RAY'S REVIEW

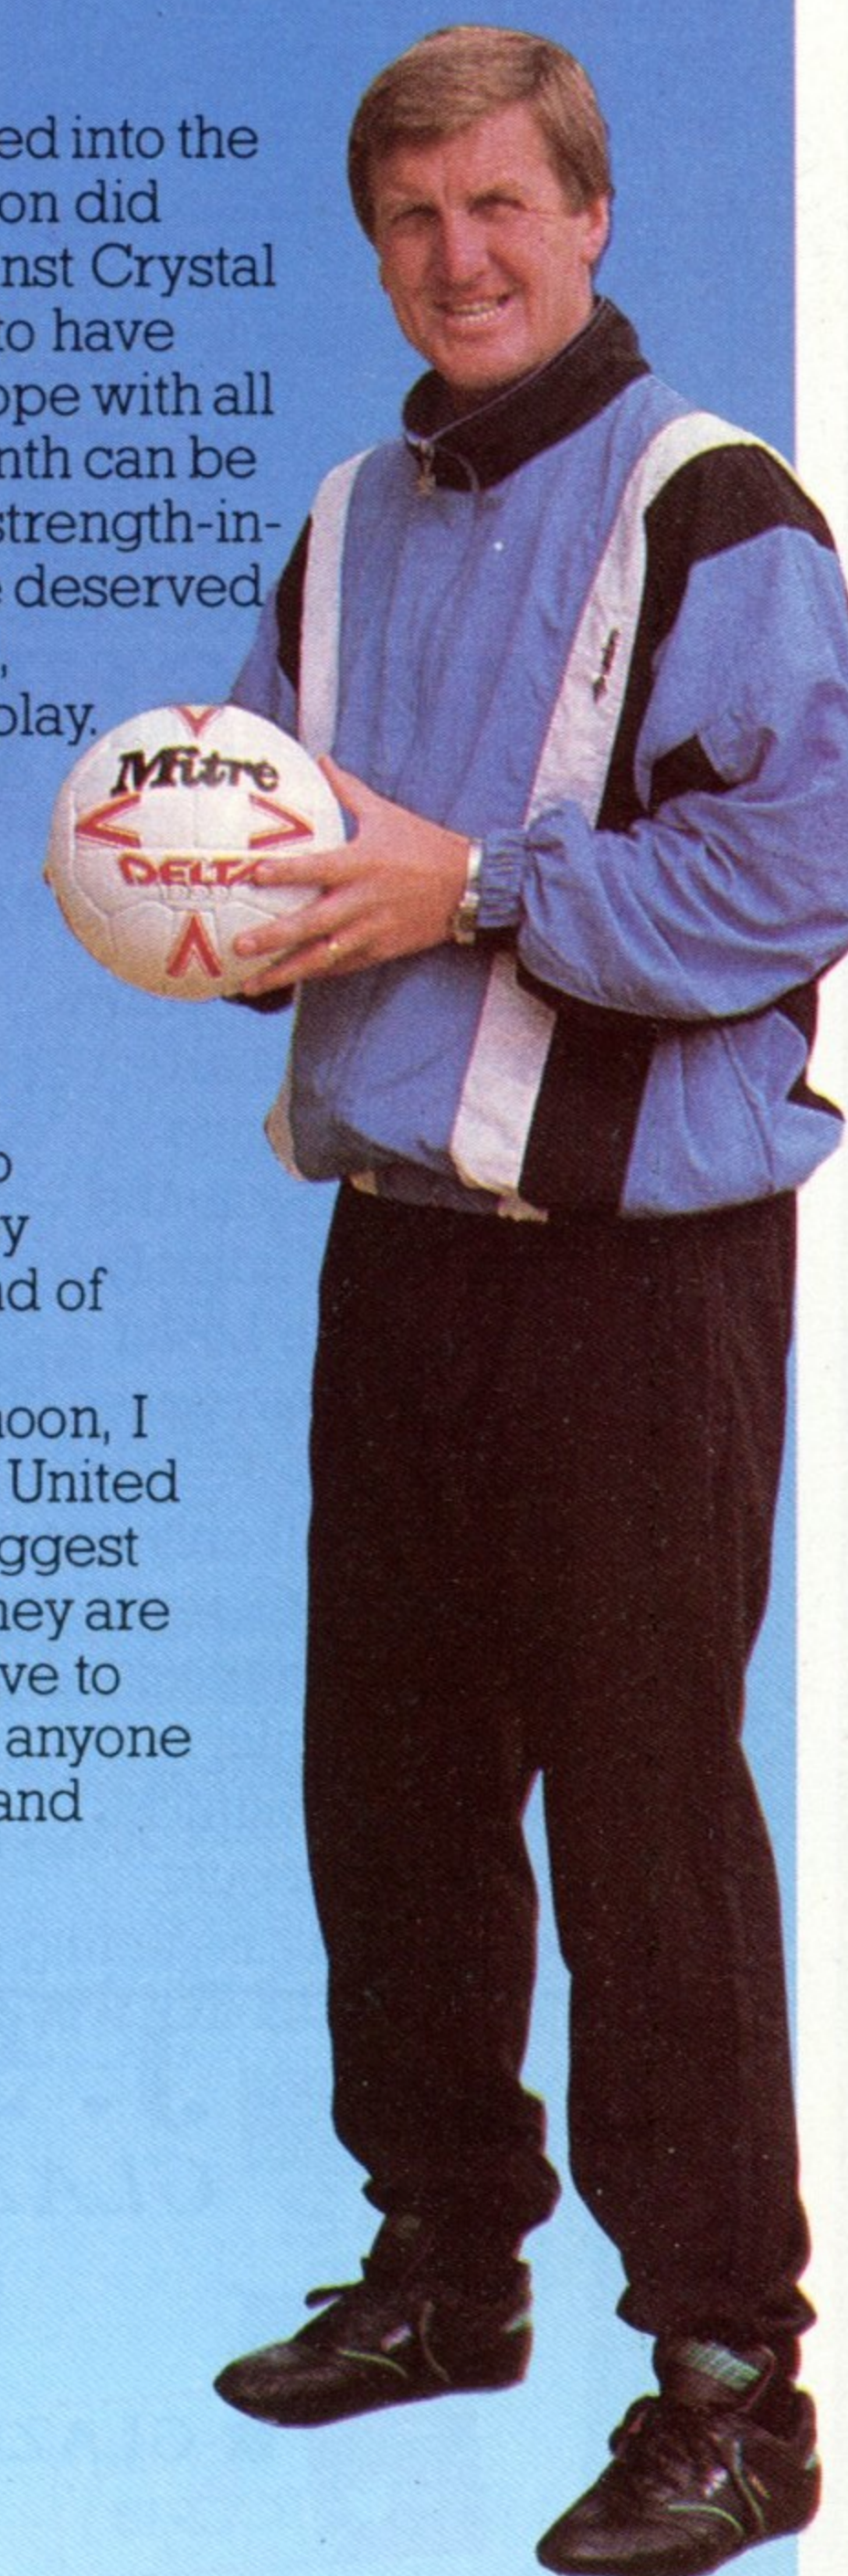

There are plenty of cliches in football about it being a cruel game and so on, but none can go far enough to explain the injury problems which are currently affecting our central defensive players. After losing Darron McDonough and Graham Rodger with their shoulder and ankle problems, bad luck struck again last week at Selhurst Park and David Beaumont, who did such a good job in our home match with Derby two weeks ago, limped off with ankle ligament damage. He is likely to be out for at least two or three weeks and, at the time of writing, it looks as if we might need to find experienced reinforcements to keep up our strength for the next month or so.

Both John Dreyer, when he was drafted into the middle last week, and Marvin Johnson did brilliantly to help us get a draw against Crystal Palace. But in this league you need to have strength in reserve and in depth to cope with all the games at the top level - and a month can be a long time to survive with an under-strength-in-numbers squad. Having said that, we deserved our point at Selhurst Park for a good, determined and organised team display. Everyone did a good job and we have now given ourselves a bit of a platform to build on in the last four games.

Both Mick Harford and Darron have undergone operations in the last two weeks to clear their injuries and they should be back in training by the end of the year to add their strength and experience to the squad. This afternoon, I am pleased to welcome Manchester United to Kenilworth Road. As one of the biggest and best-known clubs in the game, they are always expected to succeed. We have to prove that we are capable of beating anyone by concentrating on our own game and keeping our good run going.

Enjoy the game

Puncture Problems

Dear Sir
Through this programme, we would like to apologise to those members of our Travel Club for the unfortunate inconvenience caused by a tyre puncture en route to the Littlewoods Cup tie at Everton. Many fans missed a large percentage of the game.

We are at present looking into the incident to hopefully find a suitable solution that will go some way to helping those members. May we also thank those members for their patience shown in this matter as reported back by our official stewards on board.

Yours sincerely

Delightful Dowie

Dear Sir
What a delight to see Iain Dowie in such sparkling form against Derby and what a first goal. In the days of huge transfer fees it is nice to see players still coming through from the lower leagues. If we remember a few years back Peter Anderson came to us via Hendon and we all remember him and more recently Brian Stein who came from Edgware - and who will ever forget him! If Iain becomes as good as these two were, what a bargain he will have been.

Yours faithfully

LUTON TOWN SUPPORTERS CLUB

Dear Fellow Supporter

As our membership grows, now nearly 800, we are delighted to announce another reason to join the Supporters Club, namely a 5% discount in the Luton Town shops for purchases of souvenirs.

This discount will only apply if you produce a current Supporters Club membership card. Sincere thanks to Bev Tyler and Bill Tomlins for arranging the discount.

Our Social Diary is getting like the M25 during the rush hour! The first date to note is Thursday 23 November when Luton Town's Ron Howard is our guest speaker. We are sure that Ron, like Ray Harford and Terry Mancini, will provide an interesting insight into life behind the scenes.

On the 4th December, Danny Wilson and Roy Wegerle will swop the pressures of First Division football for the spotlight of our guest speakers chairs. We look forward to hearing from two of the Towns favourite players. Tickets for both events can be purchased after today's game at our box behind the Main Stand.

Finally, a warm welcome to Mal Donaghy on his first competitive return to Kenilworth Road. Enjoy your day Mal, but don't forget to leave the points with us.

WE'VE ALSO MADE SOME CHANGES TO OUR LINE UP THIS SEASON

Kenilworth Road isn't the only place you can see a new line up this afternoon.

Just down the road in the Arndale Centre, and in our showrooms throughout the U.K., you can see the new additions to our own squad.

The Cameo Collection is making its home debut in what is undoubtedly the most attractive and unbeatable line-up in fitted bedroom furniture in the U.K.

And if that weren't enough you'll find that like Luton Town, we too have proved that you don't need to break the bank to put together a winning combination.

JUNIOR HATTER IS OUR 20,000TH MEMBER

Junior Hatter David Riddell brought our list of members up to the 20,000 mark this season when he was presented with his membership card by his favourite player Danny Wilson.

Eight-year-old David said he chose Danny because he was the captain and "I want to be a captain too." He became hooked on the Hatters after going to matches with his family.

FREE PARK AND RIDE FOR ALL OUR MEMBERS

I am delighted today to announce details of an exciting free park and ride scheme, sponsored by the Herald and Post, which will come into operation at our next home Barclays League Division One fixture against Tottenham on December 2.

This tremendous new project is another great offer to our members who were recently offered half-price travel every Saturday on Luton and District Transport buses.

The scheme will operate on a trial scheme for the following six Saturdays when we are at home in the Barclays League Division One December 2 - Tottenham, December 30 - Chelsea, January 20 - Q.P.R., February 10 - Coventry, February 24 - Southampton and March 17 - Manchester City.

Directions to the park and ride car park will be signposted for all traffic approaching Luton from the M1 (junction 10), A1081 (Harpenden/St Albans), B653 (Wheathampstead), A6 (Bedford) and A505 (Hitchin and North Herts).

Members will be able to park their cars at the I.B.C. Vehicles Car Park at the junction of the Kimpton Road and Airport Way roundabout from 1.30pm onwards on match days.

A fleet of Luton and District buses will provide a shuttle service to Kenilworth Road stadium and the drop-off point at the junction of Hazelbury Crescent and Kenilworth Road.

Buses will be waiting to provide the return journey to the car park from Kenilworth Road after the match. A steward will be on duty at the car park, but the club cannot accept any liability for the vehicles parked there.

The shuttle bus times are:

From the car park -
13.40, 13.55, 14.15, 14.30.

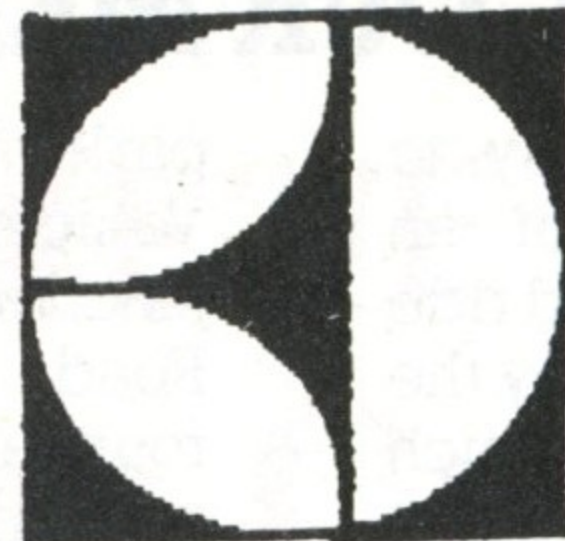

From the stadium -
immediately after the match (last bus 16.55).

I am sure you will join me in thanking the managing director of the Herald and Post, Enzo Testa, for his support. We are also indebted to I.B.C. Vehicles for allowing us the use of their premises for this scheme.

Brian Cole, Chairman

● A winning combination: The Herald and Post has teamed up with the club to sponsor a free park and ride scheme for all our members.

IRISH CONNECTIONS A STRONG FEATURE HERE THIS AFTERNOON

BOOMING BUSINESS

• Busy Bev: Our Sports Shop in Oak Road has been very busy with Xmas orders including some for 23 items and nine from Norway and Finland.

A warm welcome to Manchester United and, our very popular former player Mal Donaghy. United have always had a strong association with Northern Ireland and Ireland players and it was interesting to note last weekend that one of their former players Kevin Moran was selected by the Irish F.A. as their player of the year.

We too have very well-established links with Ireland and have enjoyed the services of many fine Irish players and last weekend, at the same event in Dublin, one of our youth players David Gormley was one of three nominees for their under-17 player award.

Our chief scout Ron Howard flew to Dublin for the event where he was welcomed by Jack Charlton and the Irish officials who were delighted to see him. He was the only English club representative there. The award went to Leonard Curtis of Leeds. John Bacon of Arsenal was the other nominee.

Ron, unfortunately, had to absent himself from refereeing duties at Kenilworth Road last Sunday for our regular staff match against the commentators. One of our current Northern Ireland men Danny Wilson stepped in with the whistle...but the commentators still gained revenge for their previous defeat by winning 4-1.

As you will have read, we enrolled our 20,000th member of the club this week since opening for membership on May 15. With so many members, it was clearly sensible to give them first option of tickets for today's very attractive fixture and this is why there is a no guests ruling operating this afternoon.

Our policy of looking after our members in every way has also included providing free entry to our reserve fixtures and the numbers now watching Jim Ryan's team in action average 500 to 600 for each match.

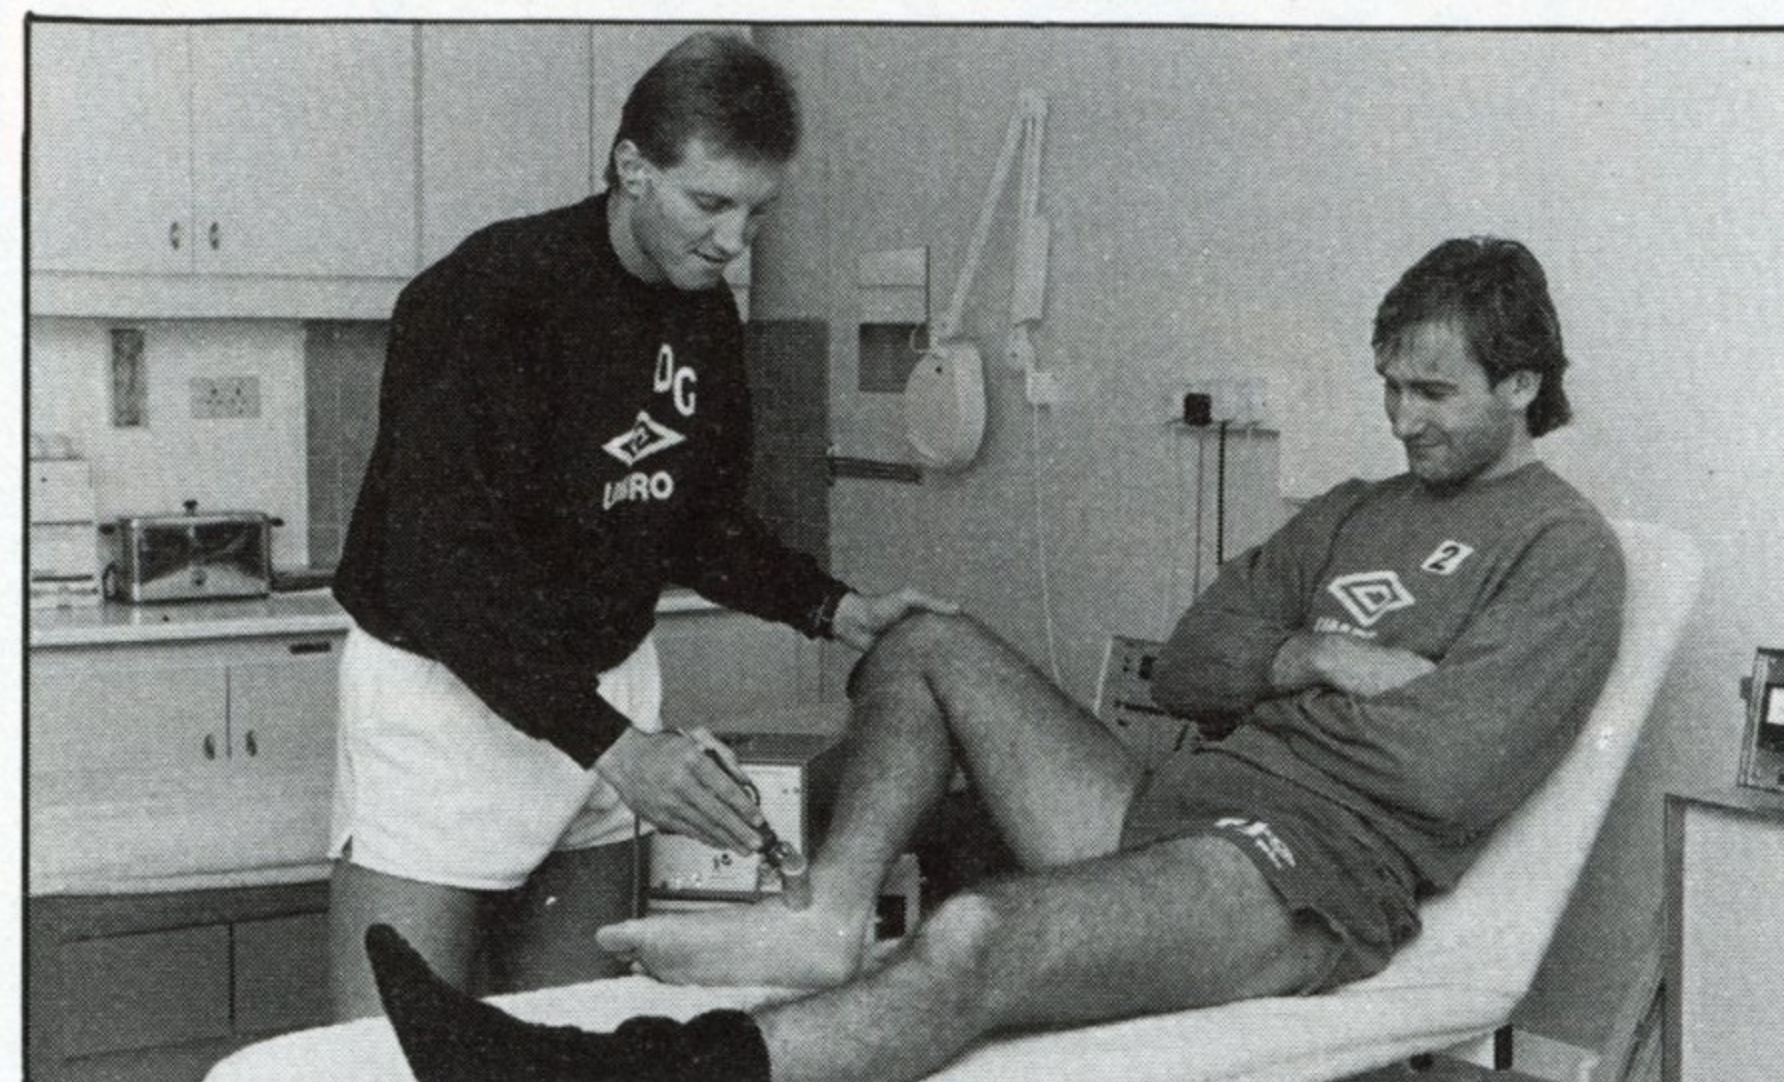

Even in the cold and fog on Tuesday, more than 400 turned out to see our young team beat Stotfold 5-0 in the Bedfordshire Premier Cup first round replay and clinch a second round tie against Vauxhall Motors to be played at the Brache at 7.30pm on the 22nd December.

Cup ties

That fixture is one of several cup clashes coming up at all levels of the club with the youth team due to meet Arsenal here in the Southern Junior Floodlit Cup, on a date to be confirmed, and at Highbury in the F.A. Youth Cup on Tuesday, November 28.

Our senior side, of course, won through to the second round of the Zenith Data Cup and a visit to Crystal Palace on Monday the 27th by winning at Oxford last week where it was nice to see to meet so many old friends again.

• Well done Lars: It was cheers all round for our Danish international striker Lars Elstrup last week when he donated his reward for hitting a Littlewoods Cup hat-trick to cancer research. Lars is pictured with Littlewoods Store manager David Robinson and Betty Willett of Cancer Research.

• Busy man: Our physio Dave Galley has been kept in action recently by injuries to Darron McDonough, Mick Harford, David Beaumont and (pictured) Graham Rodger.

CAPTAIN'S DIARY

FOOTSORE TERRY

We all enjoyed a good laugh last week when we travelled to Oxford for the Zenith Data Cup tie. Assistant manager Terry Mancini was at his most elegant in a natty suit and looked very dapper, except for one little detail - he had no shoes.

Poor Terry had forgotten them and so he arrived at the Manor looking great from the ankles up with a pair of white training shoes on his feet... it was impossible to keep a straight face during the team talk and we all burst out laughing.

Sleepless Night

I must say I felt a lot better than I did before our previous home match when I had spent the Friday night with my son Laurie at the Luton and Dunstable hospital.

Everyone was fantastic there and it was marvellous to know he did not have meningitis after all the tests.

He had a viral infection on his chest and it was very nasty, but he is much better now. Thanks to everyone who wrote in and phoned to wish him well. The support we had was really great and Karen and I are grateful to everyone.

Today we face Manchester United. Let's hear plenty of vocal support again. Thank-you.

RAMS SKINNED BY DOWIE HEADER

Luton Town 1 Derby County 0

Iain Dowie earned the headlines and the glory here two weeks ago when he scored a spectacular first goal in the Barclays League Division One with a brilliant header against Derby County on November 4. It was the 24-year-old striker's first senior goal for the Town and was one he well-deserved for his skill and energy throughout a fascinating 90-minute duel with former England centre-half Mark Wright.

The goal came three minutes after the interval when Danny Wilson swept a long crossfield pass out to Kingsley Black on the left wing. Our Northern Ireland international forward made the most of the time and space he had by crossing accurately to the far post and Dowie, who also recently enjoyed a call up to Billy Bingham's World Cup squad, met the ball with a perfectly-timed jump and header beyond Shilton.

Dowie has also had the ball net after 17 minutes, but that effort – a powerful shot from close range past the England goalkeeper – was disallowed because of an infringement. Derby, attractive in midfield but rarely a threat, kept the game on the boil right to the whistle and Marvin Johnson, making an assured return at centre-half, had to show his pace on several occasions to ensure all three points were retained.

Teams: Luton Town – Chamberlain, Breacker, Dreyer, Wilson, Johnson, Beaumont, Williams, Dowie, Elstrup, Kennedy, Black (Preece 71).
Derby County – Shilton, Sage, Forsyth, Williams, Wright, Blades, McMin, Saunders, Goddard, Hebberd, Micklewhite.

Referee: N. Midgeley (Bolton).

Attendance: 8,919

KINGSLEY BLACK

KINGSLEY BLACK FACT FILE

Born: Luton 22.6.68
 First club: Luton Town.
 Previous team: St Josephs.
 Joined Luton Town: July, 1986
 Luton Town league debut: QPR v Luton Town
 27.9.87 (0-2)
 International caps: 8 for Northern Ireland

Aiming for goals

"It has not been easy because I played quite well in that game and set myself a standard. Everyone seems to expect me to play like that every time I play and it is not always possible," said Kingsley Black as he reflected this week on the progress he has made since playing a starring role in our 3-2 Littlewoods Cup final win over Arsenal in 1988.

"Everyone told me it would take a while to adapt to playing in the First Division every week and it has been true. Last year, it was not always easy at all, but the manager stuck by me and now I feel better for it. I have developed as a player and I am still working on my own game of course.

"I now see myself as more of a wide midfield player than a winger and I have experience of playing up front and on both flanks this season so my game has been developed. It is all good experience for me. I like to get involved in the game and to try and get in the box and score goals.

"Last season I managed to score 10 goals I think, so this year I shall be looking to exceed that. I suppose I am aiming for about 15 this time although I don't really think about targets like that.

"Playing on the right has been a good thing for me because it has given me a chance to do different things. I can gain a yard to cross the ball with my left foot. So many teams prefer to make you go inside now and on the right that means I am going in to use my natural foot and it is quite easy to get a cross in."

This afternoon, Kingsley may find himself up against an old friend and former colleague in Mal Donaghy, one of his team-mates when he is away on international duty with Northern Ireland. "Mal was always a great example to everyone when he was here and we all have great respect for him," said Kingsley. "He knew how to conduct himself. He was always a great example for me."

One of the features of Kingsley's game which has come to the fore recently has been his shooting. It is something he admits he enjoys. "I always like to have a shot if I can especially on our plastic pitch because it can skim along and you always have a chance. I think it is always worth a chance.

"Many people say we don't shoot as much as we used to in England and I think that is probably true. You just have to watch the Continentals. They always have a go and they score some spectacular goals. That is what I try to do."

CHRISTMAS PARTY ALL PLANNED

This afternoon we welcome Manchester United and our old friend Mal Donaghy back to Kenilworth Road. Mal, if he is playing, will be making his first return to Luton since he moved to United last year and I am sure he will be keen to do well.

He was with us for a long time and we all know him well. He was a guest at many Junior Hatters parties and would probably enjoy himself if he came along this year too!

We are going to hold the party this year at the Holy Ghost Church Hall in Westbourne Road, Luton, on Monday, December 11 from 7pm to 9pm.

There will be plenty going on with a disco and lots of different games. You can book up this afternoon if you go to the Sports Shop in Oak Road after the match. Please remember to bring your membership card with you and book early to avoid disappointment as we only have room for 200 children.

Last weekend, we put out a team of Junior Hatters against Crystal Palace Juniors and it was a really good day out. Everyone enjoyed it very much.

Our lucky Junior Hatters membership number today is 190407, Peter Jarvis, and he should contact Bev Tyler at the Sports Shop with his card for two free tickets to one of our next home matches.

The lucky number for this week's sports Bag sponsored by Spearman International, suppliers of quality promotional products, is 191671 - Douglas Gilbert. Congratulations to him and thank you for your support. Make plenty of noise and enjoy the game.

FROM THE BENCH

With John Faulkner, Jim Ryan and Terry Mancini

Spectators at Kenilworth Road last Saturday were able to enjoy two matches involving Town teams on a day of full value entertainment with the youth team trouncing Bournemouth 3-0 and the reserves being held 1-1 later by an experienced West Ham team in the Football Combination.

Jim Ryan, our reserve team manager, was realistic in his appraisal of his side's performance. He reported: "We might have been a couple of goals down before they scored and then we got to grips with the game in the final minutes of the first half."

"We were much better from a competitive point of view in the second half and had nearly all the play but we were unable to make many chances."

A well-taken goal from Richard Cooke earned the reserves a point which keeps them in a mid-table position in the Ovenden Papers Football Combination.

John Faulkner was more pleased with his youth team's performance at home to Bournemouth. He said: "Once we scored we never looked like losing and although Bournemouth passed the ball well they were never a threat. We scored all our goals in a quick period in the second half."

The team have been less fortunate off the pitch in the cup draws this season. In the FA Youth Cup, they have been drawn to meet Arsenal at Highbury in a match due to take place on Tuesday, November 28. The away tie is a repeat of our meeting with them last season in the same competition.

In the Southern Junior Floodlit Cup, we also face Arsenal. The fixture is provisionally scheduled to take place at Kenilworth Road on Tuesday, December 12, kick-off 7pm.

MEMORIES OF A CRAFTY CENTRE-FORWARD

by Tim Collings

"I looked round for potential trouble and my eyes fell on this fellow, 10 stone wet through, older than the others. He had been around, including a previous spell at the club. Matt Tees. Watch him? I could hardly take my eyes off him!"

"In training, he could hardly stand up, he didn't look strong enough. In his first game, he scored a hat-trick. He finished the season with 27 goals. A revelation, a marvel – a character the crowd loved and he repaid them in full..."

The writer? Lawrie McMenemy, former manager of Grimsby Town and Southampton, as quoted in a special project sent in to Kenilworth Road by the pupils of the St Thomas Primary School in Boston. Like McMenemy and a host of managers and fans before, they had become bewitched by former Hatter Tees.

To younger fans, Tees will be an unfamiliar name, but to older supporters there will be instant recall of his aerial skills, his experience and his nurturing of the special raw strength and talent of a young striker called Malcolm Macdonald.

Tees was an old-fashioned centre-forward in an age of change and he did his stuff up the middle in the Town team of 1969-70 while Macdonald foraged alongside him, learning the ropes and terrifying goalkeepers with his speed and his power.

Tees made 33 appearances and scored 13 goals but his craft and knowledge, particularly in how to take defenders away and create space, helped create the legend of SuperMac as the Hatters shot to promotion. It was a stirring campaign with plenty of entertaining football from a forward line that also included Graham French, John Collins, spiderman Keith Allen and, late in the campaign, a young Viv Busby.

Tees was born in Johnstone in Scotland in 1939, did not play football as a boy, began work in a factory at 15 and broke into the game by playing at lunchtimes and being spotted by Penilee Athletic. They were a local team and from there he progressed to semi-professional Cambuslang Rangers (yes, they really existed), Airdrie, Grimsby, Charlton, Luton, back to Grimsby, and, finally, Boston United.

He joined Boston in 1973, by which time he was also working as a fork-lift driver, and only stayed for a season before retiring altogether. He now plays occasional friendly games, coaches his son's youth team, works for a shipping firm and lives in Cleethorpes.

Of his professional days, he has fond memories. Of Luton and Macdonald, he recalled: "He was a bit special. He has speed and strength. Every Friday morning after training, he'd race another fast young player for a bet."

"They'd go the length of the pitch. You'd see this other lad take the lead over the first 15 or 20 yards. Then the power of Macdonald would take over and before they'd reached the end of the pitch he would have overtaken the other lad."

His obvious appreciation of Macdonald's strengths always shone through on the pitch too where Tees' sheer professionalism helped Luton to promotion and a famous centre-forward learned his craft.

CLOSED CIRCUIT TELEVISION

The first televised football match, 1937

Now every Football League ground is equipped with television cameras.

The Football Trust has installed Closed Circuit Television systems at more than 110 British grounds. The cameras have a range of 150 metres and immediate close-up prints can be produced. Within minutes of an incident offenders can be identified and arrested with film made available as evidence in court. CCTV is the most effective anti-hooligan measure inside football grounds and the programme has been extended to include portable systems.

CCTV is only one of The Football Trust's many initiatives. Each year it receives over £9.5 million from the Spotting-the-Ball competition run by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zettors and spends it on projects that benefit all levels of the game throughout the United Kingdom.

•Textbook example: Tim Breacker is perfectly balanced with his eyes on the ball as he delivers a centre against Derby during our last home match two weeks ago.

OFF THE RECORD

SATISFYING END TO 48-YEAR WAIT!

Getting to the F.A. Cup semi-final in 1984/85 should have been one of the greatest days in the clubs history but the worrying league position and probable relegation cast a shadow over the proceedings, writes club statistician Roger Wash.

The cup run had hindered league performances as only eleven games had been played since Christmas and with the constant switching of the side to accomodate "cup-tied" David Preece and Peter Nicholas no settled formation could be fielded.

We travelled to Villa Park for the semi-final heartened by a 4-0 win at bottom placed Stoke the previous Saturday which lifted us out of the bottom three for the first time since Boxing Day but after our narrow defeat by Everton we found ourselves, by dint of not playing a league game back among the "dead men".

The chance to "concentrate on the league" came quickly enough with fellow strugglers Norwich the visitors to Kenilworth Road only three days after the semi-final. Cup hangover signs were still visible, however, when Mick Channon scored for the visitors after 14 minutes, a lead they held until half-time.

The second half was a different story with Meka Nwajobi heading the Town's equaliser from a David Moss cross on 53 minutes. Moss himself scored the second from the spot twenty minutes later with Nwajobi completing a well earned win with a superb run and shot in the final minute.

The stage was not set for a tilt at one end of our biggest bogey sides, Manchester United, who were the visitors the following Sunday for a televised

IT HAPPENED 15 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK ...

16th November 1974

The town lost 4-2 to high flying Stoke City at the Victoria Ground before a crowd of 20,646. The game marked the debut of Peter Spiring - signed from Liverpool the previous week - and the last but one Town appearance of Alan Garner, a goalscorer that day.

IT HAPPENED 30 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK ...

14th November 1959

George Cummins scored the goal that saw off Tottenham at Kenilworth Road in a Division One clash.

This was only the Towns second home win of the season and the first victory for two months.

game. We were not particularly looking forward to the clash as our last, and only, win against United at Kenilworth Road was way back in 1937 and with the previous seasons 5-0 televised thumping still clear in the memory who could blame us.

We were pleasantly surprised when the Town took the game to United and it was only heroics by Gary Bailey that kept the state of play goal-less at half time.

The breakthrough came after 68 minutes when Bailey body-checked Brian Stein who had taken advantage of a poor back-pass and Mick Harford stroked home the resulting penalty.

The lead lasted only 3 minutes before Norman Whiteside equalised following a goalmouth scramble and with the seconds ticking away United seemed fairly satisfied with a draw.

In the final minute David Preece was fouled just outside the area and from the free-kick Steve Foster hit a terrific shot that cannoned off the crossbar. With half-a-dozen players waiting for the ball to drop Harford launched himself above friend and foe to glance a downward header in to the net to seal a memorable victory.

The win set us up for an end of season flourish which eventually saw us finish a safe 13th and perhaps wishing we had got to the Cup Final after all!

WELCOME TO... MANCHESTER UNITED

● This afternoon we are pleased to welcome Manchester United to Kenilworth Road. Last Sunday they won their televised clash with Nottingham Forest 1-0, thanks to a goal from Gary Pallister, and they are currently 11th in the First Division.

● Former Middlesbrough central defender Pallister, who cost United £2.3 million earlier this season, is the most expensive of several players who were bought for large fees by manager Alex Ferguson in the last six months.

● Mike Phelan (from Norwich), Paul Ince (from West Ham) and Danny Wallace (from Southampton) also cost very large sums during the club's search for a squad strong enough to end their long barren period without a major honour.

● The United team on duty at Old Trafford last Sunday was: Leighton, Blackmore, Martin, Bruce, Phelan, Pallister, Robson, Ince, McClair, Hughes, Wallace. The major absentee was long-term injury victim Neil Webb who ruptured his Achilles tendon on England duty in September.

● United's season to date has been dominated by the speculation over the future of the club following a board room upheaval which almost saw chairman Martin Edwards replaced. The deal eventually fell through.

● Managing Manchester United is an arduous and difficult job and current boss Alex Ferguson is the sixth man in the last 20 years to try and follow the successes of Sir Matt Busby.

● Since 1945, the managers of Manchester United have been: Matt Busby (to 1969), Wilf McGuinness (to 1970), Frank O'Farrell (to 1972), Tommy Docherty (1972-77), Dave Sexton (1977-81), Ron Atkinson (1981-86) and Alex Ferguson.

● Manchester United was founded in 1878 when employees of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway Company formed Newton Heath Cricket and Football Club. Newton Heath, after winning the Manchester Cup in 1886 and joining the Second Division in 1892, went bankrupt in 1902 when the modern United was formed.

● United's greatest honour is that in 1968, at Wembley, they became the first English club to win the European Cup. They beat Benfica 4-1 at Wembley after extra time with Bobby Charlton scoring twice and George Best and Brian Kidd once each.

● They have also won the First Division championship seven times, the last being in 1967, and the FA Cup six times. Their last FA Cup win was in 1985. Last season, they finished 11th in the First Division. Mark Hughes was their top scorer with 14 of their 45 league goals.
