EVERYTHING YOU LIKE HERE.

PLENTY OF WHAT YOU NEED HERE.

No-one can deny the huge success of the Astra Van.

Now the new Astramax can only add to the popularity of the range, while adding to the discomfort of competitors (but certainly not of drivers).

The Astra Van is well-known for the best 'office' set-up and for the best handling and performance in its class. Same difference for Astramax.

Drivers can take comfort, too, from the Astramax (and Astra Van) being equipped with a proper bulkhead. Unlike some other vans.

The slippery smooth shape is more than a modern front for business. The Cd factor is a low 0.34.

While at the business-end, twin rear doors open to a 90° stop. Or a full 180°; handy for loading bays. And for taking on a choice of 365 or 560 kg payloads in the huge 82 cu. ft. load-space.

For even more load-space, optional with the Astramax, is an extended load-deck in place of the passenger seat.

On the small side, fuel consumption and all the running costs. Whatever your choice from three petrol engines or a diesel, with 4-speed, 5-speed or automatic gearboxes (according to engine).

To end with the finish, the corrosion-protection and paint process is the most-up-to-date in Europe.

As for the Astramax's price, it's attractive enough to save you the bother of shopping around.

MOORE ABOUT FOOTBALL

Welcome to Aston Villa. I am sure we are in for another very tough match today. Any team in their position is sure to give nothing less than 100 per cent effort and hope that their luck will change. We faced a similarly anxious and frantic team at Newcastle last week when I felt we fully deserved our draw. We were without Ricky Hill for that fixture as he was struggling with a knee problem. I hope the rest will have helped to solve the problem. Ricky played through all our cup ties with the injury and needed the rest. Mention of Ricky also gives me the chance to say that I am still in discussion with him on the subject of any new contract and hope to resolve the situation soon. I am looking to improve the Luton Town team – not lose good players.

Brilliant goal

On the injury front, I hope we will be able to welcome Andy Dibble back to action soon. He was hoping to be able to make an appearance for the reserves in their match at Southampton today. In recent weeks, the reserves have enjoyed successes against some strong opposition and many fans may also have noted that Marc North scored twice last Saturday for Scunthorpe, where he is on loan.

Since my last notes, of course, we have gone out of the F.A. Cup following our replay defeat at Queens Park Rangers. I was disappointed. I felt we did not play our best and that we gave away two sloppy goals, but scored one brilliant goal. Now we must concentrate on building up another good run and scoring some goals in the First Division. People are discussing European soccer again and we must ensure we are in the running for a place in Europe if English clubs can make a return. Our performance at Newcastle was a boost to that dream, as we put in a lot of effort and worked very hard for the draw. The fact that Tim Breacker was in the opposition penalty area to score our equaliser shows how keen we were to take something from the game.

I hope today's match here is as eventful and entertaining. Please give the team your support. Enjoy the game.

GIRL TALK

Out of Glasgow

"You can take Dalglish out of Glasgow, but you can't take the Glasgow out of Dalglish," one of our Century Club members informed me the other day. It's obvious what he meant; the will to win transcends everything, even reason. Liverpool's manager criticised first our pitch, then our ban on away fans, then the 'advantage' we had from playing regularly on a synthetic surface – it made our players more skilful, he implied. This was even before the replay at Anfield.

Afterwards he criticised us for not accepting neutral territory for the replay (would he have done if Liverpool had won the toss?) and then claimed we should have been expelled from the Cup because we were snowed-in. All of this because, in four encounters this season, Liverpool have not beaten us and we, as the 'small' club, should crumble before the mighty.

We should consider ourselves lucky to be allowed to compete in the same tournaments as the likes of Liverpool, it seems. Isn't it about time that the 'big' clubs recognised that things change? Not so long ago

Leeds and Derby were First Division leaders, as were Wolves for years. Now where are they? Conversely, Wimbledon and Oxford have made their mark in the First Division. Ten years ago those names would have meant a tennis tournament and a boat race, not Association Football.

Inspiration

Of course it's easier to succeed on the pitch if there's ample money in the bank, but that's not the only criterion of success. The outstanding Liverpool side of the seventies was a blend of skill and team work. That is what we are rapidly developing here, with Steve Foster's leadership during matches an inspiration.

We have beaten Liverpool, Nottingham Forest, and Everton on merit. Our players are beginning to believe in themselves. We fans know the Town are good, and worth watching – it's only the rest of the football fraternity that need convincing; when they are, they might stop making excuses for our victories.

THURSDAYS 14p

DESERVED DRAW

Newcastle Utd 2 Luton Town 2

Ashley Grimes and Tim Breacker each scored splendid goals to open their accounts for the Town as they deservedly returned with a point from an open and entertaining match at Newcastle last Saturday. Grimes, from a free-kick on the right-hand angle of the penalty area, scored with a brilliantly-placed curling left-footed free kick and Breacker shot home with another left-footed effort from inside the penalty area 15 minutes from time.

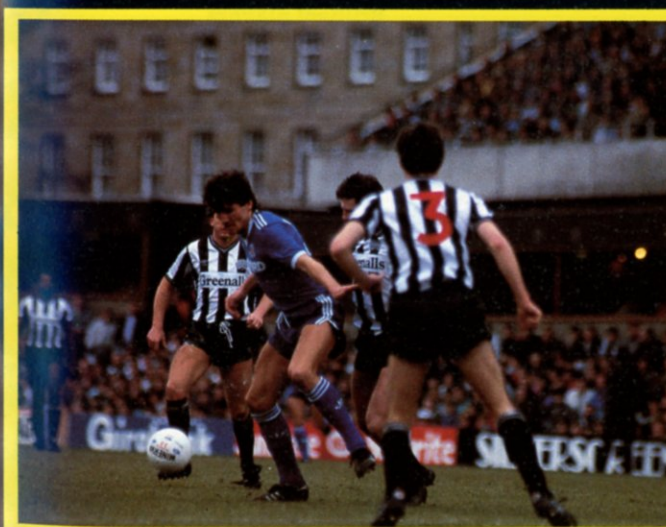

In between, Newcastle had most of the play and created some chances without ever giving the impression they had enough control or guile to break down a Town defence once again ably marshalled by Steve Foster and Mal Donaghy. Peter Jackson scored his first goal for Newcastle with a header from a corner and Paul Goddard added their second to put them 2-1 up in the 31st minute.

In the second half, the Town had plenty of possession and Newcastle seemed to be content to rely on breakaway attacks in defence of their lead, but their policy was caught out when Breacker took advantage of a poor header by Wharton to sweep the ball in. To celebrate the occasion of his first league goal in his 90th appearance, Breacker ordered a video of the match. It will have to provide several slow motion re-runs.

Teams: - Newcastle - Thomas, McDonald, Wharton, McCreery, Jackson, Roeder, Thomas, Cunningham, Goddard, Beardsley, Craig.
Luton - Sealey, Breacker, Johnson, Nicholas, Foster, Donaghy, Wilson, B. Stein, Newell, Harford, Grimes.

Referee - J. Worrall (Warrington).

VIEWS from the BENCH

Jim Ryan

Reserve team coach Jim Ryan is a former player at Kenilworth Road with long experience of playing on both our old 'grass' surface and our current synthetic pitch. Today, in his Views from the Bench, he discusses the recent criticism of our pitch and some of the broader issues in the game today:

Ill-informed criticism gets under my collar!

"The one thing which has really upset me more than anything recently has been the criticism of both the pitch and the members' policy which has seemed to me to be both ill-informed and gratuitous. It seems sometimes that you cannot mention Luton now on the sports pages without the word plastic appearing next to us.

"I think this is unfair and wrong. Our players have certainly not had the credit they deserve this season for playing extremely well both at home and away to get us to our current position in the League.

"I have played on the old and the new Kenilworth Road and also on artificial pitches in America. I recently read that Kenny Dalglish had said our pitch increased the number of injuries, according to a survey. But this is not true. I know of no survey of soccer players which says this.

"In America, it may be true of American Football, but that is a different game altogether in which injury is almost a deliberate part of it! In fact, I think there are less injuries on our pitch than on grass – or rather the sort of muddy pitch in mid-winter which is used for football. A lot of injuries are caused by studs, but on synthetic pitches moulded studs are normally used so these sort of injuries are eliminated.

Players divided

"It has also been said that the players do not like it.

I think the players seem to be split half and half. Some do like it and some don't. What really annoys me is the comparisons made with perfect grass pitches all the time – they just cannot remember how it used to be here in the old days. I do!

"Not everyone plays at Anfield or Wembley. And sometimes it is as if, after just one bad or poor game, the pitch is to blame. It is not the pitch which makes a game good or bad, but the players.

"As to the ban on away fans, one player recently said that if his team's fans had been here they would have influenced the referee into giving them a penalty. This is a ridiculous position to take and clearly devalues all the achievements of previous teams from his club – suggesting that they obtained a lot of help from the referee because of their support.

Brilliant players

"I get cross about it because added together these issues are often construed as being deliberately introduced by our club to gain an advantage. This is not true at all and is really unfair on the players. Some of them have been brilliant this season without getting any of the credit they deserve.

"They have done well home and away. They played well at Liverpool and still did not get the credit when they won. The pitch did it all again! It is not right at all."

SPARE A THOUGHT FOR THE PLAYERS – THEY HAVE EARNED IT

By Bill Tomlins

LUCKY LES

•Smiles all round: Les Sealey presented the match ball after our QPR Cup-tie to Anna Green of sponsors V.G. Green & Sons.

Good afternoon and welcome back to Kenilworth Road. Since our last home match in the Today League Division One, we have unfortunately bowed out of the F.A. Cup at the hands of Queens Park Rangers. It was naturally a big disappointment after the great victory over Liverpool, but if you think you felt bad about it, spare a thought for the players who had given their all over 390 minutes in cup football this season.

The rush of fixtures at that time brought it home to us more than ever on the management side of the club how dependent we are on the team's results, as everything had to be planned according to a win, draw or a defeat.

We can still take pride in our position in the league table however, as we approach the last lap of the season. I think it is always good to put things in perspective and we at Luton have a lot to be proud of this season.

Pleasure

In my new position as general secretary, one of my greatest pleasures has been in taking a closer interest in the reserves and youth team matches. Our youngsters really are a delight to watch and I must urge all our fans to come and enjoy seeing them play. They really are a credit to Jim Ryan and John Faulkner.

At the senior level, we all know how well the whole team has played this season, but Mal Donaghy and Peter Nicholas deserve special mention for being selected yet again for Northern Ireland and Wales respectively, for their forthcoming internationals. Congratulations Mal and Peter. News too of Marcus Tuite whose contract with the club has been cancelled. Marcus is to join Limerick.

Congratulations are in order also for David Oldfield who has recently signed a two-year contract as a professional with the club, as Richard Harvey had earlier this season.

Sponsors

Finally, a warm welcome to this afternoon's match sponsors, the Macmillan Fund Nurse Appeal. All money raised at the match today will be used to help provide a home care service for cancer sufferers and others with similar illnesses.

There are two Macmillan nurses working in our area who aid the terminally ill and their families in their own homes and bring dignity to those concerned. Please support them by giving generously today. It is a more than worthy cause.

We welcome as executive sponsors Camargue Kitchens. The company was established in 1971 and specialises in the manufacture of luxury kitchens and is well known for its quality design and service.

GIRL MASCOT MEETS THE STARS

•Back in action: Our manager, John Moore, pulled on a Town shirt again last Sunday to appear in a match for an old Luton Town XI in aid of Robin Large, who has been confined to a wheel chair with Friedrich's Atakta.

•Team picture: How many of the former Luton players do you recognise? The team included Ken Hawkes, Ken Goode, Alan Garner, John Faulkner, Jim Ryan and Alan Bannister.

•International call-up: Congratulations to Mal Donaghy and Peter Nicholas on their selection for Northern Ireland and Wales.

CAPTAIN'S DIARY

STEVE FOSTER

Bouncing back

Hello everyone. We were bitterly disappointed to lose at Queens Park Rangers last week and so go out of the F.A. Cup, particularly as we had done so well to beat Liverpool in the previous round. But that is the essence of cup football – you can only take each match as it comes and look forwards.

I was very pleased with the way we bounced back straightaway with a good performance at Newcastle. And it was especially nice to see Ashley and Tim score their first goals for the club. Now we are just waiting to get Peter Nicholas to improve his accuracy a bit and we can enjoy another first.

Challenge

There is still a lot for us to play for this season. Not just pride, but also the chance of taking the club to its highest-ever position in the First Division and maybe even into a high enough position to maintain a challenge for the title. We have to keep on putting the results together. Then it is up to the other clubs to keep winning as well – and we shall be ready if there are any slips.

The support from our fans during the Cup run was great and I want to make sure everyone knows how much we appreciated it. I hope it will be continued in the First Division matches now, as we will keep on fighting to finish in a good position. With Tim and Ashley starting to score, I think it is time Mal and I moved forward a bit more if we get the chance!

IN PROFILE.... DARRON McDONOUGH

• Versatile player: Darron McDonough

Utility man who likes to defend

• Happily settled: Darron McDonough

Darron McDonough joined the Town from Oldham Athletic in the early stages of the current campaign and has rapidly become a vital member of the first team squad at Kenilworth Road. Although he prefers to play in the middle of the defence, he can perform anywhere in the team and his great versatility has made him a valuable part of the title challenge.

Darron was born in Antwerp, Belgium, on November 7, 1962 and lived in Belgium for the first two years of his life. His father was serving there with the British Army. He broke into football at Oldham Athletic where he was an apprentice and where he made his first appearance in the Football League.

His debut came at Notts County where he played on the left side of midfield and marked the occasion with a goal. "I've played my career equally in attack, midfield and defence," said Darron, "but I prefer the middle of the back four."

Although he does not currently hold down a regular place in the Town first team, Darron is enjoying his first season of life at Kenilworth Road. "I am settled in now and quite happy - but I would be much happier if I could get a regular place in the side!" Darron is married to Alison and the couple are still looking for a home in the area after one near-purchase recently fell through.

DRESSING ROOM

with Mal Donaghy

Mal Donaghy was one of the most disappointed men in the Town squad when we were unable to reach the fifth round of the F.A. Cup, but he shook off his despair to help the team take a vital point at Newcastle last weekend. Today Mal looks back on the ups and downs of last week and reflects on how the team recovered its spirit on the way to Tyneside:

"After the home game against QPR, I think we all knew we had played below our best and would play better the next time. We were glad to get another go really.

"But in the replay Rangers got their tactics just right on the night and were able to get into a good lead before we could get back at them. Then they defended really well. They did the right thing in playing with two wide players I think and also their central defenders did a good job.

"Obviously after the Liverpool games we felt a bit deflated and it was a big disappointment to go out. That's why it was so important to get a result at Newcastle last Saturday – a ground where we don't usually manage to do very well.

Cold evening

"At Rangers we had been unlucky to meet them in that mood and we also seemed to have a bit of trouble with our footing in the conditions. It might have been the cold evening air or something, but we slipped and fell over a bit more than usual.

"We don't usually travel to the away games up north on a Friday morning, but we did for Newcastle. It was a change of routine. We stopped on the way for lunch too and it broke up our usual way of approaching everything, which was a good thing. We actually had a chat about the game and about the players who had not been scoring goals.

"Strangely, I told Tim I fancied him to score against Newcastle. Needless to say, he did not take me very seriously. Ashley got a bit of stick too, but most of the stick went to Peter Nicholas because he has had quite a few shots without being able to find the net.

Saving goals

"I haven't managed to score myself this season either, so perhaps I shouldn't say too much, but I just say I am saving my goals up and they will come later. I hope they do because I didn't score last season either. Steve Foster has managed one this season so far and might have scored more because he causes so much trouble in the opposition box with his strength and power.

• Defence to attack: Now Mal Donaghy has set his sights on goal too!

"I did manage a volley on target against Queens Park Rangers in the home match, which was saved. I just hit it and shut my eyes. It's a good policy for me I think! But the trouble is all the opposition goalkeepers have been in such brilliant form when we have played against them this season.

"Still, now Ashley and Tim have scored perhaps we shall all have a chance to get some more goals. It would certainly be nice. We are always being encouraged to go forward and have a go so perhaps our luck will change soon and the goals will start to go in.

Targets ahead

"We have to keep our season alive by thinking of finishing in our highest position ever and maybe challenging for the title or a place in Europe, if that became a possibility again. You never know. We have to have targets and we have certainly got them.

"I just hope we can steer clear of injuries. With such a small squad, we have already had our fair share of injuries for the season, I think. It would be really nice to be able to field a settled team for the rest of the season. There are some great games coming up – we have got West Ham, Manchester United and Spurs all at home to come, so it should be very interesting."

Guest tickets

We have decided to make things easier for members purchasing guest tickets. You no longer have to fill in forms if you call in to the Ticket Office in person.

Members are still responsible for the behaviour of their guests, however, and can be traced through the number on each guest ticket.

Guests do not require a membership card as the match ticket has a bar code on - the same as the membership cards.

Obviously, if a guest qualifies as a Town supporter and is likely to attend more than once, it is cheaper for him to enroll as a member.

Occasionally, supporters who live some distance from the ground, say it can be difficult to obtain tickets: but it need not be!

The ticket office will accept bookings by post with a cheque, or by telephone with an Access or Visa credit card number.

Best of all why not invest in a Season Ticket?

CLUB COMMENT

John Smith, Chief Executive.

Report from the public meeting

More than 100 people attended a public meeting for supporters and local residents on February 3rd. In fact, it was so popular some supporters were unable to obtain tickets. So here is a report on the main subjects discussed.

THE MEMBERSHIP SCHEME. Plans are under way to improve and streamline its operation, to offer an even better service to supporters next season. It is Europe's largest controlled access system and the first of its kind in Football, so teething troubles were inevitable. Meanwhile, we thank our supporters for their patience over delays at the turnstiles and their help in arriving earlier to beat the rush.

To date, the system has been totally successful in preventing hooliganism inside and outside the ground. The general exclusion of visiting supporters will continue. However, it is the Club's intention to work towards the integration of some visiting supporters, under controlled conditions, when it is safe to do so.

GROUND DEVELOPMENTS. Important changes, including much reduced car parking facilities, will also be forced on the Club during the summer, by the A505 Relief Road construction. But at least we can concentrate on other issues now the compensation negotiations are complete.

On the plus side, we intend to continue the ground improvement programme, finances permitting, with new mainstand refreshment facilities and a properly designed, under cover area for our disabled supporters.

MATCH ATTENDANCE. Attendances are disappointing, especially when the team is challenging for the League title. David Evans, our Chairman, appealed to supporters to make a point of bringing a friend to every match as a guest. He also asked Bobbers season ticket holders who did not renew when the executive suites were built, to return to their team's support next season.

While recognising their disappointment at the move, income from the suites is essential to maintain our Division One status.

RELOCATION. David Evans repeated the pledge that the Club would not move out of the Luton area. He praised the efforts of the Joint Working Party in helping to identify possible new sites. Stockwood Park seems to be the only feasible place in the town itself but we recognise that such a move would be a sensitive issue. Alternatively, the Club might be invited to move to a proposed stadium development at Sundon, on the town's northern outskirts. No doubt other sites on the outskirts will be identified. Meanwhile the Club will remain at Kenilworth Road and will develop the limited potential of the existing site, as best it can, but life here will become even more worrying.

Reserve & Youth

THREE GOALS EACH AS THE RESERVES AND YOUNGSTERS KEEP WINNING

The reserve and youth teams both enjoyed good victories last week as they beat Swindon Town and Brighton and Hove Albion respectively. The reserves managed a 3-0 win over the Wiltshire team while the youth team visited Shoreham to win 3-1.

For midfielder Ricky McEvoy it was a tonic to score in the reserves match after his proposed move to Chesterfield on loan fell through due to lack of finances available at the Third Division club.

Young team

McEvoy, Neil Burtch and Emeka Nwajiobi were the Town scorers against Swindon. The Town fielded another very young team as they extended their record for the season to 10 wins and 9 defeats in 20 games. They have scored 52 goals and conceded 34.

The youth team took their record for the current season to 10 wins and four defeats from 16 matches at Brighton. They have scored 41 goals and conceded 23. Saturday's scorers were the prolific Sean Farrell with two and Paul Gray.

REPLAY

ASTON VILLA

Aston Villa arrive at Kenilworth Road today seeking a desperately-needed win to help them claw their way out of relegation trouble at the foot of the table. Last Saturday they went down to their fifth home defeat of the season when they lost by the only goal against in-form Queens Park Rangers.

The goal that day came Rangers' way courtesy of Villa centre-half Martin Keown who is currently keeping the unsettled former Hatters' star Paul Elliott out of the team! When the Town last met Villa, at Villa Park last September, both men were in the side that recorded the Birmingham club's first win of the season by the odd goal in three.

Since then, however, much has changed at Villa Park with former Manchester City manager Billy McNeill taking over as manager in succession to the luckless Graham Turner. A promising run of results followed in the autumn, but since Christmas nothing has gone right and Villa find themselves struggling for survival again.

The team's biggest problem seems to be attack where goals have been in short supply although Villa have been unlucky recently to lose the services of Andy Gray with a serious neck injury.

Players likely to be on duty today:

Nigel Spink - Joined Villa from Chelmsford. A big goalkeeper with surprising agility. Made his name when he played in the European Cup final in 1982 after coming on for the injured Jimmy Rimmer. Nigel has won an England cap.

Gary Williams - Versatile defender who has become a dependable full-back. Gary made his Villa debut against Everton in 1978. An England under-21 cap, he has won League title, European Cup and Super Cup medals with Villa.

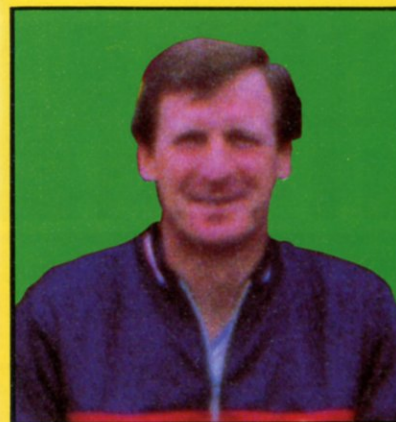

Tony Dorigo - Flew from Australia for a trial, impressed the club and stayed. Now one of the most promising and highly-rated defenders in the First Division. Supporters' Club Player of the Year.

Allan Evans - A veteran of the European Cup winning side of 1982, Allan is a Scottish international centre-half. Vastly-experienced player who has been club captain for several seasons. Joined Villa in May 1977 from Dunfermline.

Martin Keown - A former England youth international defender, Martin joined Villa from Arsenal last summer after making several promising appearances in the Gunners' first team.

Billy McNeill is one of the outstanding post-war figures in Scottish football and took over as manager of Villa earlier this season in succession to Graham Turner. Earlier he had been in charge at Manchester City whom he had led back to the First Division after moving south of the border in 1983. As a player, he was the centre-half of the great Celtic team of the 1960's, leading them to the Scottish title nine seasons in succession, and eight Scottish Cup triumphs. He also won six Scottish League Cup winners' medals and played in the Celtic team which won the European Cup in 1967. He won 29 Scottish caps. After retiring, he left the game briefly but returned to take over Clyde, Aberdeen and then Celtic.

Neale Cooper - A Scottish under-21 international, Neale has had to wait until early this year to make his debut following his transfer from Aberdeen last summer. A versatile and powerful central midfield player, he has a host of medals from his Scottish career.

Tony Daley - Birmingham-born Tony made his debut at Southampton in April 1985 and has since established himself as one of the most exciting players in the club. A dangerous forward.

Garry Thompson - A big, brave and bustling centre-forward, Garry joined Villa for a record £450,000 fee from Sheffield Wednesday last year after playing for Coventry and WBA earlier in his career. An England under-21 international.

Simon Stainrod - Sheffield-born Simon is an experienced striker with swaggering style and skills. Ex-Sheffield United, Oldham Athletic, and Queens Park Rangers. Simon was signed from Sheffield Wednesday for £250,000 in 1985.

Steve Hunt - Birmingham-born Steve is a midfielder who began his career at Villa Park before moving to New York Cosmos and returning via Coventry City and West Bromwich Albion. He won two England caps in 1984.

Mark Walters - Another Birmingham born player, Mark has developed into one of the trickiest wingers in the country in recent seasons. Ex-England youth and under-21 international.

JUNIOR HATTERS!

BY PETER NICHOLAS

END OF OUR CUP RUN

Today's lucky Junior Hatters membership number is 156. The winning member should contact Bev Tyler in the ticket office at Oak Road, with his, or her, membership card for two free tickets to one of our home matches.

Well, our run in the F.A. Cup came to an end last week when Queens Park Rangers beat us in the replay at Loftus Road, by two goals to one. Now we must concentrate on our position in the League and keep in the top flight with all the big teams.

Today Aston Villa are our visitors. When we played them at Villa Park in September, they beat us by two goals to one. Today should be a good game as it always is against Villa.

Today we have a lot of young school children at our game, lets hope that you all enjoy your afternoon out and maybe we will see some of you joining our club as junior supporters in the near future. Have a good day and I will see you at our next home game when we play West Ham United.

Tim Breacker and Ashley Grimes celebrated their first goals for the club as the Town won a deserved point from a 2-2 draw at Newcastle last Saturday. Ashley's goal came from a perfectly-placed free kick while Tim's was a first-time shot to equalise in the second half. Here is a selection of the comments from the press on the match:

The Observer - "Facing a Luton side playing their sixth game in 15 days, and at times showing the strain, Newcastle missed a glorious chance to improve their parlous league position yesterday. Bottom-of-the-table Newcastle were leading 2-1 and looking likely to add to their lead when a badly-directed header by Wharton gave Tim Breacker an easy chance to score his first goal for Luton in the 75th minute."

Mail on Sunday - "Luton manager John Moore insisted afterwards that his side had earned the point. Certainly, nobody could question their will to work in a fiercely competitive game."

Sunday Express - "After the disappointment of their FA Cup defeat at Queens Park Rangers, Luton badly needed an early goal to boost their morale. Grimes provided it when Jackson fouled Mick Harford. A lovely left foot strike had the ball comfortably eluding the outstretched fingers of Martin Thomas - Grimes' first goal of the season."

The Star - "Tim Breacker made sure Mum and Dad didn't miss out on his first-ever goal for Luton - even though they were 200 miles away at the time. Luton's full-back finally broke his duck after three barren seasons with a 75th minute equaliser in the 2-2 draw at Newcastle. And he was so elated he forked out £12.50 for one of the videos Newcastle produce of every home match."

LUTON TOWN GOLDEN OLDIES

CREATOR STEPHENSON AND ROCKET-SHOT RIOCH

We welcome Aston Villa to Kenilworth Road for their twelfth league visit and, at the risk of tempting fate, hate to say that they have yet to win here, writes club statistician Roger Wash.

Our first meeting took place on 1st September, 1937, when the Town, newly promoted to Division Two, took on Villa in our debut home game in the higher division.

The ground capacity had been increased to a supposed 34,000 during that close season but even though the terraces were packed and the gates closed long before kick-off the final tally was only 25,349, albeit a record.

Tide of euphoria

Luton, riding on a tide of euphoria won on the night 3-2, but were brought back to earth with a bump when losing 4-1 in the return at Villa Park the following week.

Playing for the Town at that time was George Stephenson who had signed from Aston Villa in the summer of 1934. Stephenson, born and raised in Stockton-on-Tees, had joined Villa after playing for Durham City but in three seasons at Villa Park failed to make a name for himself.

After joining the Town he formed a formidable left wing partnership with Fred Roberts which lasted until the outbreak of the war. "Irresistable on his day, very speedy with a magnificent shot" Stephenson laid on the majority of the goals, scored by firstly Joe Payne and later Hugh Billington, but as with so many other players found the war cut short his career.

Stephenson returned to the North-East after the

• Bruce Rioch: Midfielder with a rocket shot who played for the Town and Villa – and captained Scotland at the 1978 World Cup Finals. Bruce is now in charge of Middlesbrough.

war and sadly died in 1964 just at a time when another "hot-shot" was joining the Town.

Scottish ancestry

Bruce Rioch, Aldershot born but with a Scottish father, moved to Luton at an early age and in fact attended school in Stopsley with his good friend Alan Slough.

He made his debut for the Town in a 1-0 League Cup win at Port Vale in September 1964, but it was not until the end of November that he turned out again for the first team in a dismal defeat at Southend.

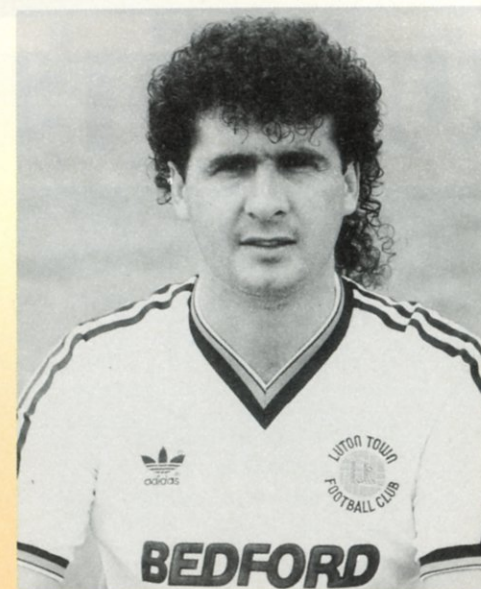

Rioch made eleven appearances that season, without scoring, in a side that slipped into Division Four. But in the following year he started up a useful partnership with John O'Rourke, which was beginning to bear fruit when a bad injury sustained at Hartlepool effectively put paid to what we Town fans thought was to be the final weight that tipped promotion in our favour.

With O'Rourke departed to Middlesbrough, the goalscoring brunt fell on Rioch's shoulders and he finished with a creditable 10 goals in 1966-67 in a team that at one point looked odds on to seek re-election.

Towards the end of that season the scouts had begun to come to Kenilworth Road to witness the long range power shooting of Rioch but in 1967-68, the Town's promotion season, the trickle became a flood as he banged in 24 goals, few of which were "tap-ins".

• Steve Foster: Our captain came to Kenilworth Road from Villa Park after leaving Brighton.

The goal he scored at Barnsley that season must rank as the most fiercely hit shot ever seen by those lucky enough to witness it.

Stood in silence

Rioch was standing ten yards outside the penalty area when the ball was headed out by a defender following a corner. He hit the ball with such power that even his own team-mates stood in silence for what seemed like minutes before the partisan Yorkshire crowd erupted.

Bids for the player came from such diverse clubs as Glasgow Rangers and Ipswich but Allan Brown resisted all offers and 1968-69 saw a sparkling start with Brian Lewis and Rioch immediately among the goals. The first of Rioch's knee operations had to be carried out mid-season which meant a few games missed, but by the end of that campaign he had raised a good head of steam again and finished strongly.

Tommy Docherty had noted Rioch's shooting prowess from his position as Rotherham manager early in season 1968-69, when the Town ran out 3-1 winners and, following his appointment as manager at Villa Park with money to spend, he slapped in an offer of £100,000 which was too good for the Town to turn down.

With this money, which was a Third Division record, Alec Stock bought such players as Malcolm MacDonald and Chris Nicholl – but that is another story.
