Kendall's top boss (again)

By Simon Veness

Howard Kendall can comfortably claim the Manager of the Year award this season.

Despite Everton's 3-1 setback at Liverpool last week, the Goodison men remain firm favourites for the championship.

And I am convinced Kendall will ensure his team picks up the seven points they need from their final four matches to lift the game's biggest prize for the second time in three years.

Over the last month, the Everton boss has underlined the sound thinking of nine months' hard work by coaxing his team into their best form of the season at the most crucial time. He has spent a lot of money, made some big-name signings, and ridden a crippling injury list that at one time seemed sure to ruin their challenge.

Now, with the final hurdle in sight, it is clear he has groomed his Goodison thoroughbreds with expert timing.

Just two months ago, Everton went down 2-1 at Watford and looked a disjointed, lacklustre unit.

All the hard work they had put in since November, when they climbed from eighth to first with hardly a hiccup, seemed just so much wasted effort in the 42-game marathon.

Kendall had splashed out well over £1 million on Ian Snodin and Wayne Clarke, to add to his expenditure on Dave Watson and Paul Power at the beginning of the season, and there was no sign of a pay-off.

But, when it really mattered, the blend was right and the results immediately followed.

Seven straight victories, conceding only two goals, saw them stride into a different gear to their Mersey rivals Liverpool and move imperiously back to the top of the table.

There can now be little doubt that Kendall knew what he was doing all along.

And the lesson for the rest of the Division is quite a sobering one. At the moment there is no one to touch the power and consistency of Everton, and when they have the talents of Sheedy, Reid, Sharp, Bracewell, Snodin and Van Den Hauwe available for the full season, they are going to take a lot of stopping.

Liverpool have also had their share of injuries, but for once the Anfield giants have failed to cope fully, and at times during this campaign they have looked a shadow of their great sides of the recent past.

Boss Kenny Dalglish has slipped out of the Manager of the Year reckoning, despite taking his men to Wembley, by displaying a remarkable lack of composure at key intervals, remarkable by Liverpool standards anyway.

A couple of well-publicised disagreements over results have served to show there is a weakness in Dalglish's hitherto impenetrable and all-conquering armour.

Indeed, you have to look lower in the table for Kendall's real challengers in the managerial stakes this term.

George Graham has proved himself in no uncertain terms at Arsenal, and if his team hadn't slipped in their last couple of months in the league, he would be a realistic co-favourite after collecting the Littlewoods Cup.

David Pleat has also emerged as a top flight manager of distinction after a less than convincing start at White Hart Lane.

Tottenham slipped down to the half way mark three times in 1986 before bursting into 1987 on a wave of real conviction and style.

Rightly, they are the purists' favourites for the FA Cup, and are probably only one player short of being genuine championship contenders.

PRAISE-WORTHY

Not bad for a manager who inherited a mid-table club which consistently failed to live up to its potential, and also gave England the revitalised talents of Chris Waddle, Gary Mabbutt and Clive Allen (Glenn Hoddle doesn't count — he has been playing brilliantly for the last three seasons.)

In fact, if comparative achievements were to be taken into account, the likes of Ken Brown, John Moore, Dave Bassett and George Curtis and John Sillett would all be in the queue for praise ahead of Dalglish this season.

All the others may have finished among the League also-rans, but the ways in which they have handled this season have been equally worthy of a place at the top.

Brown's Norwich have lost just seven league games, less than Everton, while Luton have continued to flourish under the low-profile Moore.

Wimbledon have confounded the critics by establishing themselves in the top flight (they were favourites for relegation back in August), and Coventry have been one of the major success stories under their managerial double act.

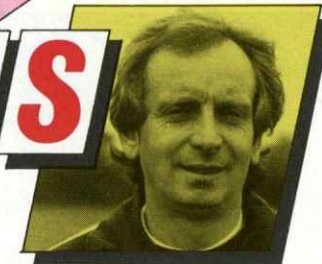

And don't think I'm being too hard on Dalglish.

Although nearly all the other clubs in the First Division would be happy to swap results with Liverpool this season, their relative success will not be seen as that by their fans.

It is a cliché, but the Kop have become complacent under the steady influx of trophies, and they will not view 1986/87 as a season to savour.

Indeed, you can expect some bitter recriminations in Merseyside pubs this summer if, as seems increasingly likely, Howard Kendall's Everton carry off the major prize.

MANAGERS' NOTES

The Today League programme this weekend brings to a climax most of the promotion and relegation issues, not least of which is our own fate.

The last two league games have brought us four valuable points and two respectable performances.

The home win over Aston Villa was accomplished with more comfort than I had anticipated and the draw with Southampton was well earned, coming back from 2-1 down with 10 men.

If we can win these last two home games and get a result at Newcastle on Monday I am sure we can avoid relegation, albeit by the play-offs.

Leicester have two away games and a difficult home local derby against Coventry City whilst Oxford United are away to Luton Town and finish up at home to Leicester on the last day of the season.

If Oxford win their home game today against Norwich City I think we will need to win our three remaining matches to avoid relegation and the play-offs, but if they falter it could mean two wins and a draw from us may be enough to get to the fifth from bottom spot and avoid prolonging our season.

Today we welcome the directors players and supporters of Luton Town Football Club to Selhurst Park for what will obviously be a hard match for us.

They have enjoyed a very successful season and I think congratulations are due to John Moore and his staff for guiding the club through a difficult and sticky period following their upheaval last summer.

The youth team did well last Tuesday evening in the first leg of the FA Youth Cup Final drawing 1-1 with Coventry City a hard working well organised side and hopefully we can just pip them in the second leg in 10 days time to win the trophy.

The success of the youth team and the strength of the first team squad augers well for the future and I believe this club is now better off for players at all levels than at any time in the last 20 years since the days of Mike Bailey, Billy Bonds, Lennie Glover, Vic Halom, Martin Hinton and Peter Reeves.

An essential part of all players development will be the chance to pit themselves against the best players in the land and that can only be achieved in the First Division.

We have come a long way in a short time and just three more steps are required to continue and maintain the club's progress.

Luton Town have probably the best team in their 102-year history and they aim to prove it by securing their highest-ever placing in the First Division.

They were well on course to beat the club record — eighth in 1957-58 — when they entered the run-in, holding fourth position and aiming for a top-six finish at least.

What makes their development all the more satisfying is that it has been achieved against the odds.

No doubt there were many people who thought it inevitable that Luton would decline from last season's ninth position following the departure of manager David Pleat, chief coach Trevor Hartley, physiotherapist John Sheridan and England Under-21 full back Mitchell Thomas.

The bookies were clearly thinking that way when they made The Hatters 50 to 1 outsiders for the championship. Yet the progressive Kenilworth Road club remained quietly confident in their ability to do well after re-structuring the management set-up last summer.

John Moore, a 43-year-old Scotsman who first joined Luton as a player in 1965, was promoted from the coaching staff and Ray Harford, manager of Fulham in the previous two years, was brought in as the assistant.

They indicated their faith in the established team from the outset. The loss of Thomas was covered from within the squad and they were able to get by without powerful goal-scorer Mick Harford for the first half of the season.

The only additions were two players from the Second Division — Robert Wilson (Millwall) and Darron McDonough (Oldham) — and the total investment was barely half of the £250,000 received from Thomas's move to Spurs.

Unfortunately, the political rumblings over Luton's membership scheme — and their eventual withdrawal from the Littlewoods Cup — tended to make more news than their talented team in the early weeks of the season.

But they were soon in the headlines for the best possible reasons, notably when Merseysider Mike Newell scored a hat-trick in the 4-1 demolition of Liverpool in October. The other main title challengers, Everton and Spurs, were also beaten at Kenilworth Road in the League, and Liverpool were disposed of again on a return trip in the FA Cup.

Luton's passing ability is well suited to their artificial surface and their home record is undoubtedly of championship-winning class. Indeed, they would have been an even bigger threat to the top clubs had they been able to turn some of their away draws into victories.

Injuries have tested the depth of the squad. Apart from losing Harford for nearly five months, they were without midfielder David Preece for much of the season and skipper Steve Foster from March onwards with a ruptured knee ligament.

England midfield man Ricky Hill, who received £53,000 from a testimonial match, was also absent for a couple of months with a knee injury.

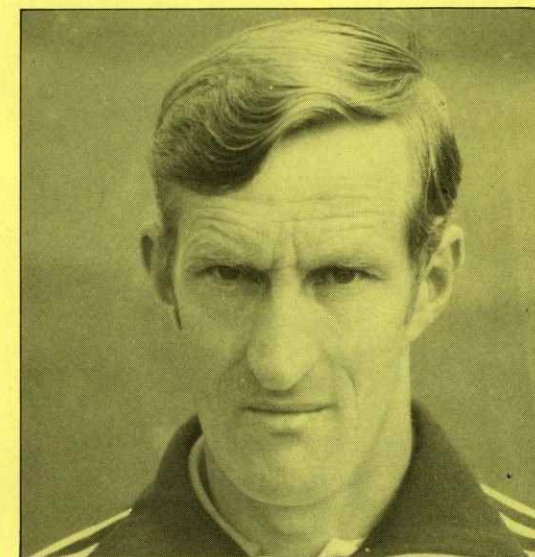

Eire international Ashley Grimes became a key figure, playing at full back or in midfield, while the newcomers, Wilson and McDonough, who was the subject of a transfer deadline bid by Manchester City, plugged gaps in midfield.

Rob Johnson, happily recovered from a series of knee operations, has pinned down a regular berth at full back, more often than not with England Under-21 cap Tim Breacker as his partner. Youth international Richard Harvey, aged 17, has filled in when necessary.

Les Sealey is the first-choice goalkeeper, having seen off the competition from Welshman Andy Dibble, who went on loan to Huddersfield, and Northern Ireland regular Mal Donaghy is a fixture in the middle of the defence.

Stacey North, a 22-year-old local discovery, took over the No. 5 shirt when Foster was injured, but midfield was back up to strength last month when a two-match suspension for Grimes made way for Preece's return alongside Hill and Welsh international Peter Nicholas.

With Harford fit again, Luton used him with Newell and former England player Brian Stein in a three-man strike force. Emeka Nwajiobi, Mark Stein and Marc North, who recently had a loan spell at Birmingham, have also featured in the attack.

YOUTH TEAM

LEVEL AFTER FIRST LEG OF CUP FINAL

Our youth team drew 1-1 against Coventry City at Selhurst Park on Tuesday in the first leg of the FA Youth Cup Final and the teams meet in the second leg at Highfield Road on Wednesday May 13 with everything to play for.

In an evenly contested match Coventry took the lead after 21 minutes when Craig Middleton ran from his own half of the field to score after a defensive mistake.

Steve Thurlow had a goal disallowed before Ronnie Mauge equalised for Charlton after 68 minutes scoring from close range after a good cross from Paul Bacon.

Both teams had chances to go into the second leg with a lead but the game ended all square.

Charlton's youth team coach Colin Clarke was pleased with the way the team battled after going a goal down but said the side could play better and improve on their teamwork.

"Coventry are a well organised side but I am confident of success in the second leg," he said.

Charlton's team was: Nat Amato; Paul Bacon, Scott Minto; Darren Pitcher, Geoffrey Thomas, Peter Evans, Paul Murray, Michael Bennett, Carl Leaburn, Ronnie Mauge, Steve Thurlow. Subs: Gordon Watson and Mark Tivey who replaced Thurlow after 82 minutes. Attendance: 833.

Ronnie Mauge scores our equaliser.

Peter Evans chips the ball forward.

Micky Bennett beats a Coventry defender as he advances from the wing.

PLAYERS' VIEWPOINT

I've grown up the hard way

says ROBERT LEE

When striker Robert Lee goes out to battle, it is easy to forget he is still very much a youngster in First Division terms.

Although he's been a regular for some three seasons, he only turned 21 in February.

This season has been another tough chapter in his soccer upbringing, but it's also been one he has enjoyed immensely.

Robert says: "I have found the First Division quite okay really. I don't think it is that much different from the Second, although there are a lot of better individuals at this level. I certainly haven't felt out of my depth."

"Mind you, the one thing I haven't really been able to do this season is score goals. I'm never going to be a 25-a-season man, but I should have had a few more than I've got."

"I feel I have been playing quite well, but I just haven't been able to put it into the net. I do feel that I haven't had the run of the ball, but then the whole team can say that, especially in front of goal."

EXTRA PRESSURE

"I don't think I've actually had so many chances to score at all. The two I had against Spurs over there were the first I'd had for weeks and to miss them both was a blow."

"I used to look back on individual chances and worry about them, but it doesn't help so I don't worry about it any more."

"I haven't felt any extra pressure. It has probably been there but I haven't felt it at all. I think the fans have been very good to me, but then again they always have."

"I think my game has still improved 100 per cent, though, and it is improving all the time."

"I was disappointed to miss out on the England Under-21 squad earlier in the season after playing against Yugoslavia as I felt I was playing really well."

"But then I got injured for several weeks, which proved a real set-back."

"It was the first time I'd had serious injuries and it was quite a blow to be out for six weeks."

"Then, at the Oxford game, I got another ankle injury which wasn't as bad, but it has been sore after games and during training."

"It is just a niggling injury that everybody plays with and has been another part of my education this season."

"I've also been able to get away from things a bit. I bought my first house in Hornchurch last season and have spent most of this season doing it up."

SPARE TIME

"It's a three-bedroomed end of terrace. How old? VERY old! Everything has been done to it."

"It has been re-roofed, new windows have been put in, plumbing, electrics, you name it, it has been done!"

"But then I wouldn't like to get a house and get straight into it, I would rather do what I have done. It takes a long time, but then with so many married men in the club, I've got a lot of spare time!"

"My family have given me a lot of help and it has been good fun."

"Now I want to make sure I keep having fun on the pitch as well by helping Charlton stay in the First Division — and scoring a few more goals."

OFF THE PARK

STEVE GRITT

Ever-reliable Steve Gritt hasn't been a regular in the first team this season, but he's had his hands full just the same.

With two young children and a house that still demands plenty of attention, his spare time off the park is rarely allowed to go to waste.

And like young Robert Lee (see Players Page), Steve is a fully paid up member of Charlton's D.I.Y. society.

He explains: "We moved to New Eltham in 1985, but I am still trying to do things to the house, and you've got to get it looking right."

"And a lot of the lads have come down from the north are either moving in or have just moved in, so there is quite a decorating club going on."

"At most First Division clubs, players probably discuss which night clubs to go to, at Charlton we pass on D.I.Y. tips!"

"Mind you, the wife has to get on and do a lot of it at the moment. There is so much sport on TV, I spend a lot of time in front of it!"

The children are also at the age when mum and dad are kept very busy, and Steve admits: "They are quite a handful."

"The little girl is nearly three, so she will be going to play group after the summer, while my little boy is one (just!), so it won't be long before he is kicking a ball round as well."

And is he hoping that son grows up to be like father?
"Well, I wouldn't push him into it but I certainly wouldn't discourage him. Football is a super profession and I would advise anyone to have a go at it."

"Mind you, at the moment I would also advise them to finish their education first. It is always a good idea to have something to fall back on."

And despite his comparative handful of appearances this term, it has been a thoroughly enjoyable experience for 29-year-old Steve on the park as well.

He says: "I like to think I have done fairly well, and I have really enjoyed every game I've played in, even the defeat at Nottingham Forest, because it has been something different."

"It is something I have never experienced before, so I was determined to enjoy every chance I got."

"Playing against better players obviously helps your own game, but it has always been my ambition to play at the Liverpool and Manchester Uniteds, and it should be every player's ambition to play in the First Division."

"I have been fortunate enough to play in all four divisions, (if you can call that fortunate!) and this is without doubt the best league to play in."

GREAT INVOLVEMENT

"The Manchester United game was obviously a tremendous day for everyone, but I also got a great thrill out of the Watford match here when I got my first goal in the First Division."

"Wembley was also great to be involved in. Once you have been there it goes so quickly you have to try to get back again so you can really savour it. Our day there just flew by."

"More importantly, I think we have shown we can compete with the best. Take the last few games at Arsenal and Tottenham; we should have got points at both of them."

"I was out for a long time this season, which was very frustrating watching the lads play well and get beaten, and I was itching for a chance to get back."

"But I am the sort of player that will go in and just try my best, which is all you can do."

"But I feel I have got to take it on from here now. I have had a lot of years of regular first team football and it is only in the last year or so I haven't played regularly."

"It has been frustrating because I know I can do a job and I have got to be looking for first team football at my age."

"But I will stick at it. My contract is up in the summer and I will be hoping for another chance to show what I can do."

Steve has been awarded a Testimonial by the club.

FREIGHT ROVER TROPHY FINAL

Have you applied for your FREE trip to Wembley on 24th May, for the Freight Rover Trophy Final? As previously outlined, this outing is completely free of charge to members of Junior Reds. Parents and other adults wishing to accompany children will need to pay a coach fare of £3 plus the cost of admission to the stadium. Adult supervision is to be provided for Junior Reds whose parents are unable to come along. Please make your intentions known to us as soon as possible so as we are able to finalise arrangements.

LONDON MARATHON

Sunday, 10th May, is the date of the London Marathon and Bob Petty, a member of our Committee, is running on behalf of Junior Reds. Naturally, we are organising vocal support along the route, as well as providing sponsorship forms to enable funds to be raised for Junior Reds. Those seeking sponsor forms and further information should contact Jackie Monahan this afternoon.

EASTER PARADE

Although only a small number of you entered the Supporters' Hat Competition on Easter Monday, it nevertheless provided a good measure of fun. Gemma Haycox was declared the winner, but all other entrants were awarded prizes. Our picture records the happy occasion with George Shipley and Nicky Johns.

"BOY IN THE LOGO" CONTEST

This contest was announced in the latest issue of Junior Reds News and your response, at least so far, has been somewhat disappointing. This lad is, of course, featured throughout all literature associated with our organisation (including this page) and we feel it is time that he is given the dignity of a name. Perhaps you can suggest one for him? Please send your ideas to Jackie Monahan, marking entries "Boy in the Logo Contest."

The best known face in Junior Reds: Can you give him an appropriate name?

FLASHBACK

CHARLTON ATHLETIC v LUTON TOWN

Since our thrilling 4-3 win over the Hatters in September 1976, courtesy of a Derek Hales hat-trick and a Bob Curtis penalty, our record against today's visitors has been pretty abysmal. We have managed a couple of goalless draws and been beaten in each of the other eight contests. This would seem to be a good time to reverse that trend!

Our complete League Record now reads:

	P	W	D	L	F	A	Pts
Home	23	11	6	6	42	33	28
Away	24	4	3	17	23	52	11
	47	15	9	23	65	85	39

As can be seen, our form at Kenilworth Road is particularly poor. How typical of Charlton, then, that our record away win should be one of those four victories. We were bottom of the Second Division when we travelled to Luton on 10th February 1962. It was no surprise when Gordon Turner gave the home side the lead with a crisp volley after twenty-three minutes. Two minutes later Charlton equalised when David Pacey launched himself at Brian Kinsey's cross, to send a powerful header past his own goalkeeper! Now came a telling contribution from Charlton inside-left, Dennis Edwards. He headed home Kinsey's accurate cross to give us the lead and scored again before half-time, burying the rebound after Ronnie White's shot had struck the bar. On the hour, Dennis completed a memorable hat-trick by finishing off Charlton's best move of the afternoon. Goal number five came from Stuart Leary who burst through a demoralised defence to unleash a furious shot past the unfortunate Baynham, and it was left to Brian Kinsey to complete the scoring with a clever goal shortly before the final whistle. Final score: Luton 1 Charlton 6.

Charlton: Duff, Sewell, Hewie, Tocknell, Hinton, Bailey, White, Matthews, Leary, Edwards, Kinsey.
Luton: Baynham, McNally, Bramwell, Groves, Cope, Pacey, Walden, Ashworth, Turner, McKechnie, Legate.
Attendance: 9,827.

Luton's manager at that time was none other than Sam Bartram and he described Charlton's performance as the best he had seen since he had left the club. The Hatters almost equalled that feat with a 5-1 win at The Valley in December 1975 and actually bettered it with a 7-1 scoreline at Luton in September 1977. Who'd be a goalkeeper?

CONTINUING THE HISTORY 1952/3

Two veterans of our 1947 Cup winning team, Peter Croker and Harold Phipps, joined Watford during the Summer. Our other departure was reserve goalkeeper Eric Gill who moved to Brighton. Jimmy Seed persisted with a policy of developing homegrown talent; our three new professionals, Morris, Banks and Bobby Ayre, had all been on the club's books as amateurs the previous season.

After losing the opening League match, 2-1 at Sunderland, Charlton were unbeaten in their next seven games, this run including a 4-3 win at Arsenal. Charlton took a 3-0 lead which was then surrendered before Gordon Hurst coolly slotted home the winner ten minutes from time. A fortnight later, we lost 8-4 at Blackpool, reserve goalkeeper Albert Uytendogaardt having a torrid time against Stanley Matthews and Co. It could have been worse though; Charlton were 8-1 down after sixty-five minutes and staged a mini-revival to reduced the deficit to four goals. In October Leslie Fell joined Crystal Palace for £3,000.

Billy Kiernan's performances on the left wing were attracting the attention of the International selectors as we continued our steady progress up the table. In November Eddie Firmani bagged a hat-trick in our 5-1 win over Stoke but despite our improved League showing, gates were down on 1951/2. In December terrace admission prices were reduced from 2/6d (12½p) to 2/- (10p) in an effort to bring back the fans. For the third year running, we lost in the Third Round of the FA Cup, this time to Hull City (3-1). In March there were two significant departures. Charlie Vaughan was transferred to Portsmouth for £11,350 and Chris Duffy left to enter the hotel trade in Northern Ireland. After our 2-1 win at Liverpool, we found ourselves second in the table with only Preston's superior goal average keeping us off the top spot. However, our poor showing over Easter, with just one point secured from three games, effectively ended our improbable Title challenge. Nevertheless, we still finished in fifth position, just five points behind League Champions Arsenal. This represented our best performance since finishing third in 1938/9 and was as much as we could hope for in view of the limited resources which Jimmy Seed had at his disposal. Skipper Benny Fenton and left-half Cyril Hammond were both ever-present and our leading scorer, with fourteen goals, was Billy Kiernan. Firmani, Hurst and Leary all reached double figures and our total of seventy-seven goals remains our best tally in Division One. John Hewie played for Scotland 'B' against England 'B' and would later play nineteen times for the full Scotland side to become our most capped player.

Despite this marked improvement in our League position, our average attendance of 25,298 was over 2,300 down on the previous season. Our biggest gate was against Arsenal (66,555) and our smallest was in our final home game of the season, a re-arranged Thursday evening match against Spurs (9,269).

OLD FRIENDS

There was quite a reunion at Southampton last week between players of both sides.

Saints 'keeper Jim Flowers was a Wolverhampton Wanderers player with John Humphrey and Jim Melrose.

Glenn Cockerill and Gordon Hobson were both Grimsby players along with Andy Peake and Hobson was previously at Lincoln with Steve Thompson.

Southampton's Andy Townsend is a former Welling United player and his father Don played for Charlton.

ST. JOHN AMBULANCE BRIGADE CENTENARY

A "Great Party" is being held in Hyde Park on June 20th to celebrate the St. John Ambulance Centenary, which is open to members of the general public. The Queen, Prince Philip and other members of the Royal Family will be in attendance. Many displays will be on show including a Charlton Athletic montage, a Charlton player will also be in attendance. A five-a-side knock-out competition will take place with a team from the Charlton area taking part in the Charlton Athletic strip.

We are grateful for the invaluable support that the St. John Ambulance give to all sporting events especially Charlton Athletic matches and urge all football supporters to attend. Further details from Tom Gibson on 01-764 6560.

EASTER EGGS

Easter Eggs were distributed by a group of clowns to young supporters who attended our last home game with Aston Villa.

CHEQUE PRESENTATION

As reported in our last magazine the Sports Quiz held at The Valley Club between the Charlton players and the 17th Training Regiment of the Royal Artillery proved highly enjoyable and was also very successful in terms of fund raising.

The photograph shows Karen Shipley (wife of our midfield player George) receiving a cheque from Steve Thompson on behalf of the Junior Reds.

The Junior Reds funds will benefit to the tune of £135 with a similar sum going to Red Rose Home for Mentally and Physically Handicapped. Two identical figures have been donated to Army Charities.

Sponsors for the quiz were Sealink, Morphy Richards, Broadway Boulevard and Charlton Athletic.
