RYAN'S

REFLECTIONS

Our defeat at Charlton on Monday was disappointing and we have no excuses. We did not play well and we knew it. Defeats happen, however, and we have to accept that from time to time. I knew that when I took the job. After winning at Wimbledon the previous week, however, I know we went to Charlton to try and do the same. We wanted another win. Not a draw. Our problem was that we did not impose our game on the night. But, it was not, as reported elsewhere, the end of a mini-revival, more perhaps the end of the beginning of a complete revival.

When we looked at the fixtures I have to say we would have been happy with at least two points from the two trips to London. So, from that point of view, it has been good to collect three. Now, we have to forget that defeat and concentrate on getting our own game back into order and sorted out. We failed to do that at Charlton, but we will try to do so today against our visitors from Southampton and their manager Chris Nicholl.

By my recollection, today will be the first time I have crossed paths at this level with Chris since we were both players. We played together here of course and I remember assisting him in some of the finer points of golf in those days! We have played against each other since then, when he moved on to Aston Villa, and I shall obviously be hoping to enjoy a home win against him this time.

On the injury and news fronts, I am pleased to say Darron McDonough is progressing well and playing with greater confidence in his shoulder all the time. He is nearly there, but David Beaumont went to see a specialist this week after a setback in training and Graham Rodger is still on crutches after his operation. For them both it is very disappointing. We have had Ronny Rosenthal, an Israeli international striker, on trial from Standard Liege of Belgium and he scored twice for the reserves last Saturday. An interesting prospect. Give the players your support today. Thank-you.

Well done Jim!

Dear Sir

Although these are early days, I would like to congratulate Jim Ryan and "the lads" on tackling the difficult job ahead with a very positive attitude. It is so good for spectators to see the team revert to a "Ball-to-feet" policy as the "long-ball" game was becoming all too predictable in our attempts to win games.

The emergence of Julian James as a "class" defender is an added bonus to "The Town" - another "Paul Futcher" I would say!

When Dave Beaumont returns to fitness, I can see young Julian and the Scotsman providing the "back-bone" to a solid looking Luton defence. Like many people this season, I have been particularly impressed with John Dreyer's contributions to the team but I've always preferred the ex-Oxford man at left back for "The Town". In this position "Tumble" can get forward more and his ability to "pop-up" on the "blind side" to score some important goals can be utilised to the full.

When Darron McDonough is ready for a first team recall, I would like to see "Supermac" as the "anchor-man" and ball winner in midfield. His "shoot-on-Sight" policy is also bound to be vital in our quest to score goals and to pull away from the "danger-zone".

I hope more than anything that the club can hold on to Kingsley Black - at least until the end of the season. His determination and dedication to the club is evident and has one of the local lads playing for his "home-town" club, is delightful to see.

Finally, I hope the fans give Danny Wilson and "the lads" their full backing as only Unity and 100% effort will pull the clubs fortunes round again.

Many thanks

Great success

Dear Sir

On behalf of the Milton Keynes Schools F.A. I would like to thank you, the manager and coaching staff, club officials, the players and everyone concerned from the club for their valuable contribution to the Milton Keynes Middle Schools 5-a-side tournament.

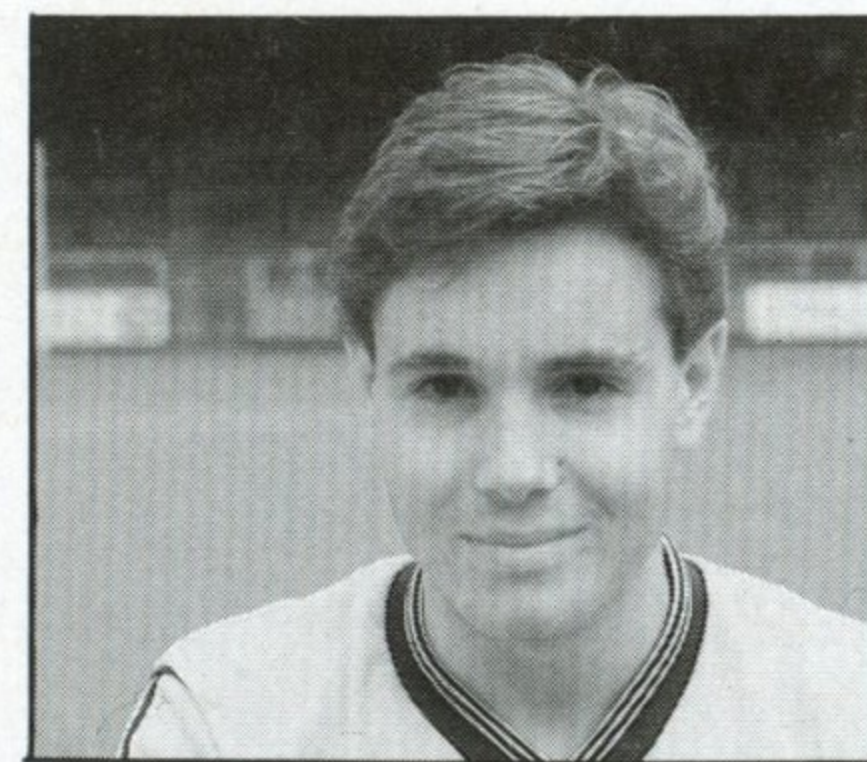

Having the players present was the icing on the cake. They gave a lot of pleasure to the boys and there was not a single person present who did not enjoy themselves.

The tournament was a tremendous success, a real family affair made possible by your kindness and support.

Please pass on grateful thanks to John Faulkner, Paul Lowe, Ron Howard, Les Shannon and of course the "players" for giving their time and support to the tournament.

Kind regards
Yours sincerely

Having attended the match, I can assure you that all who participated had a very enjoyable evening; the EastEnders/Grand Hill Football Team assured me that the best team won. Not being a football expert I would not like to comment!

WE'VE ALSO MADE SOME CHANGES TO OUR LINE UP THIS SEASON

Kenilworth Road isn't the only place you can see a new line up this afternoon.

Just down the road in the Arndale Centre, and in our showrooms throughout the U.K., you can see the new additions to our own squad.

The Cameo Collection is making its home debut in what is undoubtedly the most attractive and unbeatable line-up in fitted bedroom furniture in the U.K.

And if that weren't enough you'll find that like Luton Town, we too have proved that you don't need to break the bank to put together a winning combination.

THE TOWN

BREAK IN FIXTURES BRINGS SADNESS AND FIXTURE RIDDLES

Welcome to Southampton, our first visitors after a month-long spell without a Saturday fixture in the Barclays First Division. Despite the lack of senior matches, it has been a busy period and we have had some sad news with the passing of Cecil Holloway and Eddie Connelly.

Both men had special associations with the club, Cecil as a long-standing supporter and former president and Eddie as one of our favourite players during the late 1930's and 1940's when he played either side of the war.

The last month has also seen the publication of the Taylor report which will obviously have a great influence on the club. Clearly all the recommendations will have to be implemented in the future one way or the other.

One I would like to draw special attention to this afternoon, particularly for our Kenilworth End supporters, is recommendation 13 in the report relating to gangways. These should be kept clear and painted in a conspicuous colour as the public announcements and our stewards will help to explain today.

Both the lateral and vertical gangways on the terrace must be kept clear for good safety reasons and we are hoping for the full understanding, co-operation and support of our Kenilworth Road customers.

The unexpected break in fixtures gave our reserves a chance to overcome Dunstable and secure their place in the final of the Bedfordshire Premier Cup, against Arlesey, and the first team squad a chance to take a break at a Centrepark in East Anglia where there were ideal training and recreational facilities.

For me, the boot was on the other foot. After enjoying the excitement of our great cup runs and the fixture congestion they brought in the last two years, I have this season found myself trying to rearrange fixtures postponed by other clubs' cup commitments, replay arrangements and, in the case of Aston Villa, venue commitments.

all clear

If, for example, Coventry and Nottingham Forest require a replay of their Littlewoods Cup semi-final, it will be held at a neutral ground - Villa Park. This would not only mean our scheduled rearranged meeting with Coventry on March 7 would be off, but we could not meet Villa that week either.

All will be made clear on Monday, February 26, of course, when we shall know the result of that match and also know if we are playing Coventry on March 7, as now scheduled, or the following week on March 13.

AT THE DOUBLE

• Ronny Rosenthal made a two goal debut in Town colours last weekend in the reserves 3-0 win over Oxford. Ronny, an Israeli international, is on trial from Standard Liege of Belgium.

DARRON ON THE WAY BACK

• After an agonising series of injuries our enthusiastic defender Darron McDonough is back on the fitness trail. Darron had an operation to repair his dislocated shoulder and reports all is well following his comeback.

• Spanning three eras: Danny Wilson, Brian Horton and Kirk Stephens represented the skills from three fine Town teams during Mal Donaghy's career. They are pictured together in Testimonial action.

CAPTAIN'S DIARY

DANNY WILSON NO LUCK AT SELHURST

If we had been offered three points and not just two from our visits to Wimbledon and Charlton, we would have said yes, thank you, so we are not too despondent about last Monday's defeat at Selhurst Park.

We do not seem to have much luck there. It is just one of those things. But we still have a reasonable position to work from and I am sure we can climb the table.

good show

I know we did not play particularly well so we shall have to put that right today with a good showing against Southampton.

The last few weeks have seen Kurt Nogan and Julian James get a lot of experience and they have done well. Give them all your backing this afternoon.

It can make a big difference when there are youngsters in the team. Thank you.

PROMISE FRUSTRATED

Luton Town 1 Queen's Park Rangers 1

Queen's Park Rangers took away a point they scarcely deserved on January 20 when the Town's impressive approach work created enough openings to have won Jim Ryan's first match in charge. But in the end the excellence of the visitor's goalkeeper David Seaman and some wayward finishing by our own attack allowed them off the hook.

David Preece, with his first league goal of the season, had opened the scoring after only six minutes. A mishap in the Rangers' defence presented Kingsley Black with a clear run on goal and, after Seaman had saved from both Black and Iain Dowie, Preece was left with a simple finish.

Rangers, with Roy Wegerle in the side and making his first official return to Kenilworth Road after his move to London last December, came back and levelled after 32 minutes. A mishit clearance by the otherwise excellent John Dreyer gave Mark Falco a clear chance from only 10 yards.

The Town went on to control the second half and might have won with more luck. In the 49th minute, Paul Parker brought down Kurt Nogan, but, from the resultant penalty, Danny Wilson's shot rattled off the crossbar. It was bad luck for the outstanding skipper and his ill-fortune was compounded in the closing minutes when he was unable to convert another good opportunity as QPR hung on grimly for a point.

Teams: Luton Town – Chamberlain, Breacker, Harvey, Kennedy, James, Dreyer, Wilson, Nogan, Dowie, Preece, (Rees 85), Black.

QPR – Seaman, Bardsley, Sanson, Parker, McDonald, Maddix, Wilkins, Barker, Falco (Clarke 45), Wegerle, Sinton.

Referee: T. Simpson (Halifax).

Attendance: 9,703

JULIAN JAMES

JULIAN JAMES FACT FILE

Born: Tring, 22.3.70
 Source: Schoolboy/Apprentice
 League debut: Southampton v Luton Town 7.5.89
 (1-1) (second half substitute)
 First full league appearances: Millwall v Luton Town
 5.11.89 (3-1)
 Other clubs: Tring Tornados
 Joined Luton Town: July 1986

"I made my debut, my full league one that is, at Millwall last season and it was a difficult game for me. It came right after the Littlewoods Cup tie at Leeds when I was sent off and I felt very drained. It was hard because I did not feel I had any energy during those days and we had to battle all the way at Millwall.

"Compared with that, it was an easy game when we went to Wimbledon last week and won. That was much more my kind of game as they were just knocking it long and I could see it all clearly. It was quite easy to defend and I felt very comfortable. I suppose it is experience. I have generally felt it getting easier as time goes on."

After only a handful of games, Julian, who will be 20 next month, is already coming to grips with the First Division and life alongside John Dreyer in the heart of the Town defence.

"I am really starting to enjoy it now – Monday night's result at Charlton excepted – and it is good to be playing with someone like 'Tumble' because he is an experienced player. But I am starting to shout and help him stay on his toes as much as he does for me now so I think that is a good sign."

Julian is grateful to the coaching staff at the club for their encouragement, particularly as he went through a stage when he was told he lacked the necessary height for a centre-back.

"John Faulkner always told me I would be able to play centre-back alright so long as I was alongside a taller player. And that is how it has worked out. Now it is my aim to hold on to my place in the team when the others get fit again after injury."

Ironically, for a Town player, Julian grew up as a Watford supporter. His father was a steward at Vicarage Road. Now, as Julian says, he comes to watch him playing for Luton instead.

"I had trials as a schoolboy with Watford and Spurs and went up to West Brom. But Luton was nearer to home and had a very good youth policy. So, I came here and it has worked out well for me."

"I think 19 or 20 is about the right age to start breaking through into the team for me. I am getting experience and with Jim Ryan in charge there is a very good atmosphere at the club."

Julian said he had no particular professional players he admired individually as examples to him, but said he enjoyed watching Liverpool play. "They've got such good habits. They always pass well. They have great individuals, but they always play as a team."

As a youngster Julian played as a forward and enjoyed scoring a lot of goals. He was converted to a defender shortly before he was spotted playing in a district match at Hemel Hempstead by John Moore.

"I don't score many goals now," he said. "But it is just as satisfying to play well in defence in a good performance. We have shown signs of more confidence lately and if we can get another good run going I am sure we shall get out of any trouble."

Junior Hatters

A WARM WELCOME TO THE JUNIOR SAINTS HERE TODAY

- We give a warm welcome today to Alan Smith and his junior Saints from Southampton against whom some of our Junior Hatters have been playing football this morning.
- I hope that you all had a good time. The Junior Saints are joining us for today's game at the invitation of our Junior Hatters.
- Unfortunately the trip to Charlton last Saturday was cancelled as Crystal Palace had a cup game at home and Charlton share the same ground. The re-arranged game was on Monday night when we lost 2-0.
- I have arranged a game with Chantry Junior School of Luton on Saturday, March 3rd. It is for the 8-9 years of age group and if you would like to play for the Junior Hatters on that day please call in and see Bev Tyler in the Sports Shop to put your name down.
- The game will be played on our pitch at Kenilworth Road, kick-off 11.00 am and should be really good fun.
- It was nice to see so many of you at Barclays Bank last Saturday when we held the draw for the rest of the season's mascots and escorts.
- Lars and myself were kept busy signing autographs and had a great time. It was a change from playing on a Saturday.

Kingsley Black

Let's hear your cheers!

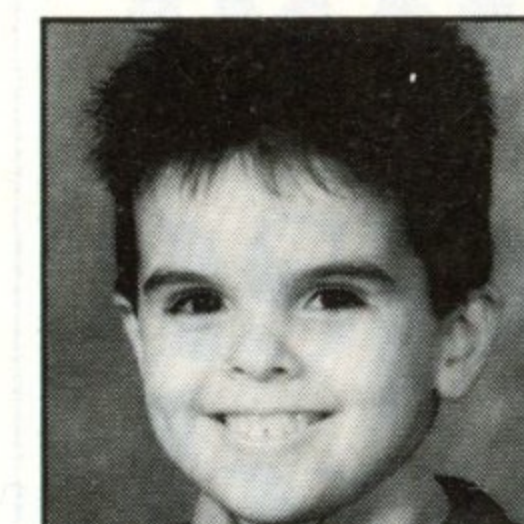

It was good to get three points at Wimbledon last week with the goals coming from Kurt Nogan and Iain Dowie.

Let's hope we can put some results together and improve our position in the league. Now we can only do this with your support – so come on let the lads hear you cheering your team on to victory.

Today's lucky Junior Hatters membership number is 190961, Emma Devan. She gets two free tickets to one of our home games.

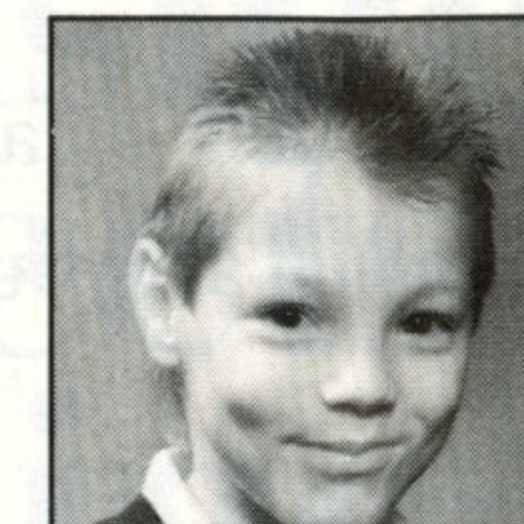

The other lucky number out of the drum this week was 170429. Stuart Emerton. Congratulations Stuart, you have won a sports bag sponsored by Spearman International.

WELCOME TO VAUXHALL TOP OF THE LEAGUE WITH THE CAVALIER

Welcome back after our long and unscheduled break for another exciting match at Kenilworth Road. Our match and ball sponsors today are Vauxhall Motors who kicked off the 1990's at the top of their own league with the Luton-produced Cavalier acclaimed as the best-selling car in Britain.

January sales of the Cavalier were more than 2,000 ahead of its nearest rival and such success is clearly a big boost not just for Vauxhall but for the whole of Luton.

Now Vauxhall plan to increase production of the Cavalier by more than 12 per cent during 1990 and this increase will bring with it an additional 200 jobs for Luton.

Vauxhall, the fast-growing company in the industry, are also attracting ambitious and well-qualified young trainees and many high-flying managers of the future are starting careers with the company as a result of its graduate recruitment programme.

Vauxhall wish everyone attending today's match a satisfying and very exciting day of sport, sentiments we all share, I am sure.

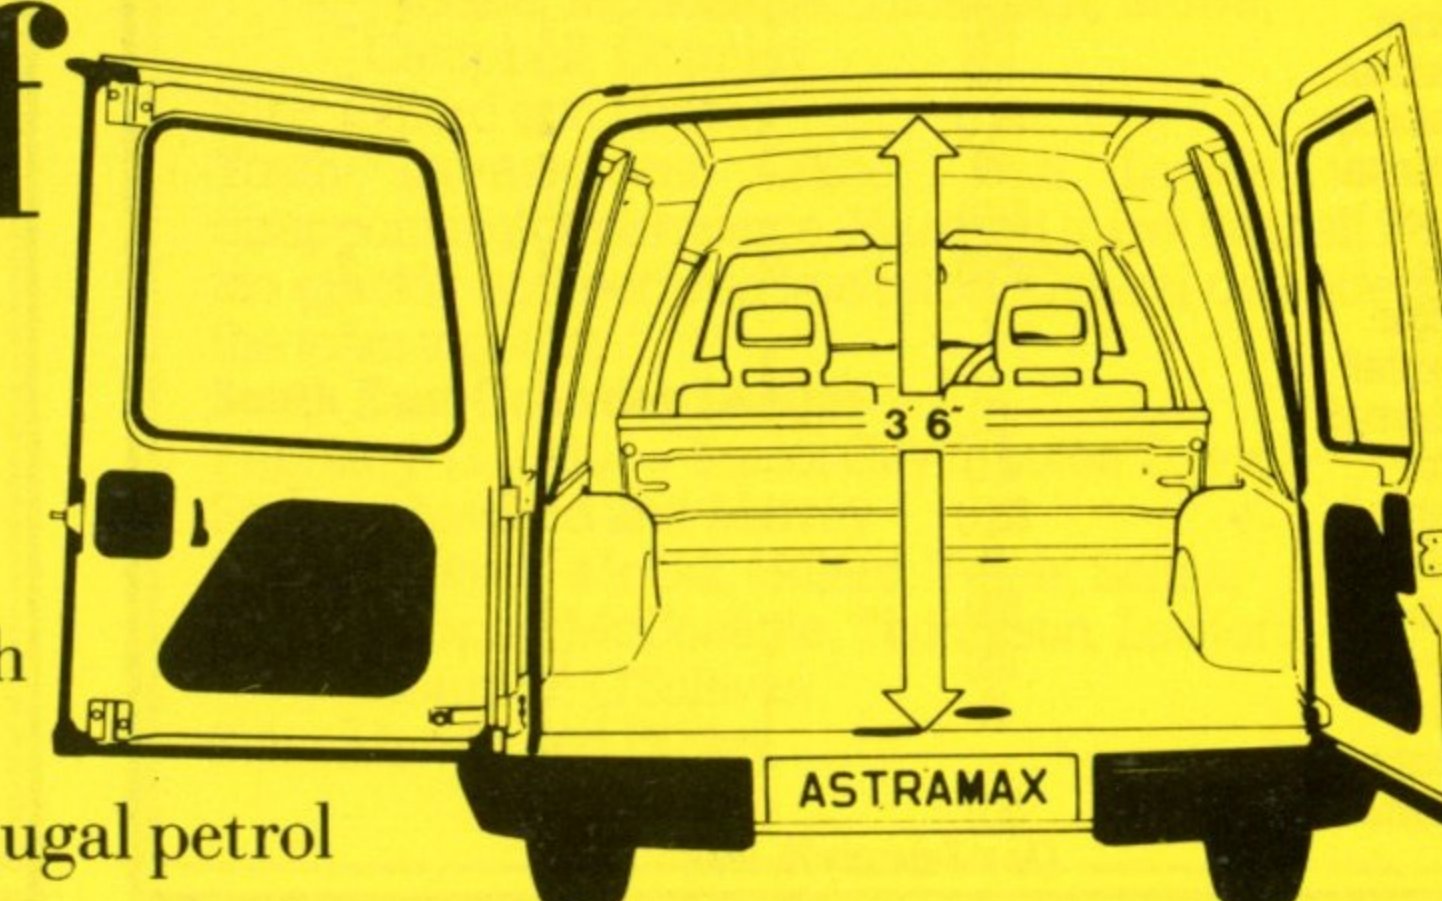

Our match day box sponsor today is Richard Larkinson, who is a vice-president of the club. His company, which bears his name in Hills Road, Cambridge, has been in the scrap metal business for 30 years and his family have been associated with the trade for nearly a century.

Larkinson's deal in non-ferrous metals such as brass, copper, lead and aluminium and the majority of their scrap goes to Europe. This afternoon, Richard will be entertaining some of his customers and friends and we hope it is an enjoyable and entertaining day with three points to show at the end.

CECIL HOLLOWAY – A STALWART SUPPORTER

Cecil Holloway, one of our most distinguished honorary life members and a former president of our club, died on February 5, 1990. He was 80.

Mr Holloway was well-known throughout Luton and Bedfordshire for his connections not only with Luton Town Football Club, but also with hospitals, business and the brewing industry. He was a founder member, former chairman and, at the time of his death, president of the Friends of the Hospitals of Luton and Dunstable.

Born and educated in Chester, he entered the licensed trade and moved to Luton to join J.W. Green in 1933. It was to be the start of a long association with the town and with Kenilworth Road where he was a regular, loyal and long-serving supporter.

His outstanding support for the club was recognised when he became president in 1987 and he was able to enjoy the office as the club made two successive trips to Wembley for the Littlewoods Cup finals of 1988 and 1989.

In his public and business life, Mr Holloway held nine directorships including positions with the former Luton Water Company, J.W. Green, Flowers and Whitbread.

He is survived by his wife Vera, daughter Pamela and grandchildren Pippa and Justin to whom all at the club send their deepest sympathies.

EDDIE CONNELLY – AN OLD FASHIONED CROWD PLEASER

One of the most delightful crowd-pleasing forwards of the Town teams shortly before and after World War Two, Eddie Connelly died in Luton last weekend on February 16. He was 73.

Eddie, an inside-left with tricky skills, signed for the Town twice in seven years – once at each end of the war – and for a substantial fee each time.

Born in Fifeshire, Scotland, in December 1916, he joined the Town from Newcastle in 1938, left for West Bromwich Albion 18 months later and rejoined in 1946. In all, he made 88 league appearances and scored 24 goals for Luton before a cartilage injury ended his career in 1946.

He is survived by his wife, Elizabeth, four daughters, Helen, Joan, Bridgett and Elizabeth and son, Eddie. The club sends its deepest sympathy to the family.

FROM ECUADOR WITH LOVE

The fame of Luton Town's pioneering has been spread across the Atlantic this season with an article on the club appearing in the Guayaquil-based sports newspaper Estadio.

The piece was written by Leslie Dickens, an Ecuadorean journalist, who visited the club last autumn and watched the game here against Charlton Athletic.

Leslie was impressed enough to include a lengthy reference to the Town in his feature which surveyed English club football and included reports on his experiences at other clubs like Liverpool, Queen's Park Rangers and Arsenal.

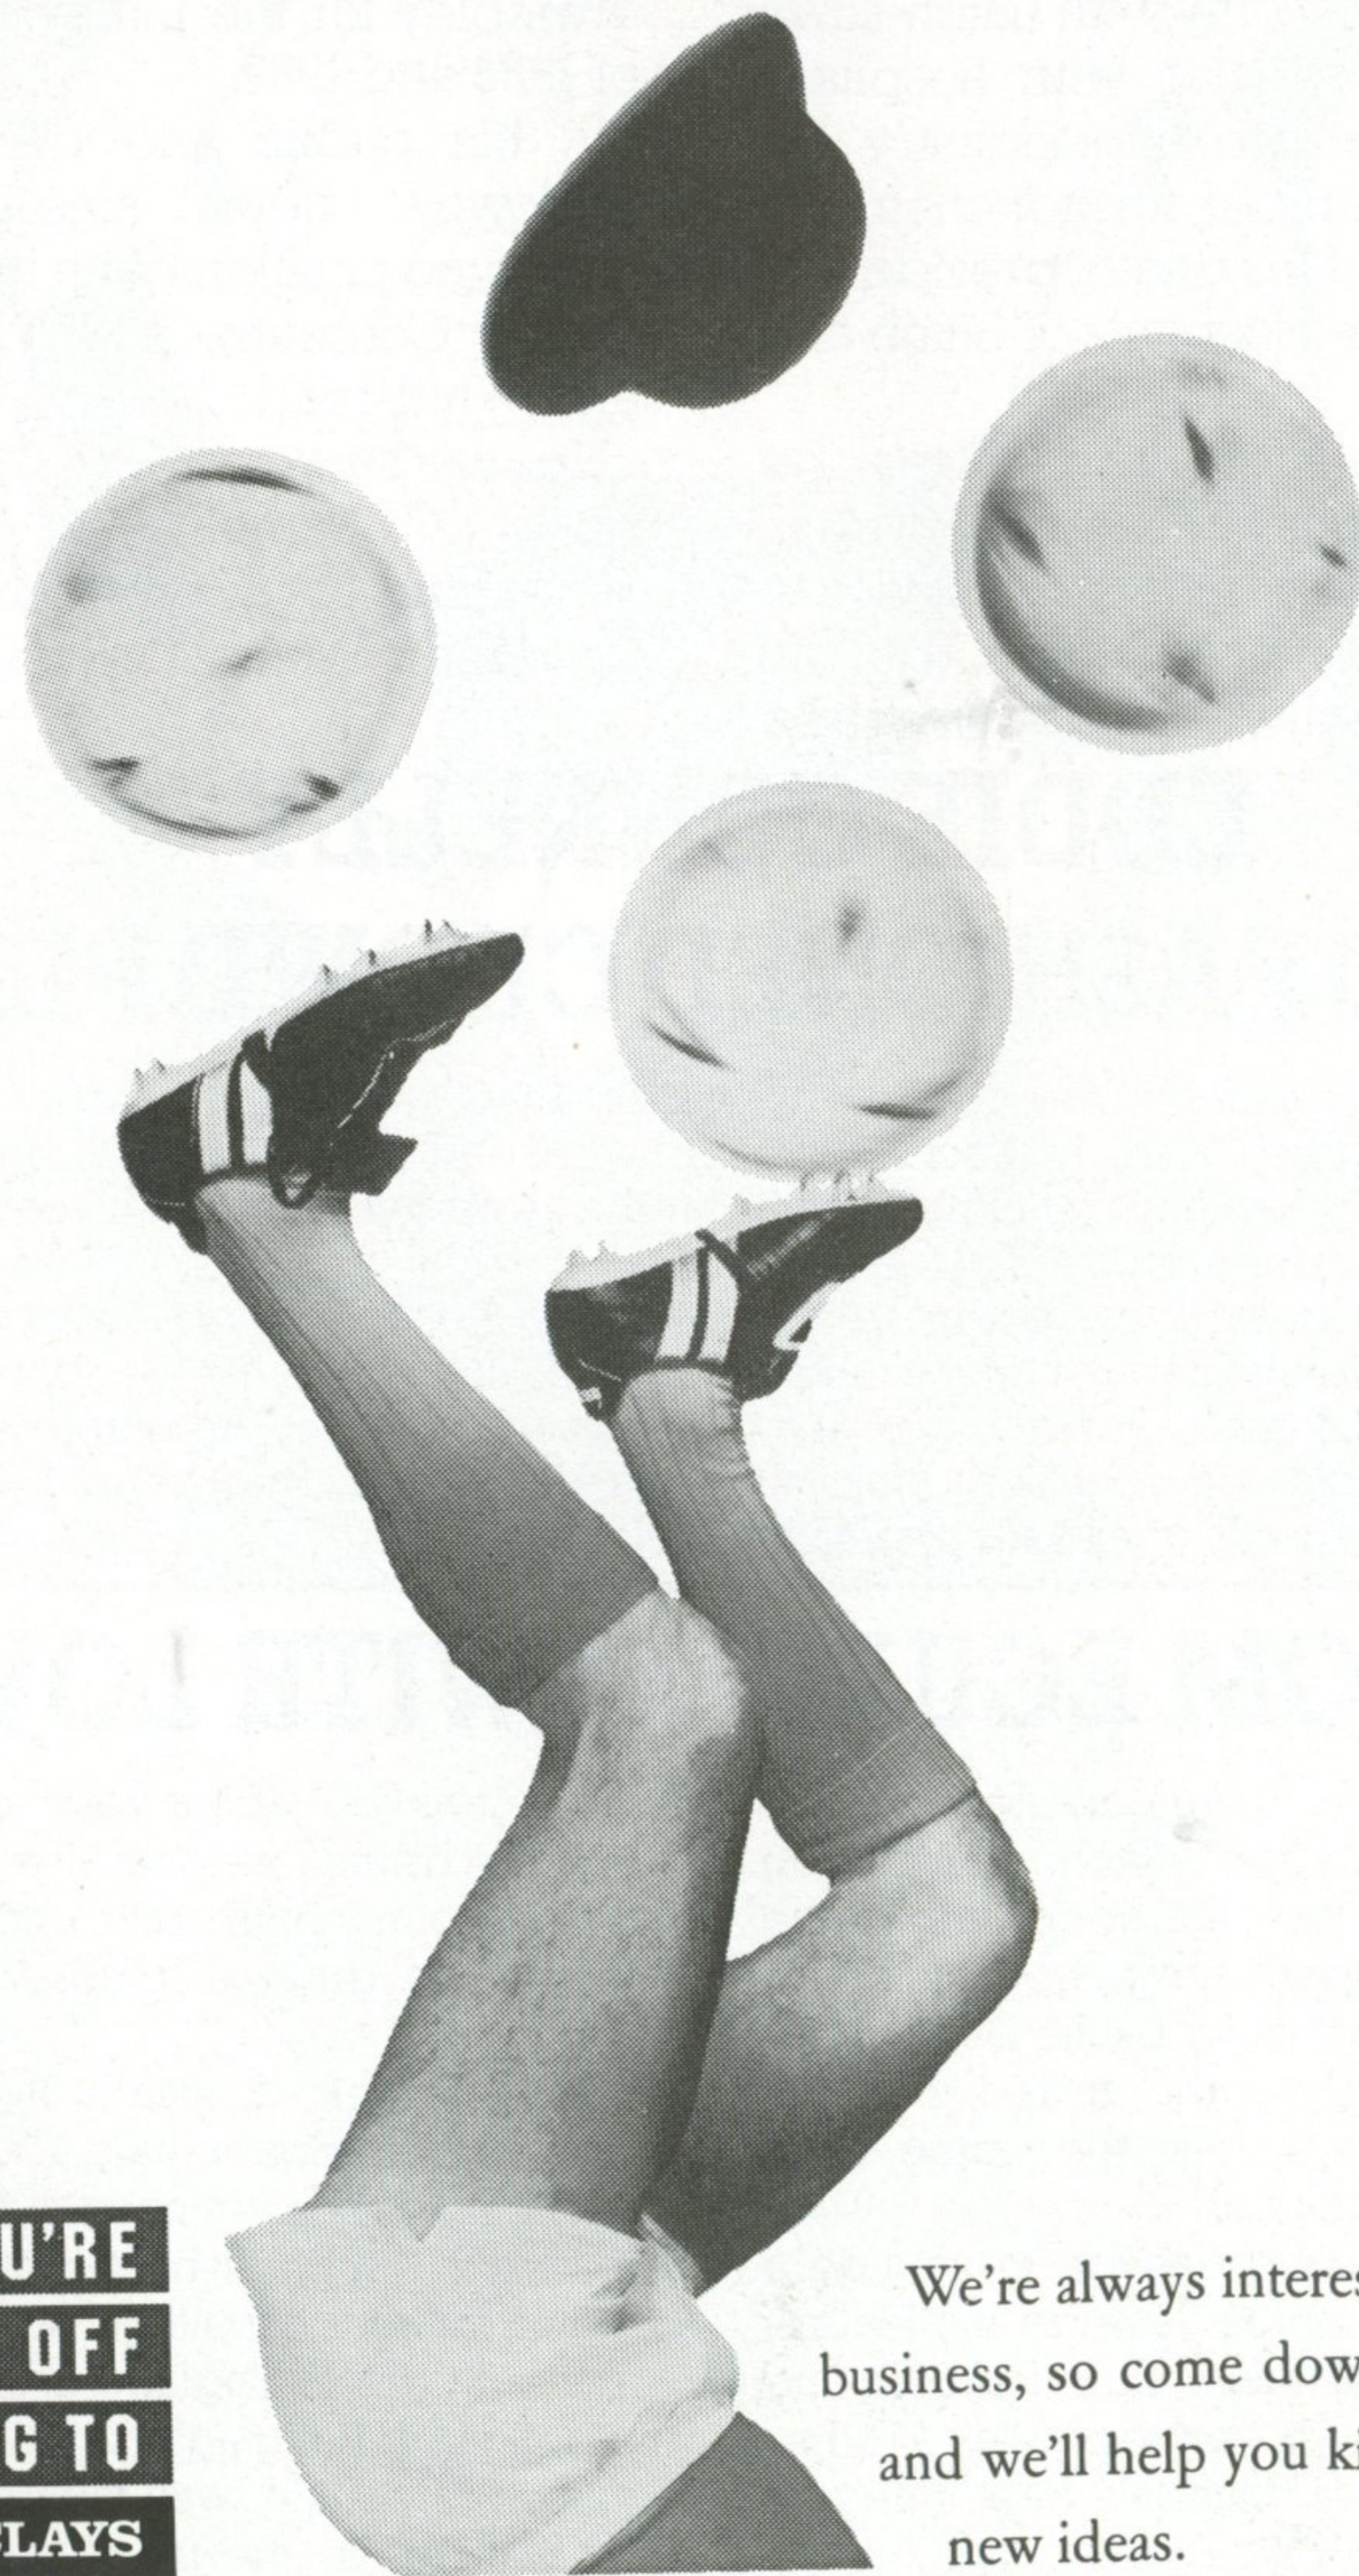

In a letter received at Kenilworth Road by General Secretary Bill Tomlins, Leslie wrote: "I do believe in flying the flag and showing people here that English football is not about hooligans, but about years of tradition, about people dedicating their lives to the game, be it the groundsman or the chairman – it all adds up to the greatest club competition in the world.

"Each week, I watch live and recorded games from Spain, Italy, Germany and many other countries but none of them can be compared to the English league. I thank you once again for your hospitality and hope that during my next trip to England, I will be able to visit Kenilworth Road again."

Leslie's article was headlined "Pasion en Inglaterra" in the magazine and concluded that English football represented spectacle, professionalism, honesty and deserved to hold the title of best championship in the world.

CLOSED CIRCUIT TELEVISION

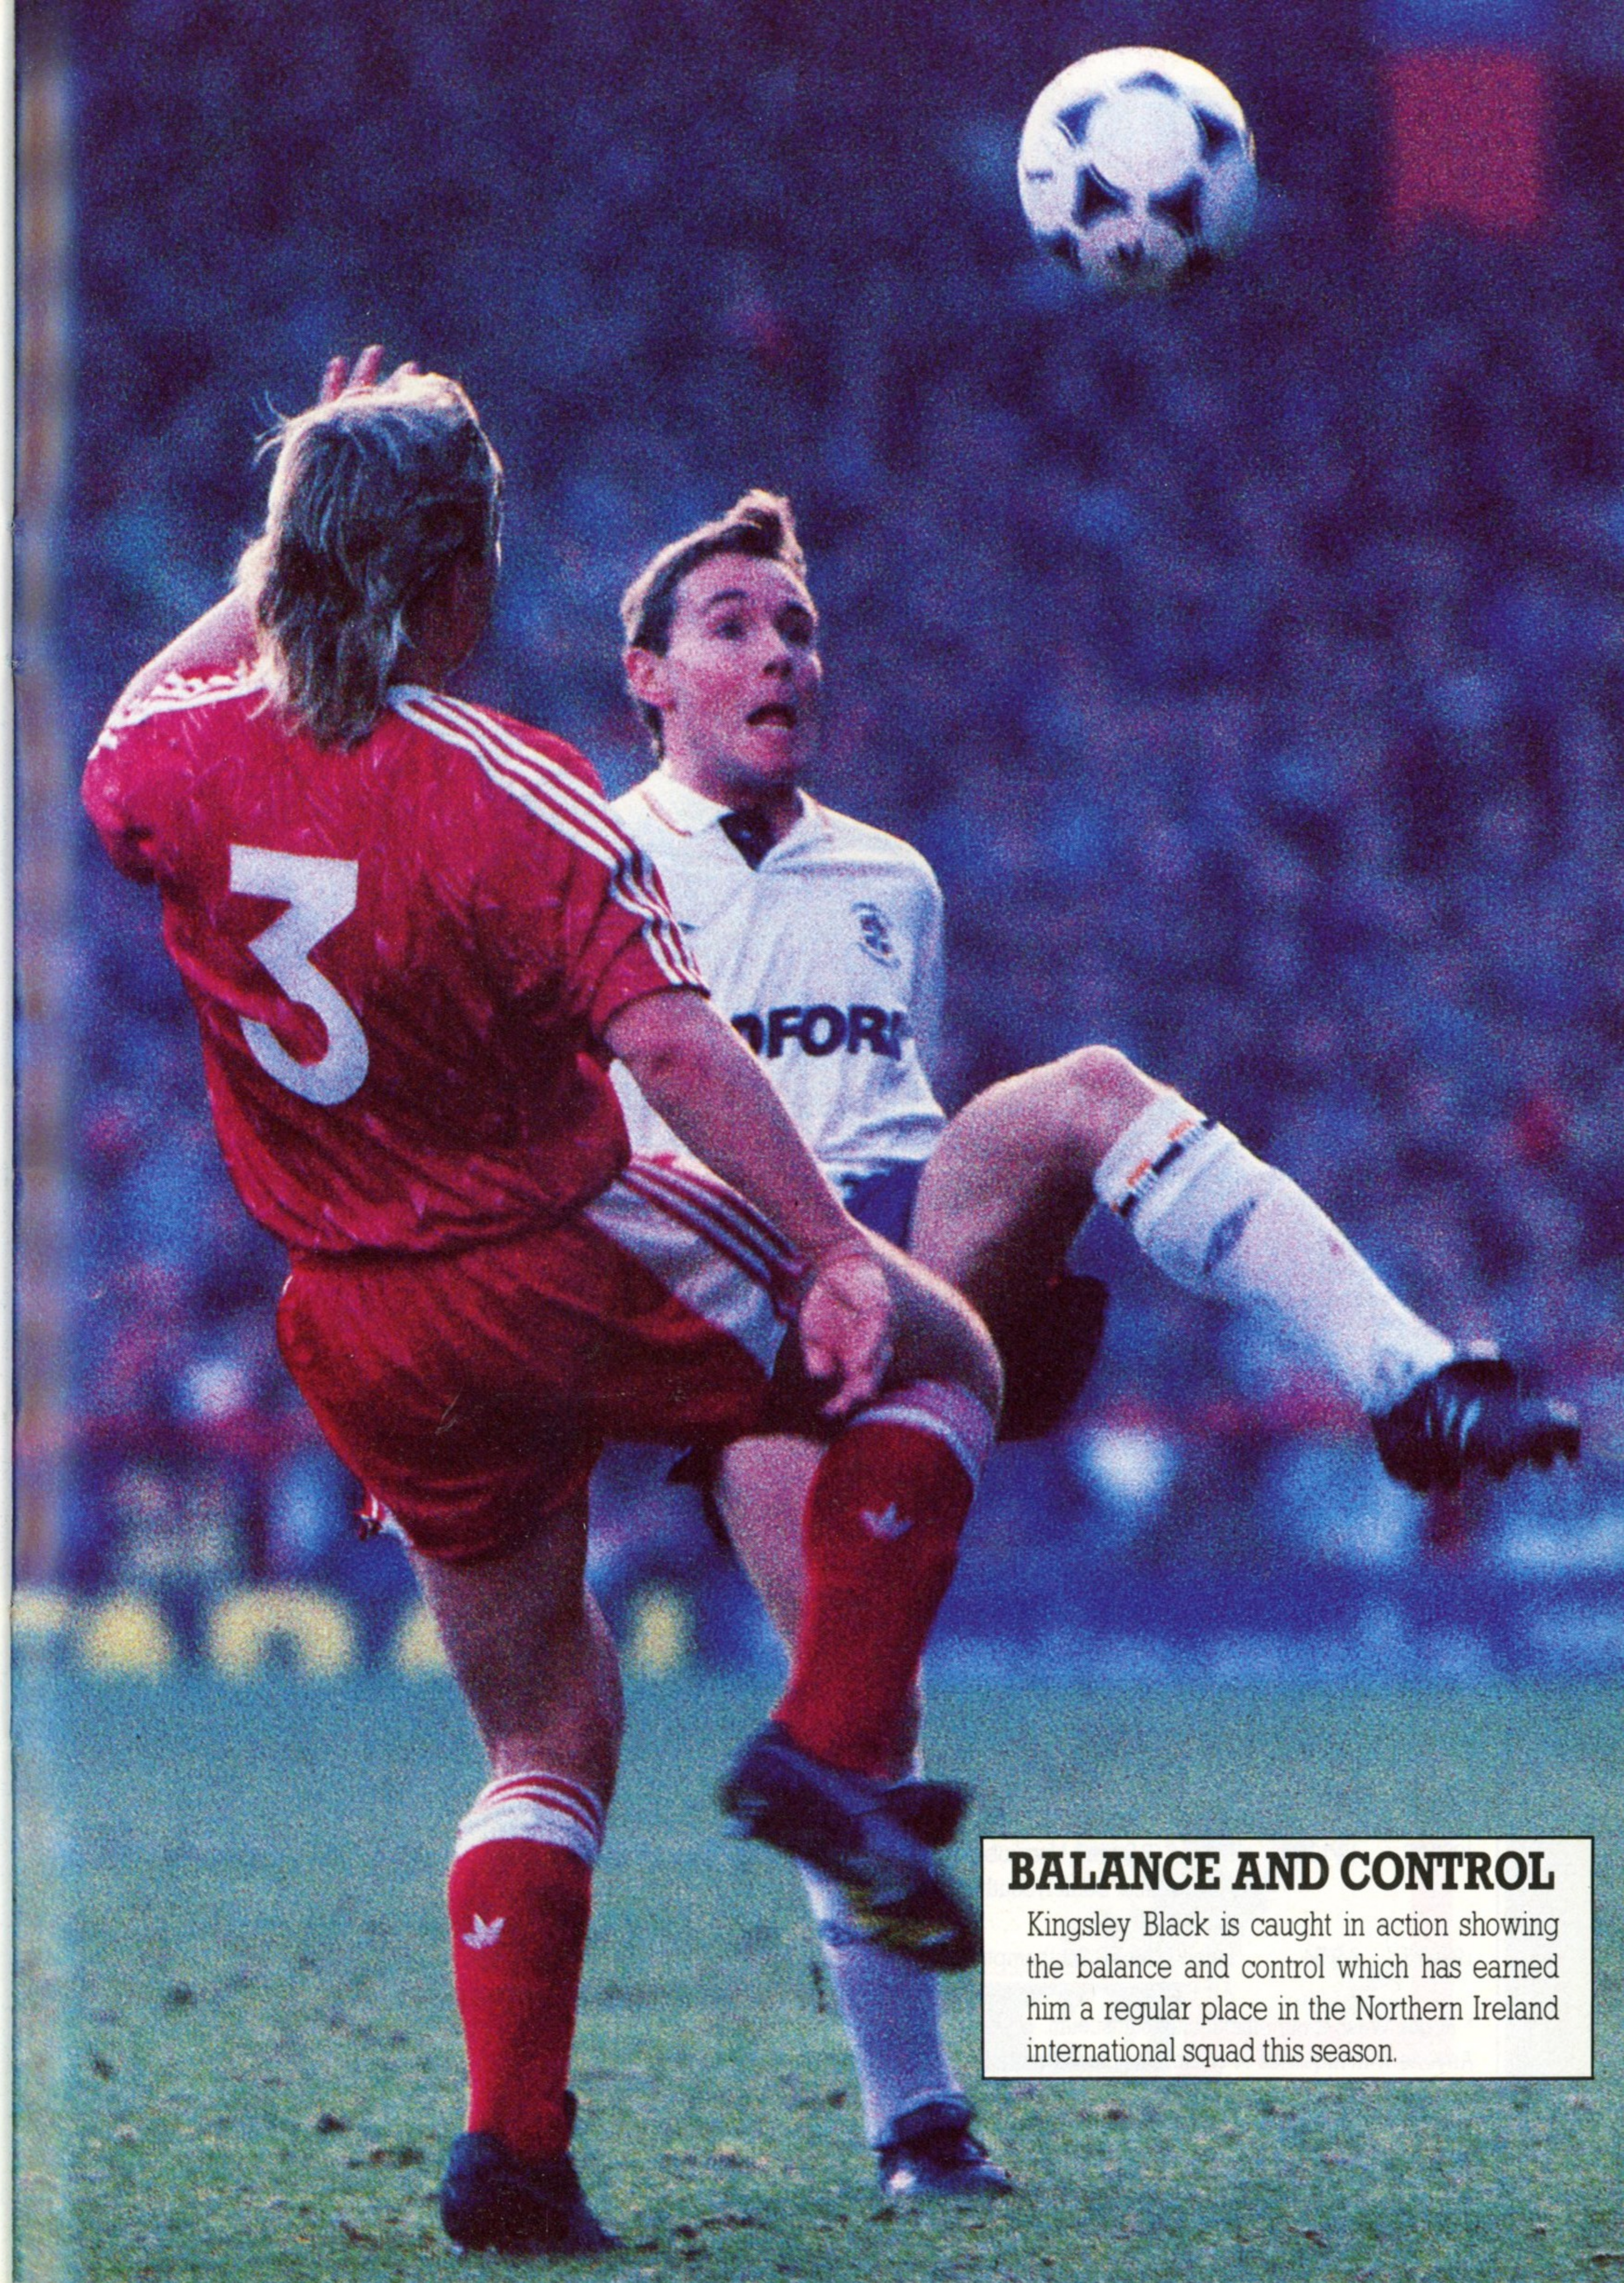

The first televised football match, 1937

Now every Football League ground is equipped with television cameras.

The Football Trust has installed Closed Circuit Television systems at more than 110 British grounds. The cameras have a range of 150 metres and immediate close-up prints can be produced. Within minutes of an incident offenders can be identified and arrested with film made available as evidence in court. CCTV is the most effective anti-hooligan measure inside football grounds and the programme has been extended to include portable systems.

CCTV is only one of The Football Trust's many initiatives. Each year it receives over £9.5 million from the Spotting-the-Ball competition run by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zetters and spends it on projects that benefit all levels of the game throughout the United Kingdom.

BALANCE AND CONTROL

Kingsley Black is caught in action showing the balance and control which has earned him a regular place in the Northern Ireland international squad this season.

OFF THE RECORD

REVIEW OF THE 80's

by Roger Wash

1986/87 (contd.)

The Town started slowly again and without the injured Mick Harford it was difficult to see where the goals would come from. A previous season signing from Wigan, Mike Newell, soon answered that by scoring a hat-trick in the 4-1 demolition of Liverpool at Kenilworth Road as the team forced its way, into the top six shortly after Christmas.

Unfortunately all this was going on while the press were having a field day off the pitch due to the clubs stance on away supporters which resulted in exclusion from the Littlewoods Cup.

With all this going on around them the players did remarkably well to remain in the top six until the final day when a defeat at Everton pushed them to seventh which was still a record.

1987/88

Yet another managerial change preceeded the season with a "disillusioned" John Moore resigning to be replaced by his number two Ray Harford.

Despite the reasonable League form 1987/88 will always be remembered for the "three trips to Wembley". The Simod Cup final was reached after wins over Everton (at last), Stoke and Swindon before Reading tore the Town apart.

The Mercantile Credit Centenary Classic saw the Town lose to Manchester United and with a defeat in the semi-final of the FA Cup by Wimbledon we were thinking it was not going to be our year.

IT HAPPENED 40 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK ...

28th January 1970

In a tough, bruising encounter the Town drew 1-1 at home to fellow promotion contenders Brighton watched by a crowd of 17,584.

IT HAPPENED 55 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK ...

23rd February 1935

The Town hammered Aldershot 6-1 at Kenilworth Road in the middle of a run of six straight wins.

A crowd of 6,536 saw Fred Roberts and Sam Bell weigh in with goals alongside George Stephenson and Jack Ball who each bagged two.

All the disappointment was forgotten, however, when a marvellous game in the Littlewoods Cup Final against Arsenal saw a thrilling climax with Brian Stein scoring the winner in the last minute to give the club its first major trophy.

Due to the number of Cup games played - eighteen in total - the Town had a hectic run-in to the end of the season but despite that a creditable ninth position was achieved.

After the glory of 1987/88 this was a season of change with long serving players such as Brian Stein and Mal Donaghy departing with new talent in the shape of Kingsley Black and Roy Wegerle emerging.

The traditional slow start saw the team hovering just above the relegation places from the off and although there were some, all too unfrequent, eye catching results such as a 1-0 win over Liverpool and a 6-1 thrashing of Southampton the away form was poor.

The unthinkable then happened with three home defeats on the trot during March which coupled with the normal away reverses saw the situation get desperate just at a time when we should all have been enjoying life having reached the Littlewoods Cup Final for the second season running.

Winning away in the Littlewoods Cup did not seem to be a problem as victories at Burnley, Leeds, Southampton and West Ham proved but on the big day the Town were defeated 3-1 by Nottingham Forest, a score which many observers felt slightly flattered the Reds.

After that defeat only six games remained but by dint of a return to winning ways at home the Town survived courtesy of 1-0 victory over Norwich at Kenilworth Road in the last match of the season.

• Brian Stein hit a hat-trick against Southampton in a 7-0 win in October 1985.

WELCOME TO...

SOUTHAMPTON

● We welcome Southampton to Kenilworth Road this afternoon and with them our former player Chris Nicholl who has been manager of the south coast club since 1985 when he succeeded Lawrie McMenemy. Chris played for the Town between 1969 and 1972, making 97 league appearances and scoring six goals.

● Southampton are currently 10th in the First Division, but, after enjoying a very successful start to the season, they have found it difficult to sustain their early form. Last weekend, they were eliminated from the F.A. Cup, 3-0 at Liverpool.

● The Saints have a reputation for loyalty and Chris Nicholl is only their seventh manager since the war. He has followed Arthur Dominy (1943-46), Bill Dodgin Snr (1946-49), Sid Cann (1949-51), George Roughton (1952-55), Ted Bates (1955-73) and Lawrie McMenemy (1973-85).

● Southampton was formed largely by players from the Deanery FC, which had been established by schoolteachers in 1880. Most of the founders were connected with the young men's association of St Mary's Church. At the inaugural meeting held in November 1885, the club was named Southampton St Mary's.

● The Saints were original members of Division Three in 1920. They finished runners-up in their first season, champions the next and remained in the Second Division until 1953. After relegation, they regained their Second Division spot in 1960 and went on to reach the First Division for the first time in 1966, returning only between 1974 and 1978.

● In 1976, Southampton won their greatest honour when they lifted the F.A. Cup. They had been runners-up in 1900 and 1902 and were League Cup runners-up in 1979. They have also qualified for European competition six times.

● This season, the Saints have suprised many critics in the media with their fine attacking form and high goal-scoring style. In wingers Matthew Le Tissier, born in Guernsey, and Rodney Wallace, twin of Ray and younger brother of Danny, they have two of the hottest properties in the game.

● Both have been successful products of their youth system which has also provided Francis Benali, Alan Shearer, Mark Blake and Neil Addison to play alongside established imports like the experienced Barry Horne, Russell Osman, Kevin Moore, Glenn Cockerill, Jimmy Case and Paul Rideout.

● Case, who will be 36 in May, has enjoyed an Indian summer at the Dell after a distinguished career with Liverpool and Brighton and this season he has earned some of the best reviews of his career for his crafty play and long-range passing.
