DAVE BASSETT

We had to settle in the end for another point in the fight to stay up. I believe many people went to Wimbledon with pre-determined ideas about the game. It was not a feast of passing and it was never going to be like that. Wimbledon play offside, so do we a bit and it is up to teams to break opposition down.

I doubt if many teams will go to Wimbledon and make as many chances as we did.

THE REAL WORLD

Football has moved on; we are not playing in the Fifties. Many observers don't seem to realise that. They watch the old films on the telly and live in the past. I don't get paid to live in the past; I get paid to live in the days where results matter.

"I don't get paid to live in the past; I get paid to live in the days where results matter"

People have their own idea of fairytale football but they don't always get it. I watched that European Cup match in the week before going to Wimbledon and AC Milan walked off and nothing happened. One tackle by Vinnie Jones gets more headlines than AC Milan walking off or Dresden having the game abandoned. And we are led to believe Europe is the place to play!

I know the fact that Brian Deane taking the penalty took you all by surprise but I have been on to him about it. I wound him up and pointed out that so many people, like John Fashanu, swell their goals total by taking penalty kicks and maybe he should do the same.

Training gear sponsored by

That is the way to increase his value by another million quid.

The Glyn Hodges situation will sort itself out in the next two weeks. By now you will know the result of the disciplinary hearing held by the F.A. in London but that will make no difference to us in the long term.

It looks as if we shall be able to do the deal. It is 90 per cent certain, I would say. Because he is on loan with us we do not have to consider the transfer deadline which came on Thursday.

No one doubts that Glyn has done well enough and he wants to come here. The sweepstake has done well and the directors of the club have backed the move and so unless there is something unforeseen it will go ahead.

SCORE TO SETTLE

This afternoon we meet Luton for the third time this season. We beat them at Kenilworth Road on Boxing Day but lost out to them in the F.A. Cup match here in January, which disappointed me in view of our F.A. Cup exploits over the last two seasons. I am therefore looking for revenge today for that defeat.

Our objective for this season is to stay up and what we must not do and what I will not allow our players to do is to relax until the job is done. Many people in the game, and more amongst those who watch, seem satisfied that the fight is virtually over.

I know better than that. So give us your support today and at Nottingham Forest on Easter Monday. Easter is traditionally a sorting out time at both ends of the table and while it will not settle things mathematically, if we can have as good an Easter as we had at Christmas, things will look good for us all.

A NEW MISS SHEFFIELD UNITED

Two weeks ago 19 year old Nanny Samantha Neale was elected Miss S.U.F.C. at the annual contest in the Executive Suite. It was a close thing with five lovely girls in contention and the winner held off Zoe Woodhead by just 1 point to succeed last year's winner Louise Bartles.

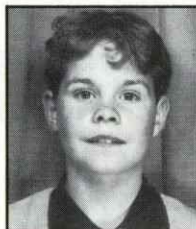

Samantha is a real Blade, stands on the Kop and numbers Bob Booker, John Pemberton and Tony Currie as her favourites (as a youngster it took her a long time to realise that the latter's name wasn't Tony-Tony Currie!)

The winner enjoys 10-pin bowling and dancing but will now have to decide what to do with her prizes which include a Rose Bowl, Woodcock Travel Voucher, Stand Tickets, a Bouquet and Chocolates. Previous winner Louise Bartles is pictured with her successor Samantha receiving the Rose Bowl from John Pemberton.

STANDS TO REASON?

The prestige United would have gained by staging some of the World Student Games soccer matches at Bramall Lane this summer has had to be shelved — in favour of ensuring that the ground has a new look by next season.

Development work on the new Kop will be at such a pitch that safety couldn't be guaranteed for spectators. The schedule worked out by Building Consultants Eastwood and Partners is so tight that a suspension of progress for even a day or two could be critical in avoiding a disruption of the 91-92 season.

The four Student matches were due to be played in mid-July and will now be re-allocated, as well those originally destined for Leeds and Notts County, both of whom have also pulled out for various reasons.

ORDER OF THINGS

The club had initially planned to re-develop the John Street side but the Kop plan is cheaper and will cater for 10,400 fans seated, plus 1,800 standing in the corner between the Kop and John Street — that is already more than the limit now.

As all-seater stadia in the First and Second Division are required by 1994 the standing corner will eventually become a seated one, tying in with the new John Street Stand, whenever that is done (outline planning permission has been approved).

With a possible grant of up to £2 million available it made sense to go for the new Kop which could be done in one summer. When John Street is tackled it will be closed for approximately 18 months meaning a loss of revenue and spectators. More room on the Kop will ease that slightly.

CAPACITIES SLASHED

The maximum attendance has been slashed from 44,000 to 31,000 in two years because standing areas are decreased by one-fifth each year by safety regulations. As Secretary David Capper points out "That means the

FOOTBALL IN THE COMMUNITY

T.C.'s AMERICAN ADVENTURE

A few days after Alan Woodward was back at the Lane visiting with a few friends from adopted home America, his old mate Tony Currie entertained another group over from the States. Guided by Blades fan Gary Armstrong, who is based in London, the group from Maryland were delighted by their visit and the chance to meet a 'legend'!

EASTER SOCCER SCHOOL

T.C. would like to thank everyone who applied for the Soccer School at Easter. There was a fantastic response, all places filled within a week.

Any applications not returned by now have been accepted for the course.

See you all at Gleadless on Tuesday, 2nd April.

● For all those children who couldn't get a place for the above Soccer School, there will be another course held during the two weeks at Spring.

Details to follow shortly.

FAREWELL BILLY — HELLO ANDY

Big Billy Whitehurst's recent free transfer to Doncaster Rovers brought to a close a short but often entertaining and lively spell at the Lane.

The much travelled striker, still only 31, always gave value for money with determination and aggression — defenders always knew he was around!

Billy Whitehurst — in typical cavalier style.

STANDING PROBLEM

"Unfortunately, with only 1,800 standing on the Kop and 2,500 on the Terrace the demand will outstrip the places available — we already have almost 7,000 Season Ticket Holders for those areas so standing up will be by ticket only.

KOP WITH A VIEW!

The roof on the Kop will be dismantled immediately after the Spurs game on 20th April so supporters on there for the final match versus Norwich will be in the open air!

There will be no safety problems at this stage as the work going on will be mainly behind the actual Kop, preparing for the re-shaping, building of new refreshment bars, toilets etc.

Let's hope for a fine day and a momentous send-off for the team and the Kop as we know it.

Signed by United for £30,000 midway through last season to provide competition up front, he scored twice in fourteen appearances (against wolves and Watford at the Lane).

This season he made only three full league appearances, plus five as substitute, and gave Manchester City a hard time in the Zenith Data Systems tie.

Fittingly his last goal was the winner in a 2-1 victory over Manchester United Reserves. Billy might not have been a prolific scorer but he certainly got himself noticed.

Doncaster have already taken a liking to him and he just might give them a nudge towards promotion.

Andy Sayer's arrival this week on loan from Orient strengthens both the squad and Dave Bassett's colony of ex-Wimbledon players. The move came as a surprise but with Tony Agana still not fit for a return and the suspension of Glyn Hodges on the cards it was obvious that cover was needed.

Although relatively slight for a striker — 5'9" and 10 st. 12 lbs. — Andy flourished under Bassett at Plough Lane, scoring 15 goals in 58 games before being sold to Fulham for £80,000. An almost identical scoring rate brought a £70,000 move to Orient for whom he scored once in 10 games last season.

Andy got off the mark quickly for United finding the net in the 3-2 defeat at Everton Reserves on Tuesday.

● Paul Wood's loan spell at Bournemouth has been extended for a further match.

● Mark Todd had an awkward start at Wolves who went 3-0 up in no time against Oxford. The visitors pulled one back, then added two more in the closing seconds to snatch a draw from certain defeat. Toddy sustained an injury which threatened to interrupt his loan period.

● Peter Duffield has scored once for Rotherham so far as they struggle to avoid the drop into the Fourth Division.

● Ex-Blades David Frain and Paul Williams were both on the mark in midweek as Stockport continue to go well, and Frain was included in the players choice of the best Fourth Division team.

The clock captures the moment when Ian Bryson scored his second successive match winner for United and perhaps indicated that Sunderland's time in the top flight is running short. In a tense and competitive six-pointer the Blades extracted revenge for the unlucky home defeat inflicted by the North-East club before Christmas — but there was a price. The Glyn Hodges incident has been well documented and in some ways has overshadowed the sending-off of John Gannon. A second-half flare-up with old adversary Kevin Ball resulted in both being dismissed and this is a tragic blow for John who was in good form, holding a place and now having to sit out for three games while his team-mates continue the battle. Missing last week's return to Wimbledon will have been a bitter blow. Skipper Vinnie Jones, pictured below with John, escaped with a one-match ban after his dismissal at Manchester City.

'Flashing Blade' has helped the Glyn Hodges for United cause by purchasing £500 of GRAND NATIONAL SWEEPSTAKE TICKETS. Editor Matthew Bell is pictured making this generous gesture to Dave Bassett at the Lane recently.

Hello, welcome to you all including our visitors today from Luton. Our last meeting saw the end of our interest in the F.A. Cup, but hopefully today will see the result in our favour, then all will be forgiven, but whatever the final score, I hope you all enjoy the game.

Unfortunately, due to being on holiday last week I am writing these notes before the game at Wimbledon so I cannot comment on the result there!

STAINROD TURNS ON THE STYLE

SHEFFIELD UNITED 4

(Stainrod 2, Speight, Woodward)

LUTON TOWN 1

(Calvert own goal)

League Division Two

25th March, 1978

Attendance: 12,587

United: Brown, Cutbush, Calvert, Speight, Franks, Flynn, Woodward, Keeley, Campbell, Hamson, Stainrod. Luton Town: Knight, Price, Carr, Hill, Jones, P. Fletcher, Stein, West, R. Fletcher, Fuccillo, Boersma. Substitute: Nicholls for Hill 75 mins.

By Easter 1978 the Blades were hovering just above the relegation zone in Division Two. On Good Friday, United lost 2-0 at Fulham despite creating the best scoring chances. Striker Bobby Campbell was guilty of missing four clear opportunities.

United manager, Harry Haslam, who had been appointed in late January, decided to keep an unchanged team for the visit of his previous club, Luton Town this Easter Saturday. Haslam was concerned about the poor finishing against Fulham and he had spoken to Campbell; "I have spoken to the lad about his finishing and he knows what he must do."

Luton were renowned as an attractive footballing team with a strong midfield consisting of Ricky Hill, Alan West and Lil Fuccillo. They were managed by Haslam's former Chief Coach, David Pleat... who had declined to follow Haslam to the Lane. Although they were in 7th position in the league, their promotion chances had almost disappeared by Easter.

THREE UP IN FIRST HALF

On a very muddy surface with accompanying heavy rain United produced one of their best performances of the season with young striker Simon Stainrod having a particularly outstanding game.

It was STAINROD who opened the scoring with a superb finishing shot in the 21st minute after a move involving Cliff Calvert and Alan Woodward. Stainrod then supplied the 38th minute cross for MICK SPEIGHT to head home United's second goal. Three minutes later, STAINROD added goal number three and shortly afterwards should have completed his hat-trick but he was foiled by the muddy pitch. He rounded the keeper and rolled the ball towards goal and was turning to celebrate the goal but the ball stopped in a pool of water on the goal-line and a Luton defender cleared the ball.

In the second half, United increased their lead when ALAN WOODARD headed home a Gary Hamson cross. It looked like United were to reverse the 4-0 defeat they had suffered at the hands of Luton back in December when United defender CLIFF CALVERT registered a goal, unfortunately in the wrong net! Perhaps because of the muddy conditions he decided to hit his back-pass more firmly than usual. The result was a superb chip over Jim Brown from at least 20 yards to give Luton a consolation goal.

"Chief Coach, David Pleat... had declined to follow Haslam to the Lane"

While United's forwards took credit for their finishing, goalkeeper Jim Brown pulled off some good saves at crucial times to ensure United obtained two valuable points to distance themselves from the relegation zone. One save from Alan West was particularly outstanding.

INSIDE INFORMATION?

Haslam was proud that his knowledge of Luton's style of play had reaped dividends:

"I knew if we could shut their motor off we could win and we certainly did it. West and Hill never had a look in and Ron Fletcher was struggling all the time."

United's Easter finished as it had begun with an away defeat in London, this time at Orient on Easter Monday. However, by the end of the season United had avoided the drop to the Third Division and finished in 12th position, one place above Luton. Luton had a terrible end to the season winning only one of their last seven games.

LOSING RUN PUTS LUTON IN TROUBLE AGAIN

A sequence of three successive defeats has plunged Luton right back into relegation danger again. This, after morale-boosting victories over Liverpool and Nottingham Forest had suggested that the Hatters were pulling themselves clear of trouble.

Sadly, it now seems that Luton will once again be involved in a battle for First Division survival. They were only saved on goal-difference because Sheffield Wednesday lost their last game at home to Forest. Manager Jim Ryan will be hoping he doesn't have to suffer a similar trauma this year.

Lars Elstrup, top scorer with 16 goals in all games, has partnered Iain Dowie in attack for much of the season but Sean Farrell is now challenging strongly for one of these positions. Mark Pembroke, Dave Beaumont, David Preece and Kingsley Black have been operating in midfield.

Graham Rodger has recently been called into the centre of defence where he has been partnered by John Dreyer but the versatile Darren McDonough has played both in the middle of the defence and at left-back. Julian James and Richard Harvey have also filled the left-back spot.

Marvin Johnson has settled at right-back in front of ever-present goalkeeper Alec Chamberlain.

The Hatters won at Southampton (2-1), Norwich (3-1) and Aston Villa (2-1) and drew at Nottingham Forest (2-2) but they were beaten in all their other away league matches at Arsenal (1-2), Q.P.R. (1-6), Sunderland (0-2), Derby (1-2), Liverpool (0-4), Crystal Palace (0-1), Tottenham (1-2), Wimbledon (0-2), Leeds (1-2), Manchester City (0-3), Coventry (1-2) and Manchester United (1-4).

The Hatters took an early exit from the Rumbelows League Cup. After drawing at Bradford City (1-1), the tie ended 2-2 on aggregate. Luton then lost 2-5 on penalties to the Third Division side.

They won here at Bramall Lane (3-1) in the third round of the F.A. Cup but, after being held to 1-1 at home by Second Division West Ham at the next stage, they crashed out to the Hammers 0-5 in the Upton Park replay.

Luton had earlier defeated West Ham 5-1 at Kenilworth Road in the Zenith Data Systems Cup, then drew at Chelsea (1-1) in the next round. They won that tie on penalties but ultimately bowed out in the Southern semi-final at Crystal Palace (1-3).

IN YOUR VIEW

BAD TASTE!

During those horrific weeks of killing and destruction in the Gulf war, I have been fortunate to have been able to push it to the back of my mind for 90 minutes each week whilst watching United.

By the law of averages, some supporters of the club will have been directly involved in the war. That was their choice. But I found it offensive to see one of them in the pages of the match day programme, (16 March), dressed in army regalia and toting a gun. When, on closer examination, I notice that the photograph is on the so-called "Family Page," I find that obscene. Is this the example we should be setting for our children?

Trevor Twigg, West Yorkshire

Editor: An interesting point but one I must disagree with, both in the context of the pictures and the spirit in which they were included — as Blades fans (perhaps with brothers and sisters who could be mascots) at their place of work. They were not pictures of war.

PARADISE LOST — AND FOUND!

I was gratified to receive by post my house keys which I lost on the Kop in 'my frenzy' after we won against Manchester United on 26th February. Someone sent the keys to the Sentinel address in Hertfordshire and from there they were despatched to me.

BLADES FANS-TASTIC!

Dear Mr. Capper,
On Saturday, 23rd February, 1991, Sheffield United Football Club were visitors at Goodison Park, for the League Division 1 game against Everton. Your team received tremendous support from their followers with almost 4,000 fans making the journey to Liverpool.

As the Police Football Match Commander I am delighted to say that the behaviour of all your supporters was exemplary and they were a credit to your Club and your City. All my senior supervising Officers made favourable comments about the Sheffield United supporters, and I hope they are able to enjoy First Division status for a long time as your recent results suggest.

It was a pleasure to police a trouble free football match, and I look forward to similar successful events involving your Club in the future.

Yours sincerely, D. A. Wright,
Superintendent (Deputy) Merseyside Police.

Opinion Line, interviews, travel etc., — there is a brand new competition running throughout the season —

"Already, CCTV has had a major impact on the hooligan problem inside football grounds as well as proving extremely useful to monitor safety measures. If any trouble appears on the screen or is reported from any quarter of the ground, the CCTV can zoom in on the incident. The police can then record what occurs on colour video and on hard copy prints. Individuals can be picked out by facial appearance and the colour of their clothing. The evidential effect of such a video recording has proved formidable. It has persuaded hooligans, who would previously have sought to challenge oral evidence of identification, to plead guilty. Hooligans know cameras are keeping a roving watch and their activities in the ground are inhibited by that knowledge."

THE HOYLAND LINE

£250,000 summer signing JAMIE HOYLAND would have walked the Pennine route from Bury to join United's return to the First Division. Father Tommy had 13 years in total at the Lane so a move to his beloved Blades was in many ways the perfect ending for the youngster who had been a ball boy here before embarking on a professional career elsewhere. Pen was put to paper with minimum fuss and Jamie and Blades fans alike looked forward to the powerful goal-scoring midfielder blossoming onto the big stage. In reality it has been a disappointing season. Mishaps and injuries have dogged him and prevented us seeing just what he is capable of but the optimistic 25 year old has persistently displayed the resilience to come back stronger.

Jamie was the third and youngest of Tommy's sons to show early promise although Dad was quite happy to let things take their course without parental pressure. He had been a honest, hard working wing-half in the days before the abolition of the maximum wage so the accent was very definitely on enjoying and pride rather than financial gain.

Andrew and Graham both played in Sheffield Wednesday's Youth team with Andrew gaining England Youth honours before joining the teaching profession, whilst the latter almost made the big time and is currently playing with Matlock Town.

RESERVES WHILST AT SCHOOL

The potential the youngest had shown at an early age — he was a big lad even at 8 or 9 in the Cub's team — continued at Jordanthorpe School with regular calls to play in Manchester City's Reserve side. Why there you might ask? "They were a good, big club certainly, but I felt as though it would be an opportunity to develop without the constant comparisons that would be made if I'd been at my Dad's old team, even though I was a real Unitedite. I had to get away from that pressure — and Malcolm Alison, no less, signed me as a Schoolboy!"

He broke into the first team as a centre-forward at just 17, scoring as substitute in a big cup win over Torquay, and then facing an experienced Derby County, with Dave Watson at the back, in the Second Division. That was followed by three England Youth Caps, the captaincy of the Reserves and a temporary move to centre-half which lasted for a season and a half.

Things were going well, but on his recall to the first team against Oldham, a Steve Hoolickin challenge damaged his lateral ligament and it was a long, hard summer getting back to fitness. No sooner had Jamie made the reserves by the end of the year, tragedy struck again with a cartilage problem on the same knee and a second operation had to be faced.

MAINE ROAD EXIT

It had fallen apart for the youngster and it was no real surprise to him that, following city's signings of Mark Lillis and Nigel Johnson, he was released. "Naturally I was disappointed after such a start and I was bitter, but eventually you look back and it fades — I appreciate that City were worried about my ability to shake off the injuries and Manager Billy McNeil had to build a team for the future.

With encouragement from City scout Ken Barnes, Jamie looked at the offers and joined Third division Bury whose manager Martin Dobson built a side which played neat football in his own image. a two year contract gave Jamie security and breathing space when he needed it and four good years at Gigg Lane was the result. "Although Bury only played in front of small gates we had some good young players. Bringing them on and selling them to stay afloat was Dobson's policy, and it was he that suggested I try a midfield role. It took some time to get accustomed to, especially when you consider I was still inexperienced as a league player."

"Bringing them on and selling them to stay afloat was Dobson's policy"

"In my second season it started to click, I scored a few goals and we had a great Littlewood's Cup run including a two legged victory over United!" Jamie omitted to mention that he scored a header in the 2-1 home win. He also notched a celebrated goal at Old Trafford in the televised game which put Bury out rather unluckily by the odd goal.

With players such as Sammy McIlroy being a "great Influence" Jamie went from strength to strength and other clubs began to take notice. New boss Sam Ellis soon nipped that in the bud so it was another season with Bury who made the play-offs only to lose out to Tranmere.

TIME WAS RIGHT

This time Jamie was out of contract and determined to leave and strike out for the higher grade of soccer he felt equipped for — he had missed only two games through injury and two through suspension in his four years at Bury, ending his last one as top scorer with 16 league goals from midfield!

Wolves were on the verge of signing him when Dave Bassett wipped in with an offer to bring him to the Lane and complete the family link. Overjoyed at the prospect he agreed immediately.

He knew then that United's style would not, perhaps, permit him to get forward as often but the lure of the red and white shirt was irresistible — "I would have played anywhere. Against Liverpool, though, Simon's injury just summed the season up. Things went from bad to worse for me and the team. At Derby in the second match my shin got infected and the poison had to be cut out, sidelining me for six weeks.

"When I came back at Yeovil in a friendly I had the worse 45 minutes of my career and when, in the Reserves against Newcastle, I was terrible again the boss had me in to ask what was wrong. My confidence had dipped but Dave encouraged me to try things differently and put me in the first team at Manchester United the following Saturday! That was a boost and I eventually got a run together which coincided with the team's upsurge in results."

The only thing missing was the goals and I can't explain why. Maybe it's the style or the role but I'm sure they'll come eventually, especially if I get back in the side when they do as well as they have been lately."

BEST STILL TO COME

More knee trouble at Manchester City of all places cost him his place after an excellent first half display, and Jamie is desperate to rejoin the action now that the team is winning — "the boys are covering each other's mistakes, although we are only playing to the same principles of play as we were when we were losing."

He has found First Division teams to be very professional, especially good at exploiting opposition mistakes but feels some players live off their reputations. United's growing confidence reflects this theory as the team has realised they have little to fear — "if we can stay up I think we'll comfortably survive next season and be stronger because of this season's battles.

Things haven't been easy for Jamie — injuries, car stolen, loss of form — but Dad Tommy must have passed on some spirit to him and he'll be back. Confidence is the key for he undoubtedly has the all round game to serve United equally as well. Dad appreciates that a footballer's lot has changed so much; Jamie's wife, Ursula, is an Air Hostess so holidays to exotic places — Hong Kong, Kenya etc. — are on the list of priorities, plus country walks with his dog Solomon. Tommy played for less than £20 a week, runs a pub in Sheffield and still thinks he's had the best deal!

LOOKING BACK

MANAGEMENT

I wonder if any of the players we see today will eventually manage a Football League club? 'Not if I can help it,' I can imagine most of them would say.

Star quality as a player is certainly no criterion for success in management as a look at a list of former English internationals with over fifty caps to their credit would show. Consider the managerial record of Bobby Moore, Bobby Charlton, Billy Wright, Alan Ball, Emlyn Hughes, Martin Peters and Stanley Matthews, while other great players such as Tom Finney, Gordon Banks, Ray Wilson, Johnny Haynes, Kevin Keegan, Jimmy Greaves and our own Ernest Needham had perhaps more sense than to try their hand in management.

I've been looking at former United players who became managers, including one or two with clubs before they became members of the Football League. How many do you think you could name? Perhaps you might wish to make up your own list after today's game and then check it against mine. You may have remembered one or two that I have forgotten for I don't claim that my list is necessarily complete.

A question of a referee's eyesight and the trip to Nottingham occupy DAVE WICKETT'S thoughts this afternoon.

The match at Wimbledon was not expected to be one for the football purist and that was just the way it turned out. Blades fans in their thousands boosted the crowd to over 7,000 but even with this support United failed to meet the form of recent matches and so could not equal their 77 year old record of successive First Division victories. As Dave Bassett was quoted as saying "It wasn't a classic — obviously it wasn't a feast of passing. The midfielders both got back ache and neck ache." Wimbledon dropped their short players, replacing them with taller players in an attempt to match United's long ball game, but their manager Ray Hartford was quite honest in admitting that United had the better of the match.

ARE YOU BLIND, REF?

The talking point was, of course, the last minute handball by Fashanu seen, it would appear, by everyone in the ground except the referee and linesman. United players were furious, Hartford freely admitted he thought it was a penalty and the Blades fans felt robbed.

To quote the Sunday Times reporter Deryk Brown (who is a Blades fan) "They [United] should have won; indeed they were robbed. In the last minute we saw the clearest of handballs, by Fashanu in his own penalty area. Mr. Durkin and his linesman, otherwise impeccable, were momentarily blind. It has been a wretched season for referees: what ails them?" What indeed, we may well ask. Just when Blades fans thought that their luck was turning, particularly when United gained only their second penalty of the season, this happens, and in the last minute as well.

Apart from this episode there was little else of consequence to talk about. A point at least allowed United's unbeaten run to continue, maintained their league position and drew them further away from Derby, Sunderland and Luton.

Some United fans again commented on the change of strip, why not red and white stripes against Wimbledon's blue? Is it just to boost the sales of yellow balloons?

LONG AWAITED RETURN

On Easter Monday United are making the short trip to the County Ground at Nottingham, and by account of ticket sales will take well over five thousand fans. United have travelled to the City of Nottingham a lot in recent years, but always to play County. It was in 1976 that we last played at Forest and it wasn't a happy occasion with the outcome being a 6-1 thrashing with Terry Curran being one of the main architects of our defeat.

That was a Second Division match. United's last First Division match there being a 3-2 victory during their magnificent winning spell upon returning to the division in 1971.

The County ground has undergone many improvements during the past few years and hopefully we should encounter better facilities than those of our recent visits to Wimbledon and Sunderland, both of whom offer facilities that are truly woeful and well below what fans have the right to expect in the top division in the nineteen nineties.

WINNING DOUBLE?

The match gives United a second chance, the first being today, of competing the double over a team, and also staying above Forest in the league. This is something that could hardly have been contemplated before our match against them at the Lane, when, without a league win we were seventeen points behind them. As is so often said, football's a funny old game.

OFF THE PEG

by Brian Deane

For the 3,000 plus Sheffield United fans in the crowd of just over 7,000 at Plough Lane, Wimbledon, last week the biggest surprise was to see their favourite, Brian Deane, step up to take the vital penalty.

Most had expected Ian Bryson, Glyn Hodges or maybe Carl Bradshaw to take the kick but instead Hodges spoke to Deane and the big man obliged.

He said afterwards:

“The manager has been on to me for a time about taking penalties. He asked me to look at the leading scorers in the First Division and see how many penalties they had taken, Gary Lineker of Tottenham was a case in point.

Everyone knows I had not taken a penalty for Sheffield United since I have been here and it has never bothered me because we had reliable people to put them away. But I had not taken one for Doncaster Rovers, my previous club, either and so this was my very first in league football.

I knew I was on penalties but I wasn't bothered when the award was given. But Glyn Hodges gave me a mental push and told me to get on with it and fortunately for me Hans Segers dived the wrong way.

I was happy to see it go in because on the day before, in training, I had taken one — and hit it a long way over the bar.

Like the other boys I think we should have had second penalty when John Fashanu handled in the last minute. Whether I would have taken that one, I don't know but I guess the boys would have made me do it.

I am just happy to have got over the first hurdle and scored one more First Division goal. But I suppose that means that the next penalty is mine as well, maybe at Bramall Lane.”

INTO DROP ZONE

A new formation, a strong side and even inexperienced opposition were not enough to prevent us falling into a relegation spot following the 1-1 draw at Newcastle over two weeks ago. With the Wolves game last week being postponed others have improved their position so now we must make the most of games in hand. Kit man JOHN GRAVES was at St. James Park and his thoughts are recounted.

Although this was a game of few chances United certainly ought to have made more of their superiority in setting up opportunities. Newcastle were a young, bright and busy combination who moved about quickly without ever really threatening to disturb our defence.

United used a new system with Hoyland sweeping behind Pemberton — back after injury — and Lucas. This enabled Ward and Whitehouse to push forward from full-back regularly which they did to good effect, producing a series of excellent crosses.

Tony Agana again looked sharp, Brian Marwood worked hard all night, and Jamie Hoyland was assured at the heart of defence. Still, by half-time we hadn't made quality count.

After the break United livened up, got players forward more and the pressure paid off with a goal on 55 minutes. Marwood knocked a free-kick into Agana's feet from where it was played out to the overlapping Whitehouse. His pinpoint cross found JAMIE HOYLAND who powered in an unstoppable header from 12 yards — quite the best bit of football all night.

Kite was almost redundant apart from dealing with huge kicks from his opposite number. A comfortable victory was on the cards until seven minutes from time when the tactic paid off. Centre forward Harvey got his toe to one on the edge of the box and the ball spewed up and over an astonished Phil Kite for a rather fluky leveller.

Coach Geoff Taylor was pleased with the overall performance of the team which was better than of late but we were reminded painfully of the old soccer adage that it only takes a second to score a goal!

BOYS DEFY LOGIC!

The Halifax win under their belt, the Juniors faced high flying Middlesbrough and then lowly Darlington within the space of four days. Hopes were high for a win but our youngsters turned logic on its head by defeating third placed Boro 2-0 and then dipping 0-1 to the team below themselves in the table. Recent improvement though has seen our lads climb off that dreaded bottom spot.

Middlesbrough were clearly shocked by United's improvement from the side hammered 7-0 in the earlier fixture — the visitors were kept behind for a 20 minute inquest on the pitch and again in the dressing room.

United started well showing good understanding in all departments despite fielding a trialist and schoolboys. They had most of the possession in the first half and dominated the game, coping well with a few Middlesbrough counter-attacks.

Only quality in the final area was missing from our boys as they developed many controlled attacks and also pressurised the visitors into giving their own possession away.

It was almost an hour before the deserved break came following a patient move down the right involving Cherrill, Dickerson, Harrison and ROBERTS — the latter chipped the ball round the keeper into the opposite top corner for a very rewarding goal.

Further chances were created but none taken until the 76th minute. Fickling headed on Cherrill's corner and STEVE CIRCUIT arrived late at the far side to shoot low into the net.

This was satisfying indeed — the youngsters played with confidence and, though Circuit and Morris were dominant at the back, there were good performances in midfield with Jamie Evans being positive and aggressive throughout.

Tuesday 12th March Northern Intermediate League UNITED 2 MIDDLESBROUGH 0

Scorers: Roberts (57), Circuit (76).
United: Godwin, Fickling, Cope (Wainwright 80), Roddis, Morris, Circuit, Harrison, Cherrill, Dickerson (Brocklehurst 55), Roberts, Evans.

We expected to, and should have, beaten Darlington but one defensive lapse lost us the game in the 15th minute. Kent's throw-in to Circuit, level with our own penalty area, should have been safe enough but the latter unluckily lost control of his feet and a subsequent hurried pass led to a goal.

In the opening first-half Darlington were physically strong and United made the mistake of trying to play too many passes on a heavy, tacky surface.

A change of tactic brought a more compromising attitude and plenty of attacks. Excellent work from Brocklehurst should have led to his team-mates getting on the score-sheet but the game slipped away from United in a disappointing defeat.

Saturday 16th March Northern Intermediate League DARLINGTON 1 UNITED 0

United: Godwin, Kent (Butterfield 45), Cope, Roddis, Morris, Circuit, Harrison, Cherrill, Dickerson (Brocklehurst 50), Roberts, Evans.

UNITED 1... CHELSEA 0

Beasant is put off by Ooh-Aah's challenge, Bryson does the rest for the third game in a row and it's seven successive wins for the rampant Blades.

Like Sunderland the week before, though, this was a hard-earned victory earned late in the game and none battled harder than Bob Booker, recalled in place of the suspended Vinnie Jones. Below he stretches to control the ball before Alan Dickens, and then miscues an effort at goal after a centre took a quick deflection. Fittingly it all came right in the end for the fan's favourite non-stop trier.

HODGES HIT FOR SIX — United's survival bid received the expected blow of a heavy suspension for Glyn Hodges last Wednesday — the F.A. fined him £1,000 and banned him for six games commencing on Monday, 8th April.

His indiscretion at Sunderland means he will miss the rest of this season, starting with the game at Q.P.R., and the first of next — hopefully still with United and, even more importantly, still in the First Division. His loan here has done much to give United a chance and it will be hard to take if one moment's action undoes all the good work.

But Glyn hasn't done all the work himself, the team has the opportunity to finish the job without him and prove it.

IT'S A FACT

10 GOAL HERO

On Easter Monday, 13th April, 1936, Luton Town were at home to Bristol Rovers in a Division Three (South) game. It was a cold and wet day and around 13,000 turned up to find that, due to injuries, Luton had picked 22 year-old Joe Payne at centre-forward. Joe was a reserve half-back and had never played at centre-forward in the first team. However, the young man from Bolsover went on to make history. After a tentative start he scored in the 23rd minute and just before halftime he scored his second and Luton's third. By the end of the game Joe Payne had scored 10 goals (three with his head and seven shots — including one from outside the penalty area whilst on the floor!). Luton won 12-0 and 54 years later Joe Payne's individual league goal scoring record has yet to be broken.

MILLERS MISS OUT — JUST!

On 30 April 1955, the top of Division 2 stood Luton 54 points, Birmingham 52, Rotherham 52. Birmingham and Rotherham had one game left. Birmingham had a much better goal average and needed only to win their final game to overhaul Luton. Rotherham needed to win 16-0 to pass the 'Hatters'. On the Monday Rotherham beat Liverpool 6-1 at Millmoor (Birmingham had drawn 2-2 at Anfield on the Saturday), ensuring promotion for Luton. However, Birmingham took the Championship on the Wednesday by winning 5-1 at Doncaster (Luton had won 3-0 at Doncaster on the Saturday). This was the first time Birmingham had been on top of the table that season. This is the only time that the top three clubs, in any Division, have finished equal on points — and our neighbours Rotherham were the club to miss out!
