plans to get married in the summer.

Enjoy tonight's game. We are playing a club who have set the standards of excellent that we are working to emulate.

GirlTalk

A SHY AND POLITE BOY

WHEN I first met Ricky Hill—nine years ago, on Luton station—I was struck by his politeness and his diffidence. He is the same today. I was not surprised, therefore, to learn his family rarely watched him as a schoolboy at numerous cup finals or with the Under-19 side while he was still in third year. He simply didn't bother to tell them.

They mattered to him, of course—football was his life. Many hours were spent juggling with a ball rather than doing homework. He didn't even go and watch football much—only Leeds a few times when they were in London. Ricky doesn't get much active support from the rest of his family. His mother has seen him play at Wembley and his sister 14 years his senior, watches him when she's in England.

Skill

His father played football in Jamaica, but Ricky is more admiring of his brother's skill. He said it was more difficult when his brother, Ian, was young to make the grade but added that, although his brother was interested in the game, he, Ricky, lived for it.

But his unwillingness to push himself forward almost stopped his career before it began. He never wrote to a club for trials and when Luton and, reputedly, West Ham were watching him he didn't struggle for recognition. In fact he nearly didn't sign at all. Luton wanted him to play one evening but he didn't want to make the journey. He pretended he had a school function. Finally, Harry Haslam spoke to him and persuaded him, to play for Luton reserves. He was offered forms and, despite his mother's reluctance, he signed. The rest is, as they say, history.

Now, in the future, Ricky wants to put something back into the game. He wants to show ordinary fans that footballers aren't prima donnas, but are ordinary humans, too. And he wants to coach youngsters, perhaps in Africa or the West Indies. He has deserved his success and his testimonial. Gale Waller

12th International Programme Fair

Dear Sir,
We are pleased to advise you that once again, The Football Programme Directory is organising the above event. The interest shown in the hobby has in no small way been due to the encouragement and publicity given to the Fair by many league and non-league football clubs. We are indeed, most grateful to you for your past co-operation and help. Therefore, we would again be most grateful for any publicity you can give this year's event in issues of your club programme.

These are the details:—The 12th International Football Programme Fair will be held on Saturday, June 7th, 1986, at it's usual venue, The Connaught Rooms, Gt. Queen Street, London WC2, from 11 am to 4 pm. Advance tickets can be obtained by sending a remittance for 35p for each ticket (plus s.a.e. please), to David Stacey, The Editor, The F.P.D., 66 Southend Road, Wickford, Essex SS11 8EN. Admission on the day will be 70p. Thousands of football programmes available from the country's main leading dealers, from 5p to £100, over 20 programme dealers from all over the country will be at your service. Bar and light refreshments available on the day and the venue is only three minutes walk from Holborn Underground Station.

David Stacey,
Editor, Football Programme Directory.

Not all bad

Dear Sir,
I refer to the letter of Mr. M. Craig which appeared in the Luton v. Arsenal FA Cup fifth round second replay programme of March 5th, 1986 and your subsequent request for other supporters views.

I entirely agree with M. Craig's view that the programme is over-priced and certainly do not feel that the programme "justifies itself". I would like to feel that "my club" in having the most expensive programme in the football league therefore has the best. Regrettably this is not so. One need not look no further than the Everton FC programme produced for the quarter-final replay for true value for money.

I would also like to take this opportunity to air my views with regard to the so called ticket arrangements for the quarter-final match here against Everton.

Both my friend and myself who have not missed one home game this season were unable to obtain tickets for this game until 1.45 pm on the actual day of the game and at nearly twice the face value. So I was most annoyed to hear that tickets for the Oak Road—our usual place—were being sold on Thursday in some cases at the rate of six per person—presumably all loyal supporters! Therefore by the time I was able to get to the ground on Friday all tickets had been sold.

However, I would like to finish with some words of praise for the team. They have produced some magnificent football this season and have achieved some memorable results. The 7—0 drubbing of Southampton and the 3—0 thrashing dished out to Arsenal are memories that will stay with me for a long time I only hope that in the remainder of the season the players will be able to continue in the same vein and that certain of them will gain the international recognition they thoroughly deserve.

A. C. Hill,
Luton

P.S. I will be buying a season ticket next season!

Thanks

Dear Sir,

On behalf of Challney Lifesavers, I would like to thank Mr. Pleat and the team for signing the football for us. The ball was donated by Zodiac Toys and will be a great help in the club's fund raising efforts.

Mrs. V. A. Belcher,
Challney Lifesavers,
Luton.

Big day

Dear Sir,

I would like to thank you for my big day as an escort against Everton. Thanks to David Preece who I ran out with an Emeka Nwajobi. I had my photo taken with him before the game. I am only five and I will never forget it. I hope someone can come to my party in June. My sister who is seven has written this for me.

First Team ACTION

Luton Town 1 Tottenham 1

A last-minute equaliser from Mike Newell at the end of a brilliant move created by Ricky Hill's perfectly-weighted pass and Rob Johnson's accurate cross to the far post brought the Town a deserved share of the spoils against Tottenham here on Saturday and extended their unbeaten league run to five games.

Spurs had taken an early lead in the first half when a long punted clearance by Ray Clemence bounced clear of the Town defence for Clive Allen to race clear and send a fine volley beyond Les Sealey at the Kenilworth Road end.

Stein's return

It was a fine goal by Allen and gave Tottenham the initiative in the early stages as the Town fought to recover their rhythm and regain control. Brian Stein, returning for the first time after surgery on a ruptured knee ligament, worked hard and created several half-chances, but the Town were out of luck in front of goal.

Mick Harford and Mike Newell were particularly unfortunate as chances came and went, but the Town refused to concede and continued to play with purpose and pattern until the final minute when Hill's flighted pass sent Johnson clear on the right. Newell's header was perfection and earned the Town a deserved point.

Teams: Luton—Sealey, Johnson, Thomas, Nicholas, Foster, Donaghy, Hill, Stein, Harford, Newell, Preece. Tottenham—Clemence, Allen P., Hughton, Mabbutt, Miller, Stevens, Chiedozie, Falco, Galvin, Allen C., Waddle.

JOHN SHERIDAN

from the bench

Club physiotherapist John Sheridan has been able to relax and draw on his pipe recently for the first time in several weeks as everyone in the first team has returned to training. For months now, his treatment room has been like a hospital ward with so many players recovering from surgery, needing treatment or seeking advice as they fought their way back to fitness. Today John reflects on the busy winter he has worked through and discusses the successes of his now-recovered patients.

"It is the first time in months that it has been so quiet. Everyone is back in training now except for John Kennedy who is back home in Wales resting and recovering after a minor operation on his feet—something I felt I wanted to have cleared up now rather than later in his career if he became a full professional.

"John will be out for the rest of his season, but it is for his own long-term benefit to get this done now and we believe in looking after young lads properly all the time here. He had the operation at a Harpenden clinic and it has been a success.

Successes

"We have also seen success with several other injured players this season—Brian Stein, for example, who is now well on the way back, Emeka Nwajobi, Ricky McEvoy, Stacey North, Rob Johnson, Mick Harford, Steve Foster, Tim Breacker, Ashley Grimes. They have all done well in different ways—some to keep playing and some to make the recoveries they have after bad injuries.

"The most troublesome has been Emeka's injury. He fractured the fifth metatarsal in his foot. It is quite a bad injury. After his operation, however, he still had trouble and later further surgery found he had a nerve lying loose right by the bone. This is what caused the problem. The fracture probably caused it to move. But he is better now and it is only a matter of working off the discomforts of the operation.

"He had a good run-out during Ricky's testimonial match without ill effect and he has kept bright most of the time. He'll be okay. It has been some help to him having Brian to keep him company I am sure because Brian has a tremendous will to play and always pushes himself.

"Brian partially ruptured the anterior cruciate ligament quite severely. It was a bad blow for him, but he has come back well and is working hard to get over the few niggles and things he is bound to feel.

"Ricky McEvoy's was a very similar injury to Emeka's and interestingly both came from kicks. It is an increasingly used professional foul—stamping on feet—which has caused several injuries this season. The lighter, slipper-style footwear of modern players probably makes them more vulnerable than in the past. Tim Breacker's injured toe was also due to stamping."

INTER- NATIONAL STARS

TOP HATTER

Paul Nicholas

Ricky Hill

Mal Donaghy

It is a reflection of the growing strength of our first team squad that this season three players have played full international football for their countries in the build-up to the World Cup finals. Mal Donaghy has become a fixture in the Northern Ireland team. Peter Nicholas has also proved himself a regular in the Welsh team—he will be in action against Uruguay, injuries permitting, next Monday. Ricky Hill, of course, has forced himself onto the fringe of the England world Cup squad and could yet join the Mexio-bound squad.

NATIONAL PRIDE

The recent selection of Tim Breacker, Mitchell Thomas and Mike Newell to play for England against Italy in the semi-finals of the European under-21 championship served only to highlight the number of internationals now on our club staff.

For in addition to the three England youngsters—who were joined in Pisa by former Hatter Garry Parker, now of Hull City—the Town can point to a seasoned group of international stars including captain Steve Foster, who played for England during the 1982 World Cup finals, Brian Stein, who has proved himself more than worthy of adding to his cap for England against France in 1984, Ashley Grimes, holder of more than a dozen Eire caps, and Emeka Nwajiobi, a veteran of World Cup action with Nigeria.

Dream

But the trio currently enjoying most international recognition have been Mal Donaghy with Northern Ireland and Peter Nicholas with Wales and Ricky Hill with England. It is, of course, everyone's dream that Mick Harford will also gain a full cap soon.

"All I can do is keep on trying," said modest Mick, who now plays in a team that has seven full internationals in the first-team squad, not to mention five players who have won under-21 caps and several youth internationals.

Not since the 1950's when Syd Owen, Billy Bingham, Allan Brown, George Cummins and Co were at their best can the Town have enjoyed so much strength in depth. "It is great for the club," said Mal Donaghy, now well on his way towards his 50th cap while Ricky Hill is hoping for a fourth to show for England.

Bill Tomlins, Commercial Director

the TOWN

A BIG THANK-YOU TO ALL OUR LOYAL SUPPORTERS

by Bill Tomlins

Welcome to our third big game here in eight days and thank you very much, on behalf of Ricky Hill, to everyone who came last week to support his testimonial match which proved to be a superb evening in spite of the bitter weather.

Close to 8,000 fans paid their tribute to Ricky's professionalism and loyalty at Luton Town and we had more than 150 sponsors and guests supporting the match. In particular, I think we must thank the fans who have supported the club throughout the Cup run and again last week.

GENEROUS

Bobby Robson generously supported the match and did very well in putting together such a strong team when every other team except Spurs was tied up with midweek matches. Our thanks and Ricky's must go to Peter Shreeve.

I especially enjoyed seeing the old faces from our Luton Town "family" and I know they and Ricky enjoyed the night. Did you notice Brian Horton's famous stare at the officials in evidence again? I asked him about it afterwards and, typically, he said: "It's not often I get the chance to pull on an England shirt, is it Bill?"

That tells you all about the professionalism of our former skipper. I felt it was important that all the efforts of the many players who gave up their evenings for Ricky should have been recognised.

SPONSORS

Welcome tonight to our match sponsors Banks of Sandy Ltd, agricultural trading specialists. They are one of the leading grain traders in Britain and are involved in milling wheat and malting barley for the home market and export.

Banks specialise in quality seeds and also market fertilizers and animal feeds. The company has provided its special service for farmers for more than 50 years.

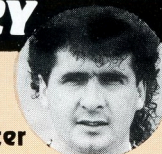

Tonight's executive sponsors are Anachem Ltd. Managing director Gerry Atkinson is a member of the Kenilworth Suite and a valued supporter of the club.

● Party night: There were smiles all round after Ricky's testimonial last week as he presented all the players and guests with gifts to mark the occasion. Our pictures show Ricky with Mark Aizlewood (top), Town manager David Pleat with Ricky's girlfriend Sharon and mother Doris (middle) and Ricky with "Nobby" Horton, captain of our promotion team in 1982.

CAPTAIN'S DIARY

with Steve Foster

PATERNAL GREETINGS AND THANKS . .

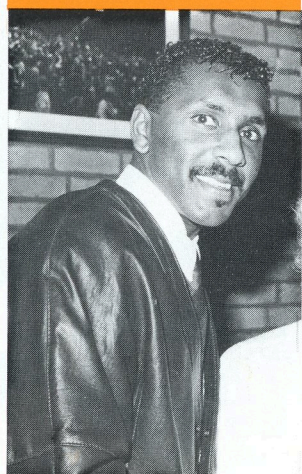

Another busy week . . . and my thanks go to our manager David Pleat for giving me enough time off this last year to have become a father last week! My wife Joanne safely produced our first baby Bertie and, of course, we are both delighted.

Before the Spurs game, our dressing room—the most private place in the club—was like Piccadilly Circus. Youth team goalkeeper Mark Jones was brought in for stitches, "Maxie" graced us with his presence and director Terry Bentley offered to do the team talk. Our manager was busy with referee Robert Hamer, on his first visit to Kenilworth Road.

Also a number of players' complimentary tickets had been stolen on the gate. This sort of cheating really upsets everyone on matchdays and something will have to be done about it for next season. Finally, I'm pleased to say I shall not be making my annual visit to Lancaster Gate this year to defend my head-band! It's been a good disciplinary year for me!

AROUND

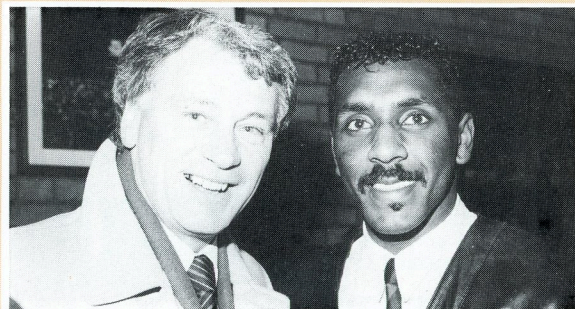

RICKY'S THANKYOU

● 10 years on: I know Ricky was delighted with the response and support for his testimonial night and grateful to the players and fans who came. He deserved it, didn't he?

AND THE ENGLAND MANAGER JOINED THE SINGING TOO!

● Joining the fun: England manager Bobby Robson enjoyed Ricky's big night last week when he joined in with our chairman in a sing-song in Ricky's honour after the game. Gareth Owen's picture captures the England boss with our midfield star.

Good evening Junior Hatters, parents and friends

Tonight's game is a rearranged match as we were originally due to play Liverpool when we had a home draw in the fifth round of the FA Cup. This is the second season we have played Liverpool in an evening game.

Liverpool are one of the teams that all you Junior Hatters will know well and like to watch and support, I know. We have seen a lot of Liverpool on television since football returned to the screens. You must have seen them play.

It could be that their team tonight will include former Hatters' favourite Paul Walsh who has been trying to fight his way back recently after injury. We shall have to keep an eye on him!

Last season we lost two goals to one with Mal Donaghy scoring for us. I am sure Liverpool will find it much tougher tonight. We have a good record at home. Enjoy the match and cheer us on to victory.

RESERVES HOPE FOR HIGH FINISH

With last week's fixture at Crystal Palace in the Football Combination postponed, it has been a quiet week for the reserves who were due to return to action last night (Tuesday) at Fulham. Several of the team turned out during Ricky Hill's testimonial match last Tuesday, of course, when they consolidated their recent form in higher company. Tonight's action pictures show Ricky McEvoy taking command during the recent 6-0 win over Swindon and Marc North and David Oldfield in the air in the same match.

Youth Team

Draw for youngsters at Wimbledon

Wimbledon 2 Luton Town 2
Two goals from the penalty spot by Sean Farrell eventually earned the Town a share of the points at Wimbledon on Saturday in a match which should have been won easily but for a host of missed chances.

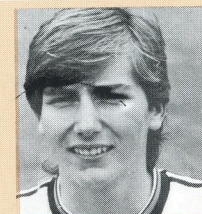

Farrell scored early in the first half to put the Town youngsters in front, but later missed two glaring opportunities to put the result beyond any doubt and Wimbledon were able to fight their way back into the game and go 2-1 ahead before Farrell was required to convert another spot-kick for a late equaliser.

The game was marred however by a terrible tackle on the youth team's young goalkeeper Mark Jones in which his knee was cut open. Jones left the ground for medical attention and several stitches in the wound. He was replaced in goal by Andrew Chapman.

Introducing Liverpool

Liverpool arrive at Kenilworth Road tonight chasing their first league championship and FA Cup double following their safe passage to the FA Cup final against Everton with victory over Southampton 11 days ago.

With player-manager Kenny Dalglish proving as canny off the pitch as he has always been on it, the Reds remain one of the most attractive teams in the world and certainly one of the strongest in Britain.

Dalglish himself has been in superb form again recently, prompting Welsh striker Ian Rush back to his goal-scoring best and keeping former Hatter Paul Walsh on the sidelines as he recovers from injury.

Players likely to be on duty tonight for the former European champions:

Gary Gillespie—Tall and quick central defender Gary has settled down into a reliable member of the back four now following his move from Coventry City.

Steve McMahon—Former Aston Villa powerhouse Steve was given the old Graeme Souness-style job in midfield and responded well. Now a vigorous and hard-working member of the Liverpool squad.

Bruce Grobbelaar—One of the game's great characters, Zimbabwean-international goalkeeper Bruce has now made more than 250 appearances for Liverpool.

Steve Nicol—Scottish international full-back with an eye for attack Steve has taken over from Phil Neal who left earlier this season.

Jim Beglin—Another new defender is Eire international Jim who has settled in well following Alan Kennedy's transfer to Sunderland.

Mark Lawrenson—A regular Eire international with great skill, pace, strength and composure, Mark joined Liverpool from Brighton.

Alan Hansen—The new Liverpool captain is one of the finest central defenders in Britain. Alan is a Scottish international and very experienced.

Sammy Lee—Sammy has recently recaptured his first team place on the right of midfield

Kenny Dalglish has made himself a legend in his own time in Liverpool by leading the club both on and off the pitch this season as player-manager. Together with former manager Bob Paisley who has agreed to act as consultant to the club, Dalglish took over the reins following Joe Fagan at the end of last season.

Dalglish has successfully lifted the club after the traumas of the European Cup final in Brussels and has astutely allowed himself to become a regular substitute following Paul Walsh's development.

As a player, of course, he remains Scotland's most-capped and most-honoured striker and a certainty for their Mexico World Cup squad as well as a vital part of Liverpool's double bid.

after a spell in the doldrums. A former England regular.

Jan Molby—Supremely-skilled and strong Danish international sweeper or midfielder. Jan can also score goals with tremendous long-range shots.

John Wark—Former Ipswich midfielder John has returned to the first team at Liverpool after a long wait following injury. A Scottish cap with a reputation for goalscoring.

Ronnie Whelan—Another Eire cap with a skilful approach on the left side of midfield. Ronnie can open up defences with his running and perceptive passing.

Ian Rush—Reknown as Europe's most dangerous striker. Ian is a Welsh international with a killer instinct in front of goal. Also a hard grafter.

Paul Walsh—Paul has recovered his best form this season to stake a claim for an England recall. An elusive and dangerous striker.

Craig Johnston—Versatile midfielder or striker Craig has returned to the Anfield first team squad this season after being the subject of transfer enquiries.

ON THE MOVE AND MAKING HISTORY

"Luton Town on the Move" is a catchy slogan... and at the moment it is very true.

In our 100th season we continue to create history as one era ends and another begins.

It began last summer with the installation of the synthetic pitch, a move which has been a complete success. But we are not stopping there. For during this close season the changes will pick up speed.

The club's faithful old offices in Kenilworth Road are falling before the onslaught of demolition men and the staff, lock stock and Xerox have moved to a new base in Dunstable Road. There has been a certain amount of chaos as phone calls and messages go astray, but it was a necessary step in the ongoing revitalisation of the club.

Superb new suites

Soon there will be cranes where the offices once stood and they will be needed for the construction of 28 superb executive suites which will replace the old Bobbers Stand. The seats from the Bobbers will move to the Oak Road terracing and then we shall cap it all—literally—by roofing over the Kenilworth Road terracing at a cost over £150,000. At long last, all our supporters will be under cover. Plus the removal of the Colditz like environment making way for a new and less hostile atmosphere.

Another plus will be more toilets, tea bars and turnstiles.

But there will be another change, a radical one which will affect all our supporters and which will confirm Luton Town as the most radical and imaginative football club in Britain. Details of that change will be announced soon and you will learn more at the Watford match on April 26th.

Things will be different at Kenilworth Road next season. And better.

Spurs maintain 27-year run

Tottenham maintained a 27-year-old unbeaten league record at Kenilworth Road when they drew 1—1 here on Saturday. Mike Newell's last-minute equaliser saved the Town from defeat and stretched the Town's unbeaten current run to five league games. Here is a selection of the Press comment on that match:

Today: "Luton play their own version of trivial pursuits every time they meet Tottenham at Kenilworth Road. Its now 27 years since the Hatters last beat Spurs at home but at least Spurs award then a moral victory after Saturday's 1—1 draw.

"Tottenham manager Peter Shreeve revealed his players felt as if they'd lost because they conceded such a late equaliser. David Pleat, his Luton counterpart, was far from disappointed. He said: 'My boys never gave up, and their efforts were rewarded'." Daily Mail: "Gary Mabbutt was the toast of Tottenham after putting Luton's Mick Harford in his place during the 1—1 draw at Kenilworth Road. But it looks like team-nate Gary Stevens will have the last laugh on both of them when it comes to the World Cup."

Glum-looking

Daily Star: "A glum-looking Peter Shreeve summed it up for Spurs after the 1—1 draw at Luton. 'We feel as though we've lost this afternoon,' he said. Spurs had 80 per cent of the play then conceded a brilliant equaliser to Mike Newell just two minutes from time. Even the class of Ray Clemence and Gary Mabbutt could not lift the gloom for the Londoners.

"Luton boss David Pleat angrily brushed aside suggestions that his team had an off-day. 'Not true,' he said. 'We stuck to it and proved you're never down until you are out. We pumped away and eventually took our reward'."

THE LUTON TOWN STORY

All Our

The day Bill Shankly was incensed

Although our first league meeting with Liverpool was as recent as 1954-55, we did, in fact, meet Liverpool twice much earlier in FA Cup action between the wars.

The first match took place on January 31st, 1920, at Kenilworth Road in a second round tie and, despite the gap in divisions, there was high hopes of a Town success after wins over Chesterfield Municipal at home, 6-2, Brighton away, 1-0 and at Coventry, 1-0, following a 2-2 home draw.

Alas, Luton failed to perform to their best on the big day and the Reds won rather more easily than the 2-0 scoreline suggested.

Our next meeting did not take place until January 7th, 1939, in a third round tie at Anfield where a 3-0 scoreline this time masked the Town's quality and superiority in defeat.

A typical match report stated that "Luton played a magnificent fighting game and on the day were the better side. The 42,500 crowd could hardly believe their eyes as the Luton forwards missed a hatful of chances."

Two-goal Morton

Our first league meeting took place on November 13th, 1954, following Liverpool's relegation from the First Division. As we were travelling in the opposite direction that season our 3-2 win came as no surprise to the 15,887 crowd who saw Bob Morton score two of the goals.

Morton also scored twice at Anfield later that season in an incredible 4-4 draw. We were actually 3-1 down at one stage in this game, but fought back to lead 4-3 only to concede a late equaliser after an injury to goalkeeper Bernard Streten.

We rejoined the Reds in the Second Division in 1960-61 and following a 2-1 home win and a Matches against Liverpool have always been great occasions and they form an important part of the club's history, as reported in our official Centenary book, The Luton Town Story 1885-1985, by Timothy Collings. The book, which sold out in its first edition, has been reprinted and is currently selling quickly in its second edition.

Paul Walsh joined Luton from Charlton in 1982, made 80 league appearances in the First Division, scored 24 goals and left for Liverpool for a £750,000 fee in 1984. An old-fashioned dribbling forward, he delighted the Kenilworth Road crowd.

Richard Money joined the Town from Liverpool in 1982 as the final part in the promotion jig-saw that season. A left-back, he started his career with Scunthorpe and later played for Fulham. He left Town for Portsmouth.

2-2 away draw met them for the first time in the League Cup. This new competition drew only a lukewarm response and only 10,502 turned out at Anfield for a 1-1 draw. The crowd at Kenilworth Road for the replay was a paltry 6,125. Liverpool won 5-2.

The following season, Liverpool walked away with the Second Division title. But not until we had served them some shocks on the way. At Anfield on November 11th, 1961, Liverpool appeared to be cruising to victory following an early Kevin Lewis goal.

But with three minutes left Gordon Turner snatched the Town an equaliser from a seemingly off-side position. The 23,921 crowd were seething and as Liverpool launched a last-ditch attack on the Town goal, a header from Ian

St. John appeared to have crossed the line but was knocked away by Brendan McNally's hand. The referee was unsighted, and so too was the linesman, and the Town escaped with a lucky point.

The Liverpool newspaper scribe stated afterwards that "It would require a sheet of asbestos to quote safely manager Bill Shankly's views of the incident."

In the return at Luton the following March, we won with a solitary Dave Pacey goal in a match of incident in which an Ian St. John penalty was saved by Jim Standen. Standen dived the wrong way, but deflected the ball over the crossbar with his ankles.

Our paths did not cross again then until 1974-75 following our promotion to Division One. Liverpool were our first visitors. An early Barry Butlin goal put the Town ahead and in good spirit. But experience told and Liverpool scored twice for victory.

In recent years, the most memorable matches were the 3-3 draw at Anfield in 1982-83 when Luton used three different goalkeepers, but sparkled in attack and the following year when the Red machine played with awe-inspiring efficiency to win 6-0.

Town captain Steve Foster hits one of our two goals at Anfield last October when Liverpool won 3-2.
