RYAN'S

REFLECTIONS

We all came away from Nottingham on Monday disappointed at the outcome of our two matches over Easter, but not once thinking of giving up the fight. We know it is a very tough fight and the odds are not on our side. But we are determined to give it everything we can right up to the last. The performance at Forest was as disappointing as the result and, in truth, we never really looked like scoring. They are one of the strongest sides in the country with a particularly strong back four. But for an hour or so we felt quite comfortable at 0-0 and I thought we might be able to snatch something from it. Then Franz Carr scored an exceptional goal which changed the course of the game. Against Everton, last Saturday, there were a lot of good things and we performed well to lead 2-0. But sloppy defensive play allowed them back into the game and we let victory slip away. There were times in the Everton match, however, when we played exceptionally well and really pinned them back.

I prefer to build on the good points than seek out the weaknesses and the faults. Naturally, at this time and in our position, we are left to take each match as it comes and hope for a victory here today against Arsenal. It will be our third successive fixture against a team respected as one of the best in the country. But our job is the same as it has been all the time: to produce our best and to seek victory. There have been other encouragements to build on including the return of Lars Elstrup, who will give another option for selection, and several bright individual displays against Everton. We must all remain positive and seek the best whatever happens elsewhere. Once again, vocal support could prove decisive. Please give the players every encouragement. I know how much it means. Thanks.

Swedish fan enjoys a special visit

Dear Sir

This letter is sent to you from the north of Sweden. The reason why I write it, is that I want to tell everyone at Luton how grateful I am for the way I met friendly and kind people when I visited Kenilworth Road on Tuesday, March 20th.

After having supported The Town for almost twenty years it was very exciting to travel from our hotel in London up to Luton and find the way to the football ground. You see, if no one would have shown any interest it would have been a big disappointment, but it proved to be much better than that.

I went to the ticket office and the souvenir shop, and then to the receptionist (I don't know if that is her title). Thanks to her one of the people working on the ground, I think his name was Chas or Chase, was kind enough to help us. Even though he had a very busy afternoon with the fire-brigade visiting, he took time to show us (I had a couple of friends with me) the ground.

Shortly after that the General Manager Bill Tomlins suddenly came up to us. He was obviously happy to meet a supporter from Sweden and he was so kind to us that I can hardly believe it happened. He gave us tickets to the game against Millwall and also tickets to the bar where the players go after home games. I also had the tremendous pleasure of meeting team manager Jim Ryan (as the picture shows). What a memorable day it was! Luton won the game 2-1 (as you know) and of course it was a football day I will never forget.

The Saturday included a bit of bad luck also but that doesn't really matter. The memories from my two visits to Luton are fantastic. I will support "The Hatters" even harder now.

Therefore it was very sad to hear the result at Norwich, especially with that strange penalty decision. When Man City won on Sunday you didn't feel better at all.

If there is anyone at the club (or maybe a keen supporter that you know) who can be so kind to write a short letter or a postcard to me now and then and tell me about how life at Luton goes along, I would be very grateful. I would also like to know how to do with money for match programmes if it is possible for you to send them sometimes.

Kenilworth Road isn't the only place you can see a new line up this afternoon.

Just down the road in the Arndale Centre, and in our showrooms throughout the U.K., you can see the new additions to our own squad.

The Cameo Collection is making its home debut in what is undoubtedly the most attractive and unbeatable line-up in fitted bedroom furniture in the U.K.

And if that weren't enough you'll find that like Luton Town, we too have proved that you don't need to break the bank to put together a winning combination.

Support wanted

A team of 10-12 year-old footballers are looking for sponsorship from local companies to help them accept an invitation to take part in an international tournament in France in June this year.

Icknield Athletic FC's youngsters have been asked to play in the 10th anniversary tournament at St Doulichard FC, who are based at St Doulichard, near Orleans, about 60 miles south of Paris.

The boys' team manager Thomas Wren has written to Luton Town FC and asked for help. He said: "It is the first time an English team has been invited to this tournament. We are keen to give our boys the opportunity to take part, but it will not be possible unless we obtain support from the local community.

"We are one of four teams in our club and we play in the Bovis Homes Chiltern Youth League on Sunday mornings at Icknield Junior School in Riddy Lane. At the time of writing, we are currently top of Division Two - a credit to the lads as this is their first season playing competitive football."

Anyone interested in supporting the Icknield Athletic FC trip, please contact Mr Wren at 6, Carlton Close, Luton, Bedfordshire LU3 1ER. (Telephone Luton 417355).

Did you know?

Few Town fans can have failed to notice that two of our old boys were on the mark last weekend for their new clubs. Mick Harford scored twice for Derby in their victory over Millwall and Roy Wegerle was the QPR scorer in their 1-2 home defeat by Manchester United. Guess who the United goalkeeper was? Yes, none other than Les Sealey, who is on loan to Old Trafford to the end of the season.

Players' choice

David Platt of Aston Villa was recently chosen as the Professional Footballers Association's player of the year. Matthew Le Tissier of Southampton was picked as young player of the year and Peter Shilton won the PFA's merit award.

FILM OF THE SEASON VOLUME THREE ON SALE SOON

The exciting third chapter of this eventful season will be available soon on an exclusive video when our official film of the season, volume three, goes on sale.

This is the third part of a full season of action from Kenilworth Road and includes highlights of top league games against Queen's Park Rangers, Southampton, Coventry and Manchester City.

The film also includes all the goals from the matches against Wimbledon, Charlton, Manchester United and Aston Villa and several in-depth interviews with first team players and team manager Jim Ryan.

The new video will be on sale for our last home match of the season against Crystal Palace from the Sports Shop in Oak Road and from the Souvenir Shop in Kenilworth Road.

Make sure you do not forget to reserve your copy of what will be a unique and lasting record of the 1989-90 First Division campaign.

THE TOWN

LOYALTY AND FAMILY SPIRIT KEEP OUR HOPES ALIVE

A warm welcome to Arsenal. After our disappointing Easter results against Everton and at Nottingham Forest, we are left knowing exactly what is required if we are to preserve our First Division status starting with this afternoon's fixture.

All the staff at the club, in all departments, feel the same way as the players and our supporters about this. We know our next three matches are vital and we may still need to rely on the results of other clubs around us if we are to keep playing at the highest level next season.

But we intend to do our utmost to do it. We were all disappointed at Nottingham on Monday by a result which I felt was flattering to Forest. Now is the time to dig into our resources of character and loyalty and give the team a hundred per cent vocal support.

It took Luton Town a long time and much sweat and blood was shed by many players for the club to reach the First Division and stay there. We have all played a part in this over the years and we all have an opportunity to help the cause again today.

Who can forget some of the great scraps of the past we have been through to preserve top flight football here in Luton. In 1983, there was the trip to Manchester City where we won to stay up after winning the Second Division championship the previous year.

Last season, Danny Wilson was super cool from the penalty spot to score the vital goal against Norwich which preserved our place in the First Division. As Danny says on the facing page, we can survive again if we all pull together and make our family spirit and loyalty really tell.

Sparkle

There has been a great spirit in the dressing room under Jim Ryan and, despite the recent setbacks, the lads have kept their enthusiasm and sparkle going in the last few weeks. Their attitude has been reflected by a never-say-die feeling in the club.

We are all fiercely proud of our club and feel great loyalty to it and now is the time for us all to show that as we draw to the end of another dramatic campaign with everything left to play for.

YOUNG STARS

NO SURRENDER

Contrary to popular opinion, I honestly believe we have every chance of scrapping our way to safety again this season despite our poor results last weekend. The really tough one which gutted us was not the defeat at Forest, but the points dropped at home to Everton.

We thought we played well enough to win and when you look carefully at our performance we did play a lot of good football. That makes it harder to swallow. And it makes us even more determined to make up for it with a really good performance today.

Big match

We always seem to be able to respond well to matches against the established big teams and that should be no different today. I expect Arsenal to make it difficult but we know we can play well enough to beat anyone on our day.

And if we attack like we did against Everton we can get all three points and go on to do the same in our last couple of matches against Crystal Palace and Derby. That way we would at least be taking the season right to the last game and making it tough for everyone else.

1st Team ACTION

TOFFEES STICK FOR A POINT

Luton Town 2 Everton 2

Two goals up at the interval, the Town were unable to hang on and secure a much-needed home victory when they met Everton here in an exciting match last Saturday. A brace of well-taken strikes by Iain Dowie appeared to be enough for three points particularly early in the second half when Everton were penned back in their own half, but Tony Cottee and Graeme Sharp replied to ensure the Merseysiders stayed third in the table.

For Luton, it was a disappointing outcome as they had shown some spells of excellent creative football without quite finding the finishing touch some good approach work promised to provide. The Town made a perfect start with Northern Ireland striker Dowie heading in a pinpoint cross by the impressive Jason Rees in the second minute. Dowie claimed the second three minutes from the break when he converted a Tim Breacker cross after a fine surging run by the right-back.

In the second half, only a desperate save by goalkeeper Neville Southall from a Kingsley Black header saved Everton from falling three behind before Cottee, set up by Stuart McCall struck after 66 minutes. Sharp levelled the scores 12 minutes later with a header from a Peter Beagrie corner.

Teams: Luton Town – Chamberlain, Breacker, McDonough, Kennedy (Beaumont 87), James, Dreyer, Wilson, Rees (Cooke 87), Dowie, Preece, Black. Everton – Southall, Atteveld, Ebbrell, McDonald, Watson, Sheedy, Nevin, McCall, Sharp, Cottee, Beagrie. Subs: Wright, Powell.

Referee: V. Callow (Solihull)

Attendance: 9,538

•The win that got away: Everton came back to take a point last weekend. Our pictures today show Darren McDonough, Iain Dowie, Tim Breacker and Jason Rees in action during the match with Iain converting Tim's centre for the second goal. Pictures by Josh Levy of Apex Photography.

 Previous clubs: Penywaun FC

Senior players help

Jason is from a big family and has four brothers and two sisters, but he is the only footballer among them. "One of my brothers is a policeman and another is in the army," he said. "So I am not the best-paid. They both get well paid. And I have got one sister in Spain. She is a teacher of English in Madrid."

For Jason, his move to Luton to play football for the Town has taken him from one big family to another and this season he has made another transition as he has made his breakthrough to the First Division team.

"It is very different. The pace of the First Division is quite different and more difficult, but I have enjoyed it. Danny Wilson and David Preece have both been fantastic in helping me and so has Tim Breacker when I have been over playing on the right in front of him.

"They have made it much easier for me, but it has not been easy. It has been tough. Some games have been more difficult than others. Probably the easiest game was the one against Everton last week when I had much more space and time to play.

"I got a lot of the ball and I enjoy it. But it was a different story at Forest on Monday. It was so difficult to get the ball and I was playing against Stuart Pearce. He is a very good player. He knows how to mark, what position to take up and he is very strong.

"I felt more nervous at Forest altogether. It is hard to explain. Against Everton we had a good start and scored early on, but at Forest I made a bad pass. After that though, I thought I settled in quite well.

"Jim Ryan and John Faulkner have both been terrific for me too. They tell me what to do and go through it all with me. It is a bit strange sometimes playing wide because I prefer to play in the centre of midfield. My favourite position is really to play in the middle behind the front two."

At school in Wales, where Jason played Sunday football before being spotted and moving to join the Town, he did not play any football at school until his last two years. "I've always been a forward and I used to play as a left-winger for my Sunday team."

Jason thinks the Town have a fighting chance of escaping from relegation and is hoping for a victory over Arsenal today. "If we play like we did against Everton last week, we have a very good chance. I think we can win games and then there is everything still to play for. And do not forget we still have to play Crystal Palace here so it is down to us."

GM INVESTMENTS BRING A CAVALIER STYLE TO LUTON

General Motors, Vauxhall's parent company, demonstrated their commitment to the United Kingdom when they confirmed earlier this month their intention to invest £160 million in a new engine facility at Ellesmere Port in Cheshire.

The plant will build V6 engines for the next generation of GM's European cars and the major proportion of the output will be exported. This latest development follows £80 million spent on a new paint unit and press shop facilities at Ellesmere Port.

In Luton, Vauxhall, who in March this year announced record production and quality levels, have also benefitted from a £122 million investment on bringing the highly-successful new Cavalier into production. It has become Britain's best-selling car in the first quarter of this year.

A further £50 million is also being spent on redeveloping and modernising Vauxhall's Luton site. This is a project which will transform the appearances and environment of the area.

Over the past decade, General Motors have invested close to £1 billion in new high-technology vehicle production facilities for their UK plants including Vauxhall in Luton and I am delighted to wish them, as our sponsors, a very happy and exciting day with us at Kenilworth Road.

Our ball sponsors today are DVR Electrical Wholesale Ltd, a privately owned independent electrical wholesale distributor supplying trade, industry and commerce over a wide area.

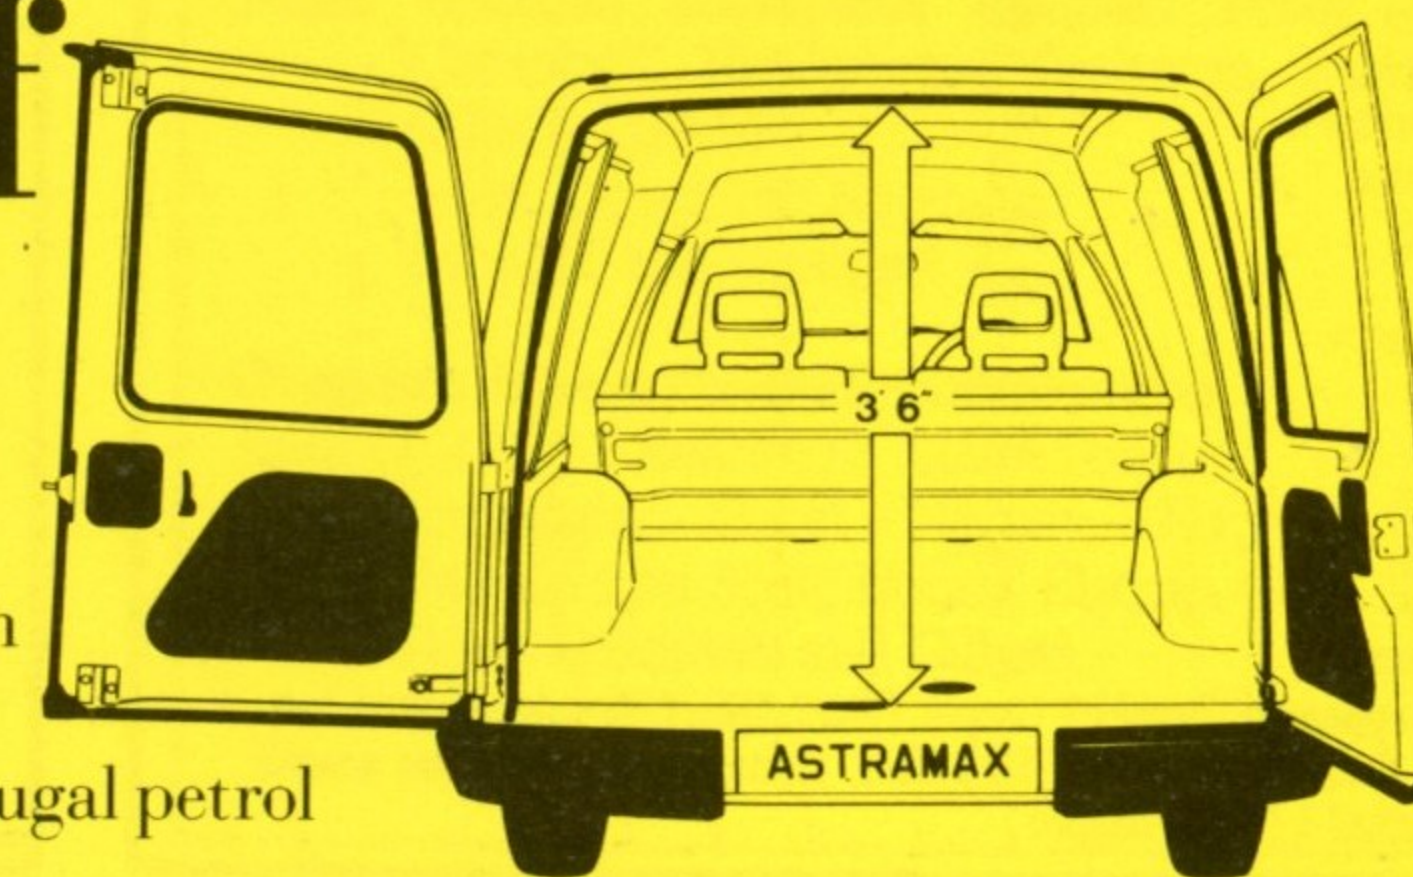

They offer daily delivery services to all areas and couple this with a friendly service and competitive prices. We wish them a great day here with Luton Town and extend the same wishes to our Executive Box One and 28 sponsors R.J. Gray Holdings Ltd and Television Sport International (Promotions) Ltd. A warm welcome to Harvey Sharpstone.

R.J. Gray Holdings is an associate of Robinson Gray Ltd, organisers of the Hertfordshire Antiques and Fine Art Fair which is one of the leading one-day fairs in the home counties. The next fair is at Harpenden Public Hall on April 29.

RISING GATES KEEP ON BOOMING FOR FOURTH YEAR RUNNING

With a month yet to play in the current Barclays League campaign, spectator levels have now passed the sixteen and a half million barrier and in so doing exceeded the aggregate attendance for the whole of the 1985-86 season.

In fact, in the last five years, crowds in the league (based on a projected 19.24 million figure for this season) have increased by nearly 17 per cent. This will be the fourth successive rise in attendance levels – something unprecedented since the earliest days of the league.

The big boom this season has been in the Second Division where attendances are up by 15.9 per cent from a 1988-89 average of 10,635 to 12,347 this term. In the First Division, the rise is only 0.5 per cent from 20,608 to 20,701.

Liverpool's Steve Staunton has been named as the Barclays League 'Young Eagle of the Month' for March. He will receive an inscribed silver salver and a cheque for £250 to be donated to his favourite charity.

The regional young eagles of the month for March were: North East – Kieron Brady of Sunderland, Yorkshire – Gary Speed of Leeds United, Midlands – Simon Sturridge of Birmingham City, London and East Anglia – Scott Minto of Charlton Athletic, London and the South – Richard Shaw of Crystal Palace and Wales and the West – Gareth Owen of Wrexham.

Nottingham Forest's physio Graham Lyas and reserve team coach Archie Gemmill are heading towards London this weekend with their minds on long distance matters. They both intend to take part in the London Marathon. Both will be raising money for charity by taking on the famous 26 mile and 385-yard course.

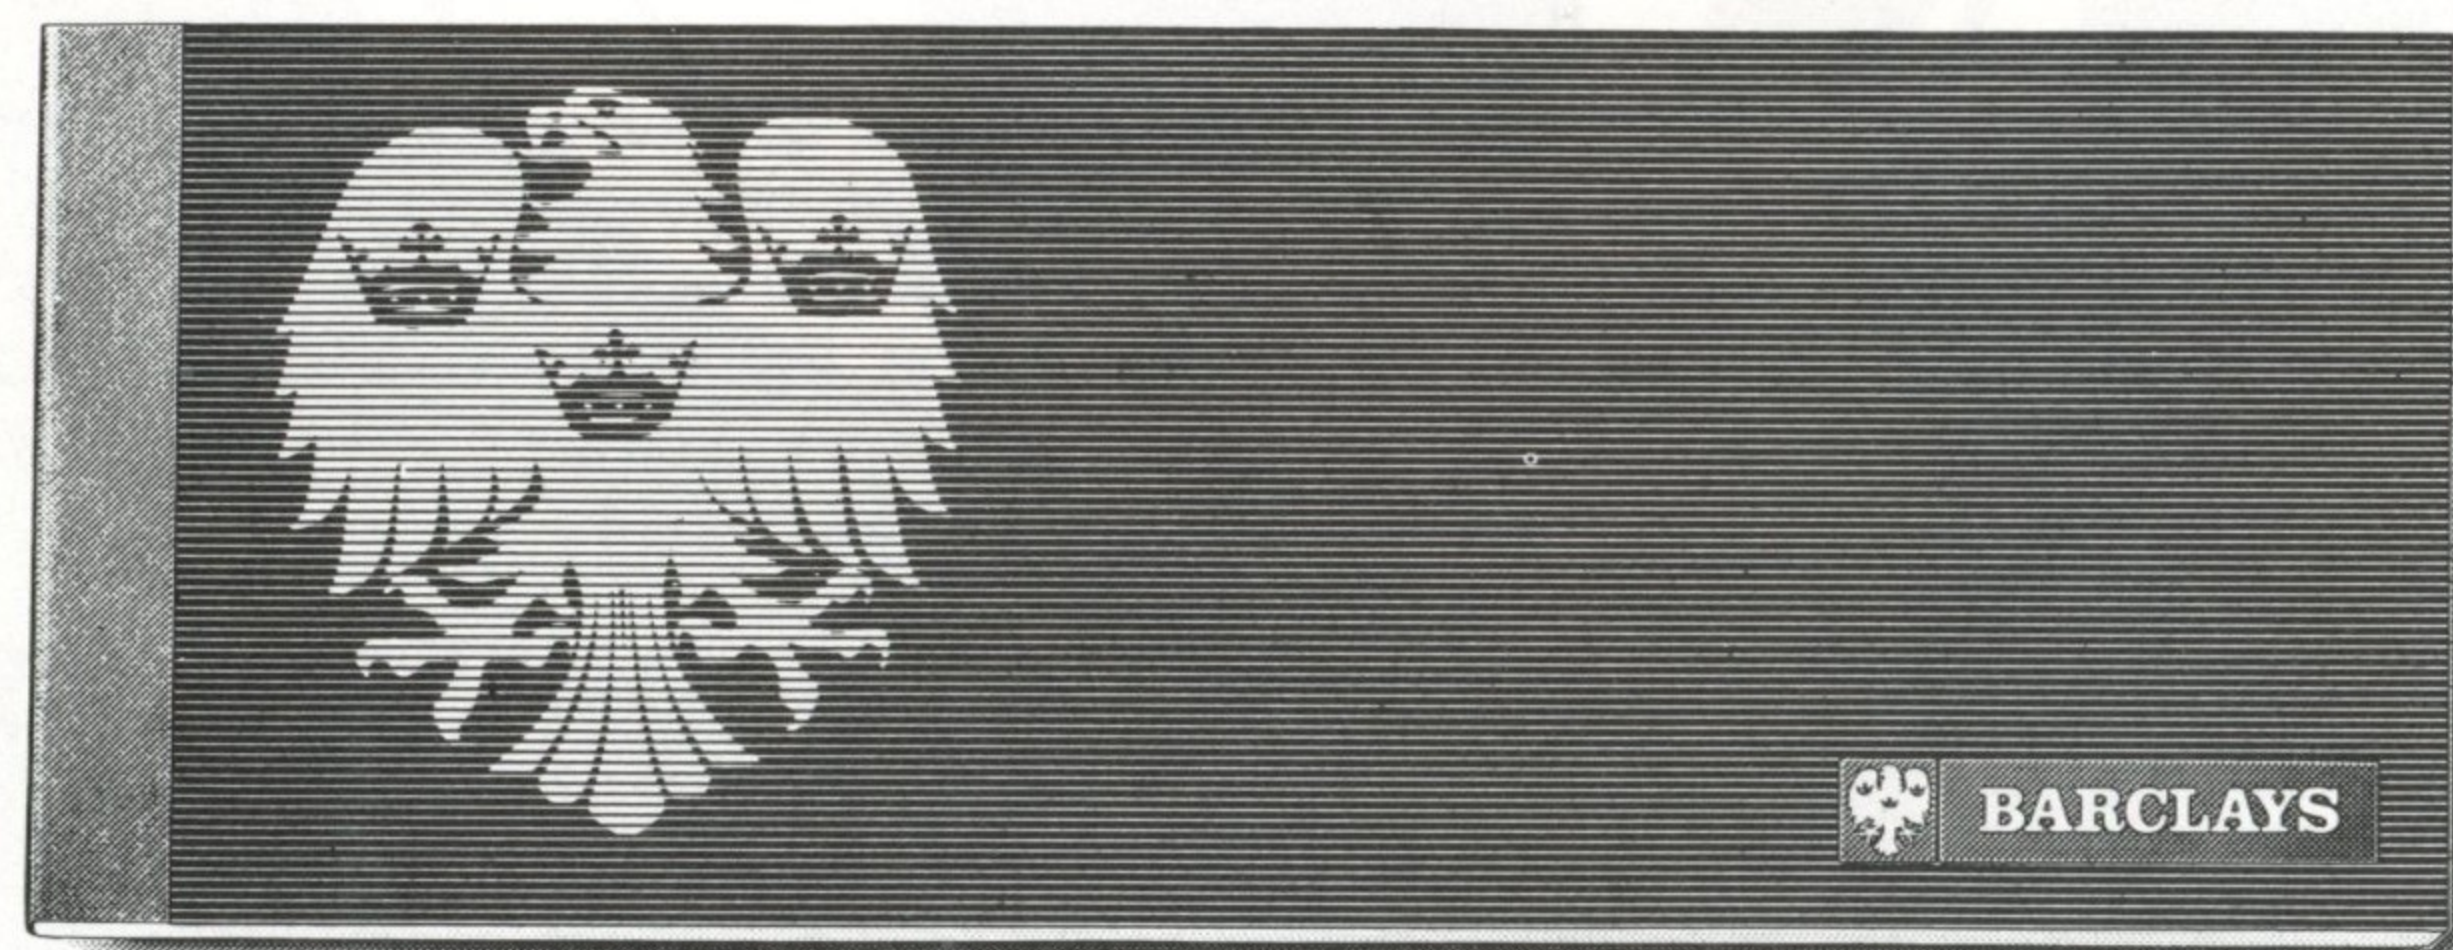

Welshman Neville Southall is regarded as the top goalkeeper in the First Division by his fellow-professionals. That became clear when he was picked as the top number one in the PFA First Division side.

The full team: Southall (Everton), Dixon (Arsenal), Walker (Nottingham Forest), Hansen (Liverpool), Pearce (Nottingham Forest), Platt (Aston Villa), Hodge (Nottingham Forest), McMahon (Liverpool), Barnes (Liverpool), Beardsley (Liverpool) and Lineker (Spurs).

● Mick Harford: Our former striker scored twice for Derby against Millwall last weekend.

CLOSED CIRCUIT TELEVISION

The first televised football match, 1937

Now every Football League ground is equipped with television cameras.

The Football Trust has installed Closed Circuit Television systems at more than 110 British grounds. The cameras have a range of 150 metres and immediate close-up prints can be produced. Within minutes of an incident offenders can be identified and arrested with film made available as evidence in court. CCTV is the most effective anti-hooligan measure inside football grounds and the programme has been extended to include portable systems.

CCTV is only one of The Football Trust's many initiatives. Each year it receives over £9.5 million from the Spotting-the-Ball competition run by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zetters and spends it on projects that benefit all levels of the game throughout the United Kingdom.

OFF THE RECORD

SOUND IN LUTON MEMORIES

Last summer I travelled to Enfield to spend three or four hours in the company of a sprightly old gentleman, well into his 90's, who recounted many tales of his father, the celebrated Bill Julian who not only was the first professional captain of Arsenal but also went to become skipper of Luton in our early days of professionalism, writes Roger Wash.

Bill Julian was born at Boston on July 10th 1866 and at the age of 16 was playing for the "Town" club.

In 1888 following a visit to Boston by Woolwich Arsenal, in a friendly fixture which the home side won 5-2, Julian was asked to play for the London side on promise of work at the munitions factory. He went on to give several good seasons to Arsenal during which time he picked up six medals and became captain at the time the club embraced professionalism. His son also recalled stories of Bill Julian playing against Braden - Powell, who turned out for Chiswick, and also the most famous sportsman of the day C.B. Fry.

Luton Town, who had started paying their players just before those of Arsenal, pulled off one of footballs earliest "deals" by offering more money to Julian to entice him to Bedfordshire in 1892. Luton secretary Isaac Smith carried out the negotiations for this coup but also managed to convince Julian that he should continue to live in Plumstead and work at the munitions factory.

Not only, therefore, were Luton picking up a "star" footballer who would adequately take the place of

IT HAPPENED FIVE YEARS AGO THIS WEEK ...

In a televised Sunday game a last minute goal from Mick Harford secured the points in a 2-1 home win over Manchester United.

IT HAPPENED 10 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK ...

19th April 1980

In a see-saw thriller the Town narrowly lost 1-0 to Birmingham City at St Andrews despite hitting the woodwork on at least five occasions. The defeat effectively meant that promotion could be forgotten about for another season.

the recently departed, popular half-back "Hod" Paul but also no outside job or house had to be provided!

Julian had two seasons at Luton during which time, alongside such players as Arthur Taylor and Hugh Galbraith, the Town boasted one of the strongest sides in the South as confirmed by their 1-0 win at Wembley Park in 1883 against Old Westminsters in the F.A. Cup. It is reported that after this great victory the triumphant team was greeted by a massive crowd of well-wishers at Luton Railway station.

Unfortunately the ploy of Isaac Smith in saving money at Julians expense rebounded, when, after travelling 2604 miles to play in Luton games in 1893/94 the stalwart half-back asked for a transfer and accepted a move back to London to play for Tottenham.

After spells at Dartford and Shepherds Bush, Julian spent six succesful years coaching Haarlem FC of Holland then watching as his son coached Roermondache F.C. to the Dutch championship on two occasions.

Bill Julian retired to Enfield and on his golden wedding anniversary in 1938 appeared on the popular radio programme "In Town Tonight" where he spoke of his life in football. The telegram sent by Luton Town on this occasion is amongst his sons mementoes.

The photograph opposite showing Bill Julian in his Luton Town strip in 1892 hangs in the "marble halls" of Highbury - minus the Luton badge!

ERIC BOWEN

It is with great sadness that I report the recent death of long-time fellow Luton Supporter Eric Bowen at the tragically early age of 46, writes Roger Wash.

Eric had been a Luton Town supporter since 1952 and despite living at Biggin Hill, Kent for the past 12 years still managed to attend all home matches as well as a good number of away games. It was to his great delight that the recent opening of the Thameslink line meant that he could travel from East Croydon to Luton without changing trains!

Eric leaves a widow, Janet, and two teenage sons but will also be sadly missed by the group of us who enjoyed his company for many years in the Bobbers Stand, and latterly the Oak Road Stand.

Saturdays will not be quite the same in future.

WELCOME TO...

ARSENAL

● This afternoon we welcome Arsenal to Kenilworth Road. As the defending league champions and one of the oldest and most respected clubs in the English game, they require little introduction to regular football fans.

● This season, however, has not been a vintage one by Arsenal's high standards and at the time of writing they are fifth in the First Division and struggling to stay in the title race.

● Last weekend, the Gunners were in action in a London derby match at Selhurst Park against F.A. Cup finalists Crystal Palace. The match ended in a 1-1 draw with Martin Hayes opening the scoring after 15 minutes and Andy Gray equalising after 79.

● The Arsenal team for that match was: Lukic, Dixon, Winterburn, Thomas, Bould (Davis 83), Adams, Hayes, O'Leary, Smith, Campbell (Merson 73), Groves.

● The only newcomer to the Arsenal team this season has been Kevin Campbell, a striker who has come through the Highbury youth system, as a trainee. Born in Lambeth, he has impressed on loan to Leyton Orient last season and Leicester City this season.

● Arsenal were formed by workers at the Royal Arsenal, Woolwich, in 1886 when they began as Dial Square, which was the name of one of the workshops, and included two former Nottingham Forest players in their line-ups. One of them, Fred Beardsley, wrote to his old club and they sent a full set of red jerseys and a ball. Hence the club became known as the Woolwich Arsenal Reds.

● George Graham is the current manager of Arsenal and is the club's ninth post-war incumbent of a position made famous in earlier years by the achievements of such men as Leslie Knighton, Herbert Chapman and George Allison.

● A Scottish international inside-forward, Graham is a former Arsenal player and was a member of their double-winning team in 1971 when he was dubbed 'stroller' for his elegant and skilful play. He took charge at Highbury after Don Howe in 1986.

● The ground capacity at Highbury is 57,000. The record attendance of 73,295 was set in 1935 when Arsenal met Sunderland in a First Division match. Record receipts were taken at Highbury in 1988 when Arsenal played Everton in a Littlewoods Cup semi-final - £233,595. They won and met Luton in the final.

● Last season's championship triumph was Arsenal's ninth. They had previously won the trophy in 1931, 1933, 1934, 1935, 1938, 1948, 1953 and 1971. They have also finished runners-up three times and won the F.A. Cup five times and been beaten finalists six times.
